7 And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD unto his place, to the oracle of the house, into the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubims :

8 For the cherubims spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark and the staves thereof above.

9 And they drew out the staves of the ark, that the ends of the staves were seen from the ark before the oracle, but they were not seen without. And || there it is unto this day.

12 ^gAlso the Levites which were the singers, all of them of Asaph, of Heman, of Jeduthun, with their sons and their brethren, being arrayed in white linen, having cymbals, and psalteries, and harps, stood at the east end of the altar, ^hand with them an hundred and twenty priests sounding with trumpets ;)

13 It came even to pass, as the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the LORD, and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets, and cymbals, and instruments of musick, and praised the LORD, saying, ⁱFor he is good ; for his mercy endureth for ever : that then the house was filled with a cloud, even the house of the LORD ;

1 Solomon, having blessed the people, blesseth God : 12 his prayer at the consecration of the temple.

THEN ^asaid Solomon, THE LORD hath said that he would dwell in the ^bthick darkness.

2 But I have built an house of habitation for thee, and a place for thy dwelling for ever.

3 And the king turned his face, and blessed the whole congregation of Israel : (and all the congregation of Israel stood :)

4 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who hath with his hands fulfilled that which he spake with his mouth to my father David, saying,

5 Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt, I chose no city among all the tribes of Israel to build an house in, that my name might be there ; neither chose I any man to be a ruler over my people Israel :

6 But ^cI have chosen Jerusalem, that my name might be there ; and ^dhave chosen David to be over my people Israel.

7 Now, ^eit was in the heart of David my father to build an house for the name of the LORD God of Israel :

8 But the LORD said to David my father, Forasmuch as it was in thine heart to build an house for my name, thou didst well in that it was in thine heart :

9 Notwithstanding thou shalt not build the house ; but thy son, which shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house for my name.

10 The LORD therefore hath performed his word that he hath spoken ; for I am risen up in the room of David my father, and am set on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built the house for the name of the LORD God of Israel :

11 And in it have I put the ark, ^fwherein is the covenant of the LORD, that he made with the children of Israel.

12 ¶ And he stood before the altar of the LORD, in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands,

13 (For Solomon had made a brasen scaffold of five cubits [†]long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court ; and upon it he stood, and kneeled down upon his knees before all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven,)

14 And said, O LORD God of Israel, ^gthere is no God like thee in the heaven, nor in the earth ; which keepest covenant, and shewest mercy unto thy servants that walk before thee with all their hearts :

15 ^hThou which hast kept with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him ; and spakest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as it is this day.

17 Now then, O LORD God of Israel, let thy word be verified, which thou hast spoken unto thy servant David.

18 (But will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth? ¹Behold, heaven, and the heaven of heavens, cannot contain thee; how much less this house which I have built!)

19 Have respect therefore to the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to hearken unto the cry and the prayer which thy servant prayeth before thee:

20 That thine eyes may be open upon this house day and night, upon the place whereof thou hast said that thou wouldest put thy name there; to hearken unto the prayer which thy servant prayeth || toward this place.

21 Hearken therefore unto the supplications of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, which they shall † make toward this place: hear thou from thy dwelling-place, even from heaven; and when thou hearest, forgive.

23 Then hear thou from heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, by requiting the wicked, by recompensing his way upon his own head; and by justifying the righteous, by giving him according to his righteousness.

24 ¶ And if thy people Israel || be put to the worse before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee; and shall return and confess thy name, and pray and make supplication before thee || in this house:

25 Then hear thou from the heavens, and forgive the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again unto the land which thou gavest to them, and to their fathers.

26 ¶ When the ^mheaven is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee; yet if they pray toward this place, and confess thy name, and turn from their sin, when thou dost afflict them:

27 Then hear thou from heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, when thou hast taught them the good way wherein they should walk; and send rain upon thy land, which thou hast given unto thy people for an inheritance.

28 ¶ If there ⁿbe dearth in the land, if there be pestilence, if there be blasting, or mildew, locusts, or caterpillars; if their enemies besiege them † in the cities of their land; whatsoever sore, or whatsoever sickness, there be:

29 Then what prayer, or what supplication soever shall be made of any man, or of all thy people Israel, when every one shall know his own sore, and his own grief, and shall spread forth his hands || in this house:

30 Then hear thou from heaven thy dwelling-place, and forgive, and render unto every man according unto all his ways, whose heart thou knowest; (for thou only ^oknowest the hearts of the children of men:)

31 That they may fear thee, to walk in thy ways † so long as they live † in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers.

32 ¶ Moreover, concerning the stranger, ^pwhich is not of thy people Israel, but is come from a far country for thy great name's sake, and thy mighty hand, and thy stretched-out arm; if they come and pray in this house:

33 Then hear thou from the heavens, even from thy dwelling-place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for; that all people of the earth may know thy name, and fear thee, as doth thy people Israel; and may know that † this house, which I have built, is called by thy name.

34 ¶ If thy people go out to war against their enemies by the way that thou shalt send them, and they pray unto thee toward this city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name:

35 Then hear thou from the heavens their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their || cause.

36 ¶ If they sin against thee, (for there is ^qno man which sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them over before their enemies, and † they carry them away captives unto a land far off or near;

carried captive, and turn and pray unto thee in the land of their captivity, saying, We have sinned, we have done amiss, and have dealt wickedly;

38 If they return to thee with all their heart, and with all their soul, in the land of their captivity, whither they have carried them captives, and pray toward their land, which thou gavest unto their fathers, and toward the city which thou hast chosen, and toward the house which I have built for thy name:

39 Then hear thou from the heavens, even from thy dwelling-place, their prayer and their supplications, and maintain their || cause, and forgive thy people which have sinned against thee.

40 ¶ Now, my God, let, I beseech thee, thine eyes be open, and let thine ears be attent † unto the prayer that is made in this place.

41 Now ^r therefore arise, O LORD God, into thy resting-place, thou, and the ark of thy strength: let thy priests, O LORD God, be clothed with salvation, and let thy saints rejoice in goodness.

CHAP. VII.

1 God giving testimony to Solomon's prayer, the people worship the Lord.

4 Solomon's sacrifice.

NOW, ^a when Solomon had made an end of praying, the ^b fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt-offering and the sacrifices; and ^c the glory of the LORD filled the house.

2 ^d And the priests could not enter into the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD had filled the LORD's house.

3 And when all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD upon the house, they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped, and praised the LORD, ^e saying, For he is good; ^f for his mercy endureth for ever.

4 ¶ ^g Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD.

5 And king Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty and two thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep: so the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.

6 ^h And the priests waited on their offices; the Levites also with instruments of musick of the LORD, which David the king had made to praise the LORD, because his mercy endureth for ever, when David praised † by their ministry; and the priests sounded trumpets before them, and all Israel stood.

7 Moreover, Solomon hallowed the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt-offerings, and the fat of the peace-offerings, because the brasen altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt-offerings, and the meat-offerings, and the fat.

8 ¶ ⁱ Also at the same time Solomon kept the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath unto the ^k river of Egypt.

9 And in the eighth day they made † a solemn assembly: for they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days.

10 And ^l on the three and twentieth day of the seventh month he sent the people away into their tents, glad and merry in heart for the goodness that the LORD had shewed unto David, and to Solomon, and to Israel his people.

11 Thus ^m Solomon finished the house of the LORD, and the king's house: and all that came into Solomon's heart to make in the house of the LORD, and in his own house, he prosperously effected.

12 ¶ And the LORD appeared to Solomon by night, and said unto him, I have heard thy prayer, ⁿ and have chosen this place to myself for an house of sacrifice.

13 If I shut up heaven, that there be no rain, or if I command the locusts to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people;

14 If my people, † which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

15 Now ^o mine eyes shall be open, and mine ears attent † unto the prayer that is made in this place.

25 ¶ And Solomon ^e had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he bestowed in the chariot-cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.

26 ¶ ^d And he reigned over all the kings, ^e from the || river even unto the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt.

27 And the king [†] made silver in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar-trees made he as the sycamore-trees that are in the low plains in abundance.

28 ^f And they brought unto Solomon horses out of Egypt, and out of all lands.

29 ¶ Now the rest of the ^g acts of Solomon, first and last, are they not written in the [†] book of Nathan the prophet, ^h and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of ⁱ Iddo the seer against Jeroboam the son of Nebat?

30 And Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years.

31 And Solomon slept with his fathers; and he was buried in the city of David his father: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

CHAP. X.

1 Rehoboam refusing the old men's counsel, 16 ten tribes revolt: 18 they kill Hadoram: Rehoboam fleeth.

AND ^a Rehoboam went to Shechem: for to Shechem were all Israel come to make him king.

2 And it came to pass, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat (who was in Egypt, ^b whither he had fled from the presence of Solomon the king) heard it, that Jeroboam returned out of Egypt.

3 And they sent and called him: so Jeroboam and all Israel came and spake to Rehoboam, saying,

4 Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore ease thou somewhat the grievous servitude of thy father, and his heavy yoke that he put upon us, and we will serve thee.

5 And he said unto them, Come again unto me after three days. And the people departed.

6 ¶ And king Rehoboam took counsel with the old men that had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, What counsel give ye me to return answer to this people?

7 And they spake unto him, saying, If thou be kind to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be thy servants for ever.

8 But he forsook the counsel which the old men gave him, and took counsel with the young men that were brought up with him, that stood before him.

9 And he said unto them, What advice give ye, that we may return answer to this people, which have spoken to me, saying, Ease somewhat the yoke that thy father did put upon us?

10 And the young men that were brought up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou answer the people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it somewhat lighter for us; thus shalt thou say unto them, My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins.

11 For whereas my father [†] put a heavy yoke upon you, I will put more to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

12 ¶ So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king bade, saying, Come again to me on the third day.

13 And the king answered them roughly; and king Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old men, 14 And answered them after the advice of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add thereto: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

15 So the king hearkened not unto the people: ^c for the cause was of God, that the LORD might perform his word, which he spake by the ^d hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 ¶ And when all Israel saw that the king would not hearken unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? and we have none inheritance in the son of Jesse; every man to your tents, O Israel: and now, David, see to thine own house. So all Israel went to their tents.

17 But as for the children of Israel that dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18 Then king Rehoboam sent Hadoram, that was ov the tribute; and the children of Israel stoned him with stones, that he died: but king Rehoboam † made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

19 ^c And Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

CHAP. XI.

1 Rehoboam raising an army to subdue Israel, is forbidden by Shemaiah.
18 Rehoboam's wives.

AND ^a when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he gathered of the house of Judah and Benjamin an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against Israel, that he might bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam.

2 But the word of the LORD came ^b to Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

3 Speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying,

4 Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren: return every man to his house; for this thing is done of me. And they obeyed the words of the LORD, and returned from going against Jeroboam.

5 ¶ And Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and built cities for defence in Judah.

6 He built even Beth-lehem, and Etam, and Tekoa,

7 And Beth-zur, and Shoco, and Adullam,

8 And Gath, and Mareshah, and Ziph,

9 And Adoraim, and Lachish, and Azekah,

10 And Zorah, and Aijalon, and Hebron, which are in Judah and in Benjamin fenced cities.

11 And he fortified the strong holds, and put captains in them, and store of victual, and of oil and wine.

12 And in every several city he put shields and spears, and made them exceeding strong, having Judah and Benjamin on his side.

13 ¶ And the priests and the Levites that were in all Israel † resorted to him out of all their coasts.

14 (For the Levites left ^c their suburbs, and their possession, and came to Judah and Jerusalem: for ^d Jeroboam and his sons had cast them off from executing the priest's office unto the LORD;

15 ^e And he ordained him priests for the high places, and for ^f the devils, and for the calves which he had made.)

16 ^g And after them, out of all the tribes of Israel, such as set their hearts to seek the LORD God of Israel, came to Jerusalem, to sacrifice unto the LORD God of their fathers.

17 So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong, three years: for three years they walked in the way of David and Solomon.

18 ¶ And Rehoboam took him Mahalath, the daughter of Jerimoth, the son of David, to wife, and Abihail, the daughter of Eliab, the son of Jesse;

19 Which bare him children; Jeush, and Shamariah, and Zaham.

20 And after her he took ^h Maachah the daughter of Absalom, which bare him Abijah, and Attai, and Ziza, and Shelomith.

21 And Rehoboam loved Maachah the daughter of Absalom above all his wives and his concubines: (for he took eighteen wives and threescore concubines, and begat twenty and eight sons, and threescore daughters.)

22 And Rehoboam ⁱ made Abijah the son of Maachah the chief, to be ruler among his brethren: for he thought to make him king.

23 And he dealt wisely, and dispersed of all his children throughout all the countries of Judah and Benjamin, unto every fenced city; and he gave them victual in abundance: and he desired † many wives.

CHAP. XII.

1 Rehoboam, forsaking God, is punished by Shishak: 13 his reign, and death.

AND ^a it came to pass, when Rehoboam had established the kingdom, and had strengthened himself, ^b he forsook the law of the LORD, and all Israel with him.

2 And it came to pass, that, in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, ^c because they had transgressed against the LORD,

3 With twelve hundred chariots, and threescore thousand horsemen: and the people were without number that came with him out of Egypt; ^d the Lubims, the Sukkiims, and the Ethiopians.

4 And he took the fenced cities which pertained to Judah, and came to Jerusalem.

5 ¶ Then came Shemaiah the prophet to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Judah that were gathered together to Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Ye have forsaken me, and therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shishak.

6 Whereupon the princes of Israel and the king humbled themselves; and they said, The LORD is righteous.

7 And when the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying, They have humbled themselves: therefore I will not destroy them, but I will grant them || some deliverance; and my wrath shall not be poured out upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.

8 Nevertheless, ^e they shall be his servants; that they may know my service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries.

9 So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house; he took all: he carried away also the shields of gold which Solomon had ^f made.

10 Instead of which king Rehoboam made shields of brass, and committed them ^g to the hands of the chief of the guard, that kept the entrance of the king's house.

11 And when the king entered into the house of the LORD, the guard came and fetched them, and brought them again into the guard-chamber.

12 And when he humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned from him, that he would not destroy him altogether: || and also in Judah things went well.

13 ¶ So king Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned: for ^h Rehoboam was one and forty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, ⁱ the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel to put his name there: and his mother's name was Naamah an Ammonitess.

14 And he did evil, because he || prepared not his heart to seek the LORD.

15 Now the acts of Rehoboam, first and last, are they not written in the [†] book of Shemaiah the prophet, ^k and of Iddo the seer concerning genealogies? And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.

16 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David: and ^l Abijah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Abijah, succeeding, maketh war against Jeroboam: 13 trusting in God, he overcometh him.

NOW, ^a in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam began Abijah to reign over Judah.

2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem: (his mother's name also was ^b Michaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah:) and there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

3 And Abijah [†] set the battle in array with an army of valiant men of war, even four hundred thousand chosen men: Jeroboam also set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, being mighty men of valour.

4 ¶ And Abijah stood up upon mount Zemaraim, which is in mount Ephraim, and said, Hear me, thou Jeroboam, and all Israel;

5 Ought ye not to know that the LORD God of Israel gave the kingdom over Israel to David for ever, even to him and to his sons ^c by a covenant of salt?

6 Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, is risen up, and hath ^d rebelled against his lord.

7 And there are gathered unto him vain men, the children of Belial, and have strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and tender-hearted, and could not withstand them.

8 And now ye think to withstand the kingdom of the LORD in the hand of the sons of David; and ye be a great multitude, and there are with you golden calves, which Jeroboam ^e made you for [†] gods.

9 [†] Have ye not cast out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and ^g have made you priests after the manner of the nations of other lands? ^h so that whosoever cometh [†] to consecrate himself with a young bullock and seven rams, the same may be a priest of them that are no [†] gods.

10 But as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken him; and the priests, which minister unto the LORD, are the sons of Aaron, and the Levites wait upon their business:

11 ⁱ And they burn unto the LORD, every morning and every evening, burnt-sacrifices and sweet incense: the ^k shew-bread also set they in order

12 And, behold, God himself is with us for our captain, ^m and his priests with sounding trumpets to cry alarm against you. O children of Israel, ⁿ fight ye not against the LORD God of your fathers; for ye shall not prosper.

13 ¶ But Jeroboam caused an ambushment to come about behind them: so they were before Judah, and the ambushment was behind them.

14 And when Judah looked back, behold, the battle was before and behind: and they cried unto the LORD, and the priests sounded with the trumpets.

15 Then the men of Judah gave a shout: and as the men of Judah shouted, it came to pass, that God smote Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.

16 And the children of Israel fled before Judah: and God delivered them into their hand.

17 And Abijah and his people slew them with a great slaughter: so there fell down slain of Israel five hundred thousand chosen men.

18 Thus the children of Israel were brought under at that time, and the children of Judah prevailed, because they relied upon the LORD God of their fathers.

19 And Abijah pursued after Jeroboam, and took cities from him, Beth-el with the towns thereof, and Jeshanah with the towns thereof, and Ephraim with the towns thereof.

20 ¶ Neither did Jeroboam recover strength again in the days of Abijah: and the LORD struck him, and he died.

21 ¶ Abijah waxed mighty, and married fourteen wives, and begat twenty and two sons, and sixteen daughters.

22 And the rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways, and his sayings, are written in the || story of the prophet ^a Iddo.

CHAP. XIV.

1 Asa, succeeding, destroyeth idolatry: 9 calling on God, he overcometh Zerah, and spoileth the Ethiopians.

SO Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David; and ^a Asa his son reigned in his stead. In his days the land was quiet ten years.

2 And Asa did that which was good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God:

3 For he took away the altars of the strange gods, and ^b the high places, and ^c brake down the [†] images, ^d and cut down the groves;

4 And commanded Judah to seek the LORD God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandment.

5 Also he took away out of all the cities of Judah the high places and the [†] images: and the kingdom was quiet before him.

6 ¶ And he built fenced cities in Judah: for the land had rest, and he had no war in those years; because the LORD had given him rest.

7 Therefore he said unto Judah, Let us build these cities, and make about them walls and towers, gates and bars, while the land is yet before us; because we have sought the LORD our God, we have sought him, and he hath given us rest on every side: so they built and prospered.

8 ¶ And Asa had an army of men that bare targets and spears, out of Judah three hundred thousand; and out of Benjamin, that bare shields and drew bows, two hundred and fourscore thousand: all these were mighty men of valour.

9 ¶ ^e And there came out against them Zerah the Ethiopian, with an host of a thousand thousand, and three hundred chariots; and came unto ^f Mareshah.

10 Then Asa went out against him, and they set the battle in array in the valley of Zephathah at Mareshah.

11 And Asa cried unto the LORD his God, and said, LORD, it is ^g no-thing with thee to help, whether with many, or with them that have no power: help us, O LORD our God; for we rest on thee, and in thy name we go against this multitude. O LORD, thou art our God; let not || man prevail against thee.

12 So the LORD smote the Ethiopians before Asa, and before Judah; and the Ethiopians fled.

13 And Asa, and the people that were with him, pursued them unto Gerar: and the Ethiopians were overthrown, that they could not recover themselves; for they were [†] destroyed before the LORD, and before his host: and they carried away very much spoil.

the LORD came upon them : and they spoiled all the cities ; for there was exceeding much spoil in them.

15 They smote also the tents of cattle, and carried away sheep and camels in abundance, and returned to Jerusalem.

CHAP. XV.

1 Asa, with others, make a solemn covenant with God : 16 he putteth down Maachah his mother from being queen for her idolatry.

AND the Spirit of God came upon Azariah the son of Oded :

2 And he went out † to meet Asa, and said unto him, Hear ye me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin ; ^a The LORD is with you, while ye be with him ; and ^b if ye seek him, he will be found of you ; but ^c if ye forsake him, he will forsake you.

3 Now ^d for a long season Israel hath been without the true God, ^e and without a teaching priest, and without law.

4 But ^f when they in their trouble did turn unto the LORD God of Israel, and sought him, he was found of them.

5 And ^g in those times there was no peace to him that went out, nor to him that came in ; but great vexations were upon all the inhabitants of the countries.

6 ^h And nation was † destroyed of nation, and city of city : for God did vex them with all adversity.

7 Be ye strong therefore, and let not your hands be weak ; for your work shall be rewarded.

8 ¶ And when Asa heard these words, and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he took courage, and put away the † abominable idols out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities which he had taken from mount Ephraim, and renewed the altar of the LORD that was before the porch of the LORD.

9 ⁱ And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and the strangers with them out of Ephraim and Manasseh, and out of Simeon : (for they fell to him out of Israel in abundance, when they saw that the LORD his God was with him :)

10 So they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa.

11 ^k And they offered unto the LORD † the same time, of ^l the spoil which they had brought, seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep.

12 And they entered into a covenant to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart, and with all their soul ;

13 ^m That whosoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel ⁿ should be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman.

14 And they sware unto the LORD with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with trumpets, and with cornets.

15 And all Judah rejoiced at the oath : for they had sworn with all their heart, and ^o sought him with their whole desire ; and he was found of them : and the LORD gave them rest round about.

16 ¶ And also concerning ^p Maachah, the || mother of Asa the king, he removed her from being queen, because she had made an † idol in a grove : and Asa cut down her idol, and stamped it, and burnt it at the brook Kidron.

17 But ^q the high places were not taken away out of Israel : nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect all his days.

18 ¶ And he brought into the house of God the things that his father had dedicated, and that he himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels.

19 And there was no more war unto the five and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Asa, by the aid of the Syrians, diverteth Baasha from building of Ramah : 11 he seeketh not to God, but to the physicians : 13 his death, and burial.

IN the six and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa, ^a Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah, and built Ramah, ^b to the intent that he might let none go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

2 Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of the LORD, and of the king's house, and sent to Ben-hadad king of Syria, that dwelt at † Damascus, saying,

3 There is a league between me and thee, as there was between my father and thy father : behold, I have sent thee silver and gold ; go, break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.

6 Then Asa the king took all Judah: and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha was a building; and he built therewith Geba and Mizpah.

7 ¶ And at that time ^c Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said unto him, Because thou hast relied on the king of Syria, and not relied on the LORD thy God, therefore is the host of the king of Syria escaped out of thine hand.

8 Were not ^d the Ethiopians and ^e the Lubims † a huge host, with very many chariots and horsemen? yet, because thou didst rely on the LORD, he delivered them into thine hand.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Jehoshaphat reigneth well, and prospereth: 7 he sendeth Levites to teach in Judah: 12 his greatness.

AND ^a Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead, and strengthened himself against Israel.

2 And he placed forces in all the fenced cities of Judah, and set gar-risons in the land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim, ^b which Asa his father had taken.

3 And the LORD was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the first ways || of his father David, and sought not unto Baalim;

4 But sought to the LORD God of his father, and walked in his commandments, and not after the doings of Israel:

5 Therefore the LORD stablished the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah ^c † brought to Jehoshaphat ^d presents; and he had riches and honour in abundance.

6 And his heart || was lifted up in the ways of the LORD: moreover, ^e he took away the high places and groves out of Judah.

7 ¶ Also in the third year of his reign he sent to his princes, even to Ben-hail, and to Obadiah, and to Zechariah, and to Nethaneel, and to Michaiah, ^f to teach in the cities of Judah.

8 And with them he sent Levites, even Shemaiah, and Nethaniah, and Zebadiah, and Asahel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehonathan, and Adonijah, and Tobijah, and Tob-adonijah, Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, priests.

9 ^g And they taught in Judah, and had the book of the law of the LORD with them, and went about throughout all the cities of Judah, and taught the people.

10 ¶ And ^h the fear of the LORD † fell upon all the kingdoms of the lands that were round about Judah, so that they made no war against Jehoshaphat.

11 Also some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents, and tribute-silver; and the Arabians brought him flocks, seven thousand and seven hundred rams, and seven thousand and seven hundred he-goats.

1 Jehoshaphat proclaimeth a fast: 5 his prayer: 22 the overthrow of his enemies: 31 his reign.

IT came to pass after this also, that the children of Moab, and the children of Ammon, and with them other besides the Ammonites, came against Jehoshaphat to battle.

2 Then there came some that told Jehoshaphat, saying, There cometh a great multitude against thee from beyond the sea on this side Syria; and behold, they be * in Hazazon-tamar, which is En-gedi.

3 And Jehoshaphat feared, and set † himself to seek the LORD, and proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.

4 And Judah gathered themselves together, to ask help of the LORD: even out of all the cities of Judah they came to seek the LORD.

5 ¶ And Jehoshaphat stood in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD, before the new court,

6 And said, O LORD God of our fathers, art not thou God in heaven? and rulest not thou over all the kingdoms of the heathen? and ^b in thine hand is there not power and might, so that none is able to withstand thee?

7 Art not thou our God, † who didst drive out the inhabitants of this land before thy people Israel, and gavest it to the seed of Abraham ^c thy friend for ever?

8 And they dwelt therein, and have built thee a sanctuary therein for thy name, saying,

9 ^d If, when evil cometh upon us, as the sword, judgment, or pestilence, or famine, we stand before this house, and in thy presence, (for thy name is in this house,) and cry unto thee in our affliction, then thou wilt hear and help.

10 And now, behold, the children of Ammon, and Moab, and mount Seir, whom thou ^e wouldest not let Israel invade, when they came out of the land of Egypt, but ^f they turned from them, and destroyed them not;

11 Behold, I say, how they reward us, ^g to come to cast us out of thy possession, which thou hast given us to inherit.

12 O our God, wilt thou not judge them? for we have no might against this great company that cometh against us; neither know we what to do: but ^h our eyes are upon thee.

13 And all Judah stood before the LORD, with their little ones, their wives, and their children.

14 ¶ Then upon Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the sons of Asaph, ⁱ came the Spirit of the LORD in the midst of the congregation;

15 And he said, Harken ye, all Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem, and thou king Jehoshaphat; Thus saith the LORD unto you, ^k Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude: for the battle is not yours, but God's.

16 To-morrow go ye down against them: behold, they come up by the † cliff of Ziz; and ye shall find them at the end of the || brook, before the wilderness of Jeruel.

17 ^l Ye shall not need to fight in this battle; set yourselves, stand ye still, and see the salvation of the LORD with you, O Judah and Jerusalem: fear not, nor be dismayed; to-morrow go out against them: for the LORD will be with you.

18 And Jehoshaphat bowed his head with his face to the ground: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell before the LORD, worshipping the LORD.

19 And the Levites, of the children of the Kohathites, and of the children of the Korhites, stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel with a loud voice on high.

20 ¶ And they rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem; ^m Believe in the LORD your God, so shall ye be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper.

21 And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed singers unto the LORD, ⁿ and † that should praise the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army, and to say, ^o Praise the LORD; ^p for his mercy endureth for ever.

22 ¶ † And when they began † to sing and to praise, ^q the LORD set ambushments against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah; and || they were smitten.

CHAP. XXIV.

1 Joash reigneth well all the days of Jehoiada: 15 Jehoiada being dead, 17 Joash falleth to idolatry: 23 he is slain.

JOASH ^a was seven years old when he began to reign; and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem: his mother's name also was Zibiah of Beer-sheba.

2 And Joash ^b did that which was right in the sight of the LORD all the days of Jehoiada the priest.

3 And Jehoiada took for him two wives; and he begat sons and daughters.

4 ¶ And it came to pass after this, that Joash was minded † to repair the house of the LORD.

5 And he gathered together the priests and the Levites, and said to them, Go out unto the cities of Judah, and gather of all Israel money to repair the house of your God from year to year, and see that ye hasten the matter: howbeit the Levites hastened it not.

6 And the king called for Jehoiada the chief, and said unto him, Why hast thou not required of the Levites to bring in, out of Judah, and out of Jerusalem, the collection, according to the commandment of ^c Moses the servant of the LORD, and of the congregation of Israel, for the tabernacle of witness?

7 For ^d the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken up the house of God; and also all the dedicated things of the house of the LORD did they bestow upon Baalim.

8 And at the king's commandment they made a chest, and set it without at the gate of the house of the LORD.

9 And they made † a proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in to the LORD the collection that Moses the servant of God laid upon Israel in the wilderness.

10 And all the princes, and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had made an end.

11 Now it came to pass, that at what time the chest was brought unto the king's office by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, the king's scribe and the high priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to his place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance.

12 And the king and Jehoiada gave it to such as did the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and hired masons and carpenters to repair the house of the LORD, and also such as wrought iron and brass to mend the house of the LORD.

13 So the workmen wrought, and † the work was perfected by them, and they set the house of God in his state, and strengthened it.

14 And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, whereof were made vessels for the house of the LORD, even vessels to minister, and † to offer withal, and spoons, † and vessels of gold and silver: and they offered burnt-offerings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada.

15 ¶ But Jehoiada waxed old, and was full of days when he died; an hundred and thirty years old was he when he died.

16 And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, both toward God, and toward his house.

17 ¶ Now after the death of Jehoiada came the princes of Judah, and made obeisance to the king: then the king hearkened unto them.

18 And they left the house of the LORD God of their fathers, and served groves and idols: and wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this their trespass.

19 Yet he sent prophets to them, to bring them again unto the LORD; and they testified against them: but they would not give ear.

20 And the Spirit of God † came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, which stood above the people, and said unto them, Thus saith God, Why transgress ye the commandments of the LORD, that ye cannot prosper? ^e Because ye have forsaken the LORD, he hath also forsaken you.

21 And they conspired against him, and ^f stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king, in the court of the house of the LORD.

22 Thus Joash the king remembered not the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his son: and when he died, he said, The LORD look upon it, and require it.

23 ¶ And it came to pass, [†] at the end of the year, that the host of Syria came up against him: and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them unto the king of [†] Damascus.

24 For the army of the Syrians ^g came with a small company of men, and the LORD delivered a very great host into their hand, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers: so they executed judgment against Joash.

25 And when they were departed from him, (for they left him in great diseases,) his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the priest, and slew him on his bed, and he died; and they buried him in the city of David, but they buried him not in the sepulchres of the kings.

26 And these are they that conspired against him; || Zabad the son of Shimeth an Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of || Shimrith a Moabitess.

27 ¶ Now concerning his sons, and the greatness of ^h the burdens laid upon him, and the [†] repairing of the house of God, behold, they are written in the || story of the book of the Kings: and Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XXV.

1 Amaziah beginneth to reign well: 3 he executeth justice on the traitors: 5 having hired an army of Israelites against the Edomites, at the word of a prophet he loseth an hundred talents, and dismisseth them: 11 he overthroweth the Edomites: 17 he provoketh Joash to his overthrow: 25 his reign: 27 he is slain by conspiracy.

AMAZIAH ^a was twenty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, ^b but not with a perfect heart.

3 ¶ Now it came to pass, when the kingdom was [†] established to him, that he slew his servants that had killed the king his father.

4 But he slew not their children, but did as it is written in the law in the book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, saying, ^c The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers, but every man shall die for his own sin.

5 ¶ Moreover, Amaziah gathered Judah together, and made them captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, according to the houses of their fathers, throughout all Judah and Benjamin: and he numbered them ^d from twenty years old and above, and found them three hundred thousand choice men, able to go forth to war, that could handle spear and shield.

6 He hired also an hundred thousand mighty men of valour out of Israel for an hundred talents of silver.

7 But there came a man of God to him, saying, O king, let not the army of Israel go with thee; for the LORD is not with Israel, to wit, with all the children of Ephraim.

8 But if thou wilt go, do it, be strong for the battle; God shall make thee fall before the enemy: for God hath power to help, and to cast down.

9 And Amaziah said to the man of God, But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the [†] army of Israel? And the man of God answered, The LORD is able to give thee much more than this.

10 Then Amaziah separated them, to wit, the army that was come to him out of Ephraim, to go [†] home again: wherefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home [†] in great anger.

11 ¶ And Amaziah strengthened himself, and led forth his people, and went to the valley of Salt, and smote of the children of Seir ten thousand.

12 And other ten thousand left alive did the children of Judah carry away captive, and brought them unto the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, that they all were broken in pieces.

13 ¶ But † the soldiers of the army which Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell upon the cities of Judah, from Samaria even unto Beth-horon, and smote three thousand of them, and took much spoil.

14 ¶ Now it came to pass, after the slaughter of the Edomites, that ^ehe brought the † gods of the children of Seir, and set them up to be his † gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense unto them.

15 Wherefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Amaziah, and he sent unto him a prophet, which said unto him, Why hast thou sought after the † gods of the people, which could not deliver their own people out of thine hand?

16 And it came to pass, as he talked with him, that the king said unto him, Art thou made of the king's counsel? forbear; why shoulddest thou be smitten? Then the prophet forbore, and said, I know that God hath † determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened unto my counsel.

17 ¶ Then ^fAmaziah king of Judah took advice, and sent to Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us see one another in the face.

18 And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The ‖ thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by † a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle.

20 But Amaziah would not hear; for ^git came of God, that he might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because they sought after the † gods of Edom.

24 And he took all the gold and the silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with Obed-edom, and the treasures of the king's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria.

25 ¶ And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Joash, son of Jehoahaz king of Israel, fifteen years.

26 Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, first and last, behold, are they not written in the book of the Kings of Judah and Israel?

27 ¶ Now after the time that Amaziah did turn away † from following the LORD, they † made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish: but they sent to Lachish after him, and slew him there.

11 Now hear me therefore, and deliver the captives again, which ye have taken captive of your brethren; for the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon you.

12 Then certain of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against them that came from the war, 13 And said unto them, Ye shall not bring in the captives hither: for whereas we have offended against the LORD already, ye intend to add more to our sins and to our trespass; for our trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel.

14 So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the congregation.

15 And the men, ^g which were expressed by name, rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all that were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shod them, and gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them upon asses, and brought them to Jericho, ^h the city of palm-trees, to their brethren: then they returned to Samaria.

21 For Ahaz took away a portion out of the house of the LORD, and out of the house of the king, and of the princes, and gave it unto the king of Assyria: but he helped him not.

22 ¶ And in the time of his distress did he trespass yet more against the LORD: this is that king Ahaz.

23 For ⁿ he sacrificed unto the † gods of † Damascus which smote him; and he said, Because the † gods of the kings of Syria help them, therefore will I sacrifice to them, that they may help me: but they were the ruin of him, and of all Israel.

24 And Ahaz gathered together the vessels of the house of God, and cut in pieces the vessels of the house of God, and shut up the doors of the house of the LORD, and he made him altars in every corner of Jerusalem.

25 And in every several city of Judah he made high places || to burn incense unto other † gods, and provoked to anger the LORD God of his fathers.

26 ¶ Now the rest of his acts, and of all his ways, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

27 And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, even in Jerusalem; but they brought him not into the sepulchres of the kings of Israel: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XXIX.

1 Hezekiah's good reign: 3 he restoreth religion. 12 The house of God cleansed.

HEZEKIAH ^a began to reign when he was five and twenty years old; and he reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Abijah, the daughter ^b of Zechariah.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done.

3 ¶ He, in the first year of his reign, in the first month, ^c opened the doors of the house of the LORD, and repaired them.

4 And he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the east street,

5 And said unto them, Hear me, ye Levites; Sanctify now yourselves, and sanctify the house of the LORD God of your fathers, and carry forth the filthiness out of the holy place.

6 For our fathers have trespassed, and done that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD our God, and have forsaken him, and have turned away their faces from the habitation of the LORD, and † turned their backs.

7 ^d Also they have shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burnt incense, nor offered burnt-offerings in the holy place unto the God of Israel.

8 Wherefore the wrath of the LORD was upon Judah and Jerusalem, and he hath delivered them to † trouble, to astonishment, and to ^e hissing, as ye see with your eyes.

9 For, lo, ^f our fathers have fallen by the sword; and our sons, and our daughters, and our wives, are in captivity for this.

10 Now it is in mine heart to make a covenant with the LORD God of Israel, that his fierce wrath may turn away from us.

11 My sons, || be not now negligent: for the LORD hath ^g chosen you to stand before him, to serve him, and that ye should minister unto him, and || burn incense.

12 ¶ Then the Levites arose, Mahath the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites; and of the sons of Merari; Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehalelel: and of the Gershonites; Joah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joah:

13 And of the sons of Elizaphan; Shimri, and Jeiel: and of the sons of Asaph; Zechariah, and Mattaniah:

14 And of the sons of Heman; Jehiel, and Shimei: and of the sons of Jeduthun; Shemaiah, and Uzziel.

15 And they gathered their brethren, and sanctified themselves, and came, according to the commandment of the king, || by the words of the LORD, to cleanse the house of the LORD.

16 And the priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD, to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took it, to carry it out abroad into the brook Kidron.

17 Now they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the porch of the LORD: so they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days; and in the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end.

18 Then they went in to Hezekiah the king, and said, We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, and the altar of burnt-offering, with all the vessels thereof, and the shew-bread table, with all the vessels thereof.

19 Moreover, all the vessels, which king Ahaz in his reign did cast away in his transgression, have we prepared and sanctified, and, behold, they are before the altar of the LORD.

20 ¶ Then Hezekiah the king rose early, and gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD.

21 And they brought seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven he-goats, for a ^h sin-offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah: and he commanded the priests, the sons of Aaron, to offer them on the altar of the LORD.

22 So they killed the bullocks, and the priests received the blood, and sprinkled it on the altar: likewise, when they had killed the rams, they sprinkled the blood upon the altar: they killed also the lambs, and they sprinkled the blood upon the altar.

23 And they brought [†] forth the he-goats for the sin-offering before the king and the congregation; and they laid their ^h hands upon them:

24 And the priests killed them, and they made reconciliation with their blood upon the altar, to make an atonement for all Israel: for the king commanded that the burnt-offering and the sin-offering should be made for all Israel.

25 ¹ And he set the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, ^m according to the commandment of David, and of Gad the king's seer, and Nathan the prophet: ⁿ for so was the commandment [†] of the LORD [†] by his prophets.

26 And the Levites stood with the instruments ^o of David, and the priests with ^p the trumpets.

27 And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt-offering upon the altar: and [†] when the burnt-offering began, the song of the LORD began also with the trumpets, and with the [†] instruments ordained by David king of Israel.

28 And all the congregation worshipped, and the [†] singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded: and all this continued until the burnt-offering was finished.

29 And when they had made an end of offering, the king, and all that were [†] present with him, bowed themselves, and worshipped.

30 Moreover, Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praise unto the LORD with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer: and they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped.

31 Then Hezekiah answered and said, Now ye have ^{||} consecrated yourselves unto the LORD, come near, and bring sacrifices and [†] thank-offerings into the house of the LORD. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and thank-offerings; and as many as were of a free heart, burnt-offerings.

32 And the number of the burnt-offerings, which the congregation brought, was threescore and ten bullocks, an hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt-offering to the LORD.

33 And the consecrated things were six hundred oxen, and three thousand sheep.

34 But the priests were too few, so that they could not flay all the burnt-offerings; wherefore ^r their brethren the Levites [†] did help them, till the work was ended, and until the other priests had sanctified themselves: ^s for the Levites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests.

35 And also the burnt-offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace-offerings, and the drink-offerings for every burnt-offering. So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order.

36 And Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, that God had prepared the people: for the thing was done suddenly.

1 Sennacherib invadeth Judah. 21 An angel destroyeth the Assyrians. 24 Hezekiah's sickness and recovery: 32 he dying, Manasseh succeedeth him.

AFTER ^a these things, and the establishment thereof, Sennacherib king of Assyria came, and entered into Judah, and encamped against the fenced cities, and thought [†] to win them for himself.

2 And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib was come, and that [†] he was purposed to fight against Jerusalem,

3 He took counsel with his princes and his mighty men to stop the waters of the fountains which were without the city; and they did help him.

4 So there was gathered much people together, who stopped all the fountains, and the brook that [†] ran through the midst of the land, saying, Why should the kings of Assyria come, and find much water?

5 Also ^b he strengthened himself, ^c and built up all the wall that was broken, and raised it up to the towers, and another wall without, and repaired ^d Millo in the city of David, and made ^e darts and shields in abundance.

6 And he set captains of war over the people, and gathered them together to him in the street of the gate of the city, and [†] spake comfortably to them, saying,

7 Be strong and courageous, be not afraid nor dismayed for the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude that is with him: for ^e there be more with us than with him.

8 With him is an ^f arm of flesh; but with us is the LORD our God, to help us, and to fight our battles. And the people [†] rested themselves upon the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

9 ¶ After this did Sennacherib king of Assyria send his servants to Jerusalem, (but he himself laid siege against Lachish, and all his [†] power with him,) unto Hezekiah king of Judah, and unto all Judah that were at Jerusalem, saying,

10 ^h Thus saith Sennacherib king of Assyria, Whereon do ye trust, that ye abide || in the siege in Jerusalem?

11 Doth not Hezekiah persuade you to give over yourselves to die by famine and by thirst, saying, The LORD our God shall deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

12 ⁱ Hath not the same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall worship before one altar, and burn incense upon it?

13 Know ye not what I and my fathers have done unto all the people of other lands? were the [†] gods of the nations of those lands any ways able to deliver their lands out of mine hand?

14 Who was there among all the [†] gods of those nations that my fathers utterly destroyed, that could deliver his people out of mine hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of mine hand?

15 Now therefore let not Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you on this manner, neither yet believe him: for no [†] god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of mine hand, and out of the hand of my fathers; how much less shall your God deliver you out of mine hand?

16 And his servants spake yet more against the LORD God, and against his servant Hezekiah.

17 ^k He wrote also letters to rail on the LORD God of Israel, and to speak against him, saying, As the [†] gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people out of mine hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver his people out of mine hand.

18 ^l Then they cried with a loud voice in the Jews' speech, unto the people of Jerusalem that were on the wall, to affright them, and to trouble them, that they might take the city.

19 And they spake against the God of Jerusalem, as against the [†] gods of the people of the earth, which were the work of the hands of man.

20^m And for this cause Hezekiah the king, and the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz, prayed and cried to heaven.
21 ¶ And the LORD sent an angel, which cut off all the mighty men of valour, and the leaders and captains in the camp of the king of Assyria: so he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the house of his god, they that came forth of his own bowels † slew him there with the sword.
22 Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all other, and guided them on every side.
23 And many brought gifts unto the LORD to Jerusalem, and † presents to Hezekiah king of Judah; so that he was magnified in the sight of all nations from thenceforth.
24 ¶ In those days Hezekiah was sick to the death, and prayed unto the LORD: and he spake unto him, and he ‖ gave him a sign.
25 But Hezekiah rendered not again according to the benefit done unto him; for his heart was lifted up: therefore there was wrath upon him, and upon Judah and Jerusalem.
26 ¶ Notwithstanding Hezekiah humbled himself for † the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem; so that the wrath of the LORD came not upon them in the days of Hezekiah.
27 And Hezekiah had exceeding much riches and honour: and he made himself treasures for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of † pleasant jewels;
28 Storehouses also for the increase of corn, and wine, and oil; and stalls for all manner of beasts, and cotes for flocks.
29 Moreover he provided him cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance; for God had given him substance very much.
30 ¶ This same Hezekiah also stopped the upper water-course of Gihon, and brought it straight down to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his works.
31 ¶ Howbeit in the business of the † ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, who † sent unto him to enquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him, to try him, that he might know all that was in his heart.

32 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his † goodness, behold, they are written in † the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, and in † the book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.
33 And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the ‖ chiefest of the sepulchres of the sons of David; and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honour at his death: and Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.
CHAP. XXXIII.
1 Manasseh's wicked reign: 11 he is carried into Babylon: 12 upon his prayer he is released: 20 Amon succeedeth him: 21 he being slain by his own servants, 25 Josiah succeedeth him.
MANASSEH ^a was twelve years old when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem:
2 But did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, like unto the ^b abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.
3 ¶ For † he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had ^c broken down, and he reared up altars for Baalim, and ^d made groves, and worshipped ^e all the host of heaven, and served them.
4 Also he built altars in the house of the LORD, whereof the LORD had said, ^f In Jerusalem shall my name be for ever.
5 And he built altars for all the host of heaven ^g in the two courts of the house of the LORD.
6 ^h And he caused his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom; also he observed times, and used enchantments, and used witchcraft, and ⁱ dealt with a familiar spirit, and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.
7 And ^k he set a carved image (the idol which he had made) in the house of God, of which God had said to David, and to Solomon his son, In ^l this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen before all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever:

them, according to the whole law, and the statutes, and the ordinances, by the hand of Moses.

9 So Manasseh made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to err, and to do worse than the heathen, whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 ¶ And the LORD spake to Manasseh, and to his people; but they would not hearken.

11 ¶ Wherefore the LORD brought upon them the captains of the host of the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh among the thorns, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

12 And when he was in affliction he besought the LORD his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers, 13 And prayed unto him: and he was entreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD he was God.

14 Now after this he built a wall without the city of David, on the west side of Gihon, in the valley, even to the entering in at the fish-gate, and compassed about Ophel, and raised it up a very great height, and put captains of war in all the fenced cities of Judah.

15 And he took away the strange gods, and the idol out of the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of the LORD, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city.

16 And he repaired the altar of the LORD, and sacrificed thereon peace-offerings and thank-offerings, and commanded Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel.

17 Nevertheless the people did sacrifice still in the high places, yet unto the LORD their God only.

18 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer unto his God, and the words of the seers that spake to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, behold, they are written in the book of the Kings of Israel:

19 His prayer also, and how God was entreated of him, and all his sins, and his trespass, and the places wherein he built high places, and set up groves and graven images, before he was humbled, behold, they are written among the sayings of the seers.

20 ¶ So Manasseh slept with his fathers; and they buried him in his own house: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

21 ¶ Amon was two and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned two years in Jerusalem.

22 But he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as did Manasseh his father: for Amon sacrificed unto all the carved images which Manasseh his father had made, and served them;

23 And humbled not himself before the LORD, as Manasseh his father had humbled himself; but Amon trespassed more and more.

24 And his servants conspired against him, and slew him in his own house.

25 ¶ But the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

CHAP. XXXIV.

1 Josiah's good reign: 3 he destroyeth idolatry: 8 he repaireth the temple, 29 and, causing the law to be read, reneweth the covenant between God and the people.

JOSIAH was eight years old when he began to reign; and he reigned in Jerusalem one and thirty years.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father, and declined neither to the right hand nor to the left.

3 ¶ For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to seek after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images.

4 And they brake down the altars of Baalim in his presence; and the images that were on high above them he cut down; and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images, he brake in pieces, and made dust of them, and strowed it upon the graves of them that had sacrificed unto them.

5 And he burnt the bones of the priests upon their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.

6 And so did he in the cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even unto Naphtali, with their mattocks, round about.

7 And Josiah ^kgave to the people, of the flock, lambs and kids, all for the passover-offerings, for all that were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bullocks: these were of the king's substance.

8 And his princes † gave willingly unto the people, to the priests, and to the Levites: Hilkiah, and Zechariah, and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave unto the priests for the passover-offerings two thousand and six hundred small cattle, and three hundred oxen.

and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer; and the porters waited at every gate: they might not depart from their service; for their brethren the Levites prepared for them.

16 So all the service of the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the passover, and to offer burnt-offerings upon the altar of the LORD, according to the commandment of king Josiah.

17 And the children of Israel that were present kept the passover at that time, and the feast of unleavened bread seven days.

18 And there was no passover like to that kept in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet; neither did all the kings of Israel keep such a passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel that were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this passover kept. 20 ¶ After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against Carchemish by Euphrates; and Josiah went out against him.

21 But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? I come not against thee this day, but against the house wherewith I have war; for God commanded me to make haste: forbear thee from meddling with God, who is with me, that he destroy thee not.

22 Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and hearkened not unto the words of Necho from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo.

23 And the archers shot at king Josiah: and the king said to his servants, Have me away; for I am sore wounded.

24 His servants therefore took him out of that chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had; and they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died, and was buried in one of the sepulchres of his fathers: and all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

25 ¶ And Jeremiah lamented for Josiah: and all the singing-men and the singing-women spake of Josiah in their lamentations to this day, and made them an ordinance in Israel:

and, behold, they are written in the Lamentations.

26 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his goodness, according to that which was written in the law of the LORD,

1 The proclamation of Cyrus for the building of the temple. 5 The people provide for their return. 7 Cyrus restoreth the vessels of the temple to Sheshbazzar.

NOW, in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, (that the word of the LORD ^a by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled,) the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, ^b that he [†] made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying,

2 Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, The LORD God of heaven hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and he hath ^c charged me to build him an house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah:

3 Who is there among you of all his people? his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of the LORD God of Israel (he is the God) which is in Jerusalem.

4 And whosoever remaineth in any place where he sojourneth, let the men of his place [†] help him with silver, and with gold, and with goods, and with beasts, besides the free-will-offering for the house of God that is in Jerusalem.

5 ¶ Then rose up the chief of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, with all them whose spirit God had raised, to go up to build the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem.

3 And they set the altar upon his bases; (for fear was upon them because of the people of those countries;) and they offered burnt-offerings thereon unto the LORD, even ^c burnt-offerings morning and evening.

4 ^d They kept also the feast of tabernacles, ^e as it is written, and ^f offered the daily burnt-offerings by number, according to the custom, [†] as the duty of every day required;

5 And afterward offered the continual burnt-offering, both of the new-moons, and of all the set feasts of the LORD that were consecrated, and of every one that willingly offered a free-will-offering unto the LORD.

6 From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt-offerings unto the LORD: but [†] the foundation of the temple of the LORD was not yet laid.

7 They gave money also unto the masons, and to the || carpenters; and meat, and drink, and oil, unto them of Zidon, and to them of Tyre, to bring cedar-trees from Lebanon to the sea of ^g Joppa, ^h according to the grant that they had of Cyrus king of Persia.

8 ¶ Now, in the second year of their coming unto the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the remnant of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem; and ⁱ appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to set forward the work of the house of the LORD.

9 ^k Then stood Jeshua, with his sons and his brethren, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of || Judah, [†] together, to set forward the workmen in the house of God; the sons of Henadad, with their sons and their brethren the Levites.

10 And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, ⁱ they set the priests in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites, the sons of Asaph, with cymbals, to praise the LORD, after the ^m ordinance of David king of Israel.

11 ⁿ And they sang together by course, in praising and giving thanks unto the LORD; ^o because he is good, ^p for his mercy endureth for ever toward Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.

12 ^q But many of the priests and Levites, and chief of the fathers, who were ancient men, that had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud for joy:

13 So that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

1 The building hindered. 7 The letter to Artaxerxes: 17 his decree.

NOW, when ^a the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that [†] the children of the captivity build-

2 Then they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chief of the fathers, and said unto them, Let us build with you: for we seek your God, as ye do; and we do sacrifice unto him ^b since the days of Esar-haddon king of Assur, which brought us up hither.

3 But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel, said unto them, ^c Ye have nothing to do with us to build an house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the LORD God of Israel, as ^d king Cyrus the king of Persia hath commanded us.

4 Then ^e the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building,

5 And hired counsellors against them, to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

6 And in the reign of [†] Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, wrote they unto him an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

14 Now, because † we have main-

15 That search may be made in 17 ¶ Then sent the king an answer unto Rehum the chancellor, and to 18 The letter which ye sent unto

11 And thus they returned us answer, saying, We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and build the house that was builded these many years ago, which a great king of Israel builded [†]and set up.

12 But ⁸after that our fathers had provoked the God of heaven unto wrath, he gave them into the hand of ^bNebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon.

13 But in the first year of ⁱCyrus the king of Babylon, the same king Cyrus made a decree to build this house of God.

7 Let the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews, and the elders of the Jews, build this house of God in his place.

8 Moreover [†]I make a decree what ye shall do to the elders of these Jews, for the building of this house of God; that of the king's goods, even of the tribute beyond the river, forthwith expences be given unto these men, that they be not [†]hindered.

11 Also I have made a decree, that whosoever shall alter this word, let timber be pulled down from his house, and, being set up, †let him be hanged thereon; ‡and let his house be made a dunghill for this.

12 And the God that hath caused his name to dwell there, destroy all kings and people that shall put to their hand to alter and to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. I Darius have made a decree; let it be done with speed.

13 ¶ Then Tatnai, governor on this side the river, Shethar-boznai, and their companions, according to that which Darius the king had sent, so they did speedily.

14 § And the elders of the Jews builded, and they prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo: and they builded, and finished it, according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the †commandment of ^hCyrus, and ⁱDarius, and ^kArtaxerxes king of Persia.

17 And ^moffered at the dedication of this house of God an hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and for a sin-offering for all Israel, twelve he-goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel.

18 And they set the priests in their divisions, and the Levites in their courses, for the service of God which is at Jerusalem; †ⁿas it is written in the book of Moses.

19 And the children of the captivity kept the passover ^oupon the fourteenth day of the first month.

20 For the priests and the Levites were purified together, all of them were pure, and killed the passover for all the children of the captivity, and for their brethren the priests, and for themselves.

21 And the children of Israel, which were come again out of captivity, and all such as had separated themselves unto them from the filthiness of the heathen of the land, to seek the LORD God of Israel, did eat, 22 And kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with joy: for the LORD had made them joyful, and turned the heart ^pof the king of Assyria unto them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

9 For upon the first day of the first month †began he to go up from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month came he to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him.

10 For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the law of the LORD, and to do it, and to teach in Israel statutes and judgments.

11 ¶ Now this is the copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave unto Ezra the priest, the scribe, even a scribe of the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of his statutes to Israel.

The Book of NEHEMIAH.

CHAP. I.

1 Nehemiah, understanding by Hanani the misery of Jerusalem, mourneth, fasteth, and prayeth: 4 his prayer.

THE words of Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah. And it came to pass in the month Chisleu, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the palace,

2 That Hanani, one of my brethren, came, he and certain men of Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews that had escaped, which were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem.

3 And they said unto me, The remnant that are left of the captivity there in the province are in great affliction and reproach; the wall of Jerusalem also is broken down, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire.

4 ¶ And it came to pass, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days, and fasted, and prayed before the God of heaven,

5 And said, I beseech thee, O LORD God of heaven, the great and terrible God, that keepeth covenant and mercy for them that love him, and observe his commandments:

6 Let thine ear now be attentive, and thine eyes open, that thou mayest hear the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee now, day and night, for the children of Israel thy servants, and confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee: both I and my father's house have sinned.

7 We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which thou commandedst thy servant Moses.

8 Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, ^s If ye transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations:

9 But if ye turn unto me, and keep my commandments, and do them; though there were of you cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to set my name there.

10 ⁱ Now these are thy servants and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and by thy strong hand.

11 O LORD, I beseech thee, let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, who desire to fear thy name; and prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. For I was the king's cupbearer.

before him: and I took up the wine, and gave it unto the king. Now I had not been beforetime sad in his presence.

2 Wherefore the king said unto me, Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing else but sorrow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid,

3 And said unto the king, ^b Let the king live for ever: why should not my countenance be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchres, lieth waste, and the gates thereof are consumed with fire?

4 Then the king said unto me, For what dost thou make request? So I prayed to the God of heaven.

5 And I said unto the king, If it please the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight, that thou wouldest send me unto Judah, unto the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that I may build it.

6 And the king said unto me, (the queen also sitting by him,) For how long shall thy journey be? and when wilt thou return? So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him ^c a time.

7 Moreover, I said unto the king, If it please the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the river, that they may convey me over, till I come into Judah;

8 And a letter unto Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the palace which appertained ^d to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into. And the king granted me, ^e according to the good hand of my God upon me.

9 ¶ Then I came to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the king's letters. (Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me.)

10 When Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly that there was come a man to seek the welfare of the children of Israel.

11 So I ^f came to Jerusalem, and was there three days.

12 ¶ And I arose in the night, I and some few men with me; neither told I any man what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem: neither was there any beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon.

13 And I went out by night ^g by the gate of the valley, even before the dragon-well, and to the dung-port, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were broken down, and the gates thereof were consumed with fire.

14 Then I went on to the gate of the fountain, and to the king's pool: but there was no place for the beast that was under me to pass.

15 Then went I up in the night by the brook, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entered by the gate of the valley, and so returned.

16 And the rulers knew not whether I went, or what I did; neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest that did the work.

17 ¶ Then said I unto them, Ye see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lieth waste, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire: come, and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more a reproach.

18 Then I told them of ^h the hand of my God which was good upon me; as also the king's words that he had spoken unto me. And they said, Let us rise up and build. So they strengthened their hands for this good work.

19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, What is this thing that ye do? ⁱ will ye rebel against the king?

20 Then answered I them, and said unto them, The God of heaven, he will prosper us; therefore we his servants will arise and build: ^k but ye have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem.

CHAP. III.

The names and order of them who builded the wall of Jerusalem.

THEN ^a Eliashib the high priest rose up, with his brethren the priests, ^b and they builded the sheep-gate: they sanctified it, and set up the doors of it; ^c even unto the tower of Meah they sanctified it, unto the tower of ^d Hananeel.

2 And ^e next unto him builded the men of Jericho. And next to them builded Zaccur the son of Imri.

3 ^f But the fish-gate did the sons of Hassenaah build, who also laid the beams thereof, and ^g set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

4 And next unto them repaired Meremoth the son of Urijah, the son

5 And next unto them the Tekoites repaired: but their nobles put not their necks to ^h the work of their [†] Lord.

6 Moreover, ¹ the old gate repaired Jehoiada the son of Paseah, and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah: they laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, and the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

7 And next unto them repaired Melatiah the Gibeonite, and Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon, and of Mizpah, unto the throne of the governor on this side the river.

12 And next unto him repaired Shallum the son of Haloresh, the ruler of the half-part of Jerusalem, he and his daughters.

13 ¹ The valley-gate repaired Hanan, and the inhabitants of Zanoah: they built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and a thousand cubits on the wall unto ^m the dung-gate.

14 But the dung-gate repaired Malchiah the son of Rechab, the ruler of part of Beth-haccerem: he built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

15 But ⁿ the gate of the fountain repaired Shallum the son of Col-hozeh, the ruler of part of Mizpah: he built it, and covered it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and the wall of ^o the pool of ^o Siloah by the king's garden, and unto the stairs that go down from the city of David.

16 After him repaired Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, the ruler of the half-part of Beth-zur, unto the place over 26 Moreover, ^r the Nethinims ^{||} dwelt in ^s ^{||} Ophel, unto the place over against ^t the water-gate toward the east, and the tower that lieth out.

CHAP. IV.

1 While the enemies scoff, Nehemiah prayeth to God: He setteth a watch.

BUT it came to pass, ^a that when Sanballat heard that we builded the wall, he was wroth, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews.

2 And he spake before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, What do these feeble Jews? will they † fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burnt?

3 Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him; and he said, Even that which they build, if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall.

4 Hear, O our God; for we are † despised: and turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity;

5 And ^b cover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders.

6 So built we the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof: for the people had a mind to work.

7 ¶ But it came to pass, that when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem † were made up, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth,

8 And conspired all of them together to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and † to hinder it.

9 Nevertheless we made our prayer unto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them.

10 And Judah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall.

11 And our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease.

12 And it came to pass, that when the Jews which dwelt by them came, they said unto us ten times, || From all places whence ye shall return unto us they will be upon you.

13 ¶ Therefore set I † in the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I even set the people after their families, with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

14 And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Be not ye afraid of them: remember the LORD, which is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons and your daughters, your wives and your houses.

15 And it came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known unto us, ^c and God had brought their counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work.

16 And it came to pass, from that time forth, that the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the habergeons; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah.

17 They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon.

18 For the builders, every one had his sword girded † by his side, and so builded: and he that sounded the trumpet was by me.

19 ¶ And I said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another:

20 In what place therefore ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us: ^d our God shall fight for us.

21 So we laboured in the work: and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning till the stars appeared.

22 Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labour on the day.

23 So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard which followed me, none of us put off our clothes, || saving that every one put them off for washing.

CHAP. V.

1 The people complain of their debts, mortgage, and bondage. 6 Nehemiah causeth restitution: 14 he forbeareth his own allowance.

AND there was a great cry of the people, and of their wives, against their brethren the Jews.

2 For there were that said, We, our sons, and our daughters, are many: therefore we take up corn for them, that we may eat, and live.

3 Some also there were that said, We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might buy corn, because of the dearth.

4 There were also that said, We have borrowed money for the king's tribute, and that upon our lands and vineyards:

5 Yet now ^aour flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and, lo, we ^bbring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought unto bondage already: neither is it in our power to redeem them; for other men have our lands and vineyards.

6 ¶ And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words.

7 Then † I consulted with myself, and I rebuked the nobles, and the rulers, and said unto them, ^cYe exact usury, every one of his brother. And I set a great assembly against them.

8 And I said unto them, We, after our ability, have ^dredeemed our brethren the Jews, which were sold unto the heathen; and will ye even sell your brethren? or shall they be sold unto us? Then held they their peace, and found nothing to answer.

9 Also I said, It is not good that ye do: ought ye not to walk ^ein the fear of our God because of the reproach of the heathen our enemies?

10 I likewise, and my brethren, and my servants, might exact of them money and corn: I pray you, let us leave off this usury.

11 Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their olive-yards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and the oil, that ye exact of them.

12 Then said they, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do as thou sayest. Then I called the priests, ^fand took an oath of them, that they should do according to this promise.

445.

13 Also ^gI shook my lap, and said, So God shake out every man from his house, and from his labour, that performeth not this promise, even thus be he shaken out, and † emptied. And all the congregation said, Amen, and praised the LORD. And the people did according to this promise.

14 ¶ Moreover, from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year ^heven unto the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brethren have not eaten the bread of the governor.

15 But the former governors, that had been before me, were chargeable unto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, besides forty shekels of silver; yea, even their servants bare rule over the people: but so did not I, because of the fear of God.

16 Yea, also I continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my servants were gathered thither unto the work.

17 Moreover, there were at my table an hundred and fifty of the Jews and rulers, besides those that came unto us from among the heathen that are about us.

18 Now that which was prepared for me daily was one ox, and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this required not I the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy upon this people.

19 ⁱThink upon me, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people.

CHAP. VI.

1 Sanballat practiseth to terrify Nehemiah. 15 The work is finished. 17 Secret intelligence between the enemies and the nobles of Judah.

NOW it came to pass, ^awhen Sanballat, and Tobiah, and † Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies, heard that I had builded the wall, and that there was no breach left therein, (^bthough at that time I had not set up the doors upon the gates.)

2 That Sanballat and Geshem sent unto me, saying, Come, let us meet together in some one of the villages in the plain of ^cOno: but they thought to do me mischief.

that I cannot come down : why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you?

4 Yet they sent unto me four times after this sort ; and I answered them after the same manner.

5 Then sent Sanballat his servant unto me, in like manner, the fifth time, with an open letter in his hand ;

6 Wherein was written, It is reported among the heathen, and || Gashmu saith it, ^a that thou and the Jews think to rebel : for which cause thou buildest the wall, that thou mayest be their king, according to these words.

7 And thou hast also appointed prophets to preach of thee at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah : and now shall it be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together.

8 Then I sent unto him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou feignest them out of thine own heart.

9 For they all made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it be not done. Now therefore, O God, strengthen my hands.

10 ¶ Afterward I came unto the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabeel, who was shut up ; and he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple : for they will come to slay thee ; yea, in the night will they come to slay thee.

11 And I said, Should such a man as I flee ? and who is there, that, being as I am, would go into the temple to save his life ? I will not go in.

12 And, lo, I perceived that God had not sent him ; but that he pronounced this prophecy against me : for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

13 Therefore was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach me.

14 ^e My God, think thou upon Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and on the prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear.

15 ¶ So the wall was finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty and two days.

16 And it came to pass, that when all our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen that were about us saw these things, they were much cast down in their own eyes : for they perceived that this work was wrought of our God.

17 ¶ Moreover, in those days the nobles of Judah [†] sent many letters unto Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came unto them.

18 For there were many in Judah sworn unto him, because he was the son-in-law of Shechaniah the son of Arah : and his son Johanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah.

19 Also they reported his good deeds before me, and uttered my || words to him. And Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.

CHAP. VII.

1 Nehemiah committeth the charge of Jerusalem to Hanani and Hananiah.

5 A register found of the genealogy of them which came at the first out of Babylon, 8 of the people, 39 of the priests, 43 of the Levites, 46 and of the Netlinims.

NOW it came to pass, when the wall was built, and I had set up the doors, and the porters, and the singers, and the Levites, were appointed,

2 That I gave my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the ruler ^a of the palace, charge over Jerusalem : for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many.

3 And I said unto them, Let not the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun be hot ; and while they stand by, let them shut the doors, and bar them : and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, every one in his watch, and every one to be over against his house.

4 Now the city was [†] large and great ; but the people were few therein, and the houses were not builded.

5 ¶ And my God put into mine heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy : and I found a register of the genealogy of them which came up at the first, and found written therein,

6 ^b These are the children of the province, that went up out of the captivity, of those that had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away, and came again to Jerusalem and to Judah, every one unto his city ; scribe, ¹and the Levites that taught the people, said unto all the people, ²This day is holy unto the LORD your God; ³mourn not, nor weep. For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law.

10 Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, ¹and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto our [†]Lord; neither be ye sorry; for the joy of the LORD is your strength.

11 So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, Hold your peace, for the day is holy; neither be ye grieved.

12 And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that were declared unto them.

13 ¶ And on the second day were gathered together the chief of the fathers of all the people, the priests, and the Levites, unto Ezra the scribe, even || to understand the words of the law.

14 And they found written in the law which the LORD had commanded [†]by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in ^kbooths in the feast of the seventh month:

15 And ¹that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, Go forth unto the mount, and fetch olive-branches, and pine-branches, and myrtle-branches, and palm-branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written.

17 And all the congregation of them that were come again out of the captivity made booths, and sat under the booths; for since the days of Jeshua the son of Nun unto that day had not the children of Israel done so: and there was very great gladness.

18 Also ⁿday by day, from the first day unto the last day, he read in the book of the law of God: and they kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day was [†]a solemn assembly, ^oaccording unto the manner.

CHAP. IX.

1 A solemn fast and repentance of the people. 4 The Levites confess God's goodness and their wickedness.

NOW, in the twenty and fourth day of ^athis month, the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sackclothes, ^band earth upon them.

2 And ^cthe seed of Israel separated themselves from all [†]strangers, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers.

4 ¶ Then stood up upon the || stairs, [†]of the Levites, Jeshua, and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani, and cried with a loud voice unto the LORD their God.

5 Then the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, Stand up and bless the LORD your God for ever and ever; and blessed be thy glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise.

6 Thou, even thou, art LORD alone: ^ethou hast made heaven, ^fthe heaven of heavens, with ^gall their host, the earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou preservest them all; and the host of heaven worshippeth thee.

12 Moreover, thou ^r leddest them in the day by a cloudy pillar, and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they should go.

13 ^s Thou camest down also upon mount Sinai, and spakest with them from heaven, and gavest them right judgments and [†] true laws, good statutes and commandments:

14 And madest known unto them thy holy sabbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant:

15 And ^t gavest them bread from heaven for their hunger, and ^u broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should ^x go in to possess the land: [†] which thou hadst sworn to give them.

16 But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments,

18 Yea, ^a when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is thy god that brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations;

19 Yet thou, in thy manifold mercies, forsookest them not in the wilderness: the ^b pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way wherein they should go.

20 Thou gavest also thy ^c good Spirit to instruct them, and withheldst not thy ^d manna from their mouth, and gavest them ^e water for their thirst.

21 Yea, ^f forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing: their ^g clothes waxed not old, and their feet swelled not

22 Moreover, thou gavest them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide them into corners: so they possessed the land of ^h Sihon, and the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan.

23 ⁱ Their children also multiplied thou as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it.

24 So ^k the children went in and possessed the land, and thou subduedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them [†] as they would.

25 And they took strong cities, and a fat land, and possessed houses full of all goods, || wells digged, vineyards and olive-yards, and [†] fruit-trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were filled, and ^l became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great goodness.

26 Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and ^m cast thy law behind their backs, and slew thy ⁿ prophets, which testified against them to turn them to thee; and they wrought great provocations.

27 ^o Therefore thou deliveredst them into the hand of their enemies, who vexed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried unto thee, thou heardest [†] them from heaven; and, according to thy manifold mercies, thou gavest them saviours, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies.

28 But after they had rest, [†] they did evil again before thee: therefore ledest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried unto thee; thou heardest [†] them from heaven; and many times didst thou deliver them, according to thy mercies;

34 And we cast the lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people, ^o for the wood-offering, to bring it into the house of our God, after the houses of our fathers, at times appointed, year by year, to burn upon the altar of the LORD our God, ^p as it is written in the law :

35 And ^q to bring the first-fruits of our ground, and the first-fruits of all fruit of all trees, year by year, unto the house of the LORD :

36 Also the first-born of our sons, and of our cattle, (as it is written ^r in the law,) and the firstlings of our herds, and of our flocks, to bring to the house of our God, unto the priests that minister in the house of our God :

37 ^s And that we should bring the first-fruits of our dough, and our offerings, and the fruit of all manner of trees, of wine, and of oil, unto the priests, to the chambers of the house of our God ; and ^t the tithes of our ground unto the Levites, that the same Levites might have the tithes in all the cities of our tillage.

38 And the priest the son of Aaron shall be with the Levites, ^u when the Levites take tithes : and the Levites shall bring up the tithe of the tithes unto the house of our God, to the chambers, into the treasure-house.

39 For the children of Israel and the children of Levi ^x shall bring the offering of the corn, of the new wine, and the oil, unto the chambers, where are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests that minister, ^y and the porters, and the singers : ^v and we will not forsake the house of our God.

10 ¶ And Jeshua begat Joiakim,

kub, were porters, keeping the ward, at the || thresholds of the gates.

26 These were in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and of Ezra the priest the scribe.

27 ¶ And at ^h the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, ⁱ both with thanksgivings, and with singing, with cymbals, psalteries, and with harps.

28 And the sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain country round about Jerusalem, and from the villages of Netophathi;

29 Also from the house of Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba and Azmaveth: for the singers had builded them villages round about Jerusalem.

30 And the priests and the Levites purified themselves, and purified the people, and the gates, and the wall.

31 Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, and appointed two great companies of them that gave thanks, whereof ^k one went on the right hand upon the wall ^l toward the dung-after;

32 And after them went Hoshaiah, and half of the princes of Judah,

33 And Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam,

34 Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah;

35 And certain of the priests' sons ^m with trumpets; namely, Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Michaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph;

36 And his brethren, Shemaiah, and Azarael, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethaneel, and Judah, Hanani, with ⁿ the musical instruments of David the man of God, and Ezra the scribe before them.

37 ° And at the fountain-gate, which was over against them, they went up by ^p the stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the house of David, even unto ^q the water-gate eastward.

38 And the other company of them that gave thanks went over against them, and I after them, and the half of the people upon the wall, from beyond ^r the tower of the furnaces even unto ^s the broad wall;

39 ^t And from above the gate of Ephraim, and above ^u the old gate, and above ^x the fish-gate, ^y and the tower of Hananeel, and the tower of Meah, even unto ^z the sheep-gate: and they stood still in the prison-gate.

40 So stood the two companies of them that gave thanks in the house of God, and I, and the half of the rulers with me:

41 And the priests; Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets;

42 And Maaseiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malchijah, and Elam, and Ezer: and the singers [†] sang loud, with Jezrahiah their overseer.

43 Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced; for God had made them rejoice with great joy: the wives also and the children rejoiced; so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.

44 ¶ ^a And at that time were some appointed over the chambers for the treasures, for the offerings, for the first-fruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them, out of the fields of the cities, the portions || of the law for the priests and Levites: [†] for Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites [†] that waited.

45 And both the singers and the porters kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, ^b according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his son.

46 For in the days of David ^c and Asaph of old there were chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving unto God.

47 And all Israel, in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters, every day his portion: and they || sanctified holy things unto the Levites; ^d and the Levites sanctified them unto the children of Aaron.

water, but ^b hired Balaam against them, that he should curse them: ^c howbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing.

3 Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, ^d that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.

4 ¶ And before this, Eliashib the priest, [†] having the oversight of the chamber of the house of our God, was allied unto Tobiah:

5 And he had prepared for him a great chamber, ^e where aforetime they laid the meat-offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the corn, the new wine, and the oil, ([†] which was commanded to be given to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters,) and the offerings of the priests.

6 But in all this time was not I at Jerusalem: ^f for in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon came I unto the king, and [†] after certain days || obtained I leave of the king.

7 And I came to Jerusalem, and understood of the evil that Eliashib did for Tobiah, in preparing him a chamber in the courts of the house of God.

8 And it grieved me sore; therefore I cast forth all the household-stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber.

9 Then I commanded, and they cleansed the chambers; and thither brought I again the vessels of the house of God, with the meat-offering and the frankincense.

10 ¶ And I perceived that ^g the portions of the Levites had not been given them: for the Levites and the singers, that did the work, were fled every one to ^h his field.

11 Then ⁱ contended I with the rulers, and said, ^k Why is the house of God forsaken? And I gathered them together, and set them in their [†] place.

12 ^l Then brought all Judah the tithe of the corn, and the new wine, and the oil, unto the || treasuries.

13 And I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe; and of the Levites, Pedaiah; and [†] next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah: for they were counted faithful; and [†] their office was to distribute unto their brethren.

14 ^m Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my [†] good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the || offices thereof.

15 ¶ In those days saw I in Judah some treading wine-presses on the sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath-day: and I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals.

16 There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, which brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem.

17 ⁿ Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath-day?

18 Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Israel, by profaning the sabbath.

19 And it came to pass, that, when the gates of Jerusalem ^o began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath; ^p and some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath-day.

20 So the merchants, and sellers of all kind of ware, lodged without Jerusalem once or twice.

21 Then I testified against them, and said unto them, Why lodge ye [†] about the wall? if ye do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the sabbath.

22 And I commanded the Levites, that ^q they should cleanse themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the sabbath-day. ^r Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the || greatness of thy mercy.

23 ¶ In those days also saw I Jews that [†] had married wives of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab:

24 And their children spake half in the speech of Ashdod, and [†] could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language [†] of each people.

25 And I contended with them, and || cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto

1 Mordecai and the Jews mourn.

15 Esther appointeth a fast.

WHEN Mordecai perceived all that was done, Mordecai rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth ^awith ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and a bitter cry;

2 And came even before the king's gate; for none might enter into the king's gate clothed with sackcloth.

3 And in every province, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and [†]many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

4 ¶ So Esther's maids and her [†]chamberlains came and told it her. Then was the queen exceedingly grieved; and she sent raiment to clothe Mordecai, and to take away his sackcloth from him: but he received it not.

5 Then called Esther for Hatach, one of the king's chamberlains, [†]whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a commandment to Mordecai, to know what it was, and why it was.

6 So Hatach went forth to Mordecai unto the street of the city, which was before the king's gate:

7 And Mordecai told him of all that had happened unto him, and of the sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasures for the Jews, to destroy them.

8 Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given at Shushan to destroy them, to shew it unto Esther, and to declare it unto her, and to charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make supplication unto him, and to make request before him for her people.

9 And Hatach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai.

10 ¶ Again Esther spake unto Hatach, and gave him commandment unto Mordecai;

11 All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, do know, that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the king into the inner court, who is not called, ^bthere is one law of his to put him to death, except such ^cto whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days.

12 And they told to Mordecai Esther's words.

13 Then Mordecai commanded to answer Esther, Think not with thyself that thou shalt escape in the king's house more than all the Jews.

14 For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there [†]enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place; but thou and thy father's house shall be destroyed: and who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?

15 ¶ Then Esther bade them return Mordecai this answer;

16 Go, gather together all the Jews that are [†]present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink ^dthree days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise; and so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law: ^eand if I perish, I perish.

of Haman; what have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? Now, ^d what is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee; or what is thy request further? and it shall be done.

13 Then said Esther, If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shushan to do to-morrow also according unto this day's decree, and [†] let Haman's ten sons be hanged upon the gallows.

14 And the king commanded it so to be done: and the decree was given at Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten sons.

15 For the Jews that were in Shushan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and slew three hundred men at Shushan; ^e but on the prey they laid not their hand.

16 But the other Jews that were in the king's provinces gathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of their foes seventy and five thousand (but they laid not their hands on the prey)

17 On the thirteenth day of the month Adar, and on the fourteenth day [†] of the same rested they, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

18 But the Jews that were at Shushan assembled together on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof; and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

19 Therefore the Jews of the villages, that dwelt in the unwall'd towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar ^f a day of gladness and feasting, ^g and a good day, and of ^h sending portions one to another.

20 ¶ And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both nigh and far,

21 To stablish this among them, that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly,

22 As the days wherein the Jews rested from their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day; that they should make them days of feasting and joy, and of ⁱ sending portions one to another, and gifts to the poor.

23 And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written unto them;

24 Because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised against the Jews to destroy them, and ^k had cast Pur (that is, the lot) to [†] consume them, and to destroy them:

25 But [†] when Esther came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

26 Wherefore they called these days Purim, after the name of || Pur: || therefore, for all the words of ^m this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and which had come unto them,

27 The Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as joined themselves unto them, so as it should not [†] fail, that they would keep these two days according to their writing, and according to their appointed time, every year;

28 And that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not [†] fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them [†] perish from their seed.

29 Then Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with [†] all authority, to confirm this second letter of Purim.

30 And he sent the letters unto all the Jews, to the hundred twenty and seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of peace and truth, 31 To confirm these days of Purim in their times appointed, according as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had enjoined them, and as they had decreed [†] for themselves, and for their seed, the matters of the fastings and their cry.

32 And the decree of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim; and it was written in the book.

The Book of JOB*.

CHAP. I.

1 The holiness, riches, and religious care of Job for his children: 6 Satan, appearing before God, by calumnia-tion, obtaineth leave to tempt Job.

THERE was a man ^a in the land of Uz, whose name was ^b Job; and that man was ^c perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and eschewed evil.

2 And there were born unto him seven sons and three daughters.

3 His || substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she-asses, and a very great || household; so that this man was the greatest of all the † men of the east.

4 And his sons went and feasted in their houses, every one his day; and sent and called for their three sisters, to eat and to drink with them.

5 And it was so, when the days of their feasting were gone about, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning; ^d and offered burnt-offerings according to the number of them all: for Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and ^e cursed God in their hearts. Thus did Job † continually.

6 ¶ Now ^f there was a day ^g when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and † Satan came also † among them.

7 And the LORD said unto Satan,
Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From ^h going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

8 And the LORD said unto Satan,
† Hast thou considered my servant
Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil?

9 Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought?

10 Hast not thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side?
thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his || substance is increased in the land:

11 ⁱ But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, † and he will curse thee to thy face.

12 And the LORD said unto Satan,
Behold, all that he hath is in thy † power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.

13 ¶ And there was a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:

14 And there came a messenger unto Job, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them;

15 And the Sabeans fell upon them, and took them away; yea, they have slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

16 While he was yet speaking,
there came also another, and said,
|| The fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burnt up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

17 While he was yet speaking,
there came also another, and said,
The Chaldeans made out three bands, and † fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

18 While he was yet speaking,
there came also another, and said,
Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:

19 And, behold, there came a great wind † from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

20 Then Job arose, ^k and rent his || mantle, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped,

21 And said, ^l Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither: the LORD gave, and

CHAP. II.

1 Satan, appearing again before God, obtaineth further leave to tempt Job: 7 he smiteth him with sore boils. 9 Job reproveth his wife, moving him to curse God.

A GAIN^a there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them, to present himself before the LORD.

2 And the LORD said unto Satan, From whence comest thou? And Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

3 And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, ^aa perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil? and still he holdeth fast his integrity, although thou movedst me against him, [†]to ^ddestroy him without cause.

4 And Satan answered the LORD, and said, Skin for skin; yea, all that a man hath will he give for his life:

5 ^eBut put forth thine hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse thee to thy face.

6 ^fAnd the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, he is in thine hand; || but save his life.

7 ¶ So went Satan forth from the presence of the LORD, and smote Job with sore boils, from the sole of his foot unto his crown.

8 And he took him a potsherd to scrape himself withal; ^gand he sat down among the ashes.

9 ¶ Then said his wife unto him, Dost thou still retain thine integrity? curse God, and die.

10 But he said unto her, Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh. What! shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? ^hIn all this did not Job sin with his lips.

11 ¶ Now, when Job's three friends heard of all this evil that was come upon him, they came every one from his own place; Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite: for they had made an appointment together to come ⁱto mourn with him, and to comfort him.

12 And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice, and wept; and they rent every one his mantle, and ^ksprinkled dust upon their heads toward heaven.

13 So they sat down with him upon the ground ^lseven days and seven nights, and none spake a word unto him: for they saw that his grief was very great.

CHAP. III.

1 Job curseth the day and services of his birth. 13 The ease of death.

AFTER this opened Job his mouth, and cursed his day.

2 And Job [†]spake, and said,

3 ^aLet the day perish wherein I was born, and the night in which it was said, There is a man-child conceived.

4 Let that day be darkness; let not God regard it from above, neither let the light shine upon it.

5 Let darkness and ^bthe shadow of death || stain it; let a cloud dwell upon it; || let the blackness of the day terrify it.

6 As for that night, let darkness seize upon it; || let it not be joined unto the days of the year; let it not come into the number of the months.

7 Lo, let that night be solitary; let no joyful voice come therein.

8 Let them curse it that curse the day, who are ready to raise up || their mourning.

9 Let the stars of the twilight thereof be dark; let it look for light, but have none; neither let it see [†]the dawning of the day:

10 Because it shut not up the doors of my mother's womb, nor hid sorrow from mine eyes.

11 ^cWhy died I not from the womb? why did I not give up the ghost when I came out of the belly?

12 ^dWhy did the knees prevent me? or why the breasts that I should suck?

13 For now should I have lain still and been quiet, I should have slept: then had I been at rest

14 With kings and counsellors of the earth, which ^ebuilt desolate places for themselves;

15 Or with princes that had gold, who filled their houses with silver:

16 Or ^fas an hidden untimely birth I had not been; as infants which never saw light.

CHAP. IV.

1 Eliphaz reproveth Job for want of religion: 7 he teacheth God's judgments not to be for the righteous, but for the wicked: 12 his fearful vision, to humble the excellencies of creatures before God.

THEN Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

2 If we assay [†] to commune with thee, wilt thou be grieved? but [†] who can withhold himself from speaking?

3 Behold, thou hast instructed many, and thou hast strengthened the weak hands.

4 Thy words have upholden him that was falling, and thou ^a hast strengthened [†] the feeble knees.

5 But now it is come upon thee, and thou faintest; it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.

6 Is not this thy fear, thy confidence, thy hope, and the uprightness of thy ways?

7 Remember, I pray thee, who ever perished, being innocent? or where were the righteous cut off?

8 Even as I have seen, ^b they that plow iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same.

9 By the blast of God they perish, and ^{||} by the breath of his nostrils are they consumed.

10 The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, and ^c the teeth of the young lions, are broken.

11 ^d The old lion perisheth for lack of prey, and the stout lion's whelps are scattered abroad.

12 Now a thing was [†] secretly brought to me, and mine ear received a little thereof.

13 ^e In thoughts from the visions of the night, when deep sleep falleth on men, 14 Fear [†] came upon me, and trembling, which made [†] all my bones to shake.

15 Then a spirit passed before my face; the hair of my flesh stood up:

16 It stood still, but I could not discern the form thereof: an image was before mine eyes: ^{||} there was silence, and I heard a voice, saying,

17 ^f Shall mortal man be more just than God? shall a man be more pure than his Maker?

18 Behold, he ^g put not trust in his servants; ^{||} and his angels he charged with folly:

19 ^h How much less in them that dwell in ⁱ houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, which are crushed before the moth?

20 ^k They are [†] destroyed from morning to evening: they perish for ever, without any regarding it.

21 ^l Doth not their excellency which is in them go away? ^m they die, even without wisdom.

CHAP. V.

1 The harm of inconsideration. 3 The end of the wicked is misery. 6 God is to be regarded in affliction. 17 The happy end of God's correction.

25 How forcible are right words !
but what doth your arguing reprove ?

26 Do ye imagine to reprove words, and the speeches of one that is desperate, which are as wind ?

27 Yea, † ye overwhelm the fatherless, and ye dig a pit for your friend.

28 Now therefore be content ; look upon me : for it is † evident unto you if I lie.

29 ^h Return, I pray you, let it not be iniquity ; yea, return again, my righteousness is || in it.

30 Is there iniquity in my tongue ? cannot † my taste discern perverse things ?

CHAP. VII.

1 Job excuseth his desire of death :
12 he complaineth of his own restlessness, and God's watchfulness.

IS there not || ^a an appointed time to man upon earth ? are not his days also like the days of an hireling ?

2 As a servant † earnestly desireth the shadow, and as an hireling looketh for the reward of his work ;

3 So am I made to possess ^b months of vanity, and wearisome nights are appointed to me.

4 ^c When I lie down, I say, When shall I arise, and † the night be gone ?
and I am full of tossings to and fro unto the dawning of the day.

5 My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust ; my skin is broken, and become loathsome.

6 ^d My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without hope.

7 O remember that ^e my life is wind ;
mine eye † shall no more || see good.

8 ^f The eye of him that hath seen me shall see me no more : thine eyes are upon me, and || I am not.

9 As the cloud is consumed and vanisheth away ; so ^g he that goeth down to the grave shall come up no more.

10 He shall return no more to his house, ^h neither shall his place know him any more.

11 Therefore I will not refrain my mouth ; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit ; I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.

12 Am I a sea, or a whale, that thou settest a watch over me ?

13 ⁱ When I say, My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease
my complaint ;

14 Then thou scarest me with dreams, and terrifiest me through visions ;

15 So that my soul chooseth strangling, and death rather † than my life.

16 ^k I loathe it ; I would not live always : ^l let me alone ; for ^m my days are vanity.

17 ⁿ What is man, that thou should-est magnify him ? and that thou should-est set thine heart upon him ?

18 And that thou shouldest visit him every morning, and try him every moment ?

19 How long wilt thou not depart from me, nor let me alone till I swallow down my spittle ?

20 I have sinned ; what shall I do unto thee, ^o O thou Preserver of men ?
why ^p hast thou set me as a mark against thee, so that I am a burden to myself ?

21 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity ? for now shall I sleep in the dust ; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Bildad sheweth God's justice in dealing with men according to their works : 8 he appealeth to antiquity to prove the certain destruction of the hypocrite : 20 he applieth God's just dealing to Job.

THEN answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

2 How long wilt thou speak these things ? and how long shall the words of thy mouth be like a strong wind ?

3 ^a Doth † God pervert judgment ?
or doth † the Almighty pervert justice ?

4 If thy children have sinned against him, and he have cast them away
† for their transgression ;

5 ^b If thou wouldest seek unto † God betimes, and make thy supplication to † the Almighty ;

6 If thou wert pure and upright ;
surely now he would awake for thee, and make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous.

7 Though thy beginning was small, yet thy latter end should greatly increase.

8 ^c For enquire, I pray thee, of the former age, and prepare thyself to the search of their fathers :

9 (For ^d we are but of yesterday, and know † nothing, because our days upon earth are a shadow :)

10 Shall not they teach thee, and tell thee, and utter words out of their heart ?

11 Can the rush grow up without mire ? can the flag grow without water ?

15^e He shall lean upon his house, but it shall not stand: he shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure.

16 He is green before the sun, and his branch shooteth forth in his garden.

17 His roots are wrapped about the heap, and seeth the place of stones.

18^h If he destroy him from his place, then it shall deny him, saying, I have not seen thee.

19 Behold, this is the joy of his way, and out of the earth shall others grow.

20 Behold, [†] God will not cast away a perfect man, neither will he [†] help the evil doers;

21 Till he fill thy mouth with laughing, and thy lips with [†] rejoicing.

22 They that hate thee shall be clothed with shame; and the dwelling-place of the wicked [†] shall come to nought.

CHAP. IX.

1 Job, acknowledging God's justice, sheweth there is no contending with him. 22 Man's innocency is not to be judged by affliction.

THEN Job answered and said, 2 I know it is so of a truth; but how should ^a man be just || with [†] God?

3 If he will contend with him, he cannot answer him one of a thousand.

4^b He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength: who hath hardened himself against him, and hath prospered?

5 Which removeth the mountains, and they know not; which overturneth them in his anger;

6 Which shaketh the earth out of her place, and the pillars thereof tremble;

7 Which commandeth the sun, and it riseth not, and sealeth up the stars;

8^c Which alone spreadeth out the heavens, and treadeth upon the [†] waves of the sea;

9^d Which maketh [†] Arcturus, Orion, and Pleiades, and the chambers of the south;

10^e Which doeth great things past finding out; yea, and wonders without number.

11^f Lo, he goeth by me, and I see him not: he passeth on also, but I perceive him not.

12^g Behold, he taketh away, [†] who can hinder him? who will say unto him, What doest thou?

13 If God will not withdraw his anger, ^h the [†] proud helpers do stoop under him.

14 How much less shall I answer him, and choose out my words to reason with him?

15ⁱ Whom, though I were righteous, yet would I not answer, but I would make supplication to my judge.

16 If I had called, and he had answered me, yet would I not believe that he had hearkened unto my voice.

17 For he breaketh me with a tempest, and multiplieth my wounds ^k without cause.

18 He will not suffer me to take my breath, but filleth me with bitterness.

19 If I speak of strength, lo, he is strong: and if of judgment, who shall set me a time to plead?

20 If I justify myself, mine own mouth shall condemn me: if I say, I am perfect, it shall also prove me perverse.

21 Though I were perfect, yet would I not know my soul: I would despise my life.

22 This is one thing, therefore I said it, ^l He destroyeth the perfect and the wicked.

23 If the scourge slay suddenly, he will laugh at the trial of the innocent.

24 The earth is given into the hand of the wicked: ^m he covereth the faces of the judges thereof; if not, where, and who is he?

25 Now ⁿ my days are swifter than a post; they flee away, they see no good.

26 They are passed away as the [†] || swift ships; ^o as the eagle that hasteth to the prey.

27^p If I say, I will forget my complaint, I will leave off my heaviness, and comfort myself;

28 I am afraid of all my sorrows, I know that thou wilt not hold me innocent.

29 If I be wicked, why then labour I in vain?

30^q If I wash myself with snow-water, and make my hands never so clean;

31 Yet shalt thou plunge me in the ditch, and mine own clothes shall || abhor me.

32 For ^r he is not a man, as I am, that I should answer him, and we should come together in judgment.

MY ^a soul is || weary of my life:

2 I will say unto God, Do not

3 *Is it good unto thee that thou shouldest oppress, that thou shouldest despise † the work of thine hands, and shine upon the counsel of the 4 Hast thou eyes of flesh? or ^b seest thou as man seeth?

5 *Are thy days as the days of man?
are thy years as man's days,*

6 That thou enquirest after mine

7 † Thou knowest that I am not wicked; and there is none that can deliver out of thine hand.

8 ^c Thine hands † have made me, and fashioned me together round about; yet thou dost destroy me.

9 Remember, I beseech thee, that ^d thou hast made me as the clay; and wilt thou bring me into dust again?

10 ^e Hast thou not poured me out as milk, and curdled me like cheese?

11 Thou hast clothed me with skin and flesh, and hast † fenced me with bones and sinews.

12 Thou hast granted me life and favour, and thy visitation hath preserved my spirit.

13 And these things hast thou hid in thine heart: I know that this is with thee.

14 If I sin, then thou markest me;
and thou wilt not acquit me from mine iniquity.

15 If I be wicked, woe unto me;
^f and if I be righteous, yet will I not lift up my head: I am full of confusion; therefore see thou mine affliction,

16 For it increaseth. ^g Thou huntest me as a fierce lion; and again thou shewest thyself marvellous upon me.

17 Thou renewest || thy witnesses against me, and increasest thine in-ignation upon me; changes and war are against me.

18 ^h Wherefore then hast thou brought me forth out of the womb?
Oh that I had given up the ghost, and no eye had seen me!

19 I should have been as though I had not been; I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.

20 ⁱ Are not my days few? ^k cease then, and † let me alone, that I may take comfort a little,

ness, ⁿ and the shadow of death:

22 A land of darkness, as darkness itself; and of the shadow of death, without any order, and where the light is as darkness.

CHAP. XI.

1 Zophar reproveth Job for justifying himself. 7 God's wisdom is un-searchable. 13 The assured blessing of repentance.

THEN answered Zophar the Naa-mathite, and said,

2 Should not the multitude of words be answered? and should † a man full of talk be justified?

3 Should thy || lies make men hold their peace? and when thou mockest, shall no man make thee ashamed?

4 For ^a thou hast said, My doctrine is pure, and I am clean in thine eyes.

5 But Oh that God would speak, and open his lips against thee;

6 And that he would shew thee the secrets of wisdom, that they are double to that which is! Know therefore that ^b God exacteth of thee less than thine iniquity deserveth.

7 ^c Canst thou by searching find out God? canst thou find out † the Almighty unto perfection?

8 It is † as high as heaven; what canst thou do? deeper than hell;
what canst thou know?

9 The measure thereof is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea.

10 ^d If he || cut off, and shut up, or gather together, then † who can hinder him?

11 For ^e he knoweth vain men:
he seeth wickedness also; will he not then consider it?

12 For † ^f vain man would be wise, though man be born like a wild ass's colt.

CHAP. XII.

1 Job maintaineth himself against his friends that reprove him: 7 he acknowledgeth God's omnipotency.

AND Job answered said,
2 No doubt but ye are the people, and wisdom shall die with you.

3 But ^a I have [†] understanding as well as you; [†] I am not inferior to you: yea, [†] who knoweth not such things as these?

4 ^b I am as one mocked of his neighbour, who calleth upon God, and he answereth him: the just upright man is laughed to scorn.

5 ^c He that is ready to slip with his feet is as a lamp despised in the thought of him that is at ease.

6 ^d The tabernacles of robbers prosper, and they that provoke [†] God are secure; into whose hand God bringeth abundantly.

7 But ask now the beasts, and they shall teach thee; and the fowls of the air, and they shall tell thee:

8 Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach thee; and the fishes of the sea shall declare unto thee.

9 Who knoweth not in all these that the hand of the LORD hath wrought this?

10 ^e In whose hand is the || soul of every living thing, and the breath of [†] all mankind.

11 ^f Doth not the ear try words? and the [†] mouth taste his meat?

12 With the ancient is wisdom; and in length of days understanding.

13 || ^g With him is wisdom and strength, he hath counsel and understanding.

14 Behold, ^h he breaketh down, and it cannot be built again; he ⁱ shut-teth [†] up a man, and there can be no opening.

15 Behold, he withholdeth the waters, and they dry up; also he sendeth them out, and they overturn the earth.

16 ^k With him is strength and wisdom: the deceived and the deceiver are his.

17 He leadeth counsellors away spoiled, and [†]l maketh the judges fools.

18 He looseth the bond of kings; and girdeth their loins with a girdle.

19 He leadeth princes away spoiled, and overthroweth the mighty.

20 ^m He removeth away [†] the speech of the trusty, and taketh away the understanding of the aged.

21 ⁿ He poureth contempt upon princes, and || weakeneth the strength of the mighty.

22 ^o He discovereth deep things out of darkness, and bringeth out to light the shadow of death.

23 ^p He increaseth the nations, and destroyeth them: he enlargeth the nations, and [†] straiteneth them again.

24 He taketh away the heart of the chief of the people of the earth, and [†] causeth them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way.

25 They grope in the dark without light, and he maketh them to [†] stagger like a drunken man.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Job reproveth his friends of partiality: 14 he professeth his confidence in God, 20 and entreateth to know his own sins, and God's purpose in afflicting him.

L O, mine eye hath seen all this, mine ear hath heard and understood it.

2 ^a What ye know, the same do I know also: I am not inferior unto you.

3 ^b Surely I would speak to [†] the Almighty, and I desire to reason with [†] God.

4 But ye are forgers of lies, ^c ye are all physicians of no value.

5 Oh that ye would altogether hold your peace! and ^d it should be your wisdom.

6 Hear now my reasoning, and hearken to the pleadings of my lips.

7 ^e Will ye speak wickedly for [†] God? and talk deceitfully for him?

10 He will surely reprove you, if ye do secretly accept persons.

11 Shall not his excellency make you afraid? and his dread fall upon you?

12 Your remembrances are like unto ashes, your bodies to bodies of clay.

13 † Hold your peace, let me alone, that I may speak, and let come on me what will.

14 Wherefore ^f do I take my flesh in my teeth, and ^g put my life in mine hand?

15 ^h Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: ⁱ but I will † maintain mine own ways before him.

16 He also shall be my salvation: for an hypocrite shall not come before him.

17 Hear diligently my speech, and my declaration with your ears.

18 Behold now, I have ordered my cause; I know that I shall be justified.

19 ^k Who is he that will plead with me? for now, if I hold my tongue, I shall give up the ghost.

20 ^l Only do not two things unto me; then will I not hide myself from thee:

21 Withdraw thine hand far from me; and let not thy dread make me afraid:

22 Then call thou, and I will answer; or let me speak, and answer thou me.

23 How many are mine iniquities and sins? make me to know my transgression and my sin.

24 ^m Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and ⁿ holdest me for thine enemy?

25 ^o Wilt thou break a leaf driven to and fro? and wilt thou pursue the dry stubble?

27 ^q Thou putttest my feet also in the stocks, and † lookest narrowly unto all my paths; thou settest a print upon the † heels of my feet.

28 And he, as a rotten thing, consumeth, as a garment that is moth-eaten.

CHAP. XIV.

1 Job entreateth God for favour, by the shortness of life, and certainty of death. 7 Though life once lost be irrecoverable, yet he waiteth for his change. 16 By sin the creature is subject to corruption.

MAN that is born of a woman is † of few days, and ^a full of trouble.

2 ^b He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.

3 And dost thou open thine eyes upon such an one, and bringest me into judgment with thee?

4 † Who ^c can bring a clean thing out of ^d an unclean? not one.

5 ^e Seeing his days are determined, the number of his months are with thee; thou hast appointed his bounds that he cannot pass:

6 ^f Turn from him, that he may † rest, till he shall accomplish, ^g as an hireling, his day.

7 For there is hope of a tree, if it be cut down, ^h that it will sprout again, and that the tender branch thereof will not cease.

8 Though the root thereof wax old in the earth, and the stock thereof die in the ground;

9 Yet through the scent of water it will bud, and bring forth boughs like a plant.

10 But man dieth, and † wasteth away; yea, man giveth up the ghost, and where is he?

11 As the waters fail from the sea, and the flood decayeth and drieth up;

12 So man lieth down, and riseth not: ⁱ till the heavens be no more, they shall not awake, nor be raised out of their sleep.

13 Oh that thou wouldest hide me in the grave, that thou wouldest keep me secret, until thy wrath be past; that thou wouldest appoint me a set time, and remember me!

14 If a man die, shall he live again? All the days of my appointed time ^j will I wait, ^k till my change come.

15 Thou shalt call, and I will answer thee: thou wilt have a desire to the work of thine hands.

16 ^l For now thou numberest my steps: dost thou not watch over my sin?

17 ^m My transgression is sealed up in a bag, and thou sewest up mine iniquity.

18 And surely the mountain falling † cometh to nought, and the rock is removed out of his place.

19 The waters wear the stones: thou † wastest away the things which grow out of the dust of the earth; and thou destroyest the hope of man.

1 Eliphaz reproveth Job of impiety in justifying himself: 17 he proveth by tradition the disquietude of wicked men.

THEN answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and said,

2 Should a wise man utter † vain knowledge, and fill his belly with the east wind?

3 Should he reason with unprofitable talk? or with speeches where-with he can do no good?

4 Yea, † thou castest off fear, and restrainest || prayer before † God.

5 For thy mouth † uttereth thine iniquity, and thou choosest the tongue of the crafty.

6 Thine own mouth condemneth thee, and not I; yea, thine own lips testify against thee.

7 Art thou the first man that was born? ^a or wast thou made before the hills?

8 ^b Hast thou heard the secret of God? and dost thou restrain wisdom to thyself?

9 What knowest thou, that we know not? what understandest thou, which is not in us?

10 ^c With us are both the gray-headed and very aged men, much elder than thy father.

11 Are the consolations of God small with thee? is there any secret thing with thee?

12 Why doth thine heart carry thee away? and what do thine eyes wink at, 13 That thou turnest thy spirit against † God, and lettest such words go out of thy mouth?

14 ^d What is man, that he should be clean? and he which is born of a woman, that he should be righteous?

15 ^e Behold, he putteth no trust in his saints; yea, the heavens are not clean in his sight:

16 ^f How much more abominable and filthy is man, ^g which drinketh iniquity like water?

17 I will shew thee, hear me; and that which I have seen I will declare;

18 Which wise men have told ^h from their fathers, and have not hid it;

19 Unto whom alone the earth was given, and no stranger passed among them.

20 The wicked man travaileth with pain all his days, ⁱ and the number of years is hidden to the oppressor.

21 † A dreadful sound is in his ears: ^k in prosperity the destroyer shall come upon him.

22 He believeth not that he shall return out of darkness, and he is waited for of the sword.

23 He ^l wandereth abroad for bread, saying, Where is it? he knoweth that ^m the day of darkness is ready at his hand.

24 Trouble and anguish shall make him afraid; they shall prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle.

25 For he stretcheth out his hand against † God, and strengtheneth himself against † the Almighty.

26 He runneth upon him, even on his neck, upon the thick bosses of his bucklers;

27 ⁿ Because he covereth his face with his fatness, and maketh collops of fat on his flanks.

28 And he dwelleth in desolate cities, and in houses which no man inhabiteth, which are ready to become heaps.

29 He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, neither shall he prolong the perfection thereof upon the earth.

30 He shall not depart out of darkness: the flame shall dry up his branches, and ^o by the breath of his mouth shall he go away.

31 Let not him that is deceived trust in vanity; for vanity shall be his recompence.

32 It shall be || accomplished ^p before his time, and his branch shall not be green.

33 He shall shake off his unripe grape as the vine, and shall cast off his flower as the olive.

34 For the congregation of hypocrites shall be desolate, and fire shall consume the tabernacles of bribery.

35 ^q They conceive mischief, and bring forth || vanity, and their belly prepareth deceit.

1 Job protesteth his sincerity. 8 The hypocrite is without hope. 11 The blessings which the wicked have are oftentimes turned into curses.

MOREOVER, Job † continued his parable, and said,

2 As † God liveth, ^a who hath taken away my judgment; and † the Almighty, who hath † vexed my soul;

10 Will he delight himself in † the Almighty? will he always call upon God?

11 I will teach you † by the hand of God; that which is with † the Almighty will I not conceal.

12 Behold, all ye yourselves have seen it; why then are ye thus altogether vain?

13 ° This is the portion of a wicked man with God, and the heritage of oppressors, which they shall receive of † the Almighty.

14 ^f If his children be multiplied, it is for the sword; and his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.

15 Those that remain of him shall be buried in death; and ^g his widows shall not weep.

16 Though he heap up silver as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay;

17 He may prepare it, but ^h the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver.

18 He buildeth his house as a moth, and ⁱ as a booth that the keeper maketh.

23 Men shall clap their hands at him, and shall hiss him out of his place.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 Though man may search deep into nature, yet to understand God's ways is beyond his reach; 23 being comprehended by God only.

SURELY there is † a vein for the silver, and a place for gold where they fine it.

2 Iron is taken out of the † earth, † Or, dust. and brass is molten out of the stone.

7 There is a path which no fowl knoweth, and which the vulture's eye hath not seen:

8 The lion's whelps have not trodden it, nor the fierce lion passed by it.

9 He putteth forth his hand upon the † rock; he overturneth the mountains by the roots.

10 He cutteth out rivers among the rocks; and his eye seeth every precious thing.

11 He bindeth the floods † from overflowing; and the thing that is hid bringeth he forth to light.

12 ^a But where shall wisdom be found? and where is the place of understanding?

13 Man knoweth not the price thereof; neither is it found in the land of the living.

CHAP. XXIX.

Job bemoaneth himself, calling to mind his former prosperity and honour.

[†] MOREOVER, Job [†] continued his parable, and said,

2 Oh that I were ^a as in months past, as in the days when God preserved me;

3 ^b When his || candle shined upon my head, and when by his light I walked through darkness;

4 As I was in the days of my youth, when the secret of God was upon my tabernacle;

5 When [†] the Almighty was yet with me, when my children were about me;

6 When ^c I washed my steps with butter, and ^d the rock poured [†] me out rivers of oil;

7 When I went out to the gate through the city; when I prepared my seat in the street!

8 The young men saw me, and hid themselves; and the aged arose, and stood up.

9 The princes refrained talking, and laid their hand on their mouth.

10 [†] The nobles held their peace, and their tongue cleaved to the roof of their mouth.

11 When the ear heard me, then it blessed me; and when the eye saw me, it gave witness to me;

12 Because ^e I delivered the poor that cried, and the fatherless, and him that had none to help him.

13 The blessing of him that was ready to perish came upon me: and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.

14 [†] I put on righteousness, and it clothed me: my judgment was as a robe and a diadem.

15 I was eyes to the blind, and feet was I to the lame.

16 I was a father to the poor; and ^g the cause which I knew not I searched out.

17 And I brake ^h [†] the jaws of the wicked, and [†] plucked the spoil out of his teeth.

18 Then I said, I shall die in my nest, and I shall multiply my days as the sand.

19 ⁱ My root was [†] spread out ^k by the waters, and the dew lay all night upon my branch.

20 My glory was [†] fresh in me, and ^l my bow was [†] renewed in my hand.

21 Unto me men gave ear, and waited, and kept silence at my counsel.

22 After my words they spake not again; and my speech dropped upon them.

23 And they waited for me as for the rain; and they opened their mouth wide, as for ^m the latter rain.

24 If I laughed on them, they believed it not; and the light of my countenance they cast not down.

25 I chose out their way, and sat chief, and dwelt as a king in the army, as one that comforteth the mourners.

CHAP. XXX.

1 Job lamenteth the change of his honour into extreme contempt; 15 and of his prosperity into calamity.

10 Then let my wife grind unto another, and let others bow down upon her.

13 ^f Surely † God will not hear vanity, neither will † the Almighty regard it.

14 ^g Although thou sayest thou shalt not see him, yet judgment is before him; therefore trust thou in him.

15 But now, because it is not so, || he hath visited in his anger; yet || he knoweth it not in great extremity:

16 ^h Therefore doth Job open his mouth in vain; he multiplieth words without knowledge.

CHAP. XXXVI.

1 Elihu sheweth how God is just in his ways: 16 how Job's sins hinder God's blessings. 24 God's works are to be magnified.

ELIHU also proceeded, and said, 2 Suffer me a little, and I will shew thee † that I have yet to speak on God's behalf.

3 I will fetch my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.

4 For truly my words shall not be false: he that is perfect in knowledge is with thee.

5 Behold, † God is mighty, and despiseth not any: ^a he is mighty in strength and † wisdom.

6 He preserveth not the life of the wicked: but giveth right to the || poor.

7 ^b He withdraweth not his eyes from the righteous: but ^c with kings are they on the throne; yea, he doth establish them for ever, and they are exalted.

8 And ^d if they be bound in fetters, and be holden in cords of affliction;

9 Then he sheweth them their work, and their transgressions that they have exceeded.

10 ^e He openeth also their ear to discipline, and commandeth that they return from iniquity.

11 If they obey and serve him, they shall ^f spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasures:

12 But if they obey not, † they shall perish by the sword, and they shall die without knowledge.

13 But the hypocrites in heart ^g heap up wrath; they cry not when he bindeth them:

14 ^h † They die in youth, and their life is among the || unclean.

15 He delivereth the || poor in his affliction, and openeth their ears in oppression:

16 Even so would he have removed thee out of the strait into a broad place, where there is no straitness; and † that which should be set on thy table should be full of fatness.

17 But thou hast fulfilled the judgment of the wicked: || judgment and justice take hold on thee.

18 Because there is wrath, beware lest he take thee away with his stroke: then ^k a great ransom cannot † deliver thee.

19 Will he esteem thy riches? no, not gold, nor all the forces of strength.

20 Desire not the night, when people are cut off in their place.

21 Take heed, regard not iniquity; for this hast thou chosen rather than affliction.

22 Behold, † God exalteth by his power: ^l who teacheth like him?

23 ^m Who hath enjoined him his way? or ⁿ who can say, Thou hast wrought iniquity?

24 Remember that thou magnify his work, which men behold.

25 Every man may see it; man may behold it afar off.

26 Behold, † God is great, and we know him not, ° neither can the number of his years be searched out.

27 For he maketh small the drops of water: they pour down rain according to the vapour thereof, 28 Which the clouds do drop and distil upon man abundantly.

29 Also can any understand the spreadings of the clouds, or the noise of his tabernacle?

30 Behold, he spreadeth his light upon it, and covereth † the bottom of the sea.

31 For † by them judgeth he the people; he giveth meat in abundance.

32 With clouds he covereth the light; and commandeth it not to shine by the cloud that cometh betwixt.

33 The noise thereof sheweth concerning it, the cattle also concerning † the vapour.

CHAP. XXXVII.

1 God is to be feared because of his great works: 15 his wisdom is unsearchable in them.

AT this also my heart trembleth, and is moved out of his place.

2 † Hear attentively the noise of his voice, and the sound that goeth out of his mouth.

3 He directeth it under the whole heaven, and his † lightning unto the † ends of the earth.

4 After it † a voice roareth: he thundereth with the voice of his excellency; and he will not stay them when his voice is heard.

5 † God thundereth marvellously with his voice: † great things doeth he, which we cannot comprehend.

6 For † he saith to the snow, Be thou on the earth; † likewise to the small rain, and to the great rain of his strength.

7 He sealeth up the hand of every man; that all men may know his work.

8 Then the beasts go into dens, and remain in their places.

9 † Out of the south cometh the whirlwind; and cold out of the † north.

10 † By the breath of † God frost is given; and the breadth of the waters is straitened.

11 Also by watering he wearieth the thick cloud: he scattereth † his bright cloud, 12 And it is turned round about by his counsels; that they may do whatsoever he commandeth them upon the face of the world in the earth.

13 † He causeth it to come, whether for † correction, or † for his land, or † for mercy.

14 Hearken unto this, O Job: stand still, and consider the wondrous works of † God.

15 Dost thou know when God disposed them, and caused the light of his cloud to shine?

16 Dost thou know the balancings of the clouds, the wondrous works of him which is perfect in knowledge?

17 How thy garments are warm, when he quieteth the earth by the south wind?

18 Hast thou with him † spread out the sky, which is strong, and as a molten looking-glass?

19 Teach us what we shall say unto him; for we cannot order our speech by reason of darkness.

20 Shall it be told him that I speak? If a man speak, surely he shall be swallowed up.

21 And now men see not the bright light which is in the clouds; but the wind passeth, and cleanseth them.

22 † Fair weather cometh out of the north: with God is terrible majesty.

23 Touching † the Almighty, † we cannot find him out: † he is excellent in power, and in judgment, and in plenty of justice: he will not afflict.

24 Men do therefore fear him: he respecteth not any that are wise of heart.

3 † Who is this that darkeneth counsel by words without knowledge?

4 † Gird up: now thy loins like a man; for I will demand of thee, and † answer thou me.

6 Who hath laid the measures thereof, if thou knowest? or who hath stretched the line upon it?

7 Whereupon are the † foundations thereof † fastened? or who laid the corner-stone thereof,

7 ¶ And it was so, that, after the LORD had spoken these words unto Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends: for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job hath.

8 Therefore take unto you now seven bullocks and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt-offering, and my servant Job shall pray for you; for † him will I accept: lest I deal with you after your folly, in that ye have not spoken of me the thing which is right, like my servant Job.

9 So Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite, went and did according as the LORD commanded them: the LORD also accepted † Job.

10 ^e And the LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the LORD † gave Job ^f twice as much as he had before.

11 Then came there unto him all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house; and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him: every man also gave him a piece of money, and every one an ear-ring of gold.

12 So the LORD blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning: for he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she-asses.

13 He had also seven sons and three daughters.

14 And he called the name of the first, || Jemima, and the name of the second, || Kezia, and the name of the third, || Keren-happuch.

15 And in all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job: and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren.

16 ¶ After this lived Job an hundred and forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, even four generations.

17 So Job died, being old, and full of days.

PSALM I.

1 The happiness of the godly. 4 The miserable state of the ungodly.

BLESSED ^a is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the || ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, ^b nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful:

2 But his delight is in the law of the LORD; ^c and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

3 And he shall be like a tree d planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season: his leaf also shall not † wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

4 The ungodly are not so; but are ^e like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

5 Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

6 For ^f the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

PSALM II.

1 The kingdom of Christ: 10 kings are exhorted to accept it.

WHY ^a do the heathen || rage, and the people † imagine a vain thing?

2 The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his ^b Anointed, saying,

3 ^c Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.

4 ^d He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the LORD shall have them in derision.

5 Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and || vex them in his sore displeasure.

6 Yet have I † set my King † ^e upon my holy hill of Zion.

7 I will declare || the decree: the LORD hath said unto me, † Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee.

8 ^g Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

9 ^h Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

10 Be wise now therefore, O ye kings; be instructed, ye judges of the earth.

11 ⁱ Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

PSALM III.

The security of God's protection.

¶ A psalm of David, when ^{*} he fled from Absalom his son.

LORD, ^a how are they increased that trouble me? many are they that rise up against me.

2 Many there be which say of my soul, ^b There is no help for him in God. Selah.

3 But thou, O LORD, art a shield || for me; by my glory, and ^c the lifter up of mine head.

4 I cried unto the LORD with my voice, and he heard me out of his holy hill. Selah.

5 ^d I laid me down and slept; I awaked: for the LORD sustained me.

6 ^e I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people, that have set themselves against me round about.

7 Arise, O LORD; save me, O my God: for thou hast smitten all mine enemies upon the cheek-bone; thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly.

8 ^f Salvation belongeth unto the LORD: thy blessing is upon thy people. Selah.

PSALM IV.

1 David prayeth for audience: 2 he reproveth and exhorteth his enemies.

6 Man's happiness consisteth in God's favour.

¶ To the || chief musician on Neginoth, A psalm of David.

HEAR me when I call, O God of my righteousness: thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress; || have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer.

2 O ye sons of men, how long will ye turn my glory into shame? how long will ye love vanity, and seek after leasing? Selah.

3 But know that the LORD hath set apart him that is godly for himself: the LORD will hear when I call unto him.

4 ^a Stand in awe, and sin not: ^b commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still. Selah.

5 Offer ^c the sacrifices of righteousness, and put your trust in the LORD.

6 There be many that say, Who will shew us any good? ^d LORD, lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us.

7 Thou hast put gladness in my heart, more than in the time that their corn and their wine increased.

8 ^e I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep: ^f for thou, LORD, only makest me dwell in safety.

PSALM V.

1 David prayeth, and professeth constancy in prayer. 4 God favoureth not the wicked. 7 David, professing his faith, prayeth unto God, &c.

¶ To the chief musician upon Nehiloth, A psalm of David.

GIVE ear to my words, O LORD; consider my meditation.

2 Harken unto the voice of my cry, my King, and my God: for unto thee will I pray.

3 ^a My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O LORD; in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.

4 For thou art not a [†] God that hath pleasure in wickedness; neither shall evil dwell with thee.

5 ^b The foolish shall not stand [†] in thy sight: thou hatest all workers of iniquity.

6 Thou shalt destroy them that speak leasing: ^c the LORD will abhor [†] the bloody and deceitful man.

7 But as for me, I will come into thy house in the multitude of thy mercy; and in thy fear will I worship ^d toward [†] thy holy temple.

8 Lead me, O LORD, in thy righteousness because of [†] mine enemies; ^e make thy way straight before my face.

9 For there is no || faithfulness [†] in their mouth; their inward part is [†] very wickedness; ^f their throat is an open sepulchre; ^g they flatter with their tongue.

10 || Destroy thou them, O God; let them fall || by their own counsels; cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions; for they have rebelled against thee.

11 But let all those that put their trust in thee rejoice: let them ever shout for joy, because [†] thou defendest them; let them also that love thy name be joyful in thee.

12 For thou, LORD, wilt bless the righteous; with favour wilt thou [†] compass him as with a shield.

1 David praiseth God for executing of judgment: 11 he inciteth others to praise him: 13 he prayeth that he may have cause to praise him.

¶ To the chief musician upon || Muthlabben, A psalm of David.

I WILL praise thee, O LORD, with my whole heart; I will shew forth all thy marvellous works.

2 I will be glad and rejoice in thee: I will sing praise to thy name, O thou most High.

3 When mine enemies are turned back, they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

4 For † thou hast maintained my right and my cause; thou satest in the throne judging † right.

5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen, thou hast destroyed the wicked, ^b thou hast put out their name for ever and ever.

6 || O thou enemy, destructions are come to a perpetual end: and thou hast destroyed cities; thy memorial is perished with them.

7 ^c But the LORD shall endure for ever: he hath prepared his throne for judgment;

8 And ^d he shall judge the world in righteousness, he shall minister judgment to the people in uprightness.

9 ^e The LORD also will be † a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble.

10 And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee: for thou, LORD, hast not forsaken them that seek thee.

11 Sing praises to the LORD, which dwelleth in Zion; declare among the people his doings.

12 ^f When he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembereth them: he forgetteth not the cry of the || humble.

13 Have mercy upon me, O LORD; consider my trouble which I suffer of them that hate me, thou that liftest me up from the gates of death;

14 That I may shew forth all thy praise in the gates of the daughter of Zion: I will rejoice in thy salvation.

2 Let my sentence come forth from thy presence; let thine eyes behold the things that are equal.

3 Thou hast proved mine heart; ^a thou hast visited me in the night; ^b thou hast tried me, and shalt find nothing: I am purposed that my mouth shall not transgress.

4 Concerning the works of men, by the word of thy lips I have kept me from the paths of the destroyer.

5 ^c Hold up my goings in thy paths, that my footsteps † slip not.

6 ^d I have called upon thee; for thou wilt hear me, O † God: incline thine ear unto me, and hear my speech.

8 And hast not shut me up into the hand of the enemy: ^h thou hast set my feet in a large room.

9 Have mercy upon me, O LORD, for I am in trouble; ⁱ mine eye is consumed with grief, yea, my soul and my belly.

10 For my life is spent with grief, and my years with sighing: my strength faileth because of mine iniquity, and ^k my bones are consumed.

11 ^l I was a reproach among all mine enemies, but ^m especially among my neighbours, and a fear to mine acquaintance: ⁿ they that did see me without fled from me.

12 ^o I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind: I am like [†] a broken vessel.

13 ^p For I have heard the slander of many; ^q fear was on every side: while they took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life.

14 But I trusted in thee, O LORD: I said, Thou art my God.

15 My times are in thy hand: deliver me from the hand of mine enemies, and from them that persecute me.

16 ^r Make thy face to shine upon thy servant: save me for thy mercies' sake.

17 ^s Let me not be ashamed, O LORD, for I have called upon thee: let the wicked be ashamed, and ^t || let them be silent in the grave.

18 ^u Let the lying lips be put to silence; which ^x speak [†] grievous things proudly and contemptuously against the righteous.

19 ^v Oh how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee; which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee before the sons of men!

20 ^w Thou shalt hide them in the secret of thy presence from the pride of man; ^a thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.

21 Blessed be the LORD; for ^b he hath shewed me his marvellous kindness ^c in a || strong city.

22 For ^d I said in my haste, ^e I am cut off from before thine eyes: nevertheless thou heardest the voice of my supplications when I cried unto thee.

23 ^f O love the LORD, all ye his saints: for the LORD preserveth the faithful, and plentifully rewardeth the proud doer.

24 ^g Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen your heart, all ye that hope in the LORD.

PSALM XXXII.

1 The blessedness of him whose sins are forgiven. 3 The psalmist exhorteth to a well-regulated conduct by its many blessings.

¶ || A psalm of David, Maschil. BLESSED is he whose ^a transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

2 Blessed is the man unto whom the LORD imputeth not iniquity, and ^b in whose spirit there is no guile.

3 When I kept silence, my bones waxed old through my roaring all the day long:

4 For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me: my moisture is turned into the drought of summer. Selah.

5 I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid.

7^f Thou art my hiding-place; thou shalt preserve me from trouble; thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance. Selah.

8 I will instruct thee, and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: † I will guide thee with mine eye.

10^h Many sorrows shall be to the wicked: but he that trusteth in the LORD, mercy shall compass him about.

11ⁱ Be glad in the LORD, and rejoice, ye righteous; and shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart.

PSALM XXXIII.

1 God is to be praised for his goodness, 6 for his power, 12 and for his providence. 20 Confidence is therefore to be placed in God.

REJOICE^a in the LORD, O ye righteous; for^b praise is comely for the upright.

2 Praise the LORD with harp; sing unto him with the psaltery, ° and an instrument of ten strings.

3^d Sing unto him a new song, play skilfully with a loud noise:

4 For the word of the LORD is right; and all his works are done in truth.

5^e He loveth righteousness and judgment: ° the earth is full of the || goodness of the LORD.

6^g By the word of the LORD were the heavens made; and^h all the host of themⁱ by the breath of his mouth.

7^k He gathereth the waters of the sea together as an heap; he layeth up the depth in storehouses.

8 Let all the earth fear the LORD: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

9 For^l he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast.

10^m The LORD † bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought: he maketh the devices of the people of none effect.

11ⁿ The counsel of the LORD standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart † to all generations.

12 ° Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

13^p The LORD looketh from heaven: he beholdeth all the sons of men.

14 From the place of his habitation he looketh upon all the inhabitants of the earth.

15 He fashioneth their hearts alike; ° he considereth all their works.

16^r There is no king saved by the multitude of an host: a mighty man is not delivered by much strength.

17^s An horse is a vain thing for safety: neither shall he deliver any by his great strength.

18^t Behold, the eye of the LORD is ° upon them that fear him, upon them that hope in his mercy;

19 To deliver their soul from death, and^x to keep them alive in famine.

20^y Our soul waiteth for the LORD: ° he is our help and our shield.

21 For our heart shall rejoice in him, because we have trusted in his holy name.

22 Let thy mercy, O LORD, be upon us, according as we hope in thee.

PSALM XXXIV.

8 They are blessed that trust in God.

11 He exhorteth to the fear of God, &c.

¶ A psalm of David, when he changed his behaviour before || Abimelech; who drove him away, and he departed.

3 O magnify the LORD with me, and let us exalt his name together.

4 I sought the LORD, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears.

1 The grievous estate of the wicked.

5 The excellency of God's mercy.

10 David prayeth for favour to God's children.

¶ To the chief musician, A psalm of David, the servant of the LORD.

THE transgression of the wicked saith within my heart, that ^a there is no fear of God before his eyes.

2 For ^b he flattereth himself in his own eyes, † until his iniquity be found to be hateful.

3 The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit: he hath left off to be wise, and to do good.

4 ^c He deviseth || mischief upon his bed; he setteth himself in a way that is not good; he abhorreth not evil.

5 ^d Thy mercy, O LORD, is in the heavens; and thy faithfulness reacheth unto the clouds.

PSALM XXXVII.

David exhorteth to patience and confidence in God, by the happy state of the godly, and the short-lived prosperity of the wicked.

¶ A psalm of David.

FRET ^a not thyself because of evil-doers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity:

2 For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb.

3 Trust in the LORD, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and † verily thou shalt be fed.

4 Delight thyself also in the LORD; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.

5 † ^b Commit thy way unto the LORD; trust also in him, and he shall bring it to pass:

6 ^c And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgment as the noon-day.

7 ^d † Rest in the LORD, ^e and wait patiently for him: fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.

8 Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: ^f fret not thyself in any wise to do evil.

9 ^g For evil-doers shall be cut off: but those that wait upon the LORD, they shall inherit the earth.

10 For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: yea, ^h thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be.

11 ⁱ But the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

12 The wicked || plotteth against the just, ^k and gnasheth upon him with his teeth.

35 ^e I have seen the wicked in great power, and spreading himself like ^{||} a green bay-tree:

39 But the salvation of the righteous is of the LORD: he is their strength in the time of trouble.

40 And ^f the LORD shall help them, and deliver them: he shall deliver them from the wicked, and save them, because they trust in him.

5 They saw it, and so they marvelled; they were troubled, and hasted away.

6 Fear took hold upon them there, and pain, as of a woman in travail.

7 Thou^s breakest the ships of Tarsish^h with an east wind.

8 As we have heard, so have we seen inⁱ the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God: God will establish it for ever. Selah.

9 We have thought of thy loving-kindness, O God, in the midst of thy temple.

10 According to thy name, O God, so is thy praise unto the ends of the earth: thy right hand is full of righteousness.

11 Let mount Zion rejoice, let the daughters of Judah be glad, because of thy judgments.

12 Walk about Zion, and go round about her: tell the towers thereof.

13 † Mark ye well her bulwarks, † consider her palaces; that ye may tell it to the generation following.

14 For this God is our God for ever and ever: he will be our guide even unto death.

PSALM XLIX.

1 The psalmist earnestly persuadeth all to join him in his meditations. 5 The vanity of trusting in worldly wealth.

¶ To the chief musician, A psalm † for the sons of Korah.

HEAR this, all ye people; give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world:

2 Both^a low and high, rich and poor, together.

3 My mouth shall speak of wisdom: and the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding.

4 ^b I will incline mine ear to a parable; I will open my dark saying upon the harp.

5 Wherefore should I fear in the days of evil, when the iniquity of my heels shall compass me about?

6 They that^c trust in their wealth, and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches;

7 None of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God a ransom for him;

8 (For^d the redemption of their soul is precious, and it ceaseth for ever;)

9 That he should still live for ever, and^e not see corruption.

10 For he seeth that^f wise men die, likewise the fool and the brutish person perish, ^g and leave their wealth to others.

11 Their inward thought is, that their houses shall continue for ever, and their dwelling-places † to all generations: they call their lands after their own names.

12 Nevertheless, ^h man being in honour abideth not; he is like the beasts that perish.

13 This their way is their folly; yet their posterity † approve their sayings. Selah.

14 Like sheep they are laid in the grave; death shall feed on them; and the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning; ^k and their beauty shall consume || in the grave from their dwelling.

15 But God will redeem my soul † from the power of || the grave; for he shall receive me. Selah.

16 Be not thou afraid when one is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased:

17 ^l For when he dieth he shall carry nothing away; his glory shall not descend after him:

18 Though † while he lived^m he blessed his soul: and men will praise thee, when thou doest well to thyself.

19 † He shall go to the generation of his fathers; they shall never see light.

20 ⁿ Man that is in honour, and understandeth not, ^o is like the beasts that perish.

PSALM L.

1 The majesty of God in the church: his order to gather his saints. 7 The pleasure of God is not in ceremonies, 14 but in sincerity of obedience.

¶ A psalm || of Asaph.

THE mighty God, even the LORD, hath spoken, and called the earth, from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof.

2 Out of Zion, ^a the perfection of beauty, ^b God hath shined.

3 Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: ^c a fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very tempestuous round about him.

4 ^d He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, that he may judge his people.

5 Gather^e my saints together unto me; ^f those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice.

6 And^g the heavens shall declare his righteousness: for ^h God is judge himself. Selah.

7 ⁱ Hear, O my people, and I will speak; O Israel, and I will testify against thee: ^k I am God, even thy God.

8 ^l I will not reprove thee^m for thy sacrifices, or thy burnt-offerings, to have been continually before me.

PSALM LX.

1 David, complaining to God of former judgments, ⁴ now, upon better hope, prayeth for deliverance: ⁶ he comforteth himself in God's promises.

¶ To the chief musician ^{} upon Shushan-eduth, || Michtam of David, to teach; ^{} when he strove with Aram-naharaim and with Aram-zobah, when Joab returned, and smote of Edom in the valley of Salt twelve thousand.

O GOD, ^a thou hast cast us off, thou hast [†] scattered us, thou hast been displeased; O turn thyself to us again.

2 Thou hast made the earth to tremble; thou hast broken it: heal the breaches thereof; for it shaketh.

3 ^b Thou hast shewed thy people hard things; ^c thou hast made us to drink the wine of astonishment.

4 ^d Thou hast given a banner to them that fear thee, that it may be displayed because of the truth. Selah.

5 ^e That thy beloved may be delivered, save with thy right hand, and hear me.

6 God hath spoken in his holiness; I will rejoice: I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

7 Gilead is mine, and Manasse is mine; [†] Ephraim also is the strength of mine head; [‡] Judah is my lawgiver;

8 Moab is my wash-pot; ^h over Edom will I cast out my shoe: Philistia, || triumph thou because of me.

9 Who will bring me into the [†] strong city? who will lead me into Edom?

10 Wilt not thou, O God, which [†] hadst cast us off? and thou, O God, which didst not go out with our armies?

11 Give us help from trouble: for ^k vain is the [†] help of man.

12 Through God ^l we shall do valiantly: for he it is that shall tread down our enemies.

PSALM LXI.

1 David fleeth to God upon his former experience: ⁴ he voweth perpetual service unto him, because of his promises.

¶ To the chief musician upon Neginah, A psalm of David.

HEAR my cry, O God; attend unto my prayer.

2 From the end of the earth will

I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the Rock that is higher than I.

3 For thou hast been a shelter for me, and a strong tower from the enemy.

4 ^a I will abide in thy tabernacle for ever; ^b I will || trust in the covert of thy wings. Selah.

5 For thou, O God, hast heard my vows: thou hast given me the heritage of those that fear thy name.

6 ^c † Thou wilt prolong the king's life; and his years [†] as many generations.

7 He shall abide before God for ever: O prepare ^d mercy and truth, which may preserve him.

8 So will I sing praise unto thy name for ever, that I may daily perform my vows.

PSALM LXII.

¶ To the chief musician, to ^{*} Jeduthun, A psalm of David.

|| TRULY ^a my soul [†] waiteth upon God: from him cometh my salvation.

2 ^b He only is my rock and my salvation: he is my [†] defence; ^c I shall not be greatly moved.

3 How long will ye imagine mischief against a man? ye shall be slain all of you: ^d as a bowing wall shall ye be, and as a tottering fence.

4 They only consult to cast him down from his excellency: they delight in lies: ^e they bless with their mouth, but they curse [†] inwardly. Selah.

5 ^f My soul, wait thou only upon God; for my expectation is from him.

6 He only is my rock and my salvation: he is my defence; I shall not be moved.

7 In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.

8 Trust in him at all times; ye people, ^g pour out your heart before him: God is a refuge for us. Selah.

9 ^h Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie: to be laid in the balance, they are || altogether lighter than vanity.

10 Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery: ⁱ if riches increase, set not your heart upon them.

PSALM LXIII.

1 David's thirst after God's service in his sanctuary: 4 his manner of blessing God: 9 his confidence of his enemies' destruction.

† A psalm of David, * when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

† GOD, thou art my † God; early will I seek thee: ^a my soul

† thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and † thirsty land, † where no water is;

2 To see ^b thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary.

3 ^c Because thy loving-kindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee.

4 Thus will I bless thee while I live: I will lift up my hands in thy name.

5 My soul shall be satisfied as with † marrow and fatness; and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips;

6 When ^d I remember thee upon my bed, and meditate on thee in the night-watches.

7 Because thou hast been my help, therefore ^e in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.

8 My soul followeth hard after thee: thy right hand upholdeth me.

9 But those that seek my soul, to destroy it, shall go into the lower parts of the earth.

10 † They shall fall by the sword;
 † they shall be a portion for foxes.

11 But the king shall rejoice in God; ^f every one that sweareth by him shall glory: but the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

PSALM LXIV.

1 David prayeth for deliverance, complaining of his enemies: 7 he promiseth himself to see such an evident destruction of his enemies, that the righteous shall rejoice at it.

† To the chief musician,

A psalm of David.

HEAR my voice, O God, in my prayer: preserve my life from fear of the enemy.

2 Hide me from the secret counsel of the wicked; from the insurrection of the workers of iniquity:

3 ^a Who whet their tongue like a sword, ^b and bend their bows to shoot their arrows, even bitter words;

4 That they may shoot in secret at the perfect: suddenly do they shoot at him, and fear not.

5 ^c They encourage themselves in an evil || matter: they commune † of laying snares privily; ^d they say,
 Who shall see them?

6 They search out iniquities; || they accomplish † a diligent search: both the inward thought of every one of them, and the heart, is deep.

7 ^e But God shall shoot at them with an arrow; suddenly † shall they be wounded.

8 So they shall make their own tongue to fall upon themselves: ^f all that see them shall flee away.

9 ^g And all men shall fear, and shall declare the work of God: for they shall wisely consider of his doing.

10 ^h The righteous shall be glad in the LORD, and shall trust in him; and all the upright in heart shall glory.

PSALM LXV.

1 David praiseth God for his grace.

 purge them away.

4 ^b Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and causest to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts:
^c we shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, even of thy holy temple.

5 By terrible things in righteousness wilt thou answer us, O God of our salvation; who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea:

6 Which by his strength setteth fast the mountains; ^d being girded with power:

7 ^e Which stilleth the noise of the seas, the noise of their waves, ^f and the tumult of the people.

8 They also that dwell in the utter-most parts are afraid at thy tokens:

2 ^b I sink in [†] deep mire, where there is no standing : I am

[†] Heb. depth of waters. [†] deep waters, where the floods overflow me.

^o Ps. 119. 89, 132. ^o I am weary of my crying; my throat is dried: ^c mine eyes fail while I wait for my God.

^d John 15. 25. ^d They that ^d hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of mine head: they that would destroy me, being mine enemies wrongfully, are mighty: then I restored that which I took not away.

[†] Heb. guiltiness. ^o God, thou knowest my foolishness; and my [†] sins are not hid from thee.

^o Lord God of hosts, be ashamed for my sake; let not those that seek thee be confounded for my sake, O God of Israel.

^o Because for thy sake I have borne reproach; shame hath covered my face.

^o I am become a stranger unto my brethren, and an alien unto my mother's children.

[†] For the zeal of thine house hath eaten me up; ^o and the reproaches of them that reproached thee are fallen upon me.

^h Ps. 35. 13, 14. ^h When I wept, and chastened my soul with fasting, that was to my reproach.

[†] I made sackcloth also my garment; ⁱ and I became a proverb to them.

[†] They that sit in the gate speak against me; and ^k I was the song of the [†] drunkards.

[†] But as for me, my prayer is unto thee, O LORD, ⁱ in an acceptable time: O God, in the multitude of thy mercy hear me, in the truth of thy salvation.

[†] Deliver me out of the mire, and let me not sink: ^m let me be delivered from them that hate me, and out of ⁿ the deep waters.

[†] Let not the water-flood overflow me, neither let the deep swallow me up, and let not the pit shut her mouth upon me.

[†] Hear me, O LORD; for thy loving-kindness is good: turn unto me according to the multitude of thy tender mercies.

^o Ps. 27. 9. & 102. 2. ^o hide not thy face from thy servant; for I am in trouble: [†] hear me speedily.

[†] Heb. make haste to hear me. [†] Draw nigh unto my soul, and redeem it: deliver me because of mine enemies.

[†] Thou hast known ^p my reproach, and my shame, and my dishonour: mine adversaries are all before thee.

^o Ps. 142. 4. ^o I am full of heaviness: and ^q I looked for some [†] to take pity, but there was none; and for comforters, but I found none.

[†] They gave me also gall for my meat; ^r and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

[†] Let their table become a snare before them: and that which should have been for their welfare, let it become a trap.

[†] Let their eyes be darkened, that they see not; and make their loins continually to shake.

^u Pour out thine indignation upon them, and let thy wrathful anger take hold of them.

[†] Let [†] their habitation be desolate, and [†] let none dwell in their tents.

[†] For ^y they persecute ^z him whom thou hast smitten; and they talk to the grief of [†] those whom thou hast wounded.

[†] Add ^{||} iniquity unto their iniquity: ^a and let them not come into thy righteousness.

[†] Let them ^b be blotted out of the book of the living, ^c and not be written with the righteous.

[†] But I am poor and sorrowful: let thy salvation, O God, set me up on high.

^o I will praise the name of God with a song, and will magnify him with thanksgiving.

[†] This also shall please the LORD better than an ox or bullock that hath horns and hoofs.

[†] The ^{||} humble shall see this, and be glad: and ^f your heart shall live that seek God.

[†] For the LORD heareth the poor, and despiseth not his prisoners.

[†] Let the heaven and earth praise him, the seas, ^h and every thing that [†] moveth therein:

[†] For God will save Zion, and will build the cities of Judah; that they may dwell there, and have it in possession.

[†] The seed also of his servants shall inherit it; and they that love his name shall dwell therein.

PSALM LXXIII.

1 The psalmist, labouring under temptation, 2 sheweth the occasion thereof, the prosperity of the wicked: 13 the wound given thereby, diffidence: 15 the victory over it, knowledge of God's purpose, in destroying of the wicked, and sustaining the righteous.

¶ 1 A psalm of ^{*} Asaph.

¶ TRULY God is good to Israel, even to such as are [†] of a clean heart.

2 But as for me, my feet were almost gone; my steps had well nigh slipped.

3 ^a For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

4 For there are no bands [†] in their death; but their strength is [†] firm.

5 ^b They are not [†] in trouble as other men; neither are they plagued [†] like other men.

6 Therefore pride compasseth them about as a chain; violence covereth them as a garment.

7 ^c Their eyes stand out with fatness: [†] they have more than heart could wish.

8 They are corrupt, and ^d speak wickedly concerning oppression: they speak loftily.

9 They set their mouth against the heavens; and their tongue walketh through the earth.

10 Therefore his people return hither; ^e and waters of a full cup are wrung out to them:

11 And they say, ^f How doth [†] God know? and is there knowledge in the most High?

12 Behold, these are the ungodly, who prosper in the world; they increase in riches.

13 ^g Verily I have cleansed my heart in vain, and ^h washed my hands in innocency.

14 For all the day long have I been plagued, and [†] chastened every morning.

15 If I say, I will speak thus; behold, I should offend against the generation of thy children.

16 ⁱ When I thought to know this, [†] it was too painful for me, 17 Until ^k I went into the sanctuary of [†] God; then understood I their end.

18 Surely [†] thou didst set them in slippery places: thou castedst them down into destruction.

19 How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment! they are utterly consumed with terrors.

20 ^m As a dream when one awaketh; so, ^o [†] Lord, when thou awakest, thou shalt despise their image.

21 Thus my heart was grieved, and I was pricked in my reins.

22 ⁿ So foolish was I, and [†] ignorant: I was as a beast [†] before thee.

23 Nevertheless I am continually with thee; thou hast holden me by my right hand.

24 ^o Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterward receive me to glory.

 in the land.

9 We see not our signs : ⁱ there is no more any prophet : neither is there among us any that knoweth how long.

10 O God, how long shall the adversary reproach ? shall the enemy blaspheme thy name for ever ?

11 ^k Why withdrawest thou thy hand, even thy right hand ? pluck it out of thy bosom.

12 For ^l God is my King of old, working salvation in the midst of 13 ^m Thou didst [†] divide the sea by thy strength : ⁿ thou brakest the heads of the || dragons in the waters.

14 Thou brakest the heads of leviameat ^o to the people inhabiting the wilderness.

15 ^p Thou didst cleave the fountain and the flood : ^q thou driedst up

16 The day is thine, the night also is thine ; ^r thou hast prepared the light and the sun.

17 Thou hast set all the borders of the earth : ^s thou hast [†] made summer and winter.

18 ^t Remember this, that the enemy hath reproached, O LORD, and that the foolish people have blasphemed thy name.

19 O deliver not the soul ^u of thy turtle-dove unto the multitude of the wicked : ^x forget not the congregation of thy poor for ever.

20 ^y Have respect unto the covenant ; for the dark places of the earth are full of the habitations of cruelty.

21 O let not the oppressed return ashamed : let the poor and needy praise thy name.

22 Arise, O God, plead thine own cause : ^z remember how the foolish man reproacheth thee daily.

23 Forget not the voice of thine enemies : the tumult of those that rise up against thee [†] increaseth continually.

PSALM. LXXXI.

1 An exhortation to a solemn praising of God. 4 God challengeth that duty by reason of his benefits. 8 God, exhorting his people to obedience, complaineth of their disobedience, &c.

¶ To the chief musician * upon Githith, A psalm || of Asaph.

SING aloud unto God our strength: make a joyful noise unto the God of Jacob.

2 Take a psalm, and bring hither the timbrel, the pleasant harp with the psaltery.

3 Blow up the trumpet in the new-moon, in the time appointed, on our solemn feast-day.

4 For ^a this was a statute for Israel, and a law of the God of Jacob.

5 This he ordained in Joseph for a testimony, when he went out || through the land of Egypt; ^b where I heard a language that I understood not.

6 ^c I removed his shoulder from the burden: his hands [†] were delivered from ^d the pots.

7 ^e Thou calledst in trouble, and I delivered thee; ^f I answered thee in the secret place of thunder; I ^g proved thee at the waters of || Meribah. Selah.

8 ^h Hear, O my people, and I will testify unto thee: O Israel, if thou wilt hearken unto me;

9 There shall no strange [†] god be in thee; neither shalt thou worship any strange [†] god.

10¹ I am the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt: ^k open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it.

11 But my people would not hearken to my voice; and Israel would none of me.

12¹ So I gave them up || unto their own hearts' lust; and they walked in their own counsels.

13^m Oh that my people had hearkened unto me, and Israel had walked in my ways!

14 I should soon have subdued their enemies, and turned my hand against their adversaries.

15ⁿ The haters of the LORD should have || [†] submitted themselves unto him: but their time should have endured for ever.

16 He should ^o have fed them also [†] with the finest of the wheat: and with honey ^p out of the rock should I have satisfied thee.

PSALM LXXXII.

1 The psalmist, having exhorted the judges, 5 and reproved their negligence, 8 prayeth God to judge.

¶ A psalm || of Asaph.

GOD ^a standeth in the congregation of the mighty; he judgeth among the gods.

2 How long will ye judge unjustly, and ^b accept the persons of the wicked? Selah.

3 [†] Defend the poor and fatherless: do justice to the afflicted and needy.

4 ^c Deliver the poor and needy: rid them out of the hand of the wicked.

5 They know not, neither will they understand; they walk on in darkness: ^d all the foundations of the earth are [†] out of course.

6^e I have said, Ye are gods; and all of you are children of the most High:

7 But ^f ye shall die like men, and fall like one of the princes.

8 ^g Arise, O God, judge the earth: ^h for thou shalt inherit all nations.

PSALM LXXXIII.

1 A complaint to God of the enemies' conspiracies. 9 A prayer against them that oppress the church.

¶ A song or psalm || of Asaph.

KEEP ^a not thou silence, O God: hold not thy peace, and be not still, O [†] God.

2 For, lo, thine enemies make a tumult; and they that hate thee have lifted up the head.

3 They have taken crafty counsel against thy people, and consulted ^b against thy hidden ones.

4 They have said, Come, and ^c let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.

5 For they have consulted together with one [†] consent; they are confederate against thee: [†] Heb. heart.

7 Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek; the Philistines, with the inhabitants of Tyre:

8 Assur also is joined with them: [†] they have holpen the children of Lot. Selah. [†] Heb. they have been an arm to the children of Lot.

9 Do unto them as unto the ^e Midianites; as to ^f Sisera, as to Jabin, at the brook of Kison:

10 Which perished at En-dor: ^g they became as dung for the earth. ^e Judg. 7. 29. ^f Judg. 4. 15. 24. & 5. 21.

13^k O my God, make them like a wheel; as the stubble before the wind. ^k Isaiah 17. 13, 14.

14 As the fire burneth a wood, and as the flame setteth the mountains on fire;

15 So persecute them with thy tempest, and make them afraid with thy storm.

16 Fill their faces with shame; that they may seek thy name, O LORD.

17 Let them be confounded and troubled for ever; yea, let them be put to shame, and perish:

18¹ That men may know that thou, whose name alone is JEHOVAH, art the most High over all the earth. ¹ Ps. 69. 13.

PSALM LXXXIV.

1 The psalmist, longing for the communion of the sanctuary, 4 sheweth how blessed they are that dwell therein:

8 he prayeth to be restored unto it.

¶ To the chief musician * upon Gittith. A psalm || for the sons of Korah.

HOW amiable are thy tabernacles, O LORD of hosts!

2^a My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth, for the courts of the LORD; my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living [†] God. ^a Ps. 42. 1. 2. & 63. 1. & 73. 26. & 119. 20.

3 Yea, the sparrow hath found an house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, even thine altars, O LORD of hosts, my King, and my God. [†] Heb. El.

4^b Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee. Selah. ^b Ps. 63. 4.

5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee; in whose heart are the ways of them:

6 Who passing through the valley of Baca make it a well; the rain also shall fill the pools.

7 They go from strength to strength: every one of them in Zion appeareth before God.

8 O LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer: give ear, O God of Jacob. Selah.

9 Behold, O God our shield, and look upon the face of thine anointed.

10 For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand: † I had rather be a door-keeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

11 For the LORD God is a sun and shield: the LORD will give grace and glory: † no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

12 O LORD of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

PSALM LXXXV.

1 The psalmist, from the experience of former mercies, prayeth for the continuance thereof: 8 he promiseth to wait thereon, in confidence of God's goodness.

¶ To the chief musician. A psalm * || for the sons of Korah.

LORD, thou hast been || favourable unto thy land: thou hast brought back the captivity of Jacob.

2 Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of thy people; thou hast covered all their sin. Selah.

3 Thou hast taken away all thy wrath: || thou hast turned thyself from the fierceness of thine anger.

4 Turn us, O God of our salvation, and cause thine anger toward us to cease.

5 Wilt thou be angry with us for ever? wilt thou draw out thine anger to all generations?

6 Wilt thou not revive us again, that thy people may rejoice in thee?

7 Shew us thy mercy, O LORD, and grant us thy salvation.

8 I will hear what † God the LORD will speak: for he will speak peace unto his people, and to his saints; but let them not turn again to folly.

9 Surely his salvation is nigh them that fear him; † that glory may dwell in our land.

10 Mercy and truth are met together; † righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

11 Truth shall spring out of the earth; and righteousness shall look down from heaven.

12 Yea, the LORD shall give that which is good; and our land shall yield her increase.

13 Righteousness shall go before him, and shall set us in the way of his steps.

PSALM LXXXVI.

1 David strengtheneth his prayer by his consciousness of religion, 5 by God's power and goodness: 11 he desireth the continuance of his grace: 14 complaining of the proud, he craveth some token of God's favour.

¶ A prayer of David. BOW down thine ear, O LORD, hear me; for I am poor and needy.

2 Preserve my soul; for I am || holy; O thou my God, save thy servant that trusteth in thee.

3 Be merciful unto me, † O LORD: for I cry unto thee || daily.

4 Rejoice the soul of thy servant: a for unto thee, † O LORD, do I lift up my soul.

5 For thou, † LORD, art good, and ready to forgive; and plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee.

6 Give ear, O LORD, unto my prayer; and attend to the voice of my supplications.

7 In the day of my trouble I will call upon thee: for thou wilt answer me.

8 Among the † gods there is none like unto thee, † O LORD; † neither are there any works like unto thy works.

9 All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, † O LORD; and shall glorify thy name.

10 For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: † thou art God alone.

11 Teach me thy way, O LORD: I will walk in thy truth: unite my heart to fear thy name.

12 I will praise thee, † O LORD my God, with all my heart; and I will glorify thy name for evermore.

13 For great is thy mercy toward me; and thou hast delivered my soul from the lowest || hell.

14 O God, the proud are risen against me, and the assemblies of † violent men have sought after my soul, and have not set thee before them.

1 The seat and glory of the church: 4 the increase and honourable distinction of the members thereof.

¶ Or, of. ¶ A psalm or song || for the sons of Korah.

2 ^b The LORD loveth the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.

4 I will make mention of ^c Rahab and Babylon to them that know me: behold Philistia, and Tyre, with Ethiopia; this man was born there.

5 And of Zion it shall be said, This and that man was born in her; and [†] the Highest himself shall establish her.

6 ^d The LORD shall count, when he writeth up the people, that this man was born there. Selah.

7 As well the singers as the players on instruments shall be there: all my springs are in thee.

PSALM LXXXVIII.

A prayer containing a grievous complaint under sore affliction, &c.

¶ Or, of. A song or psalm || for the sons of Korah, to the chief musician upon Mahalath || Leannoth, || Maschil of ^{*} Heman the Ezrahite.

O LORD God of my salvation, I have cried day and night before thee.

2 Let my prayer come before thee: incline thine ear unto my cry;

3 For my soul is full of troubles, and my life draweth nigh unto the grave.

4 I am counted with them that go down into the pit; ^a I am as a man that hath no strength.

5 Free among the dead, like the slain that lie in the grave, whom thou rememberest no more: and they are cut off [†] from thy hand.

6 Thou hast laid me in the lowest pit, in darkness, in the deeps.

7 Thy wrath lieth hard upon me, and ^b thou hast afflicted me with all thy waves. Selah.

8 ^c Thou hast put away mine acquaintance far from me; thou hast made me an abomination unto them: I am shut up, and I cannot come forth.

9 ^d Mine eye mourneth by reason of affliction: LORD, I have called daily upon thee; ^e I have stretched out my hands unto thee.

10 ^f Wilt thou shew wonders to the dead? shall the dead arise and praise thee? Selah.

11 Shall thy loving-kindness be declared in the grave? or thy faithfulness in destruction?

12 ^g Shall thy wonders be known in the dark? ^h and thy righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?

13 But unto thee have I cried, O LORD; and ⁱ in the morning shall my prayer prevent thee.

14 LORD, why castest thou off my soul? why hidest thou thy face from me?

15 I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up: while ^k I suffer ^k thy terrors I am distracted.

16 Thy fierce wrath goeth over me; thy terrors have cut me off.

17 They came round about me || daily like water; they compassed me about together. ¶ Or, all the day.

18 ^l Lover and friend hast thou put far from me, and mine acquaintance into darkness.

PSALM LXXXIX.

1 The psalmist praiseth God for his covenant mercies to David, 5 for his mighty power, 15 for the care of his church, 19 and for his favour to the kingdom of David: 38 then, complaining of contrary events, 46 he expostulateth, prayeth, and blesseth God.

¶ || Maschil of ^{*} Ethan the Ezrahite.

I WILL sing of the mercies of the LORD for ever: with my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness [†] to all generations.

2 For I have said, Mercy shall be built up for ever; ^a thy faithfulness shalt thou establish in the very heavens.

3 ^b I have made a covenant with my chosen, I have ^c sworn unto David my servant,

4 ^d Thy seed will I establish for ever, and build up thy throne ^e to all generations. Selah.

5 And ^f the heavens shall praise thy wonders, O LORD; thy faithfulness also in the congregation of the saints.

PSALM XC.

1 Moses, setting forth God's providence, 3 complaineth of human frailty, 10 and brevity of life: 12 he prayeth for the knowledge and sensible experience of God's good providence.

¶ A prayer ^{*}of Moses the man of God. LORD, ^athou hast been our dwelling-place [†]in all generations.

2 ^bBefore the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art [†]God.

3 Thou turnest man to destruction; and sayest, ^cReturn, ye children of men.

4 ^dFor a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday || when it is past, and as a watch in the night.

5 Thou carriest them away as with a flood; ^ethey are as a sleep: in the morning ^fthey are like grass which || groweth up.

6 ^gIn the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth.

7 For we are consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath are we troubled.

8 ^hThou hast set our iniquities before thee, our ⁱsecret sins in the light of thy countenance.

9 For all our days are [†]passed away in thy wrath: we spend our years || as a tale that is told.

10 [†]The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet ⁱis their strength labour and sorrow: for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

11 Who knoweth the power of thine anger? even according to thy fear, so ⁱis thy wrath.

12 ^kSo teach us to number our days, that we may [†]apply our hearts unto wisdom.

13 Return, O LORD, how long? and let it repent thee concerning thy servants.

14 O satisfy us early with thy mercy; that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

15 Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen evil.

16 Let thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory unto their children.

17 ^lAnd let the beauty of the LORD our God be upon us: and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

19 For ⁿhe hath looked down from the height of his sanctuary; from heaven did the LORD behold the earth;

20 ^oTo hear the groaning of the prisoner; to loose [†]those that are appointed to death;

21 To declare the name of the LORD in Zion, and his praise in Jerusalem;

22 When the people are gathered together, and the kingdoms, to serve the LORD.

23 He [†]weakened my strength in the way; he shortened my days.

24 ^pI said, O my [†]God, take me not away in the midst of my days: thy years are throughout all generations.

25 ^qOf old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

26 ^rThey shall perish, but thou shalt [†]endure; yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment: as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed:

27 But thou art the same, and thy years shall have no end.

28 ^sThe children of thy servants shall continue, and their seed shall be established before thee.

PSALM CIV.

1 A meditation upon the majesty, power, and wonderful providence of God.

31 God's glory is eternal. 33 The prophet voweth to praise God perpetually.

BLESS the LORD, O my soul. O LORD my God, thou art very great, ^a thou art clothed with honour and majesty:

^b Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment; ^c who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain;

^d Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters; ^e who maketh the clouds his chariot; ^f who walketh upon the wings of the wind;

^g Who maketh his angels spirits; his ministers a flaming fire;

^h Who laid the foundations of the earth, that it should not be removed for ever.

ⁱ Thou coveredst it with the deep as with a garment: the waters stood above the mountains.

^j At thy rebuke they fled; at the voice of thy thunder they hasted away.

^k They go up by the mountains; they go down by the valleys unto the place which thou hast founded for them.

^l Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over; ^m that they turn not again to cover the earth.

ⁿ He sendeth the springs into the valleys, which ⁿ run among the hills.

^o They give drink to every beast of the field: the wild asses ^o quench their thirst.

^p By them shall the fowls of the heaven have their habitation, which ^p sing among the branches.

^q He watereth the hills from his chambers: ^q the earth is satisfied with the fruit of thy works.

^r He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man: that he may bring forth food out of the earth,

^s And ^s wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and ^s oil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth man's heart.

^t The trees of the LORD are full of sap; the cedars of Lebanon, ^t which he hath planted;

^u Where the birds make their nests: as for the stork, the fir-trees are her house.

^v The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats, and the rocks for the conies.

PSALM CV.

1 An exhortation to praise God, to seek him, and remember his works. 8 The history of God's providence over Abraham, 16 over Joseph, 23 over Israel in Egypt, 26 over Moses delivering the Israelites, 37 over the Israelites brought out of Egypt, fed in the wilderness, and planted in Canaan.

a 1 Chron. 16. 8, &c. Isa. 12. 4. O ^a GIVE thanks unto the LORD; call upon his name: make known his deeds among the people.

2 Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him: talk ye of all his wondrous works.

3 Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD.

4 Seek the LORD, and his strength; seek his face evermore.

5 Remember his marvellous works that he hath done; his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth;

6 O ye seed of Abraham his servant, ye children of Jacob his chosen.

7 He is the LORD our God; his judgments are in all the earth.

8 He hath remembered his covenant for ever, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations:

9 ^b Which covenant he made with Abraham, and his oath unto Isaac;

10 And confirmed the same unto Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant;

11 Saying, ^c Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, [†] the lot of your inheritance:

12 ^d When they were but a few men in number; yea, very few, and ^e strangers in it.

13 When they went from one nation to another, from one kingdom to another people,

14 ^f He suffered no man to do them wrong; yea, ^g he reprov'd kings for their sakes;

15 Saying, Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm.

16 Moreover, ^h he called for a famine upon the land; he brake the whole ⁱ staff of bread.

17 ^k He sent a man before them, ^l even Joseph, who was sold for a servant;

18 ^m Whose feet they hurt with fetters: ⁿ he was laid in iron:

19 Until the time that his word came: the word of the LORD tried him.

20 ^o The king sent and loosed him; even the ruler of the people, and let him go free.

21 ^p He made him lord of his house, and ruler of all his [†] substance;

22 To bind his princes at his pleasure, and teach his senators wisdom.

23 ^q Israel also came into Egypt; and Jacob sojourned ^r in the land of Ham.

24 And ^s he increased his people greatly, and made them stronger than their enemies.

25 ^t He turned their heart to hate his people, to deal subtilly with his servants.

26 ^u He sent Moses his servant, and Aaron whom he had chosen.

29 ^z He turned their waters into blood, and slew their fish.

30 ^a Their land brought forth frogs in abundance in the chambers of their kings.

31 ^b He spake, and there came divers sorts of flies, and lice in all their coasts.

32 ^c [†] He gave them hail for rain, and flaming fire in their land.

33 ^d He smote their vines also and their fig-trees, and brake the trees of their coasts.

34 ^e He spake, and the locusts came, and caterpillars, and that without number, 35 And did eat up all the herbs in their land, and devoured the fruit of their ground.

36 ^f He smote also all the first-born in their land, ^g the chief of all their strength.

37 ^h He brought them forth also with silver and gold; and there was not one feeble person among their tribes.

38 ⁱ Egypt was glad when they departed; for the fear of them fell upon them.

39 ^k He spread a cloud for a covering, and fire to give light in the night.

40 ^l The people asked, and he brought quails, and ^m satisfied them with the bread of heaven.

41 ⁿ He opened the rock, and the waters gushed out; they ran in the dry places like a river.

42 For he remembered ^o his holy promise, and Abraham his servant.

43 And he brought forth his people with joy, and his chosen with [†] gladness;

44 ^p And gave them the lands of the heathen: and they inherited the labour of the people;

45 ^q That they might observe his statutes, and keep his laws. [†] Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CVI.

1 The psalmist exhorteth to praise God: 4 he prayeth to share in his people's joy: 7 he rehearseth Israel's rebellions and God's mercies: 47 he concludeth with prayer and a blessing.

[†] PRAISE ye the LORD, ^a O ^b give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

2 Who can utter the mighty acts of the LORD? who can shew forth all his praise?

3 Blessed are they that keep judgment, and he that doeth righteousness at all times.

4 ^c Remember me, O LORD, with the favour that thou bearest unto thy people: O visit me with thy salvation;

5 That I may see the good of thy chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of thy nation, that I may glory with thine inheritance.

6 ^d We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.

7 Our fathers understood not thy wonders in Egypt; they remembered not the multitude of thy mercies; ^e but provoked him at the sea, even at the Red sea.

8 Nevertheless he saved them for his name's sake, ^f that he might make his mighty power to be known.

9 ^g He rebuked the Red sea also, and it was dried up: so ^h he led them through the depths, as through the wilderness.

10 And he saved them from the hand of him that hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.

11 ⁱ And the waters covered their enemies; there was not one of them left.

12 ^k Then believed they his words; they sang his praise.

13 ^l They soon forgot his works; they waited not for his counsel;

14 ^m But [†] lusted exceedingly in the wilderness, and tempted [†] God in the desert.

15 ⁿ And he gavethem their request; but sent leanness into their soul.

16 ^o They envied Moses also in the camp, and Aaron the saint of the LORD.

17 ^p The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the company of Abiram.

18 ^q And a fire was kindled in their company; the flame burnt up the wicked.

19 ^r They made a calf in Horeb, and worshipped the molten image.

20 Thus ^s they changed their glory into the similitude of an ox that eateth grass.

2 ^b Awake, psaltery and harp; I myself will awake early.

b Ps. 57. 8,

d Ps. 60. 5,
&c.

7 God hath spoken in his holiness; I will rejoice, I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

8 Gilead is mine; Manasseh is mine; Ephraim also is the strength of mine head; Judah is my lawgiver;

9 Moab is my wash-pot; over Edom will I cast out my shoe; over Philistia will I triumph.

10 ^e Who will bring me into the strong city? who will lead me into Edom?

e Ps. 60. 2.

11 Wilt not thou, O God, who hast cast us off? and wilt not thou, O God, go forth with our hosts?

12 Give us help from trouble: for vain is the help of man.

1 David, complaining of his slanderous enemies, under the person of Judas, devoteth them: 16 he sheweth their sin: 21 complaining of his own misery, he prayeth for help: 30 he promiseth thankfulness.

¶ To the chief musician,

A psalm of David.

a Ps. 83. 1. HOLD ^a not thy peace, O God of my praise;

2 For the mouth of the wicked, and the [†] mouth of the deceitful, [†] are opened against me: they have spoken against me with a lying tongue.

3 They compassed me about also with words of hatred; and fought against me ^b without a cause.

4 For my love they are my adversaries: but I give myself unto prayer.

c Ps. 35. 7. 12. & 38. 20. 5 And ^c they have rewarded me evil for good, and hatred for my love.

d Zech. 3. 1. 6 Set thou a wicked man over him; and let ^d || Satan stand at his right hand.

7 When he shall be judged, let him [†] be condemned; and ^e let his prayer become sin.

8 Let his days be few; and ^f let another take his || office.

g Ex. 22. 24. 9 ^g Let his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow.

10 Let his children be continually vagabonds, and beg; let them seek their bread also out of their desolate places.

h Job 5. 5. & 18. 9. 11 ^h Let the extortioner catch all that he hath; and let the stranger spoil his labour.

12 Let there be none to extend mercy unto him; neither let there be any to favour his fatherless children.

i Job 18. 10. 13 ⁱ Let his posterity be cut off; and in the generation following let their name be blotted out.

k Ex. 20. 5. 14 ^k Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered with the LORD; and let not the sin of his mother be blotted out.

l Job 17. 17. Ps. 34. 16. 15 Let them be before the LORD continually, that he may ^l cut off the memory of them from the earth:

16 Because that he remembered not to shew mercy, but persecuted the poor and needy man, that he might even slay the broken in heart.

17 ^m As he loved cursing, so let it come unto him; as he delighted not in blessing, so let it be far from him.

18 As he clothed himself with cursing like as with his garment, so let it come [†] into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones.

19 Let it be unto him as the garment which covereth him, and for a girdle wherewith he is girded continually.

20 Let this be the reward of mine adversaries from the LORD, and of them that speak evil against my soul.

21 But do thou for me, [†] O God the Lord, for thy name's sake: because thy mercy is good, deliver thou me.

22 For I am poor and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.

23 I am gone ⁿ like the shadow when it declineth; I am tossed up and down as the locust.

24 My knees are weak through fasting; and my flesh faileth of fatness.

25 I became also ^o a reproach unto them: when they looked upon me they shook their heads.

26 Help me, O LORD my God; O save me according to thy mercy:

27 That they may know that this is thy hand; that thou, LORD, hast done it.

28 Let them curse, but bless thou: when they arise, let them be ashamed; but let thy servant rejoice.

29 Let mine adversaries be clothed with shame, and let them cover themselves with their own confusion, as with a mantle.

30 I will greatly praise the LORD with my mouth; yea, I will praise him among the multitude.

31 For ^p he shall stand at the right hand of the poor, to save him [†] from those that condemn his soul.

PSALM CX.

1 The kingdom, 4 the priesthood, 5 the conquest, 7 and the passion of Christ.

¶ A psalm of David.

THE ^a LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool.

2 The LORD shall send the rod of thy strength out of Zion: rule thou in the midst of thine enemies.

PSALM CXI.

1 The psalmist by his example inciteth others to praise God for his glorious and gracious works. 10 The fear of God is the source of true wisdom.

[†] PRAISE ye the LORD. I will praise the LORD with my whole heart in the assembly of the upright, and in the congregation.

2 The works of the LORD are great, sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.

3 His work is honourable and glorious: and his righteousness endureth for ever.

4 He hath made his wonderful works to be remembered: ^a the LORD is gracious, and full of compassion.

[†] He hath given [†] meat unto them that fear him: he will ever be mindful of his covenant.

6 He hath shewed his people the power of his works, that he may give them the heritage of the heathen.

7 The works of his hands are verity and judgment: ^b all his commandments are sure.

^c They [†] stand fast for ever and ever, and are done in truth and uprightness.

9 He sent redemption unto his people; he hath commanded his covenant for ever: holy and reverend is his name.

10 ^d The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: ^{||} a good understanding have all they [†] that do his commandments: his praise endureth for ever.

PSALM CXII.

1 Godliness hath the promises of this life, ⁴ and of the life to come. 10 The wicked shall repine at the prosperity of the godly.

2 His seed shall be mighty upon earth: the generation of the upright shall be blessed.

3 Wealth and riches shall be in his house; and his righteousness endureth for ever.

4 ^b Unto the upright there ariseth light in the darkness: ^{he is} gracious, and full of compassion, and righteous.

5 ^c A good man sheweth favour, and lendeth: he will guide his affairs with [†] discretion.

6 Surely he shall not be moved for ever: ^d the righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance.

7 He shall not be afraid of evil tidings: his heart is fixed, trusting in the LORD.

8 His heart is established, ^e he shall not be afraid, until he see his desire upon his enemies.

9 ^f He hath dispersed; he hath given to the poor; ^g his righteousness endureth for ever; ^h his horn shall be exalted with honour.

O LORD, ^a thou hast searched me, and known me.

2 ^b Thou knowest my down-sitting and mine up-rising; thou understandest my thought afar off.

3 Thou ^c compassest my path, and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways.

4 For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O LORD, thou knowest it altogether.

5 Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me.

6 ^e Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it.

7 ^d Whither shall I go from thy Spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence?

8 ^e If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there; ^f if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there.

9 If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;

11 If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me.

12 Yea, ^g the darkness [†] hideth not from thee; but the night shineth as the day: [†] the darkness and the light are both alike to thee.

13 For thou hast possessed my reins: thou hast covered me in my mother's womb.

14 I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvelous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth [†] right well.

15 ^h My ^{||} substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.

16 Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being unperfect; and in thy book [†] all my members were written, ^{||} which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them.

17 ⁱ How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them!

18 If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand: when I awake, I am still with thee.

19 Surely thou wilt slay the wicked, O God: ^k depart from me therefore, ye bloody men.

20 For they speak against thee wickedly, and thine enemies take thy name in vain.

21 ^l Do not I hate them, O LORD, that hate thee? and am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee?

22 I hate them with perfect hatred; I count them mine enemies.

¶ A psalm of David.

BLESSED be the LORD [†] my strength, ^a which teacheth my hands [†] to war, and my fingers to fight.

2 ^b || My goodness, and my fortress ; my high tower, and my deliverer ; my shield, and he in whom I trust ; who subdueth my people under me.

3 ^c LORD, what is man, that thou takest knowledge of him ! or the son of man, that thou makest account of him !

4 ^d Man is like to vanity : ^e his days are as a shadow that passeth away.

5 ^f Bow thy heavens, O LORD, and come down : ^g touch the mountains, and they shall smoke.

6 ^h Cast forth lightning, and scatter them : shoot out thine arrows, and destroy them.

7 ⁱ Send thine [†] hand from above ; ^k rid me, and deliver me out of great waters, from the hand ^l of strange children ;

8 Whose mouth speaketh vanity ; and their right hand ^{is} a right hand of falsehood.

9 I will ^m sing a new song unto thee, O God : upon a psaltery, and an instrument of ten strings, will I sing praises unto thee.

10 ⁿ It is he that giveth || salvation unto kings : who delivereth David his servant from the hurtful sword.

11 ^o Rid me, and deliver me from the hand of strange children, whose mouth speaketh vanity, and their right hand ^{is} a right hand of falsehood :

12 That our sons ^{may} be as plants grown up in their youth ; that our daughters ^{may} be as corner stones, [†] polished after the similitude of a [†] Heb. cut. palace ;

13 That our garners ^{may} be full, affording [†] all manner of store ; that [†] Heb. from kind to kind. our sheep may bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our streets ;

14 That our oxen ^{may} be [†] strong to labour ; that there be no breaking in, nor going out ; that there be no complaining in our streets.

15 ^p Happy is that people that is in such a case ; yea, happy is that people whose God is the LORD.

PSALM CXLV.

1 David praiseth God for his fame, 7 goodness, 11 the glory of his kingdom, 14 his providence, 17 justice, and holiness, 18 and for his especial favour to the righteous.

¶ David's ^a psalm of praise.

I WILL extol thee, my God, O king ; and I will bless thy name for ever and ever.

2 Every day will I bless thee ; and I will praise thy name for ever and ever.

3 ^b Great ^{is} the LORD, and greatly to be praised ; [†] and ^c his greatness ^{is} unsearchable.

4 One generation shall praise thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts.

5 I will speak of the glorious honour of thy majesty, and of thy wondrous [†] works.

6 And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts ; and I will [†] declare thy greatness.

7 They shall abundantly utter the memory of thy great goodness, and shall sing of thy righteousness.

8 ^d The LORD ^{is} gracious, and full of compassion ; slow to anger, and [†] of great mercy.

9 The LORD ^{is} good to all ; and his tender mercies ^{are} over all his works.

10 All thy works shall praise thee, O LORD ; and thy saints shall bless thee.

11 They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power ;

12 To make known to the sons of men his mighty acts, and the glorious majesty of his kingdom.

13 ^e Thy kingdom ^{is} [†] an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations.

^f Ps. 146. 8. 14 The LORD upholdeth all that fall, and ^f raiseth up all those that be bowed down.

^E Psalm 104. 27. ^{||} Or, look unto thee. 15 ^E The eyes of all ^{||} wait upon thee; and ^h thou givest them their meat in due season.

^h Psalm 136. 25. 16 Thou openest thine hand, ⁱ and satisfiest the desire of every living thing.

ⁱ Psalm 104. 21. & 147. 8. ^{||} Or, merciful, or, bountiful. 17 The LORD is righteous in all his ways, and ^{||} holy in all his works.

^k Deut. 4. 7. 18 ^k The LORD is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth.

19 He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him: he also will hear their cry, and will save them.

20 The LORD preserveth all them that love him: but all the wicked will he destroy.

21 My mouth shall speak the praise of the LORD: and let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever.

PSALM CXLVI.

1 The psalmist voweth perpetual praises to God: 3 he exhorteth not to trust in man. 5 The benefit of trusting in God by reason of his power, truth, justice, mercy, and everlasting dominion.

[†] PRAISE ye the LORD. ^a Praise the LORD, O my soul.

2 ^b While I live will I praise the LORD: I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being.

3 ^c Put not your trust in princes, nor in the son of man, in whom there is no ^{||} help.

4 ^d His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day ^e his thoughts perish.

5 ^f Happy is he that hath the [†] God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in the LORD his God;

6 ^g Which made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that therein is; which keepeth truth for ever;

7 ^h Which executeth judgment for the oppressed; which giveth food to the hungry. ⁱ The LORD looseth the prisoners:

8 ^k The LORD openeth the eyes of the blind: ^l the LORD raiseth them that are bowed down: the LORD loveth the righteous:

9 ^m The LORD preserveth the strangers; he relieveth the fatherless and widow: but the way of the wicked he turneth upside down.

10 ⁿ The LORD shall reign for ever, even thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CXLVII.

1 The prophet exhorteth to praise God for his care of the church, 4 for his power, 6 and his mercy: 7 to praise him for his providence, 12 for his blessings upon his church, 15 for his power over the elements, 19 and for his ordinances in the church.

PRAISE ye the LORD: for ^a it is a good to sing praises unto our God; ^b for it is pleasant; and ^c praise is comely.

2 The LORD doth build up Jerusalem: ^d he gathereth together the outcasts of Israel.

3 ^e He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their [†] wounds.

4 ^f He telleth the number of the stars; ^g he calleth them all by their names.

5 Great is our [†] Lord, and of great power: [†] his understanding is infinite.

6 ^g The LORD lifteth up the meek: he casteth the wicked down to the ground.

7 Sing unto the LORD with thanksgiving; sing praise upon the harp unto our God;

8 ^h Who covereth the heaven with clouds, who prepareth rain for the earth, who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains.

9 ⁱ He giveth to the beast his food, and ^k to the young ravens which cry.

10 ^l He delighteth not in the strength of the horse; he taketh not pleasure in the legs of a man.

11 The LORD taketh pleasure in them that fear him, in those that hope in his mercy.

12 Praise the LORD, O Jerusalem; praise thy God, O Zion:

13 For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates; he hath blessed thy children within thee.

14 [†] He maketh peace in thy borders, and ^m filleth thee with the [†] finest of the wheat.

15 ⁿ He sendeth forth his commandment upon earth: his word runneth very swiftly.

16 He giveth snow like wool: he scattereth the hoar-frost like ashes.

17 He casteth forth his ice like morsels: who can stand before his cold?

18 ^o He sendeth out his word, and melteth them: he causeth his wind to blow, and the waters flow.

19 [†] He sheweth [†] his word unto Jacob, ^q his statutes and his judgments unto Israel.

7 ¶^b The fear of the LORD is || the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

8 ^c My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother:

9 For ^d they shall be † an ornament of grace unto thy head, and chains about thy neck.

10 ¶ My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not.

11 If they say, Come with us, let us ^e lay wait for blood, let us lurk privily for the innocent without cause:

12 Let us swallow them up alive as the grave; and whole, as those that go down into the pit:

13 We shall find all precious substance, we shall fill our houses with spoil:

14 Cast in thy lot among us; let us all have one purse.

15 My son, ^f walk not thou in the way with them; refrain thy foot from their path:

16 ^g For their feet run to evil, and make haste to shed blood:

17 (Surely in vain the net is spread † in the sight of any bird:)

18 And they lay wait for their own blood; they lurk privily for their own lives.

19 So are the ways of every one that is greedy of gain; which taketh away the life of the owners thereof.

20 ¶^h †^h Wisdom crieth without; she uttereth her voice in the streets:

21 She crieth in the chief place of concourse, in the openings of the gates; in the city she uttereth her words, saying,

22 How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity? and the scornors delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge?

23 Turn ye at my reproof: behold, I will pour out my Spirit unto you, I will make known my words unto you.

24 ¶ⁱ Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded;

25 But ye ^j have set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof:

26 ^k I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh;

27 When ^m your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish cometh upon you:

28 ⁿ Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me:

29 For that they hated knowledge, and did not ^o choose the fear of the LORD:

30 ^p They would none of my counsel: they despised all my reproof:

31 Therefore ^q shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices.

32 For the || turning away of the simple shall slay them, and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them.

33 But ^r whose hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and ^s shall be quiet from fear of evil.

CHAP. II.

1 Wisdom promiseth godliness to her children, 10 and safety from evil company, 20 and direction in good ways.

MY son, if thou wilt receive my words, and ^a hide my commandments with thee;

2 So that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom, and apply thine heart to understanding;

3 Yea, if thou criest after knowledge, and † liftest up thy voice for understanding;

4 ^b If thou seekest her as silver, and searchest for her as for hid treasures;

5 Then shalt thou understand the fear of the LORD, and find the knowledge of God.

6 ^c For the LORD giveth wisdom: out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding.

7 He layeth up sound wisdom for the righteous: ^d he is a buckler to them that walk uprightly.

8 He keepeth the paths of judgment, and preserveth the way of his saints.

9 Then shalt thou understand righteousness, and judgment, and equity; yea, every good path.

10 ¶ When wisdom entereth into thine heart, and knowledge is pleasant unto thy soul;

11 Discretion shall preserve thee, ^e understanding shall keep thee;

12 To deliver thee from the way of the evil man, from the man that speaketh froward things;

13 Who leave the paths of uprightness, to walk in the ways of darkness;

14 Who rejoice to do evil, and delight in the frowardness of the wicked;

15 ^f Whose ways are crooked, and they froward in their paths:

16 To deliver thee from ^g the strange woman, ^h even from the stranger which flattereth with her words;

MY son, forget not my law; ^a but let thine heart keep my commandments:

2 For length of days, and [†] long life, and ^b peace, shall they add to thee.

3 Let not mercy and truth forsake thee: ^c bind them about thy neck; ^d write them upon the table of thine heart:

4 ^e So shalt thou find favour and || good understanding in the sight of God and man.

5 ¶ Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.

6 ^f In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

7 ¶ ^g Be not wise in thine own eyes: ^h fear the LORD, and depart from evil.

8 It shall be ⁱ health to thy navel, and [†] marrow to thy bones.

9 ¶ ^k Honour the LORD with thy substance, and with the first-fruits of all thine increase:

10 ^l So shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine.

11 ¶ ^m My son, despise not the chastening of the LORD; neither be weary of his correction:

12 For whom the LORD loveth he correcteth, ⁿ even as a father the son in whom he delighteth.

13 ¶ ^o Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and [†] the man that getteth understanding:

14 ^p For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold.

15 She is more precious than rubies: and all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her.

16 ^q Length of days is in her right hand; and in her left hand riches and honour.

17 Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace.

18 She is ^r a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her; and happy is every one that retaineth her.

19 ^s The LORD by wisdom hath founded the earth; by understanding hath he || established the heavens.

20 ^t By his knowledge the depths are broken up, and the clouds drop down the dew.

21 ¶ My son, let not them depart from thine eyes: keep sound wisdom and discretion:

22 So shall they be life unto thy soul, and ^u grace to thy neck.

23 ^v Then shalt thou walk in thy way safely, and thy foot shall not stumble.

24 ^w When thou liest down, thou shalt not be afraid; yea, thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep shall be sweet.

25 ^x Be not afraid of sudden fear, neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it cometh.

26 For the LORD shall be thy confidence, and shall keep thy foot from being taken.

27 ¶ Withhold not good from [†] them to whom it is due, when it is in the power of thine hand to do it.

28 ^y Say not unto thy neighbour, Go, and come again, and to-morrow I will give; when thou hast it by thee.

29 ¶ || Devise not evil against thy neighbour, seeing he dwelleth securely by thee.

30 Strive not with a man without cause, if he have done thee no harm.

31 ¶ ^z Envy thou not [†] the oppressor, and choose none of his ways.

32 For the froward is abomination to the LORD: ^a but his secret is with the righteous.

33 ¶ ^b The curse of the LORD is in the house of the wicked: but he blesseth the habitation of the just.

34 ^c Surely he scorneth the scorners: but he giveth grace unto the lowly.

CHAP. V.

1 Solomon exhorteth to the study of wisdom: 3 he sheweth the mischiefs of whoredom and riot: 15 he exhorteth to contentedness, liberality, and chastity. 22 The wicked are overtaken with their own sins.

MY son, attend unto my wisdom, and bow thine ear to my understanding;

2 That thou mayest regard discretion, and that thy lips may keep knowledge.

6 Lest thou shouldest ponder the path of life, her ways are moveable, that thou canst not know them.

7 Hear me now therefore, O ye children, and depart not from the words of my mouth.

8 Remove thy way far from her, and come not nigh the door of her house;

9 Lest thou give thine honour unto others, and thy years unto the cruel;

10 Lest strangers be filled with [†]thy wealth, and thy labours be in the house of a stranger;

17 Let them be only thine own, and not strangers' with thee.

18 Let thy fountain be blessed; and rejoice with ^e the wife of thy youth.

19 ^f Let her be as the loving hind, and pleasant roe; let her breasts [†] satisfy thee at all times; and [†] be thou ravished always with her love.

20 And why wilt thou, my son, be ravished with ^g a strange woman, and embrace the bosom of a stranger?

21 ^h For the ways of man are before the eyes of the LORD, and he pondereth all his goings.

22 ¶ ⁱ His own iniquities shall take the wicked himself, and he shall be holden with the cords of his [†] sins.

23 ^k He shall die without instruction; and in the greatness of his folly he shall go astray.

CHAP. VI.

1 Against suretiship, 6 idleness, 12 and mischievousness. 20 Blessings of obedience. 25 The mischiefs of whoredom.

MY son, ^a if thou be surety for thy friend, if thou hast stricken thy hand with a stranger,

2 Thou art snared with the words of thy mouth, thou art taken with the words of thy mouth.

3 Do this now, my son, and deliver thyself, when thou art come into the hand of thy friend; go, humble thyself, ^{||} and make sure thy friend.

4 ^b Give not sleep to thine eyes, nor slumber to thine eyelids.

5 Deliver thyself as a roe from the hand of the hunter, and as a bird from the hand of the fowler.

6 ¶ Go to the ant, thou sluggard; consider her ways, and be wise:

7 Which having no guide, overseer, or ruler,

8 Provideth her meat in the summer, and gathereth her food in the harvest.

9 ^c How long wilt thou sleep, O sluggard? when wilt thou arise out of thy sleep?

10 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:

11 ^d So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth, and thy want as an armed man.

12 ¶ A naughty person, a wicked man, walketh with a froward mouth.

13 ^e He winketh with his eyes, he speaketh with his feet, he teacheth with his fingers;

14 Frowardness ^{is} in his heart, he deviseth mischief continually; [†] he [†] soweth discord.

15 Therefore shall his calamity come suddenly; suddenly shall he ^g be broken without remedy.

16 ¶ These six things doth the LORD hate; yea, seven are an abomination [†] unto him:

17 ^h [†] A proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood,

18 An heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, ⁱ feet that be swift in running to mischief, 19 ^k A false witness that speaketh lies, [†] and he that soweth discord among brethren.

20 ¶ ^m My son, keep thy father's commandment, and forsake not the law of thy mother:

21 ⁿ Bind them continually upon thine heart, and tie them about thy neck.

22 ^o When thou goest, it shall lead thee; when thou sleepest, [†] it shall keep thee; and when thou awakest, it shall talk with thee.

23 ^q For the commandment ^{is} a ^{||} lamp; and the law ^{is} light; and reproofs of instruction are the way of life:

24 ^r To keep thee from the evil woman, from the flattery ^{||} of the tongue of a strange woman.

25 ¶ ^s Lust not after her beauty in thine heart; neither let her take thee with her eyelids:

26 For ^t by means of a whorish woman a man ^{is} brought to a piece of bread; and [†] the adulteress will hunt for the precious life.

27 Can a man take fire in his bosom, and his clothes not be burnt?

28 Can one go upon hot coals, and his feet not be burnt?

29 So he that goeth in to his neighbour's wife; whosoever toucheth her shall not be innocent.

30 Men do not despise a thief, if he steal to satisfy his soul when he is hungry:

31 But ^u if he be found, ^u he shall restore seven-fold; he shall give all the substance of his house.

32 But whoso committeth adultery with a woman ^x lacketh [†] understanding: he ^{that} doeth it destroyeth his own soul.

23 ^k I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was.

24 When there were no depths, I was brought forth; when there were no fountains abounding with water.

25 ^l Before the mountains were settled; before the hills was I brought forth:

26 While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the || fields, nor || the highest part of the dust of the world.

30 ^o Then I was by him, as one brought up with him; ^p and I was daily his delight, rejoicing always before him;

4 Where no oxen are, the crib is clean: but much increase is by the strength of the ox.

5 ^a A faithful witness will not lie: but a false witness will utter lies.

6 A scorner seeketh wisdom, and findeth it not: but ^a knowledge is easy unto him that understandeth.

7 Go from the presence of a foolish man, when thou perceivest not in him the lips of knowledge.

8 The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way: but the folly of fools is deceit.

9 ^a Fools make a mock at sin: but among the righteous there is favour.

10 The heart knoweth [†] his own bitterness; and a stranger doth not intermeddle with his joy.

11 The house of the wicked shall be overthrown: but the tabernacle of the upright shall flourish.

12 ^a There is a way which seemeth right unto a man; but the end thereof are the ways of death.

13 Even in laughter the heart is sorrowful; and ^b the end of that mirth is heaviness.

14 The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways; and a good man shall be satisfied from himself.

15 The simple believeth every word: but the prudent man looketh well to his going.

16 ^k A wise man feareth, and departeth from evil: but the fool rageth, and is confident.

17 He that is soon angry dealeth foolishly; and a man of wicked devices is hated.

18 The simple inherit folly: but the prudent are crowned with knowledge.

19 The evil bow before the good; and the wicked at the gates of the righteous.

20 [†] The poor is hated even of his own neighbour: but [†] the rich hath many friends.

21 He that despiseth his neighbour sinneth: ^m but he that hath mercy on the poor, happy is he.

22 Do they not err that devise evil? but mercy and truth shall be to them that devise good.

23 In all labour there is profit: but the talk of the lips tendeth only to penury.

24 The crown of the wise is their riches: but the foolishness of fools is folly.

25 ^a A true witness delivereth souls: but a deceitful witness speaketh lies.

26 In the fear of the LORD is strong confidence; and his children shall have a place of refuge.

27 ^o The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death.

28 In the multitude of people is the king's honour: but in the want of people is the destruction of the prince.

29 He that is slow to wrath is of great understanding: but he that is [†] hasty of spirit exalteth folly.

30 A sound heart is the life of the flesh: but ^p envy ^q the rottenness of the bones.

31 ^r He that oppresseth the poor reproacheth ^s his Maker: but he that honoureth him hath mercy on the poor.

32 The wicked is driven away in his wickedness: but ^t the righteous hath hope in his death.

33 Wisdom resteth in the heart of him that hath understanding: but ^u that which is in the midst of fools is made known.

34 Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach [†] to any people.

35 The king's favour is toward a wise servant: but his wrath is against him that causeth shame.

CHAP. XV.

A ^a SOFT answer turneth away wrath: but grievous words stir up anger.

2 The tongue of the wise useth knowledge aright: ^b but the mouth of fools [†] poureth out foolishness.

3 ^c The eyes of the LORD are in every place, beholding the evil and the good.

4 [†] A wholesome tongue is a tree of life: but perverseness therein is a breach in the spirit.

5 ^d A fool despiseth his father's instruction: ^e but he that regardeth reproof is prudent.

6 In the house of the righteous is much treasure: but in the revenues of the wicked is trouble.

7 The lips of the wise disperse knowledge: but the heart of the foolish doeth not so.

19 Better it is to be of an humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud.

20 || He that handleth a matter wisely shall find good; and whoso ^x trusteth in the Lord, happy is he.

21 The wise in heart shall be called prudent; and the sweetness of the lips increaseth learning.

22 ^v Understanding is a well-spring of instruction to him that hath it: but the instruction of fools is folly.

23 The heart of the wise [†] teacheth his mouth, and addeth learning to his lips.

24 Pleasant words are as an honey-comb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones.

25 ^z There is a way that seemeth right unto a man; but the end thereof are the ways of death.

26 ^a [†] He that laboureth, laboureth for himself; for his mouth [†] craveth it of him.

27 [†] An ungodly man diggeth up evil; and in his lips there is as a burning fire.

28 ^b A froward man [†] soweth strife; and ^a a whisperer separateth chief friends.

29 A violent man ^d enticeth his neighbour, and leadeth him into the way that is not good.

30 He shutteth his eyes to devise froward things; moving his lips he bringeth evil to pass.

31 ^e The hoary head is a crown of glory, if it be found in the way of righteousness.

32 ^f He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city.

33 The lot is cast into the lap; but the whole disposing thereof is of the Lord.

CHAP. XVII.

BBETTER is ^a a dry morsel, and quietness therewith, than an house full of || sacrifices with strife.

2 A wise servant shall have rule over ^b a son that causeth shame, and shall have part of the inheritance among the brethren.

3 ^c The fining pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold: but the Lord trieth the hearts.

4 A wicked doer giveth heed to false lips; and a liar giveth ear to a naughty tongue.

5 ^d Whoso mocketh the poor reproacheth his Maker; and ^e he that is glad at calamities shall not be [†] unpunished.

6 ^f Children's children are the crown of old men; and the glory of children are their fathers.

7 [†] Excellent speech becometh not a fool; much less do [†] lying lips a prince.

8 ^g A gift is as [†] a precious stone in the eyes of him that hath it; whithersoever it turneth, it prospereth.

9 ^h He that covereth a transgression || seeketh love: but ⁱ he that repeateth a matter separateth very friends.

10 || A reproof entereth more into a wise man than an hundred stripes into a fool.

11 An evil man seeketh only rebellion; therefore a cruel messenger shall be sent against him.

12 Let ^k a bear robbed of her whelps meet a man, rather than a fool in his folly.

13 Whoso ^l rewardeth evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house.

14 The beginning of strife is as when one letteth out water; therefore ^m leave off contention, before it be meddled with.

15 ⁿ He that justifieth the wicked, and he that condemneth the just, even they both are abomination to the Lord.

16 Wherefore is there a price in the hand of a fool to get wisdom, ^o seeing he hath no heart to it?

17 ^p A friend loveth at all times; and a brother is born for adversity.

18 ^q A man void of [†] understanding striketh hands, and becometh surety in the presence of his friend.

19 He loveth transgression that loveth strife; and ^r he that exalteth his gate seeketh destruction.

20 [†] He that hath a froward heart findeth no good; and he that hath a perverse tongue falleth into mischief.

21 ^s He that begetteth a fool doeth it to his sorrow; and the father of a fool hath no joy.

22 ^t A merry heart doeth good || like a medicine: ^u but a broken spirit drieth the bones.

23 A wicked man taketh a gift out of the bosom to pervert the ways of judgment.

24 ^x Wisdom is before him that hath understanding; but the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth.

25 ^y A foolish son is a grief to his father, and bitterness to her that bare him.

26 Also to punish the just is not good, nor to strike princes for equity.

27 ^a He that hath knowledge spareth his words; and a man of understanding is of || an excellent spirit.

28 ^a Even a fool, when he holdeth his peace, is counted wise; and he that shutteth his lips is esteemed a man of understanding.

CHAP. XVIII.

THROUGH desire a man, having separated himself, seeketh and intermeddleth with all wisdom.

2 A fool hath no delight in understanding, but that his heart may discover itself.

3 When the wicked cometh, then cometh also contempt, and with ignominy reproach.

4 ^a The words of a man's mouth are as deep waters, ^b and the well-spring of wisdom as a flowing brook.

5 ^c It is not good to accept the person of the wicked, to overthrow the righteous in judgment.

6 A fool's lips enter into contention, and his mouth calleth for strokes.

7 ^d A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips are the snare of his soul.

8 ^e The words of a || talebearer are || as wounds, and they go down into the † innermost parts of the belly.

9 He also that is slothful in his work is † brother to him that is a great waster.

10 ^f The name of the Lord is a strong tower; the righteous runneth in it, and † is safe.

11 ^h The rich man's wealth is his strong city, and as an high wall in his own conceit.

12 ⁱ Before destruction the heart of man is haughty; and before honour is humility.

13 He that † answereth a matter before he heareth it, it is folly and shame unto him.

14 The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity: but a wounded spirit who can bear?

15 The heart of the prudent getteth knowledge; and the ear of the wise seeketh knowledge.

16 ^k A man's gift maketh room for him, and bringeth him before great men.

17 He that is first in his own cause seemeth just; but his neighbour cometh and searcheth him.

18 The lot causeth contentions to cease, and parteth between the mighty.

19 A brother offended is harder to be won than a strong city; and their contentions are like the bars of a castle.

20 ^l A man's belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth; and with the increase of his lips shall he be filled.

21 ^m Death and life are in the power of the tongue; and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.

22 ⁿ Whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favour of the Lord.

23 The poor useth entreaties: but the rich answereth ^o roughly.

24 A man that hath friends must shew himself friendly: ^p and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.

CHAP. XIX.

BBETTER is the poor that walketh in his integrity, than he that is perverse in his lips, and is a fool.

2 Also, that the soul be without knowledge, it is not good; and he that hasteth with his feet sinneth.

3 The foolishness of man perverteth his way; ^b and his heart fretteth against the Lord.

4 ^c Wealth maketh many friends; but the poor is separated from his neighbour.

5 ^d A false witness shall not be † unpunished; and he that speaketh lies shall not escape.

6 ^e Many will entreat the favour of the prince; and ^f every man is a friend to † him that giveth gifts.

7 ^g All the brethren of the poor do hate him; how much more do his friends go far from him? he pursueth them with words, yet they are wanting to him.

8 He that getteth † wisdom loveth his own soul: he that keepeth understanding shall find good.

9 ^h A false witness shall not be unpunished; and he that speaketh lies shall perish.

10 Delight is not seemly for a fool; much less ⁱ for a servant to have rule over princes.

11 ^k The || discretion of a man deferreth his anger; ^l and it is his glory to pass over a transgression.

12 ^m The king's wrath is as the roaring of a lion: but his favour is as dew upon the grass.

13 ⁿ A foolish son is the calamity of his father; ^o and the contentions of a wife are a continual dropping.

14 House and riches are the inheritance of fathers; and ^p a prudent wife is from the Lord.

21 There are many devices in a man's heart; nevertheless the counsel of the LORD, that shall stand.

22 The desire of a man is his kindness; and a poor man is better than a liar.

23 The fear of the LORD tendeth to life: and he that hath it shall abide satisfied; he shall not be visited with evil.

24 A slothful man hideth his hand in his bosom, and will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.

25 Smite a scorner, and the simple will beware; and reprove one that hath understanding, and he will understand knowledge.

26 He that wasteth his father, and chaseth away his mother, is a son that causeth shame, and bringeth reproach.

27 Cease, my son, to hear the instruction that causeth to err from the words of knowledge.

28 An ungodly witness scorneth judgment; and the mouth of the wicked devoureth iniquity.

29 Judgments are prepared for scorners, and stripes for the back of fools.

CHAP. XX.

WINE is a mocker, strong drink is raging; and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.

2 The fear of a king is as the roaring of a lion; whoso provoketh him to anger sinneth against his own soul.

3 It is an honour for a man to cease from strife: but every fool will be meddling.

4 The sluggard will not plow by reason of the cold; therefore shall he beg in harvest, and have nothing.

5 Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water: but a man of understanding will draw it out.

6 Most men will proclaim every one his own || goodness: but a faithful man who can find?

7 The just man walketh in his integrity; his children are blessed after him.

8 A king that sitteth in the throne of judgment scattereth away all evil with his eyes.

9 Who can say, I have made my heart clean, I am pure from my sin?

10 Divers weights, and divers measures, both of them are alike abomination to the LORD.

11 Even a child is known by his doings, whether his work be pure, and whether it be right.

12 The hearing ear, and the seeing eye, the LORD hath made even both of them.

13 Love not sleep, lest thou come to poverty: open thine eyes, and thou shalt be satisfied with bread.

14 It is naught, it is naught, saith the buyer; but when he is gone his way, then he boasteth.

15 There is gold, and a multitude of rubies: but the lips of knowledge are a precious jewel.

16 Take his garment that is surety for a stranger; and take a pledge of him for a strange woman.

17 Bread of deceit is sweet to a man; but afterwards his mouth shall be filled with gravel.

18 Every purpose is established by counsel; and with good advice make war.

19 He that goeth about as a tale-bearer revealeth secrets; therefore meddle not with him that || flattereth with his lips.

20 Whoso curseth his father or his mother, his || lamp shall be put out in obscure darkness.

21 An inheritance may be gotten hastily at the beginning; but the end thereof shall not be blessed.

22 Say not thou, I will recompense evil; but wait on the LORD, and he shall save thee.

23 Divers weights are an abomination unto the LORD; and a false balance is not good.

24 A Man's goings are of the LORD; how can a man then understand his own way?

25 It is a snare to the man who devoureth that which is holy, and after vows to make enquiry.

11 ^m He that loveth pureness of heart, || for the grace of his lips the king shall be his friend.

12 The eyes of the LORD preserve knowledge; and he overthroweth || the words of the transgressor.

13 ⁿ The slothful man saith, There is a lion without, I shall be slain in the streets.

14 ^o The mouth of strange women is a deep pit: ^p he that is abhorred of the LORD shall fall therein.

15 Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child; but ^q the rod of correction shall drive it far from him.

16 He that oppresseth the poor to increase his riches, and he that giveth to the rich, shall surely come to want.

17 Bow down thine ear, and hear the words of the wise, and apply thine heart unto my knowledge:

18 For it is a pleasant thing if thou keep them † within thee; they shall withal be fitted in thy lips.

22 ^t Rob not the poor, because he is poor; neither oppress the afflicted in the gate:

22 ° Hearken unto thy father that begat thee, and despise not thy mother when she is old.

24 ° The father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice; and he that begetteth a wise child shall have joy of him.

25 Thy father and thy mother shall be glad, and she that bare thee shall rejoice.

26 My son, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways.

27 ° For a whore is a deep ditch; and a strange woman is a narrow pit.

28 ° She also lieth in wait || as for a prey, and increaseth the transgressors among men.

29 ° Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who ° hath redness of eyes?

30 ° They that tarry long at the wine; they that go to seek ° mixed wine.

31 Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his colour in the cup, when it moveth itself aright:

32 At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like || an adder.

33 Thine eyes shall behold strange women, and thine heart shall utter perverse things:

35 They have stricken me, shalt thou say, and I was not sick; they have beaten me, and † I felt it not: ° when shall I awake? I will seek it yet again.

CHAP. XXIV.

BE not thou ° envious against evil men, neither desire to be with them.

2 ° For their heart studieth destruction, and their lips talk of mischief.

3 Through wisdom is a house builded, and by understanding it is established;

4 And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches.

5 ° A wiseman † is strong; yea, a man of knowledge † increaseth strength.

6 ° For by wise counsel thou shalt make thy war; and in multitude of counsellors there is safety.

7 ° Wisdom is too high for a fool; he openeth not his mouth in the gate.

8 He that deviseth to do evil shall be called a mischievous person.

9 The thought of foolishness is sin; and the scorner is an abomination to men.

10 If thou faint in the day of adversity, thy strength is † small.

11 † If thou forbear to deliver them that are drawn unto death, and those that are ready to be slain;

12 If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to every man ° according to his works?

13 My son, eat thou honey, because it is good; and the honeycomb, which is sweet † to thy taste:

14 ° So shall the knowledge of wisdom be unto thy soul: when thou hast found it, † then there shall be a reward, and thy expectation shall not be cut off.

15 Lay not wait, O wicked man, against the dwelling of the righteous; spoil not his resting-place:

17 ° Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth; and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth;

23 These things also belong to the wise. ° It is not good to have respect of persons in judgment.

24 ° He that saith unto the wicked, Thou art righteous; him shall the people curse; nations shall abhor him:

25 But to them that rebuke him shall be delight, and † a good blessing shall come upon them.

THESE are also proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out.

2 ^a It is the glory of God to conceal a thing: but the honour of kings is to search out a matter.

3 The heaven for height, and the earth for depth, and the heart of kings [†] is unsearchable.

4 Take away the dross from the silver, and there shall come forth a vessel for the finer.

5 ^b Take away the wicked from before the king, and his throne shall be established in righteousness.

6 [†] Put not forth thyself in the presence of the king, and stand not in the place of great men:

7 ^c For better it is that it be said unto thee, Come up hither, than that thou shouldest be put lower in the presence of the prince whom thine eyes have seen.

8 Go not forth hastily to strive, lest thou know not what to do in the end thereof, when thy neighbour hath put thee to shame.

9 ^d Debate thy cause with thy neighbour himself, and ^{||} discover not a secret to another;

10 Lest he that heareth it put thee to shame, and thine infamy turn not away.

11 ^e A word [†] fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver.

12 As an ear-ring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold, so is a wise reprover upon an obedient ear:

13 ^f As the cold of snow in the time of harvest, so is a faithful messenger to them that send him; for he refresheth the soul of his masters.

14 ^g Whoso boasteth himself [†] of a false gift is like ^h clouds and wind without rain.

15 ⁱ By long forbearing is a prince persuaded, and a soft tongue breaketh the bone.

16 ^k Hast thou found honey? eat so much as is sufficient for thee, lest thou be filled therewith, and vomit it.

17 ^{||} Withdraw thy foot from thy neighbour's house; lest he be [†] weary of thee, and so hate thee.

18 ^l A man that beareth false witness against his neighbour is a maul, and a sword, and a sharp arrow.

19 Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint.

20 As he that taketh away a garment in cold weather, and as vinegar upon nitre; so is he that singeth songs to an heavy heart.

21 ^m As if thine enemy be hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he be thirsty, give him water to drink:

22 For thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head, and the LORD shall reward thee.

23 ⁿ ^{||} The north wind driveth away rain; so doth an angry countenance a backbiting tongue.

24 ^o It is better to dwell in a corner of the house-top, than with a brawling woman, and in a wide house.

25 As cold waters to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country.

26 A righteous man falling down before the wicked is as a troubled fountain, and a corrupt spring.

7 The full soul † loatheth an honey-comb: but ° to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet.

8 As a bird that wandereth from her nest, so is a man that wandereth from his place.

10 Thine own friend, and thy father's friend, forsake not; neither go into thy brother's house in the day of thy calamity: for ° better is a neighbour that is near, than a brother far off.

11 ° My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, † that I may answer him that reproacheth me.

12 ° A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself; but the simple pass on, and are punished.

THE ^a wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion.

2 For the transgression of a land many are the princes thereof: but ^{||} by a man of understanding and knowledge the state thereof shall be prolonged.

3 A poor man that oppresseth the poor is like a sweeping rain, [†] which leaveth no food.

4 ^b They that forsake the law, praise the wicked: but such as keep the law contend with them.

5 Evil men understand not judgment: but ^c they that seek the LORD understand all things.

6 ^d Better is the poor that walketh in his uprightness, than he that is perverse in his ways, though he be rich.

7 ^e Whoso keepeth the law is a wise son: but he that ^{||} is a companion of riotous men shameth his father.

8 ^f He that by usury and [†] unjust gain increaseth his substance, he shall gather it for him that will pity the poor.

9 ^g He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be abomination.

10 ^h Whoso causeth the righteous to go astray in an evil way, he shall fall himself into his own pit: but the upright shall have good things in possession.

11 The rich man is wise [†] in his own conceit; but the poor that hath understanding searcheth him out.

12 ⁱ When righteous men do rejoice, there is great glory: but when the wicked rise, a man is ^{||} hidden.

13 ^k He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.

14 Happy is the man ¹ that feareth alway: ^m but he that hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief.

15 As a roaring lion, and a ranging bear; so is a wicked ruler over the poor people.

under the sun.

12 ¶ And I turned myself to behold wisdom, ^g and madness, and folly:
for what can the man do that cometh after the king? || even that which hath been already done.

13 Then I saw † that wisdom ex-

14 ^h The wise man's eyes are in his 16 For there is no remembrance of and how dieth the wise man? as the 17 Therefore I hated life; because

7 ¶ Then I returned, and I saw vanity under the sun.

8 There is one alone, and there is not a second; yea, he hath neither child nor brother: yet is there no end of all his labour; neither is his eye satisfied with riches; ^tneither saith he, For whom do I labour, and be-reave my soul of good? This is also vanity, yea, it is a sore travail.

9 ¶ Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labour.

10 For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but woe to him that is alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him up.

11 Again, if two lie together, then they have heat: but how can one be warm alone?

12 And if one prevail against him, two shall withstand him; and a three-fold cord is not quickly broken.

13 ¶ Better is a poor and a wise child, than an old and foolish king, [†]who will no more be admonished.

14 For out of prison he cometh to reign; whereas also he that is born in his kingdom becometh poor.

15 I considered all the living which walk under the sun, with the second child that shall stand up in his stead.

16 There is no end of all the people, even of all that have been before them: they also that come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

CHAP. V.

1 Vanities in divine service, 8 in murmuring against oppression, 9 and in riches. 18 To live contentedly is the gift of God.

KEEP ^athy foot when thou goest to the house of God, and be more ready to hear ^bthan to give the sacrifice of fools: for they consider not that they do evil.

2 Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter any || thing before God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth; therefore let thy words ^cbe few.

3 For a dream cometh through the multitude of business; and ^da fool's voice is known by multitude of words.

4 ^eWhen thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: ^fpay that which thou hast vowed.

5 ^gBetter is it that thou shouldst not vow, than that thou shouldst vow and not pay.

6 Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; ^hneither say thou before the angel, that it was an error: wherefore should God be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of thine hands?

7 For in the multitude of dreams and many words there are also divers vanities: but fear thou God.

8 ¶ If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not [†]at the matter: for [†]he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they.

9 ¶ Moreover, the profit of the earth is for all: the king himself is served by the field.

10 He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase. This is also vanity.

11 When goods increase, they are increased that eat them: and what good is there to the owners thereof, saving the beholding of them with their eyes?

12 The sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much: but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep.

13 There is a sore evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept for the owners thereof to their hurt.

14 But those riches perish by evil travail: and he begetteth a son, and there is nothing in his hand.

15 ^kAs he came forth of his mother's womb, naked shall he return to go as he came, and shall take nothing of his labour, which he may carry away in his hand.

16 And this also is a sore evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go: and ^lwhat profit hath he ^mthat hath laboured for the wind?

17 All his days also ⁿhe eateth in darkness, and he hath much sorrow and wrath with his sickness.

18 ¶ Behold that which I have seen: ^o[†]it is good and comely for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labour that he taketh under the sun [†]all the days of his life, which God giveth him; ^pfor it is his portion.

19 ^qEvery man also to whom God hath given riches and wealth, and hath given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour; this is the gift of God.

CHAP. VI.

1 The vanity of riches without a heart to use them aright. 7 Of insatiable desires, &c.

THERE is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men:

2 A man to whom God hath given riches, wealth, and honour, ^a so that he wanteth nothing for his soul of all that he desireth, yet God giveth him not power to eat thereof, but a stranger eateth it: this is vanity, and it is an evil disease.

3 ¶ If a man beget an hundred children, and live many years, so that the days of his years be many, and his soul be not filled with good, and ^b also that he have no burial; I say, that ^c an untimely birth is better than he:

4 For he cometh in with vanity, and departeth in darkness, and his name shall be covered with darkness.

5 Moreover, he hath not seen the sun, nor known any thing: this hath more rest than the other.

6 Yea, though he live a thousand years twice told, yet hath he seen no good: do not all go to one place?

7 ¶ ^d All the labour of man is for his mouth, and yet the [†] appetite is not filled.

8 For what hath the wise more than the fool? what hath the poor, that knoweth to walk before the living?

9 ¶ Better is the sight of the eyes [†] than the wandering of the desire: this is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

10 ¶ That which hath been is named already, and it is known that it is ^e neither may he contend with him that is mightier than he.

11 Seeing there be many things that increase vanity, what is man the better?

12 For who knoweth what is good for man in this life, [†] all the days of his vain life which he spendeth as ^f a shadow? for ^g who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun?

CHAP. VII.

1 Remedies against vanity are a good name, 2 mortification, 7 patience, 11 wisdom. 25 The difficulty of getting wisdom.

A ^a GOOD name is better than precious ointment; and the day of death than the day of one's birth.

2 ¶ It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart.

3 || Sorrow is better than laughter: for by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made better.

4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning: but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

5 ^b It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools.

6 ^c For as the [†] crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool. This also is vanity.

7 ¶ Surely oppression maketh a wise man mad; ^d and a gift destroyeth the heart.

8 Better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof; and ^e the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.

9 ^f Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry: for anger resteth in the bosom of fools.

10 Say not thou, What is the cause that the former days were better than these? for thou dost not enquire [†] wisely concerning this.

11 ¶ Wisdom is good with an inheritance; and by it there is profit [†] to them that see the sun.

12 For wisdom is a [†] defence, and money is a defence: but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to them that have it.

13 Consider the work of God: for ^h who can make that straight which he hath made crooked?

14 In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity consider: God also hath [†] set the one over against the other, to the end that man should find nothing after him.

15 All things have I seen in the days of my vanity: ⁱ there is a just man that perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man that longeth his life in his wickedness.

16 ^k Be not righteous over-much; [†] neither make thyself over-wise: why shouldest thou [†] destroy thyself?

17 Be not over-much wicked, neither be thou foolish: ^m why shouldest thou die [†] before thy time?

18 It is good that thou shouldst take hold of this; yea, also from this withdraw not thine hand: for he that feareth God shall come forth of them all.

5 Whoso keepeth the command-

6 ¶ Because ^d to every purpose there is time and judgment, therefore the misery of man is great upon him.

7 ^e For he knoweth not that which shall be: for who can tell him || when it shall be?

8 ^f There is no man that hath power
^g over the spirit, to retain the spirit; neither hath he power in the day of death: and there is no || discharge in that war; neither shall wickedness deliver those that are given to it.

9 All this have I seen, and applied my heart unto every work that is done under the sun: there is a time wherein one man ruleth over another to his own hurt.

10 And so I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from the place of the holy, and they were forgotten in the city where they had so done. This is also vanity.

11 ^h Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.

12 ¶ ⁱ Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that ^k it shall be well with them that fear
God, which fear before him;

13 But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God.

14 There is a vanity which is done upon the earth; that there be just men, unto whom it ^l happeneth according to the work of the wicked:
again, there be wicked men, to whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous. I said, that this also is vanity.

15 ^m Then I commended mirth, because a man hath no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry; for that shall abide with him of his labour the days of his life, which God giveth him under the sun.

16 ¶ When I applied mine heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done upon the earth:
(for also there is that neither day nor night seeth sleep with his eyes:)

17 Then I beheld all the work of God, that ⁿ a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun:
because though a man labour to seek it out, yet he shall not find it; yea, further, though a wise man think to know it, ^o yet shall he not be able to find it.

CHAP. IX.

1 Like things happen to good and bad.
4 Hope to the living, but the dead know not any thing. 7 How to enjoy the goods of this life. 11 Human probabilities uncertain. 13 Wisdom is better than strength.

FOR all this † I considered in my heart, even to declare all this, ^a that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God: no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them.

2 ^b All things come alike to all: there is one event to the righteous and to the wicked; to the good, and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath.

3 This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event unto all: yea, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead.

4 ¶ For to him that is joined to all the living there is hope: for a living dog is better than a dead lion.

5 For the living know that they shall die: but ^c the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward; for ^d the memory of them is forgotten.

6 Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished; neither have they any more a portion for ever in any thing that is done under the sun.

7 ¶ Go thy way, ^e eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart; for God now accepteth thy works.

8 Let thy garments be always white; and let thy head lack no ointment.

9 † Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest all the days of the life of thy vanity, which he hath given thee under the sun, all the days of thy vanity: ^f for that is thy portion in this life, and in thy labour which thou takest under the sun.

10 Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might: for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest.

11 ¶ I returned, ^g and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all.

12 For ^h man also knoweth not his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare; so are the sons of men ⁱ snared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them.

13 ¶ This wisdom have I seen also under the sun, and it seemed great unto me:

14 ^k There was a little city, and few men within it; and there came a great king against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it.

15 Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man.

16 ^l Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.

17 The words of wise men are heard in quiet, more than the cry of him that ruleth among fools.

18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but one sinner destroyeth much good.

CHAP. X.

1 Observations of wisdom and folly, 16 of riot, 18 slothfulness, 19 and money. 20 Men's thoughts of kings ought to be reverent.

† DEAD flies cause the ointment of the apothecary to send forth a stinking savour; so doth a little folly him that is in reputation for wisdom and honour.

2 A wise man's heart is at his right hand; but a fool's heart at his left.

3 Yea also, when he that is a fool walketh by the way, † his wisdom faileth him, and he saith to every one that he is a fool.

4 If the spirit of the ruler rise up against thee, ^a leave not thy place; for ^b yielding pacifieth great offences.

5 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as an error which proceedeth † from the ruler;

6 Folly is set † in great dignity, and the rich sit in low place.

7 I have seen servants ^c upon horses, and princes walking as servants upon the earth.

8 ^d He that diggeth a pit shall fall into it; and whoso breaketh an hedge, a serpent shall bite him.

11 Surely the serpent will bite without enchantment; and [†]a babler is no better.

12 [†]The words of a wise man's mouth are [†]gracious; but [‡]the lips of a fool will swallow up himself.

13 The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness; and the end of [†]his talk is mischievous madness.

14 ^hA fool also [†]is full of words: a man cannot tell what shall be; and ⁱwhat shall be after him, who can tell him?

15 The labour of the foolish wearith every one of them, because he knoweth not how to go to the city.

16 ¶ ^kWoe to thee, O land, when thy king is a child, and thy princes eat in the morning!

17 Blessed art thou, O land, when thy king is the son of nobles, and thy princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness!

1 Directions for charity. 7 Death ought to be remembered in life, 9 and the day of judgment in the days of youth.

CAST thy bread ^a† upon the waters: ^bfor thou shalt find it after many days.

2 ^cGive a portion ^dto seven, and also to eight; ^efor thou knowest not what evil shall be upon the earth.

3 If the clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth: and if the tree fall toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be.

4 He that observeth the wind shall not sow; and he that regardeth the clouds shall not reap.

5 As ^fthou knowest not what is the way of the spirit, ^gnor how the bones do grow in the womb of her that is with child; even so thou knowest not the works of God who maketh all.

6 In the morning so thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand: for thou knowest not whether [†]shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good.

7 ¶ Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes ^hto behold the sun:

8 But if a man live many years, and rejoice in them all; yet let him remember the days of darkness; for they shall be many. All that cometh is vanity.

9 ¶ Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth, and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, ⁱand walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: but know thou, that for all these things ^kGod will bring thee into judgment.

10 Therefore remove ^{||}sorrow from thy heart, and put away evil from thy flesh: ^lfor childhood and youth are vanity.

The SONG of SOLOMON.

CHAP. I.

1 The church's love unto Christ: 5 she confesseth her deformity, 7 and prayeth to be directed to his flock: 8 Christ directeth her to the shepherds' tents; 9 and, shewing his love to her, 11 giveth her gracious promises. 12 The church and Christ congratulate one another.

THE Song of songs, which is Solomon's.

2 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth: ^a for [†] thy love is better than wine.

3 Because of the savour of thy good ointments thy name is as ointment poured forth, therefore do the virgins love thee.

4 ^b Draw me, ^c we will run after thee. The King ^d hath brought me into his chambers: we will be glad and rejoice in thee; we will remember thy love more than wine: || the upright love thee.

5 I am black, but comely, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, as the tents of Kedar, as the curtains of Solomon.

6 Look not upon me, because I am black, because the sun hath looked upon me: my mother's children were angry with me; they made me the keeper of the vineyards; but mine own vineyard have I not kept.

7 ¶ Tell me, O thou whom my soul loveth, where thou feedest, where thou makest thy flock to rest at noon: for why should I be || as one that turneth aside by the flocks of thy companions?

8 ¶ If thou know not, ^e O thou fairest among women, go thy way forth by the footsteps of the flock, and feed thy kids beside the shepherds' tents, 9 I have compared thee, ^f O my love, ^g to a company of horses in Pharaoh's chariots.

10 ^h Thy cheeks are comely with rows of jewels, thy neck with chains of gold.

11 We will make thee borders of gold, with studs of silver.

12 ¶ While the King sitteth at his table, my spikenard sendeth forth the smell thereof.

13 A bundle of myrrh is my well-beloved unto me: he shall lie all night betwixt my breasts.

14 My beloved is unto me as a cluster of || camphire in the vineyards of Engedi.

15 ⁱ Behold, thou art fair, || my love; behold, thou art fair; thou hast doves' eyes.

BY ^a a night on my bed I sought him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.

2 I will rise now, and go about the city in the streets, and in the broad ways I will seek him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.

3 ^b The watchmen that go about the city found me: to whom I said, Saw ye him whom my soul loveth?

4 It was but a little that I passed from them, but I found him whom my soul loveth: I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's house, and into the chamber of her that conceived me.

5 ^c I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please.6 ¶ ^d Who is this that cometh out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all powders of the merchant?7 Behold his bed, which is Solomon's: threescore valiant men are about it, of the valiant of Israel.

8 They all hold swords, being expert in war: every man hath his sword upon his thigh because of fear in the night.

9 King Solomon made himself || a || Or, a bed. chariot of the wood of Lebanon.

The Book of the Prophet ISAIAH.

CHAP. I.

2 Isaiah's complaint of Judah: 10 he upbraideth their service: 16 he exhorteth to repentance, with promises and threatenings: 21 the prophet bewaileth their wickedness.

THE ^a vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

2 ^b Hear, O heavens; and give ear, O earth: for the LORD hath spoken, I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me.

3 ^c The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib: but Israel doth not know, my people doth not consider.

4 Ah sinful nation, a people [†] laden with iniquity, a seed of evil-doers, children that are corrupters! They have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are [†] gone away backward.

5 ¶ ^d Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will [†] revolt more and more. The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

6 From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrifying sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with || ointment.

7 ^e Your country is desolate, your cities are burnt with fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, [†] as overthrown by strangers.

8 And the daughter of Zion is left ^f as a cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, as a besieged city.

9 ^g Except the LORD of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as ^h Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah.

10 ¶ Hear the word of the LORD, ye rulers ⁱ of Sodom; give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah:

11 To what purpose is the multitude of your ^k sacrifices unto me? saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt-offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of [†] he-goats.

12 When ye come [†] to appear before me, who hath required this at your hand, to tread my courts?

13 Bring no more vain oblations: incense is an abomination unto me; the new-moons and sabbaths, ^m the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with: it is || iniquity, even the solemn meeting.

14 Your new-moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me; ⁿ I am weary to bear them.

15 And ^o when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you; ^p yea, when ye [†] make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of ^q [†] blood:

16 ¶ Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; ^r cease to do evil;

17 Learn to do well; seek judgment; || relieve the oppressed; judge the fatherless; plead for the widow.

18 Come now, and ^s let us reason together, saith the LORD: Though your sins be as scarlet, ^t they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

19 If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land:

22 Thy silver is become dross, thy wine mixed with water:

23 Thy princes are rebellious, and thy companions of thieves: every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.

24 Therefore saith the LORD, the LORD of hosts, the mighty One of Israel, Ah, I will ease me of mine adversaries, and avenge me of mine enemies:

25 And I will turn my hand upon thee, and purely purge away thy dross, and take away all thy tin:

26 And I will restore thy judges as at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning: afterward thou shalt be called, The city of righteousness, The faithful city.

27 Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and her converts with righteousness.

28 ¶ And the destruction of the transgressors and of the sinners shall be together, and they that forsake the LORD shall be consumed.

29 For they shall be ashamed of the oaks which ye have desired, and ye shall be confounded for the gardens that ye have chosen.

30 For ye shall be as an oak whose leaf fadeth, and as a garden that hath no water.

CHAP. II.

1 Isaiah prophesieth of Christ's kingdom.

6 Wickedness is the cause of God's forsaking his people. 10 The prophet forewarneth them of the terrible day of the Lord, and the powerful effects of God's majesty.

THE word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

2 And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the LORD's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it;

3 And many people shall go and say,

Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

4 And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people; and they shall beat their swords into plow-shares, and their spears into pruning-hooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

5 O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us walk in the light of the LORD.

6 ¶ Therefore thou hast forsaken thy people the house of Jacob, because they be replenished from the east, and are soothsayers like the Philistines, and they please themselves in the children of strangers.

7 Their land also is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures; their land is also full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots:

8 Their land also is full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made:

9 And the mean man boweth down, and the great man humbleth himself: therefore forgive them not.

10 ¶ Enter into the rock, and hide thee in the dust, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty.

11 The lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down; and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.

12 For the day of the LORD of hosts shall be upon every one that is proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up, and he shall be brought low:

13 And upon all the cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up, and upon all the oaks of Bashan,

14 And upon all the high mountains, and upon all the hills that are lifted up,

15 And upon every high tower, and upon every fenced wall,

16 And upon all the ships of Tarshish, and upon all pleasant pictures.

17 And the loftiness of man shall be bowed down, and the haughtiness of men shall be made low; and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.

18 And the idols he shall utterly abolish.

CHAP. V.

1 Under the parable of a vineyard God excuseth his severe judgments: 8 his judgments upon covetousness, 11 upon lasciviousness, 18 upon impiety, 20 and upon injustice. 26 The executioners of God's judgments.

NOW will I sing to my well-beloved a song of my beloved touching ^ahis vineyard. My well-beloved hath a vineyard in [†]a very fruitful hill.

2 And he || fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also [†]made a wine-press therein: and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes.

3 And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, ^bjudge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard.

4 What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes?

5 And now go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: ^cI will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be [†]trod down.

6 And I will lay it waste: it shall not be pruned nor digged; but there shall come up briers and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.

7 For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah [†]his pleasant plant: and he looked for judgment, but beheld [†]oppression; for righteousness, but beheld a cry.

8 ¶ Woe unto them that join ^dhouse to house, that lay field to field, till there be no place, that [†]they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth!

9 ¶ In mine ears, said the LORD of hosts, [†]Of a truth many houses shall be desolate, even great and fair, without inhabitant.

10 Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yield one ^fbath, and the seed of an homer shall yield an ephah.

11 ¶ ¶ Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that continue until night, till wine || inflame them!

CHAP. VII.

1 Ahaz is comforted by Isaiah. 12 Christ promised. 17 God's judgments prophesied to come upon Judah by the Assyrians.

AND it came to pass in the days of ^a Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up toward Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it.

2 And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria [†] is confederate with Ephraim: and his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood are moved with the wind.

3 Then said the LORD unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou, ^b and ^{||} Shear-jashub thy son, at the end of the ^c conduit of the upper pool, in the ^{||} highway of the fuller's field;

4 And say unto him, Take heed, and be quiet; fear not, [†] neither be faint-hearted for the two tails of these smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah.

5 Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have taken evil counsel against thee, saying,

6 Let us go up against Judah, and ^{||} vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal:

7 Thus saith the [†] LORD GOD, It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass.

8 ^d For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within threescore and five years shall Ephraim be broken, [†] that it be not a people.

9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. ^e ^{||} If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established.

10 [†] ^{||} Moreover, the LORD spake again unto Ahaz, saying,

11 Ask thee a sign of the LORD thy God; ^{||} ask it either in the depth, or in the height above.

12 But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I tempt the LORD.

13 And he said, Hear ye now, O house of David; Is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will ye weary my God also?

14 Therefore the LORD himself shall give you a sign; [†] Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear ^g a son, and ^{||} shall call his name ^h Immanuel.

15 Butter and honey shall he eat, that he may know to refuse the evil, and choose the good.

16 ⁱ For before the child shall know to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the land that thou abhorrest shall be forsaken of ^k both her kings.

17 [†] ^{||} The LORD shall bring upon thee, and upon thy people, and upon thy father's house, days that have not come, from the day that ^l Ephraim departed from Judah; even the king of Assyria.

18 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD ^m shall hiss for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria:

19 And they shall come, and shall rest all of them in the desolate valleys, and in the holes of the rocks, and upon all thorns, and upon all ^{||} bushes.

20 In the same day shall the LORD shave with a ⁿ razor that is hired, namely, by them beyond the river, by the king of Assyria, the head, and the hair of the feet: and it shall also consume the beard.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a man shall nourish a young cow and two sheep:

22 And it shall come to pass, for the abundance of milk that they shall give, that he shall eat butter: for butter and honey shall every one eat that is left [†] in the land.

23 And it shall come to pass in that day, that every place shall be, where there were a thousand vines at a thousand silverlings, it shall even be for briers and thorns.

24 With arrows and with bows shall men come thither; because all the land shall become briers and thorns.

25 And on all hills that shall be digged with the mattock, there shall not come thither the fear of briers and thorns: but it shall be for the sending forth of oxen, and for the treading of lesser cattle.

The everlasting Father, ¹ The Prince of Peace.

7 Of the increase of his government and peace ^k there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The ¹ zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this.

8 ¶ The LORD sent a word into Jacob, and it hath lighted upon Israel.

9 And all the people shall know, even Ephraim, and the inhabitants of Samaria, that say in the pride and stoutness of heart,

10 The bricks are fallen down, but we will build with hewn stones; the sycamores are cut down, but we will change them into cedars.

11 Therefore the LORD shall set up the adversaries of Rezin against him, and [†] join his enemies together;

12 The Syrians before, and the Philistines behind; and they shall devour Israel [†] with open mouth. ^m For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

13 ¶ For ⁿ the people turneth not unto him that smiteth them, neither do they seek the LORD of hosts;

14 Therefore the LORD will cut off from Israel head and tail, branch and rush, in one day.

15 The ancient and honourable, he is the head; and the prophet that teacheth lies, he is the tail.

16 For ^o || the leaders of this people cause them to err; and || they that are led of them are [†] destroyed.

17 Therefore the LORD shall have no joy in their young men, neither shall have mercy on their fatherless and widows; for every one is an hypocrite and an evil-doer, and every mouth speaketh || folly. ^p For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

18 ¶ For wickedness burneth as the fire: it shall devour the briers and thorns, and shall kindle in the thickets of the forest; and they shall mount up like the lifting up of smoke.

19 Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts is ^q the land darkened, and the people shall be as the [†] fuel of the fire: no man shall spare his brother.

20 And he shall [†] snatch on the right hand, and be hungry; and he shall eat on the left hand, and they shall not be satisfied: ^r they shall eat every man the flesh of his own arm:

21 Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh: and they together shall be against Judah. ^s For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

wisdom; for I am prudent: and I have removed the bounds of the people, and have robbed their treasures, and I have put down the inhabitants || like a valiant man.

14 And my hand hath found, as a nest, the riches of the people: and as one gathereth eggs that are left, have I gathered all the earth; and there was none that moved the wing, or opened the mouth, or peeped.

15 Shall the axe boast itself against him that heweth therewith? or shall the saw magnify itself against him that shaketh it? || as if the rod should shake itself against them that lift it up, or as if the staff should lift up || itself, as if it were no wood.

16 Therefore shall the Lord, the LORD of hosts, send among his fat ones leanness; and under his glory he shall kindle a burning like the burning of a fire.

17 And the light of Israel shall be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame: and it shall burn and devour his thorns and his briers in one day;

18 And shall consume the glory of his forest, and of his fruitful field, || both soul and body: and they shall be as when a standard-bearer fainteth.

19 And the rest of the trees of his forest shall be || few, that a child may write them.

20 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that the remnant of Israel, and such as are escaped of the house of Jacob, ¹ shall no more again stay upon him that smote them; but shall stay upon the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.

21 ^m The remnant shall return, even the remnant of Jacob, unto || the mighty God.

22 ⁿ For though thy people Israel be as the sand of the sea, ^o yet a remnant || of them shall return: ^p the consumption decreed shall overflow || with righteousness.

23 ^q For the || LORD GOD of hosts shall make a consumption, even determined, in the midst of all the land.

24 ¶ Therefore thus saith the || LORD GOD of hosts, O my people that dwell in Zion, be not afraid of the Assyrian: he shall smite thee with a rod, || and shall lift up his staff against thee, after the manner of ^r Egypt.

25 For yet a very little while, ^s and the indignation shall cease, and mine anger, in their destruction.

26 And the LORD of hosts shall stir up ^t a scourge for him, according to the slaughter of ^u Midian at the rock of Oreb: and ^x as his rod was upon the sea, so shall he lift it up after the manner of Egypt.

27 And it shall come to pass in that day, that ^y his burden || shall be taken away from off thy shoulder, and his yoke from off thy neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing.

28 He is come to Aiath, he is passed to Migron; at Michmash he hath laid up his carriages:

29 They are gone over ^z the passage: they have taken up their lodging at Geba; Ramah is afraid; ^a Gibeah of Saul is fled.

30 || Lift up thy voice, O daughter ^b of Gallim; cause it to be heard unto ^c Laish, ^d O poor Anathoth.

31 ^e Madmenah is removed; the inhabitants of Gebim gather themselves to flee.

32 As yet shall he remain ^f at Nob that day: he shall shake his hand ^g against the mount of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.

33 Behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts, shall lop the bough with terror; and the high ones of stature shall be hewn down, and the haughty shall be humbled.

34 And he shall cut down the thickets of the forests with iron, and Lebanon shall fall || by a mighty one.

4 But ^e with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and || reprove with equity for the meek of the earth: and he shall ^f smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.

15 And the LORD ^r shall utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea; and with his mighty wind shall he shake his hand over the river, and shall smite it in the seven streams, and make men go over [†] dry-shod.

16 And ^s there shall be an highway for the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria, ^t like as it was to Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt.

CHAP. XII.

A joyful thanksgiving of the faithful for the mercies of God.

AND ^a in that day thou shalt say, O LORD, I will praise thee: though thou wast angry with me, thine anger is turned away, and thou comfortedst me.

2 Behold, [†] God is my salvation; I will trust, and not be afraid: for the [†] LORD JEHOVAH is my ^b strength and my song; he also is become my salvation.

6 ¶ We have heard of the ^d pride of Moab, (he is very proud,) even of his haughtiness, and his pride, and his wrath: ^e but his lies shall not be so.

7 Therefore shall Moab ^f howl for Moab, every one shall howl: for the foundations of Kir-hareseth shall ye || mourn; surely they are stricken.

8 For ^g the fields of Heshbon languish, ^h and the vine of Sibmah: the lords of the heathen have broken down the principal plants thereof; they are come even unto Jazer, they wandered through the wilderness: her branches are || stretched out, they are gone over the sea:

9 Therefore I will bewail with the weeping of Jazer ⁱ the vine of Sibmah: I will water thee with my tears, ^k O Heshbon, and Elealeh; for || the shouting for thy summer-fruits, and for thy harvest, is fallen.

10 And ^l gladness is taken away, and joy out of the plentiful field; and in the vineyards there shall be no singing, neither shall there be shouting: the treaders shall tread out no wine in their presses; I have made their vintage-shouting to cease.

11 Wherefore ^m my bowels shall sound like an harp for Moab, and mine inward parts for Kir-harsh.

12 And it shall come to pass, when it is seen that Moab is weary on the ⁿ high place, that he shall come to his sanctuary to pray; but he shall not prevail.

13 This is the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning Moab since that time.

14 But now the LORD hath spoken, saying, Within three years, ^o as the years of an hireling, and the glory of Moab shall be contemned, with all that great multitude; and the remnant shall be very small and || feeble.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Syria and Israel threatened. 6 A remnant shall forsake idolatry; 9 the desolation of the rest for their impiety.

THE ^a burden of Damascus. Be- hold, Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it shall be a ruinous heap.

2 The cities of Aroer are forsaken; they shall be for flocks, which shall lie down, and none shall make them afraid.

3 ^b The fortress also shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria: they shall be as the glory of the children of Israel, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 And in that day it shall come to pass, that the glory of Jacob shall be made thin, and the fatness of his flesh shall wax lean.

5 ^c And it shall be as when the harvest-man gathereth the corn, and reapeth the ears with his arm; and it shall be as he that gathereth ears in the valley of Rephaim.

6 ¶ ^d Yet gleanings-grapes shall be left in it, as the shaking of an olive-tree, two or three berries in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outmost fruitful branches thereof, saith the LORD God of Israel.

7 At that day shall a man look to his Maker, and his eyes shall have respect to the Holy One of Israel.

8 And he shall not look to the altars, the work of his hands, neither shall respect that which his fingers have made, either the groves or the || images.

9 ¶ In that day shall his strong cities be as a forsaken bough, and an uppermost branch, which they left because of the children of Israel: and there shall be desolation.

10 Because thou hast forgotten the God of thy salvation, and hast not been mindful of the Rock of thy strength, therefore shalt thou plant pleasant plants, and shalt set it with strangerslips:

11 In the day shalt thou make thy plant to grow, and in the morning shalt thou make thy seed to flourish; but the harvest shall be || a heap in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow.

12 ¶ Woe to the || multitude of many people, which make a noise like the noise of the seas; and to the rushing of nations, that make a rushing like the rushing of || mighty waters!

13 The nations shall rush like the rushing of many waters: but God shall rebuke them, and they shall flee

1 God, in care of his people, will destroy the Ethiopians: 7 an access from thence will be made to the church.

WOE ^a to the land shadowing with wings, which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia:

2 That sendeth ambassadors by the sea, even in vessels of bulrushes upon the waters, saying, Go, ye swift messengers, to ^b a nation || scattered and peeled, to a people terrible from their beginning hitherto; || ^a a nation meted out and trodden down, || whose land the rivers have spoiled!

3 All ye inhabitants of the world, and dwellers on the earth, see ye, when he lifteth up an ensign on the mountains; and when he bloweth a trumpet, hear ye.

4 For so the LORD said unto me, I will take my rest, and I will || consider in my dwelling-place like a clear heat || upon herbs, and like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.

5 For afore the harvest, when the bud is perfect, and the sour grape is ripening in the flower, he shall both cut off the sprigs with pruning-hooks, and take away and cut down the branches.

6 They shall be left together unto the fowls of the mountains, and to the beasts of the earth: and the fowls shall summer upon them, and all the beasts of the earth shall winter upon them.

7 ¶ In that time ^c shall the present be brought unto the LORD of hosts of a people || scattered and peeled, and from a people terrible from their beginning hitherto; a nation meted out and trodden under foot, whose land the rivers have spoiled, to the place of the name of the LORD of hosts, the mount Zion.

CHAP. XIX.

1 The confusion of Egypt: 11 the foolishness of her princes. 18 The calling of Egypt into the church. 23 The covenant of Egypt, Assyria, and Israel.

THE ^a burden of Egypt. Behold, the LORD ^b rideth upon a swift cloud, and shall come into Egypt; and ^c the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his presence, and the heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of it.

2 And I will [†] set the Egyptians against the Egyptians: and they shall fight every one against his brother, and every one against his neighbour; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom.

3 And the spirit of Egypt [†] shall fail in the midst thereof; and I will [†] destroy the counsel thereof: and they shall seek to the idols, and to the charmers, and to them that have familiar spirits, and to the wizards.

4 And the Egyptians will I || give over into the hand of a cruel lord; and a fierce king shall rule over them, saith the LORD, the LORD of hosts.

5 ^d And the waters shall fail from the sea, and the rivers shall be wasted and dried up.

6 And they shall turn the rivers far away; and the brooks ^e of defence shall be emptied and dried up: the reeds and flags shall wither.

7 The paper-reeds by the brooks, by the mouth of the brooks, and every thing sown by the brooks, shall wither, be driven away, [†] and be no more.

8 The fishers also shall mourn, and all they that cast angle into the brooks shall lament, and they that spread nets upon the waters shall languish.

9 Moreover, they that work in ^f fine flax, and they that weave || net-works, shall be confounded.

10 And they shall be broken in the [†] purposes thereof, all that make sluices and ponds [†] for fish.

11 ¶ Surely the princes of ^g Zoan are fools, the counsel of the wise counselors of Pharaoh is become brutish: how say ye unto Pharaoh, I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings?

12 Where are they? where are thy wise men? and let them tell thee now, and let them know what the LORD of hosts hath purposed upon Egypt.

13 The princes of Zoan are become fools, ^h the princes of Noph are deceived; they have also seduced Egypt, even || [†] they that are the stay of the tribes thereof.

14 The LORD hath mingled [†] a perverse spirit in the midst thereof: and they have caused Egypt to err in every work thereof, as a drunken man staggereth in his vomit.

15 Neither shall there be any work for Egypt, which ⁱ the head or tail, branch or rush, may do.

The miserable overthrow of Tyre.

THE ^aburden of Tyre. Howl, ye ships of Tarshish; for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: ^bfrom the land of Chittim it is revealed to them.

2 Be [†]still, ye inhabitants of the isles; thou whom the merchants of Zidon, that pass over the sea, have replenished.

3 And by great waters the seed of Sihor, the harvest of the river, is her revenue; and she is a mart of nations.

4 Be thou ashamed, O Zidon; for the sea hath spoken, even the strength of the sea, saying, I travail not, nor bring forth children, neither do I nourish up young men, nor bring up virgins.

5 ^cAs at the report concerning Egypt, so shall they be sorely pained at the report of Tyre.

6 Pass ye over to Tarshish; howl, ye inhabitants of the isle.

7 Is this your joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days? her own feet shall carry her [†]afar off to sojourn.

8 Who hath taken this counsel against Tyre, ^dthe crowning city, whose merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the honourable of the earth?

9 The LORD of hosts hath purposed it, [†]to stain the pride of all glory, and to bring into contempt all the honourable of the earth.

10 Pass through thy land as a river, O daughter of Tarshish: there is no more [†]strength.

11 He stretched out his hand over the sea; he shook the kingdoms: the LORD hath given a commandment || against [†]the merchant-city, to destroy the || strong holds thereof.

12 And he said, Thou shalt no more rejoice, O thou oppressed virgin, daughter of Zidon: arise, pass ^eover to Chittim; there also shalt thou have no rest.

13 Behold the land of the Chaldeans: this people was not, till the Assyrian founded it for them that dwell in the wilderness: they set up the towers thereof, they raised up the palaces thereof; and he brought it to ruin.

14 ^fHowl, ye ships of Tarshish: for your strength is laid waste.

15 And it shall come to pass in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king: after the end of seventy years [†]shall Tyre sing as an harlot.

16 Take an harp, go about the city, thou harlot that hast been forgotten; make sweet melody, sing many songs, that thou mayest be remembered.

17 And it shall come to pass, after the end of seventy years, that the LORD will visit Tyre, and she shall turn to her hire, and shall commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth.

18 And her merchandise and her hire ^gshall be holiness to the LORD: it shall not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise shall be for them that dwell before the LORD, to eat sufficiently, and for [†]durable clothing.

CHAP. XXIV.

God's judgments upon the land.

BEHOLD, the LORD maketh the earth empty, and maketh it waste, and [†]turneth it upside down, and scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof.

2 And it shall be, as with the people, so with the || ^apriest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; ^bas with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the taker of usury, so with the giver of usury to him.

3 The land shall be utterly emptied, and utterly spoiled: for the LORD hath spoken this word.

4 The earth mourneth and fadeth away; the world languisheth and fadeth away; [†]the haughty people of the earth do languish.

5 ^cThe earth also is defiled under the inhabitants thereof; because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant.

6 Therefore hath the curse devoured the earth, and they that dwell therein are desolate: therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

CHRIST
cir. 712.

8 The mirth ^e of tabrets ceaseth, the noise of them that rejoice endeth, the joy of the harp ceaseth.

9 They shall not drink wine with a song; strong drink shall be bitter to them that drink it.

10 The city of confusion is broken down: every house is shut up, that no man may come in.

11 There is a crying for wine in the streets; all joy is darkened, the mirth of the land is gone.

12 In the city is left desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction.

13 ¶ When thus it shall be in the midst of the land among the people, ^fthere shall be of the shaking of an olive-tree, and as the gleanings when the vintage is done.

14 They shall lift up their voice, they shall sing for the majesty of the LORD, they shall cry aloud from the sea.

15 Wherefore glorify ye the LORD in the || fires, even the name of the LORD God of Israel in the isles of the sea.

16 ¶ From the † uttermost part of the earth have we heard songs, even glory to the righteous. But I said, † My leanness, my leanness, woe unto me! the treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously; yea, the treacherous dealers have dealt very treacherously.

17 ^g Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are upon thee, O inhabitant of the earth.

18 And it shall come to pass, that he who fleeth from the noise of the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that cometh up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for ^h the windows from on high are open, and ⁱ the foundations of the earth do shake.

19 ^k The earth is utterly broken down, the earth is clean dissolved, the earth is moved exceedingly.

20 The earth shall ^l reel to and fro like a drunkard, and shall be removed like a cottage; and the transgression thereof shall be heavy upon it; and it shall fall, and not rise again.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall † punish the host of the high ones that are on high, and the kings of the earth upon the earth.

22 And they shall be gathered together, † as prisoners are gathered in the || pit, and shall be shut up in the prison, and after many days shall they be || visited.

23 Then the moon ^m shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed, when the LORD of hosts shall reign in mount Zion, and in Jerusalem, and || before his ancients gloriously.

CHAP. XXV.

The prophet praiseth God for his judgments, and salvation of his people.

O LORD, thou art my God; I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name: for thou hast done wonderful things; thy counsels of old are faithfulness and truth.

2 For thou hast made ^a of a city an heap; of a defenced city a ruin: a palace of strangers to be no city; it shall never be built.

3 Therefore shall the strong people glorify thee, the city of the terrible nations shall fear thee.

4 For thou hast been a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.

5 Thou shalt bring down the noise of strangers, as the heat in a dry place; even the heat with the shadow of a cloud: the branch of the terrible ones shall be brought low.

6 ¶ And in this mountain shall ^b the LORD of hosts make unto all people a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees; of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees well refined.

7 And he will † destroy in this mountain the face of the covering; † cast over all people, and the veil that is spread over all nations.

8 He will ^c swallow up death in victory; and the † LORD God will ^d wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the LORD hath spoken it.

9 ¶ And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God; ^e we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the LORD; we have waited for him, we will be glad, and rejoice in his salvation.

10 For in this mountain shall the hand of the LORD rest, and Moab shall be || trodden down under him, even as straw is || trodden down for the dunghill.

11 And he shall spread forth his hands in the midst of them, as he that swimmeth spreadeth forth his hands to swim; and he shall bring down their pride together with the spoils of their hands.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 A song inciting to confidence in God: 20 an exhortation to wait on him.

Iⁿ ^a that day shall this song be sung in the land of Judah; We have a strong city: ^b salvation will God appoint for walls and bulwarks.

2 ^c Open ye the gates, that the righteous nation which keepeth the [†] truth may enter in.

3 Thou wilt keep him in [†] perfect peace, whose || mind is stayed on thee; because he trusteth in thee.

4 Trust ye in the LORD for ever: for in ^d the [†] LORD JEHOVAH is [†] everlasting strength.

5 ¶ For he bringeth down them that dwell on high; ^e the lofty city, he layeth it low: he layeth it low, even to the ground: he bringeth it even to the dust.

6 The foot shall tread it down, even the feet of the poor, and the steps of the needy.

7 The way of the just is upright-ness: thou, most upright, dost weigh the path of the just.

8 Yea, ^f in the way of thy judgments, O LORD, have we waited for thee; the desire of our soul is to thy name, and to the remembrance of thee.

9 ^g With my soul have I desired thee in the night; yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

10 ^h Let favour be shewed to the wicked, yet will he not learn righteousness: in ⁱ the land of uprightness will he deal unjustly, and will not behold the majesty of the LORD.

11 LORD, when thy hand is lifted up, ^k they will not see: but they shall see, and be ashamed for their envy || at the people; yea, the fire of thine enemies shall devour them.

12 ¶ LORD, thou wilt ordain peace for us: for thou also hast wrought all our works || in us.

13 O LORD our God, ^l other lords besides thee have had dominion over us; but by thee only will we make mention of thy name.

14 They are dead, they shall not live; they are deceased, they shall not rise: therefore hast thou visited and destroyed them, and made all their memory to perish.

15 Thou hast increased the nation, O LORD, thou hast increased the nation: thou art glorified; thou hadst removed it far unto all the ends of the earth.

16 LORD, in trouble have they visited thee; they poured out a [†] prayer when thy chastening was upon them.

17 Like as ^m a woman with child, that draweth near the time of her delivery, is in pain, and crieth out in her pangs; so have we been in thy sight, O LORD.

18 We have been with child, we have been in pain, we have as it were brought forth wind; we have not wrought any deliverance in the earth; neither have the inhabitants of the world fallen.

19 ⁿ Thy dead men shall live, together with my dead body shall they arise. Awake and sing, ye that dwell in dust: for thy dew is as the dew of herbs, and the earth shall cast out the dead.

20 ¶ Come, my people, enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doors about thee: hide thyself as it were ^o for a little moment, until the indignation be overpast.

21 For, behold, the LORD ^p cometh out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: the earth also shall disclose her [†] blood, and shall no more cover her slain.

CHAP. XXVII.

2 The care of God over his vineyard.

7 His chastisements differ from judgments. 12 The restoration of the dispersed.

Iⁿ that day the LORD, with his sore, and great, and strong sword, shall punish leviathan the || piercing serpent, ^a even leviathan that crooked serpent; and he shall slay ^b the dragon that is in the sea.

2 In that day ^c sing ye unto her, A vineyard of red wine.

3 I the LORD do keep it; I will water it every moment: lest any hurt it, I will keep it night and day.

4 Fury is not in me: who would set the briers and thorns against me in battle? I would || go through them, I would burn them together.

5 Or let him take hold ^d of my strength, that he may ^e make peace with me; and he shall make peace with me.

6 He shall cause them that come of Jacob to take root: Israel shall blossom and bud, and fill the face of the world with fruit.

1 Ephraim threatened. 16 Christ, the sure foundation, promised.

WOE to ^a the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim, whose ^b glorious beauty is a fading flower, which are on the head of the fat valleys of them that are † overcome with wine!

2 Behold, the † Lord hath a mighty and strong one, ^c which, as a tempest of hail, and a destroying storm, as a flood of mighty waters overflowing, shall cast down to the earth with the hand.

3 The crown of pride, the drunkards of Ephraim, shall be trodden † under feet:

4 And the glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fat valley, shall be a fading flower, and as the hasty fruit before the summer; which when he that looketh upon it seeth, while it is yet in his hand he † eateth it up.

5 ¶ In that day shall the LORD of hosts be for a crown of glory, and for a diadem of beauty, unto the residue of his people,

6 And for a spirit of judgment to him that sitteth in judgment, and for strength to them that turn the battle to the gate.

7 ¶ But they also ^d have erred through wine, and through strong drink are out of the way: ^e the priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are out of the way through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgment.

8 For all tables are full of vomit and filthiness, so that there is no place clean.

9 ¶ Whom shall he teach knowledge? and whom shall he make to understand † doctrine? them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts.

10 For precept ‖ must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little:

11 For with † ^f stammering lips, and another tongue, ‖ will he speak to this people.

12 To whom he said, This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear.

13 But the word of the LORD was unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken.

14 ¶ Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem:

15 Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: ^g for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves.

16 ¶ Therefore thus saith the † Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation ^h a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner-stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste.

met; and the hail shall sweep away

18 And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be † trodden down by it.

19 From the time that it goeth forth it shall take you: for morning by morning shall it pass over, by day and by night; and it shall be a vexation only || to understand the report.

20 For the bed is shorter than that a man can stretch himself on it; and the covering narrower than that he can wrap himself in it.

21 For the LORD shall rise up as in mount ^k Perazim, he shall be wroth as in the valley of ^l Gibeon, that he may do his work, his strange work; and bring to pass his act, his strange act.

22 Now therefore be ye not mock-ers, lest your bands be made strong:
for I have heard from the † Lord God of hosts ^m a consumption, even determined upon the whole earth.

23 ¶ Give ye ear, and hear my voice; hearken, and hear my speech.

24 Doth the plowman plow all day to sow? doth he open and break the clods of his ground?

25 When he hath made plain the face thereof, doth he not cast abroad the fitches, and scatter the cummin, and cast in || the principal wheat, and the appointed barley, and the || rye, in their † place?

26 || For his God doth instruct him to discretion, and doth teach him.

27 For the fitches are not thrashed with a thrashing instrument, neither is a cart-wheel turned about upon the cummin; but the fitches are beaten out with a staff, and the cummin with a rod.

28 Bread-corn is bruised; because he will not ever be thrashing it, nor break it with the wheel of his cart, nor bruise it with his horsemen.

29 This also cometh forth from the LORD of hosts, ⁿ which is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in working.

3 And ^b† the eyes of them that see shall not be dim, and the ears of them that hear shall hearken.

4 The heart also of the [†]rash shall understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stammerers shall be ready to speak || plainly.

5 The vile person shall be no more called liberal, nor the churl said to be bountiful.

6 For the vile person will speak villany, and his heart will work iniquity, to practise hypocrisy, and to utter error against the LORD, to make empty the soul of the hungry; and he will cause the drink of the thirsty to fail.

7 The instruments also of the churl are evil: he deviseth wicked devices to destroy the poor with lying words, even || when the needy speaketh right.

8 But the liberal deviseth liberal things; and by liberal things shall he || stand.

9 ¶ Rise up, ye women that are at ease; hear my voice, ye careless daughters; give ear unto my speech.

12 They shall lament for the teats, for [†]the pleasant fields; for the fruitful vine.

13 ^eUpon the land of my people shall come up thorns and briers; || yea, upon all the houses of joy in ^dthe joyous city:

14 Because the palaces shall be forsaken; the multitude of the city shall be left; the || forts and towers shall be for dens for ever, a joy of wild asses, a pasture of flocks;

15 ¶ Until ^ethe Spirit be poured upon us from on high, and ^fthe wilderness be a fruitful field, and the fruitful field be counted for a forest.

16 Then judgment shall dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness remain in the fruitful field.

17 And the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness, quietness and assurance for ever.

18 And my people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting-places,

19 ^gWhen it shall hail, coming down ^hon the forest; || and the city shall be low in a low place.

16 Harken not to Hezekiah; for thus saith the king of Assyria, || † Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me: and eat ye every one of his vine, and every one of his fig-tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his own cistern;

17 Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

22 ¶ Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, that was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

8 ¶ So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah : for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish.

9 And he heard say concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, He is come forth to make war with thee : and when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,

10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God, in whom thou trustest, deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.

11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly, and shalt thou be delivered ?

12 Have the † gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed, as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden which were in Telassar ?

13 Where is the king of ^b Hamath, and the king of Arphad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah ?

14 ¶ And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it : and Hezekiah went up unto the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.

15 And Hezekiah prayed unto the LORD, saying,

16 O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, that dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth ; thou hast made heaven and earth.

17 ^c Incline thine ear, O LORD, and hear ; open thine eyes, O LORD, and see ; and hear all the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent to reproach the living God.

18 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the † nations, and their countries, 19 And have † cast their † gods into the fire ; for they were no † gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone : therefore they have destroyed them.

20 Now therefore, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the LORD, even thou only.

21 ¶ Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent unto Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Whereas thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria :

22 This is the word which the LORD hath spoken concerning him, The virgin, the daughter of Zion, hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn ; the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken her head at thee.

23 Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed ; and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high ? even against the Holy One of Israel.

24 † By thy servants hast thou reproached the LORD, and hast said, By the multitude of my chariots am I come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon ; and I will cut down † the tall cedars thereof, and the choice fir-trees thereof : and I will enter into the height of his border, and || the forest of his Carmel.

25 I have digged, and drunk water ; and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of the || besieged places.

26 || Hast thou not heard long ago, how I have done it ; and of ancient times, that I have formed it ? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldst be to lay waste defenced cities into ruinous heaps.

27 Therefore their inhabitants were † of small power, they were dismayed and confounded : they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb ; as the grass on the house-tops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up.

28 But I know thy || abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against me.

29 Because thy rage against me, and thy tumult, is come up into mine ears ; ^d therefore will I put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.

30 And this shall be a sign unto thee, Ye shall eat this year such as groweth of itself ; and the second year that which springeth of the same ; and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruit thereof.

31 And † the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

1 Hezekiah hath his life lengthened: 8 the sun goeth ten degrees backward for a sign of that promise. 9 Hezekiah's thanksgiving.

IN ^a those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, came unto him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, ^b † Set thine house in order: for thou shalt die, and not live.

2 Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and prayed unto the LORD,

3 And said, Remember now, O LORD, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth, and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight: and Hezekiah wept † sore.

4 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD to Isaiah, saying,

5 Go and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will add unto thy days fifteen years.

6 And I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria: and I will defend this city.

7 And this shall be a sign unto thee from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that he hath spoken;

8 Behold, I will bring again the shadow of the degrees, which is gone down in the † sun-dial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward. So the sun returned ten degrees, by which degrees it was gone down.

11 I said, I shall not see the LORD, ^c even the LORD, ^c in the land of the living: I shall behold man no more with the inhabitants of the world.

12 ^d Mine age is departed, and is removed from me as a shepherd's tent: I have cut off like a weaver my life; he will cut me off || with pining sickness: from day ^e even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

13 I reckoned till morning, that, as a lion, so will he break all my bones: from day ^e even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

14 Like a crane, or a swallow, so did I chatter; ^e I did mourn as a dove: mine eyes fail with looking upward: O LORD, I am oppressed; || undertake for me.

15 What shall I say? he hath both spoken unto me, and himself hath done it: I shall go softly all my years in the bitterness of my soul.

16 O LORD, by these things men live, and in all these things is the life of my spirit: so wilt thou recover me, and make me to live.

17 Behold, || for peace I had great bitterness; but † thou hast in love to my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption: for thou hast cast all my sins behind thy back.

18 For ^f the grave cannot praise thee; death can not celebrate thee: they that go down into the pit cannot hope for thy truth.

19 The living, the living, he shall praise thee, as I do this day; the father to the children shall make known thy truth.

20 The LORD was ready to save me: therefore we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments all the days of our life in the house of the LORD.

21 For ^g Isaiah had said, Let them take a lump of figs, and lay it for a plaster upon the boil, and he shall recover.

At a that time Merodach-baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he had heard that he had been sick, and was recovered.

2 And Hezekiah was glad of them, and shewed them the house of his || precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his || † armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not.

3 ¶ Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country unto me, even from Babylon.

4 Then said he, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them.

5 Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD of hosts;

6 Behold, the days come, that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD.

7 And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and || they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

BEHOOLD ^a my servant, whom I uphold; mine elect, in whom my soul ^b delighteth: ^c I have put my Spirit upon him; he shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles.

2 He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause his voice to be heard in the street.

4 He shall not fail nor be [†] discouraged, till he have set judgment in the earth: ^d and the isles shall wait for his law.

5 ^e ¶ Thus saith God the LORD, ^e he that created the heavens, and stretched them out; ^f he that spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it; he that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein;

6 I the LORD have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thine hand, and will keep thee, ^g and give thee for a covenant of the people, for ^h a light of the Gentiles;

7 To open the blind eyes, to ⁱ bring out the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in ^k darkness out of the prison-house.

8 I am the LORD; that is my name: and my ^l glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images.

9 Behold, the former things are come to pass, and new things do I declare: before they spring forth I tell you of them.

10 ^m ¶ Sing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth, ye that go down to the sea, and [†] all that is therein; the isles, and the inhabitants thereof.

11 Let the wilderness and the cities thereof lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar doth inhabit: let the inhabitants of the rock sing, let them shout from the top of the mountains.

12 Let them give glory unto the LORD, and declare his praise in the islands.

13 ¶ The LORD shall go forth as a mighty man, he shall stir up jealousy like a man of war: he shall cry, ⁿ yea, roar; he shall || prevail against his enemies.

14 I have long time holden my peace; I have been still, and refrained myself: now will I cry like a travailing woman; I will destroy and † devour at once.

15 I will make waste mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbs; and I will make the rivers islands, and I will dry up the pools.

16 And I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things † straight. These things will I do unto them, and not forsake them.

17 They shall be ^o turned back, they shall be greatly ashamed, that trust in graven images, that say to the molten images, Ye are our † gods.

18 ¶ Hear, ye deaf; and look, ye blind, that ye may see.

19 ¶ Who is blind, but my servant? or deaf, as my messenger that I sent? who is blind as he that is perfect, and blind as the LORD's servant?

20 Seeing many things, ^a but thou observest not; opening the ears, but he heareth not.

21 The LORD is well pleased for his righteousness' sake; he will magnify the law, and make || it honourable.

22 But this is a people robbed and spoiled; || they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hid in prison-houses: they are for a prey, and none delivereth; for † a spoil, and none saith, Restore.

23 Who among you will give ear to this? who will hearken, and hear † for the time to come?

24 Who gave Jacob for a spoil, and Israel to the robbers? did not the LORD, he against whom we have sinned? for they would not walk in his ways, neither were they obedient unto his law.

25 Therefore he hath poured upon him the fury of his anger, and the strength of battle: and it hath set him on fire round about, yet he knew not; and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart.

4 As for thy Redeemer, the LORD of hosts is his name, the Holy One of Israel.

5 Sit thou silent, and get thee into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans: ^dfor thou shalt no more be called, The lady of kingdoms.

6 ¶ ^eI was wroth with my people; ^fI have polluted mine inheritance, and given them into thine hand: thou didst shew them no mercy; ^gupon the ancient hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke.

7 ¶ And thou saidst, I shall be ^ha lady for ever: so that thou didst not lay these things to thy heart, ⁱneither didst remember the latter end of it.

8 Therefore hear now this, thou that art given to pleasures, that dwellest carelessly; that sayest in thine heart, ^kI am, and none else besides me; I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children:

9 But ^lthese two things shall come to thee in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood: they shall come upon thee in their perfection, ^mfor the multitude of thy sorceries, and for the great abundance of thine enchantments.

10 ¶ For thou hast trusted in thy wickedness: thou hast said, None seeth me. Thy wisdom and thy knowledge, it hath ¶ perverted thee; ⁿand thou hast said in thine heart, I am, and none else besides me.

11 Therefore shall evil come upon thee; thou shalt not know † from whence it riseth: and mischief shall fall upon thee; thou shalt not be able to † put it off: and desolation shall come upon thee suddenly, which thou shalt not know.

12 ¶ Stand now with thine enchantments, and with the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast laboured from thy youth; if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be thou mayest prevail.

13 Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels. Let now ^othe † astrologers, the stargazers, † the monthly prognosticators, stand up and save thee from these things that shall come upon thee.

14 Behold, they shall be as stubble, the fire shall burn them: they shall not deliver † themselves from the power of the flame: there shall not be a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit before it.

15 Thus shall they be unto thee with whom thou hast laboured, even ^pthy merchants, from thy youth: they shall wander every one to his quarter; none shall save thee.

2 For they call themselves ^d of the holy city, and ^e stay themselves up on the God of Israel; The LORD of hosts is his name.

3 ^f I have declared the former things from the beginning; and they went forth out of my mouth, and I shewed them; I did them suddenly, and they came to pass.

4 Because I knew that thou art [†] obstinate, and thy neck is an iron sinew, and thy brow brass;

5 I have even from the beginning declared it to thee; before it came to pass I shewed it thee: lest thou shouldst say, Mine idol hath done them; and my graven image, and my molten image, hath commanded them.

6 Thou hast heard, see all this: and will not ye declare it? I have shewed thee new things from this time, even hidden things, and thou didst not know them.

7 They are created now, and not from the beginning; even before the day when thou heardest them not; lest thou shouldst say, Behold, I knew them.

8 Yea, thou heardest not; yea, thou knewest not; yea, from that time that thine ear was not opened: for I knew that thou wouldest deal very treacherously, and wast called ^g a transgressor from the womb.

9 [†] ^h Formy name's sake ⁱ will I defer mine anger, and for my praise will I refrain for thee, that I cut thee not off.

10 Behold, I have refined thee, but not ^{||} with silver; I have chosen thee in the furnace of affliction.

11 For mine own sake, even for mine own sake, will I do it: for ^k how should my name be polluted? and ^l I will not give my glory unto another.

12 [†] Hearken unto me, O Jacob and Israel, my called; ^m I am he; I am the ⁿ first, I also am the last.

13 Mine hand also hath laid the foundation of the earth, and ^{||} my right hand hath spanned the heavens: when ^o I call unto them, they stand up together.

14 ^p All ye, assemble yourselves, and hear; which among them hath declared these things? ^q The LORD hath loved him: he will do his pleasure on Babylon, and his arm shall be on the Chaldeans.

15 I, even I, have spoken; yea, I have called him: I have brought him, and he shall make his way prosperous.

16 [†] Come ye near unto me, hear ye this; ^r I have not spoken in secret from the beginning; from the time that it was, there am I: and now ^s the [†] Lord God, and his Spirit, hath sent me.

17 Thus saith the LORD, thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; I am the LORD thy God which teacheth thee to profit, which leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldst go.

18 ^t Oh that thou hadst hearkened to my commandments! then had thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea:

19 Thy seed also had been as the sand, and the offspring of thy bowels like the gravel thereof; his name should not have been cut off nor destroyed from before me.

20 [†] ^u Go ye forth of Babylon, flee ye from the Chaldeans, with a voice of singing declare ye, tell this, utter it even to the end of the earth; say ye, The LORD hath ^v redeemed his servant Jacob.

21 And they ^w thirsted not when he led them through the deserts: he ^x caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them; he clave the rock also, and the waters gushed out.

restore the || preserved of Israel; I will also give thee for a ^tlight to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth.

7 Thus saith the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One, ^s || To him whom man despiseth, to him whom the nation abhorreth, to a servant of rulers, ^h kings shall see and arise, princes also shall worship, because of the LORD that is faithful, and the Holy One of Israel, and he shall choose thee.

8 Thus saith the LORD, ^l In an acceptable time have I heard thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped thee: and I will preserve thee, ^k and give thee for a covenant of the people, to || establish the earth, to cause to inherit the desolate heritages:

9 That thou mayest say ^l to the prisoners, Go forth; to them that are in darkness, Shew yourselves; they shall feed in the ways, and their pastures shall be in all high places.

10 They shall not ^m hunger nor thirst; ⁿ neither shall the heat nor sun smite them: for he that hath mercy on them shall lead them, even by the springs of water shall he guide them.

11 And I will make all my mountains a way, and my highways shall be exalted.

12 Behold, these shall come from far: and, lo, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of Sinim.

13 ^o Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, O mountains: for the LORD hath comforted his people, and will have mercy upon his afflicted.

14 But Zion said, The LORD hath forsaken me, and my Lord hath forgotten me.

15 Can a woman forget her suckling child, [†] that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? yea, they may forget, yet will I not forget thee.

16 Behold, ^p I have graven thee upon the palms of my hands; thy walls are continually before me.

17 Thy children shall make haste; thy destroyers, and they that made thee waste, shall go forth of thee.

18 ^q Lift up thine eyes round about, and behold: all these gather themselves together, and come to thee. As I live, saith the LORD, thou shalt surely clothe thee with them all, as with an ornament; and bind them on thee, as a bride doeth.

19 For thy waste and thy desolate places, and the land of thy destruction, ^r shall even now be too narrow by reason of the inhabitants, and they that swallowed thee up shall be far away.

20 ^s The children which thou shalt have, after thou hast lost the other, shall say again in thine ears, The place is too strait for me: give place to me, that I may dwell.

21 Then shalt thou say in thine heart, Who hath begotten me these, seeing I have lost my children, and am desolate, a captive, and removing to and fro? and who hath brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; these, where had they been?

22 ^t Thus saith the LORD God, Behold, I will lift up mine hand to the Gentiles, and set up my standard to the people: and they shall bring thy sons in their arms, and thy daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders.

23 ^u And kings shall be thy nursing fathers, and their nursing mothers: they shall bow down to thee with their face toward the earth, and ^x lick up the dust of thy feet; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD: for ^y they shall not be ashamed that wait for me.

24 [¶] Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or [†] the lawful captive delivered?

25 But thus saith the LORD, Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered: for I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will save thy children.

26 And I will ^a feed them that oppress thee with their own flesh; and they shall be drunken with their own blood, as with sweet wine: and all flesh shall know that I the LORD am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob.

1 The righteous exhorted, after the pattern of Abraham, to trust in Christ: 4 the certainty of his salvation. 20 The prophet bewaileth the afflictions of Jerusalem, &c.

HEARKEN to me, ^aye that follow after righteousness, ye that seek the LORD: look unto the rock whence ye are hewn, and to the hole of the pit whence ye are digged.

2 ^bLook unto Abraham your father, and unto Sarah that bare you: for I called him alone, and blessed him, and increased him.

3 For the LORD shall comfort Zion: he will comfort all her waste places; and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert ^clike the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.

4 ¶ Hearken unto me, my people; and give ear unto me, O my nation: for a law shall proceed from me, and I will make my judgment to rest for a light of the people.

5 My righteousness is near; my salvation is gone forth, and mine arms shall judge the people; the isles shall wait upon me, and on mine arm shall they trust.

6 Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath; for ^dthe heavens shall vanish away like smoke, ^eand the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner: but my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished.

7 Hearken unto me, ye that know righteousness, the people ^fin whose heart is my law; ^gfear ye not the reproach of men, neither be ye afraid of their revilings:

8 For ^hthe moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool: but my righteousness shall be for ever, and my salvation from generation to generation.

9 ¶ ⁱAwake, awake, put on strength, O arm of the LORD; awake, as in the ancient days, in the generations of old. ^k*Art* thou not it that hath cut ^lRahab, and wounded the ^mdragon? ⁿ*Art* thou not it which hath ^odried the sea, the waters of the great deep; that hath made the depths of the sea a way for the ransomed to pass over?

11 Therefore ^pthe redeemed of the LORD shall return, and come with singing unto Zion; and everlasting joy shall be upon their head: they shall obtain gladness and joy; and sorrow and mourning shall flee away.

12 ¶ ^qI, even I, am he that comforteth you: who art thou, that thou shouldest be afraid ^rof a man that shall die, and of the son of man which shall be made ^sas grass;

13 And forgettest the LORD thy Maker, ^tthat hath stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth; and hast feared continually every day, because of the fury of the oppressor, as if he ^uwere ready to destroy? and where is the fury of the oppressor?

CHAP. LII.

1 The church is roused with God's promise of free redemption. 7 The welcome tidings of the gospel. 13 A prophecy of the glory of Christ after his sufferings.

^a AWAKE, awake; put on thy strength, O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city: for ^b henceforth there shall no more come into thee the uncircumcised ^c and the unclean.

2 Shake thyself from the dust; arise, and sit down, O Jerusalem: loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion.

3 For thus saith the LORD, ^d Ye have sold yourselves for nought; and ye shall be redeemed without money.

4 For thus saith the [†] Lord God, My people went down aforetime into ^e Egypt to sojourn there; and the Assyrian oppressed them without cause.

5 Now therefore, what have I here, saith the LORD, that my people is taken away for nought? They that rule over them make them to howl, saith the LORD; and my name continually every day is ^f blasphemed.

6 Therefore my people shall know my name: therefore they shall know in that day, that I am he that doth speak; behold, it is I.

7 ¶ ^g How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, ^h Thy God reigneth!

8 Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see eye to eye, when the LORD shall bring again Zion.

9 ¶ Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: for the LORD hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem.

10 The LORD hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and ⁱ all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

11 ¶ ^k Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no unclean thing; go ye out of the midst of her; be ye clean, that bear the vessels of the LORD.

12 For ^l ye shall not go out with haste, nor go by flight: ^m for the LORD will go before you; ⁿ and the God of Israel will [†] be your re-reward.

13 ¶ Behold, ^o my servant shall deal prudently, he shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high.

14 As many were astonished at thee; (his ^p visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men;)

15 ^q So shall he sprinkle many nations; ^r the kings shall shut their mouths at him: for that ^s which had not been told them shall they see, and that which they had not heard shall they consider.

3 ^d He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and ^{||} [†] we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

4 ¶ Surely ^e he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows; yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.

5 But he was ^{||} [†] wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his [§] stripes we are healed.

6 All we, like sheep, have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD [†] hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

7 He was oppressed, and he was afflicted; yet ^h he opened not his mouth: ⁱ he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth.

8 ¶ He was taken from prison and from judgment: and who shall declare his generation? for ^k he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people [†] was he stricken.

9 [†] And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his [†] death; because he had done no violence, neither was any ^m deceit in his mouth.

10 ¶ Yet it pleased the LORD, to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: ^{||} when thou shalt make his soul ⁿ an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand.

11 He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: ^o by his knowledge shall ^p my righteous servant justify many; ^q for he shall bear their iniquities.

12 ^r Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, ^s and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was ^t numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and ^u made intercession for the transgressors.

1 The prophet, for the comfort of the Gentiles, prophesieth the enlargement of the church, & deliverance out of affliction, 11 edification, 15 and sure preservation.

^a SING, O barren, thou that didst ^a Zeph. 3. 14. Gal. 4. 27. not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travail with child: for ^b more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the LORD.

2 ^c Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thine habitations: spare not, lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes;

3 For thou shalt break forth on the right hand and on the left; ^d and thy seed shall inherit the Gentiles, and make the desolate cities to be inhabited.

4 ¶ Fear not; for thou shalt not be ashamed: neither be thou confounded; for thou shalt not be put to shame: for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not remember the reproach of thy widowhood any more.

5 ^e For thy Maker is thine husband; the ^f LORD of hosts is his name; and thy Redeemer the Holy One of Israel; The God of the whole earth shall he be called.

6 For ^g the LORD [§] hath called thee as a woman forsaken, and grieved in spirit, and a wife of youth, when thou wast refused, saith thy God.

7 ^h For a small moment have I forsaken thee; but with great mercies will I gather thee.

8 In a little wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment; ⁱ but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the LORD thy Redeemer.

9 For this is as the waters of ^k Noah unto me: for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth; so have I sworn that I would not be wroth with thee, nor rebuke thee.

10 For ^l the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; ^m but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the LORD, that hath mercy on thee.

11 ¶ O thou afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted! behold, I will lay thy stones with ⁿ fair colours, and lay thy foundations with sapphires.

14 In righteousness shalt thou be established: thou shalt be far from oppression; for thou shalt not fear: and from terror; for it shall not come near thee.

15 Behold, they shall surely gather together, but not by me: whosoever shall gather together against thee shall fall for thy sake.

16 Behold, I have created the smith that bloweth the coals in the fire, and that bringeth forth an instrument for his work; and I have created the waster to destroy.

17 ¶ No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD; and their righteousness is of me, saith the LORD.

CHAP. LV.

1 The prophet, with the promises of Christ, calleth to faith, 6 and to repentance. 8 The happy state of them that believe.

HO, ^aevery one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money: ^bcome ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money, and without price.

2 Wherefore do ye [†]spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? Hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

3 Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; ^cand I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the ^dsure mercies of David.

4 Behold, I have given him for a witness to the people, ^ea leader and commander to the people.

5 ^fBehold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not; and nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee, because of the LORD thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for he hath glorified thee.

6 ¶ ^gSeek ye the LORD while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near:

7 Let the wicked forsake his way, and [†]the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for [†]he will abundantly pardon.

8 ¶ ^hFor my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD.

9 ⁱFor as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

10 For ^kas the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater;

11 ^lSo shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

12 ^mFor ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall ⁿbreak forth before you into singing, and ^oall the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

13 ^pInstead of ^qthe thorn shall come up the fir-tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle-tree: and it shall be to the LORD for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

3 ¶ Neither let ^cthe son of the stranger, that hath joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying, The LORD hath utterly separated me from his people: neither let the eunuch say, Behold, I am a dry tree.

4 For thus saith the LORD unto the eunuchs, that keep my sabbaths, and choose the things that please me, and take hold of my covenant;

5 Even unto them will I give in mine house, and within my walls, a place and a name better than of sons and of daughters: I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off.

7^e Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and [†]destruction are in their paths.

8 The way of peace they know not; and there is no || judgment in their goings: they have made them crooked paths; whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace.

9 ¶ Therefore is judgment far from us, neither doth justice overtake us: we wait for light, but behold obscurity; for brightness, but we walk in darkness.

10^f We grope for the wall like the blind, and we grope as if we had no eyes: we stumble at noon-day as in the night; we are in desolate places as dead men.

11 We roar all like bears, and ^gmourn sore like doves: we look for judgment, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us.

12 For our transgressions are multiplied before thee, and our sins testify against us: for our transgressions are with us; and as for our iniquities, we know them;

13 In transgressing and lying against the LORD, and departing away from our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood.

14 And judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter.

15 Yea, truth faileth; and he that departeth from evil || maketh himself a prey: and the LORD saw it, and [†]it displeased him that there was no judgment.

16 ¶^h And he saw that there was no man, and ⁱwondered that there was no intercessor: ^ktherefore his arm brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it sustained him.

17^l For he put on righteousness as a breastplate, and an helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a cloak.

18^m According to their [†]deeds, accordingly he will repay, fury to his adversaries, recompence to his enemies; to the islands he will repay recompence.

19ⁿ So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun: when the enemy shall come in ^olike a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall || lift up a standard against him.

20 ¶ And ^pthe Redeemer shall come to Zion, and unto them that turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the LORD.

21^q As for me, this is my covenant with them, saith the LORD, My Spirit that is upon thee, and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the LORD, from henceforth and for ever.

CHAP. LX.

1 The glory of the church in the abundant access of the Gentiles, 15 and her great blessings after a short affliction.

^a ARISE, || shine; for thy light is come, and ^bthe glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.

2 For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

3 And the ^cGentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

4^d Lift up thine eyes round about, and see; all they gather themselves together, ^ethey come to thee: thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side.

5 Then thou shalt see, and flow together, and thine heart shall fear, and be enlarged; because ^fthe || abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee, the || forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee.

6 The multitude of camels shall cover thee, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; all they from Sheba shall come: they shall bring ^ggold and incense; and they shall shew forth the praises of the LORD.

7 All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together unto thee, the rams of Nebaioth shall minister unto thee: they shall come up with acceptance on mine altar, and I will glorify the house of my glory.

8 Who are these that fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows?

9^h Surely the isles shall wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, ⁱto bring thy sons from far, ^ktheir silver and their gold with them, ^lunto the name of the LORD thy God, and to the Holy One of Israel, because he hath glorified thee.

THE a Spirit of the † LORD GOD is upon me; because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek: he hath sent me b to bind up the broken hearted, to proclaim c liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;

3 To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, e to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called Trees of righteousness, f The planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified.

4 ¶ And they shall g build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations.

5 And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the alien shall be your plowmen, and your vine-dressers.

6 h But ye shall be named the Priests of the LORD: i men shall call you the Ministers of our God: j ye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory shall ye boast yourselves.

7 ¶ k For your shame ye shall have double; and for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess the double; everlasting joy shall be unto them.

8 For I the LORD love judgment, l I hate robbery for burnt-offering; and I will direct their work in truth, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

9 And their seed shall be known among the Gentiles, and their offspring among the people: all that see them shall acknowledge them, that they are the seed which the LORD hath blessed.

1 *Christ sheweth his power to save.
7 A thankful remembrance of God's old loving-kindness to his people.*

WHO is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? this that is [†]glorious in his apparel, travelling in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save.

2 Wherefore ^aart thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the wine-fat?

3 I have ^btrod den the wine-press alone; and of the people there was none with me: for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment.

4 For the ^cday of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come.

5 ^dAnd I looked, and ^ethere was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore mine own ^farm brought salvation unto me; and my fury, it upheld me.

6 And I will tread down the people in mine anger, and ^gmake them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth.

7 ¶ I will mention the lovingkindnesses of the LORD, and the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his loving-kindnesses.

8 For he said, Surely they are my people, children that will not lie: so he was their Saviour.

9 ¶ ^hIn all their affliction he was afflicted, ⁱand the angel of his presence saved them: ^kin his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and ^lhe bare them, and carried them all the days of old.

10 But they ^mrebelled, and ⁿvexed his Holy Spirit: ^otherefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them.

11 Then he remembered the days of old, Moses and his people, saying,
Where is he that ^pbrought them up

8 Who hath heard such a thing? who hath seen such things? Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be born at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children.

9 Shall I bring to the birth, and not || cause to bring forth? saith the LORD: shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb? saith thy God.

10 Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all ye that love her: rejoice for joy with her, all ye that mourn for her;

19 ¶ And I will set a sign among them, and I will send those that escape of them unto the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, that draw the bow, to Tubal, and Javan, to the isles afar off, that have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory; ^r and they shall declare my glory among the Gentiles.

20 And they shall bring all your brethren ^s for an offering unto the LORD, out of all nations, upon horses, and in chariots, and in || litters, and upon mules, and upon swift beasts, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, saith the LORD, as the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of the LORD.

5 Before I ^fformed thee in the belly ^gI knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I ^hsanctified thee; and I [†]ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.

6 Then said I, Ah [†]i LORD God! behold, I cannot speak; for I am a child.

7 ¶ But the LORD said unto me, Say not, I am a child: for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee, and whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak.

8 ^kBe not afraid of their faces: for ^lI am with thee to deliver thee, saith the LORD.

9 Then the LORD put forth his hand, and ^mtouched my mouth: and the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have ⁿput my words in thy mouth.

10 ¶ See, I have this day set thee over the nations, and over the kingdoms, to ^proot out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant.

11 ¶ Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, what seest thou? And I said, I see a rod of an almond-tree.

12 Then said the LORD unto me, Thou hast well seen: for I will hasten my word to perform it.

13 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying, What seest thou? And I said, I see ^qa seething-pot, and the face thereof ^{is} [†] toward the north.

14 Then the LORD said unto me, Out of the ^rnorth an evil [†]shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land.

15 For, lo, I will ^scall all the families of the kingdoms of the north, saith the LORD; and they shall come, and they shall set every one his throne at the entering of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walls thereof round about, and against all the cities of Judah.

16 And I will utter my judgments against them touching all their wickedness, who have forsaken me, and have burnt incense unto other [†]gods, and worshipped the works of their own hands.

17 ¶ Thou therefore ^tgird up thy loins, and arise, and speak unto them all that I command thee: ^ube not dismayed at their faces, lest I ^{||}confound thee before them.

18 For, behold, I have made thee this day ^xa fenced city, and an 19 And they shall fight against thee, but they shall not prevail against thee; for I am with thee, saith the LORD, to deliver thee.

3 ^bIsrael was holiness unto the LORD, and ^cthe first-fruits of his increase: ^dall that devour him shall offend; evil shall come upon them, saith the LORD.

4 ¶ Hear ye the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel:

5 Thus saith the LORD, ^eWhat iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, ^fand have walked after vanity, and are become vain?

6 Neither said they, Where ^{is} the LORD that ^gbrought us up out of the land of Egypt, that led us through ^hthe wilderness; through a land of deserts, and of pits; through a land of drought, and of the shadow of death; through a land that no man passed through, and where no man dwelt?

7 And I brought you into a plentiful country, to eat the fruit thereof, and the goodness thereof; but when ye entered, ye ⁱdefiled my land, and made mine heritage an abomination.

8 The priests said not, Where ^{is} the LORD? and they that handle the ^klaw knew me not: the pastors also transgressed against me, ^land the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after ^{things} that do not profit.

14 Turn, O backsliding children, saith the LORD; ^o for I am married unto you: and I will take you one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion:

15 And I will give you ^p pastors according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding.

16 And it shall come to pass, when ye be multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, saith the LORD, they shall say no more, The ark of the covenant of the LORD; neither shall it [†] come to mind, neither shall they remember it, neither shall they visit it, neither shall ^{||} that be done any more.

17 At that time they shall call Jerusalem the throne of the LORD; and all the nations shall be gathered unto it, ^q to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem; neither shall they ^r walk any more after the ^{||} imagination of their evil heart.

18 In those days ^s the house of Judah shall walk ^{||} with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I have ^{||} given for an inheritance unto your fathers.

19 But I said, How shall I put thee among the children, and give thee ^t a [†] pleasant land, [†] a goodly heritage of the hosts of nations? And I said, Thou shalt call me, My father; and shalt not turn away [†] from me.

20 ¶ Surely as a wife treacherously departeth from her [†] husband, so ^u have ye dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, saith the LORD.

21 A voice was heard upon the high places, weeping and supplications of the children of Israel: for they have perverted their way, and they have forgotten the LORD their God.

22 ^x Return, ye backsliding children, and I will heal your backslidings. Behold, we come unto thee; for thou art the LORD our God.

23 ^y Truly in vain is salvation hoped for from the hills, and from the multitude of mountains: ^z truly in the LORD our God is the salvation of Israel.

24 ^a For shame hath devoured the labour of our fathers from our youth; their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters.

CHAP. IV.

1 God calleth Israel by his promises: 3 he exhorteth Judah to repentance by fearful judgments.

If thou wilt return, O Israel, saith the LORD, ^areturn unto me: and if thou wilt put away thine abominations out of my sight, then shalt thou not remove.

2 ^bAnd thou shalt swear, The LORD liveth, ^cin truth, in judgment, and in righteousness; ^dand the nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they ^eglory.

3 ¶ For thus saith the LORD to the men of Judah and Jerusalem, ^fBreak up your fallow ground, and ^gsow not among thorns.

4 ^hCircumcise yourselves to the LORD, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; lest my fury come forth like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

5 Declare ye in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, Blow ye the trumpet in the land: cry, gather together, and say, ⁱAssemble yourselves, and let us go into the defenced cities.

6 Set up the standard toward Zion: ^jlet retire, stay not; for I will bring evil from the ^knorth, and a great ^ldestruction.

7 ^lThe lion is come up from his thicket, and the destroyer of the Gentiles is on his way; he is gone forth from his place ^mto make thy land desolate; and thy cities shall be laid waste, without an inhabitant.

8 For this ⁿgird you with sackcloth, lament and howl: for the fierce anger of the LORD is not turned back from us.

9 And it shall come to pass at that day, saith the LORD, that the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall wonder.

10 Then said I, Ah [†]Lord God! ^osurely thou hast greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, ^psaying, Ye shall have peace; whereas the sword reacheth unto the soul.

11 At that time shall it be said to this people and to Jerusalem, ^qA dry wind of the high places in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to fan, nor to cleanse,

12 Even || a full wind from those places shall come unto me: now also will I [†]give sentence against them.

13 Behold, he shall come up as clouds, and ^rhis chariots shall be as a whirlwind: ^shis horses are swifter than eagles. Woe unto us! for we are spoiled.

14 O Jerusalem, ^twash thine heart from wickedness, that thou mayest be saved: how long shall thy vain thoughts lodge within thee?

15 For a voice declareth ^ufrom Dan, and publisheth affliction from mount Ephraim.

16 Make ye mention to the nations; behold, publish against Jerusalem, that watchers come from a far country, and give out their voice against the cities of Judah.

17 As keepers of a field, are they against her round about; because she hath been rebellious against me, saith the LORD.

18 ^xThy way and thy doings have procured these things unto thee: this is thy wickedness, because it is bitter, because it reacheth unto thine heart.

19 ¶ My ^ybowels, my bowels! I am pained at [†]my very heart; my heart maketh a noise in me: I cannot hold my peace, because thou hast heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war.

20 ^zDestruction upon destruction is cried; for the whole land is spoiled: suddenly are my tents spoiled, and my curtains in a moment.

21 How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet?

22 For my people is foolish, they have not known me; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding: ^athey are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.

23 ^bI beheld the earth, and, lo, it was without form and void; and the heavens, and they had no light.

24 ^cI beheld the mountains, and, lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly.

25 I beheld, and, lo, there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens were fled.

28 For this shall the earth mourn, and ^e the heavens above be black: because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and will not repent, neither will I turn back from it.

30 And when thou art spoiled, what wilt thou do? Though thou clothest thyself with crimson, though thou deckest thee with ornaments of gold, ^f though thou rentest thy [†] face with painting, in vain shalt thou make thyself fair; thy lovers will despise thee, they will seek thy life.

31 For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, and the anguish as of her that bringeth forth her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zion, that bewaileth herself, that spreadeth her hands, saying, Woe is me now! for my soul is wearied because of murderers.

CHAP. V.

The judgments of God upon the Jews for their manifold corruptions, &c.

RUN ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, ^a if ye can find a man, ^b if there be any that executeth judgment, that seeketh the truth, and I will pardon it.

2 And though they say, ^c The LORD liveth; surely they swear falsely.

3 O LORD, are not thine eyes upon the truth? thou hast ^d stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but ^e they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return.

4 Therefore I said, Surely these ^f are poor; they are foolish: for ^f they know not the way of the LORD, nor the judgment of their God.

5 I will get me unto the great men, and will speak unto them; for ^g they have known the way of the LORD, and the judgment of their God: but these have altogether ^h broken the yoke, and burst the bonds.

6 Wherefore ⁱ a lion out of the forest shall slay them, and ^k a wolf of the || evenings shall spoil them, ^l a leopard shall watch over their cities: every one that goeth out thence shall be torn in pieces; because their transgressions are many, and their backslidings [†] are increased.

7 ¶ How shall I pardon thee for this? thy children have forsaken me, and ^m sworn by them that are not [†] gods: when I had fed them to the full, they then committed adultery, and assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses.

8 ⁿ They were as fed horses in the morning: every one neighed after his neighbour's wife.

9 ^o Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: and shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

10 ¶ ^p Go ye up upon her walls, and destroy; ^q but make not a full end: take away her battlements; for they are not the LORD's.

11 For ^r the house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me, saith the LORD.

12 ^s They have belied the LORD, and said, ^t It is not he; neither shall evil come upon us; neither shall we see sword nor famine:

13 And the prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them: thus shall it be done unto them.

14 Wherefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, Because ye speak this word, ^u behold, I will make my words in thy mouth fire, and this people wood, and it shall devour them.

15 Lo, I will bring ^x a nation upon you from far, O house of Israel, saith the LORD: it is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language thou knowest not, neither understandest what they say.

16 Their quiver is as an open sepulchre, they are all mighty men.

17 And they shall eat up thine ^y harvest, and thy bread, which thy sons and thy daughters should eat; they shall eat up thy flocks and thine herds; they shall eat up thy vines and thy fig-trees; they shall impoverish thy fenced cities, wherein thou trustedst, with the sword.

18 Nevertheless, in those days, saith the LORD, I ^z will not make a full end with you.

so shall ye serve strangers in a land that is not yours.

20 Declare this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying,

21 Hear now this, O ^b foolish people, and without [†] understanding; which have eyes, and see not; which have ears, and hear not:

22 Fear ye not me? saith the LORD: will ye not tremble at my presence, which have placed the sand for the ^c bound of the sea by a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass it: and though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they roar, yet can they not pass over it?

23 But this people hath a revolting and a rebellious heart; they are revolted and gone.

24 Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear the LORD our God, that giveth rain, both the ^d former and the latter, in his season: he reserveth unto us the appointed weeks of the harvest.

25 ¶ Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withholden good things from you.

26 For among my people are found wicked men: ¶ they ^e lay wait, as he that setteth snares; they set a trap, they catch men.

27 As a ¶ cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit: therefore they are become great, and waxen rich.

28 They are waxen ^f fat, they shine; yea, they overpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not ^g the cause, the cause of the fatherless, ^h yet they prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge.

29 ⁱ Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

30 ¶ ¶ A wonderful and horrible thing is committed in the land;

31 The prophets prophesy ^k falsely, and the priests ¶ bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?

CHAP. VI.

1 The enemies sent against Judah encourage themselves. 6 God setteth them on work because of their sins.

O YE children of Benjamin, gather yourselves to flee out of the midst of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and set up a sign of fire in Beth-haccerem: ^a for evil appeareth out of the north, and great destruction.

2 I have likened the daughter of Zion to a ¶ comely and delicate woman.

3 The shepherds with their flocks shall come unto her; they shall pitch their tents against her round about; they shall feed every one in his place.

4 Prepare ye war against her; arise, and let us go up at noon. Woe unto us! for the day goeth away, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out.

5 Arise, and let us go by night, and let us destroy her palaces.

6 ¶ For thus hath the LORD of hosts said, Hew ye down trees, and ¶ cast a mount against Jerusalem: this ⁱ is the city to be visited; she ^j is wholly oppression in the midst of her.

7 ^b As a fountain casteth out her waters, so she casteth out her wickedness: ^c violence and spoil is heard in her; before me continually ^d is grief and wounds.

8 Be thou instructed, O Jerusalem, lest ^d my soul [†] depart from thee; lest I make thee desolate, a land not inhabited.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel as a vine: turn back thine hand as a grape-gatherer into the baskets.

10 To whom shall I speak and give warning, that they may hear? Behold, their ^e ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken: behold, the word of the LORD is unto them a reproach; they have no delight in it.

11 Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD; I am weary with holding in: I will pour it out upon the children abroad, and upon the assembly of young men together: for even the husband with the wife shall be taken, the aged with ^f him that is full of days.

12 And [†] their houses shall be turned unto others, with their fields and wives together: for I will stretch out my hand upon the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD.

13 For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them, every one is given to ^g covetousness; and from the prophet even unto the priest, every one dealeth falsely.

14 They have ^h healed also the [†] hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace.

which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to ¹ Shiloh.

15 And I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your brethren, ^m even the whole seed of Ephraim.

16 Therefore ⁿ pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me: ^o for I will not hear thee.

17 ¶ Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem?

18 ^p The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead their dough, to make cakes to the || queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto other [†] gods, that they may provoke me to anger.

19 Do they provoke me to anger? saith the LORD; do they not provoke themselves to the confusion of their own faces?

20 Therefore thus saith the [†] Lord God, Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.

21 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; ^q Put your burnt-offerings unto your sacrifices, and eat flesh.

22 ^r For I spake not unto your fathers, nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, [†] concerning burnt-offerings or sacrifices:

23 But this thing commanded I them, saying, ^s Obey my voice, and ^t I will be your God, and ye shall be my people; and walk ye in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well unto you.

24 ^u But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear, but walked in the counsels and in the || imagination of their evil heart, and [†] x went backward, and not forward.

25 Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt unto this day, I have even ^y sent unto you all my servants the prophets, ^z daily rising up early, and sending them:

26 ^a Yet they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but ^b hardened their neck; they did worse than their fathers.

27 Therefore thou shalt speak all these words unto them; but they will not hearken to thee: thou shalt also call unto them; but they will not answer thee.

28 But thou shalt say unto them, This is a nation that obeyeth not the voice of the LORD their God, nor receiveth || correction: truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth.

29 ¶ ^c Cut off thine hair, O Jerusalem, and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on high places; for the LORD hath rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath.

30 For the children of Judah have done evil in my sight, saith the LORD: ^d they have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to pollute it.

31 And they have built the ^e high places of Tophet, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I commanded them not, neither [†] came it into my heart.

32 ¶ Therefore, behold, ^f the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be called Tophet, nor the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the valley of slaughter: for they shall bury in Tophet, till there be no place.

33 And the ^g carcasses of this people shall be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth; and none shall fray them away.

34 Then will I cause to ^h cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride; for the land shall be desolate.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The Jews' calamity: 4 their impenitency upbraided: 13 their judgment shewed: 18 their desperate estate bewailed.

AT that time, saith the LORD, they shall bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of his princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves:

2 And they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the host of heaven, whom they have loved, and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and whom they have worshipped: they shall not be gathered, nor be buried; they shall be for dung upon the face of the earth.

3 And death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue of them

10 They are turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, which refused to hear my words; and they went after other [†] gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant, which I made with their fathers.

11 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able [†] to escape; and ⁱ though they shall cry unto me, I will not hearken unto them.

thee, then how wilt thou do in ^h the swelling of Jordan?

6 For even ⁱ thy brethren, and the house of thy father, even they have dealt treacherously with thee; yea, ^{||} they have called a multitude after thee: ^k believe them not, though they speak [†] fair words unto thee.

7 ¶ I have forsaken mine house, I have left mine heritage; I have given [†] the dearly-beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies.

8 Mine heritage is unto me as a lion in the forest; it ^{||} crieth out against me: therefore have I hated it.

9 Mine heritage ^{is} unto me as a ^{||} speckled bird; the birds round about ^{are} against her: come ye, assemble all the beasts of the field, ^{||} come to devour.

10 Many pastors have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my [†] pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.

11 They have made it desolate, and being desolate it mourneth unto me; the whole land is made desolate, because no man layeth ^{it} to heart.

12 The spoilers are come upon all high places through the wilderness: for the sword of the LORD shall devour from the ^{one} end of the land even to the ^{other} end of the land: no flesh shall have peace.

13 ¶ ^m They have sown wheat, but shall reap thorns: they have put themselves to pain, ^{but} shall not profit; and ^{||} they shall be ashamed of your revenues, because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

14 ¶ Thus saith the LORD against all mine evil neighbours, that touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit; Behold, I will ⁿ pluck them out of their land, and pluck out the house of Judah from among them.

15 And it shall come to pass, after that I have plucked them out, I will return, and have compassion on them, and will bring them again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land.

16 And it shall come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, The LORD liveth; (as they taught my people to swear by Baal;) then shall they be built in the midst of my people.

17 But if they will not ^o obey, I will utterly pluck up and destroy that nation, saith the LORD.

CHAP. XIII.

1 By the type of a linen girdle the destruction of his people is prefigured: 12 by the bottles filled with wine, their excess in misery foretold.

THUS saith the LORD unto me, Go and get thee a linen girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water.

2 So I got a girdle, according to the word of the LORD, and put ^{it} on my loins.

3 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying,

4 Take the girdle that thou hast got, which ^{is} upon thy loins, and arise, go to Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock.

5 So I went, and hid it by Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me.

6 And it came to pass after many days, that the LORD said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there.

7 Then I went to Euphrates, and digged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it; and, behold, the girdle was marred, it was profitable for nothing.

8 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 Thus saith the LORD, After this manner will I mar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem.

10 This evil people, which refuse to hear my words, which walk in the ^{||} imagination of their heart, and walk after other [†] gods, to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle, which is good for nothing.

11 For as the girdle cleaveth to the loins of a man, so have I caused to cleave unto me the whole house of Israel, and the whole house of Judah, saith the LORD; that they might be unto me for a people, and for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear.

12 ¶ Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Every bottle shall by filled with wine: and they shall say unto thee, Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine?

13 Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings that sit upon David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, ^a with drunkenness.

10 I the LORD ^l search the heart, I try the reins, ^m even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings.

11 As the partridge ^{||} sitteth on eggs, and hatcheth them not; so he that getteth riches, and not by right, ⁿ shall leave them in the midst of his days, and at his end shall be a fool.

12 ¶ A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary.

13 O LORD, the hope of Israel, ^o all that forsake thee shall be ashamed, and they that depart from me shall be written in the earth, because they have forsaken the LORD, the ^p fountain of living waters.

14 Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for ^q thou art my praise.

15 ¶ Behold, they say unto me, ^r Where is the word of the LORD? let it come now.

16 As for me, ^s I have not hastened from being a pastor [†] to follow thee: neither have I desired the woe-ful day; thou knowest: that which came out of my lips was right before thee.

6 ^f In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely; and ^g this is his name whereby he shall be called, [†] THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

7 Therefore, behold, ^h the days come, saith the LORD, that they shall no more say, The LORD liveth, which brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;

8 But, The LORD liveth, which brought up, and which led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, ⁱ and from all countries whither I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land.

overcome, because of the LORD, and because of the words of his holiness.

10 For ^k the land is full of adulterers; for because of || swearing the land mourneth; ^l the pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up, and their || course is evil, and their force is not right.

11 For ^m both prophet and priest are profane; yea, ⁿ in my house have I found their wickedness, saith the LORD.

12 ^o Wherefore their way shall be unto them as slippery ways in the darkness; they shall be driven on, and fall therein: for I will bring evil upon them, even the year of their visitation, saith the LORD.

13 And I have seen || ^p folly in the prophets of Samaria; ^q they prophesied in Baal, and caused my people Israel to err.

14 I have seen also in the prophets of Jerusalem || an horrible thing: ^r they commit adultery, and walk in lies: they strengthen also the hands of evil-doers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them unto me as ^s Sodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah.

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets, Behold, I will feed them with ^t wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall: for from the prophets of Jerusalem is || profaneness gone forth into all the land.

16 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Hearken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you: they make you vain: ^u they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the LORD.

17 They say still unto them that despise me, The LORD hath said, ^v Ye shall have peace; and they say unto every one that walketh after the || imagination of his own heart, No evil shall come upon you.

18 For ^x who hath stood in the || counsel of the LORD, and hath perceived and heard his word? who hath marked his word, and heard it?

19 Behold, a ^y whirlwind of the LORD is gone forth in fury, even a grievous whirlwind: it shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked.

20 The ^z anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have executed, and till he have performed the thoughts of his heart: ^a in the latter days ye shall consider it perfectly.

21 ^b I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them; yet they prophesied.

22 But if they had stood in my counsel, and had caused my people to hear my words, then they should have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.

23 Am I a God at hand, saith the LORD, and not a God afar off?

24 Can any ^c hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the LORD: ^d do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the LORD.

25 I have heard what the prophets said, that prophesy lies in my name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed.

26 How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophesy lies? yea, they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart;

27 Which think to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams, which they tell every man to his neighbour, ^e as their fathers have forgotten my name for Baal.

28 The prophet ^f that hath a dream, let him tell a dream; and he that hath my word, let him speak my word faithfully: what is the chaff to the wheat? saith the LORD.

29 Is not my word like as a fire? saith the LORD; and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces?

30 Therefore, behold, ^g I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that steal my words every one from his neighbour.

31 Behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, || that use their tongues, and say, He saith.

32 Behold, I am against them that prophesy falsehoods, saith the LORD, and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by ^h their lightness; yet I sent them not, nor commanded them: therefore, they shall not profit this people at all, saith the LORD.

33 ¶ And when this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask thee, saying, What is the burden of the LORD? thou shalt then say unto them, What burden? I will even forsake you, saith the LORD.

34 And as for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, that shall say, The burden of the LORD, I will even ⁱ punish that man and his house.

35 Thus shall ye say every one to his neighbour, and every one to his brother, What hath the LORD answered? and, What hath the LORD spoken?

36 And the burden of the LORD shall ye mention no more; for every man's word shall be his burden: for ye have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of hosts our God.

37 Thus shalt thou say to the prophet, What hath the LORD answered thee? and, What hath the LORD spoken?

38 But since ye say, The burden of the LORD; therefore thus saith the LORD, Because ye say this word, The burden of the LORD, and I have sent unto you, saying, Ye shall not say, The burden of the LORD;

39 Therefore, behold, I, even I, will utterly forget you, and I will forsake you, and the city that I gave you and your fathers, and cast you out of my presence:

CHAP. XXIV.

1 By good and bad figs, ⁴ he foresheweth their restoration from captivity, 8 and the desolation of Zedekiah and the residue of Jerusalem.

THE LORD shewed me, and, behold, two baskets of figs were set before the temple of the LORD, after that Nebuchadrezzar^a king of Babylon had carried away captive^b Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the carpenters and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon.

2 One basket had very good figs, even like the figs that are first ripe; and the other basket had very naughty figs, which could not be eaten, [†] they were so bad.

3 Then said the LORD unto me, What seest thou, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and the evil, very evil, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

4 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

5 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Like these good figs, so will I acknowledge [†] them that are carried away captive of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans for their good.

6 For I will set mine eyes upon them for good, and I will bring them again to this land: and ^e I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up.

7 And I will give them^d an heart to know me, that I am the LORD; and they^e shall be my people, and I will be their God: for they shall return unto me with their whole heart.

8 ¶ And as the evil^f figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so evil; surely thus saith the LORD, So will I give Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, that remain in this land, and ^g them that dwell in the land of Egypt;

9 And I will deliver them^h to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for their hurt,ⁱ to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt^j and a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them.

10 And I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them, till they be consumed from off the land that I gave unto them and to their fathers.

1 Jeremiah, reproving the Jews' disobedience to the prophets, 8 foretelleth the seventy years captivity, 12 and the succeeding destruction of Babylon. 15 Nations overthrown.

THE word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah^a in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that was the first year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon;

2 The which Jeremiah the prophet spake unto all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying,

3 ^b From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, even unto this day, (that is the three and twentieth year,) the word of the LORD hath come unto me, and I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; ^c but ye have not hearkened.

9 Behold, I will send and take ^fall the families of the north, saith the LORD, and Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, ^gmy servant, and will bring ^hthem against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, and ^hmake them an astonishment, and an hissing, and perpetual desolations.

11 And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years.

12 ¶ And it shall come to pass, ^kwhen seventy years are accomplished, that I will [†]punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, saith the LORD, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans, [†]and will make it perpetual desolations.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 Jeremiah, exhorting to repentance, 8 is apprehended, 10 and arraigned before the princes : 12 his apology : 16 he is acquitted in judgment.

IN the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, came this word from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, Stand in the court of the LORD's house, and speak unto all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD's house, all the words that I command thee to speak unto them ; ^a diminish not a word :

3 If so be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way, that I may ^brepent me of the evil which I purpose to do unto them because of the evil of their doings.

4 And thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, If ye will not hearken to me, to walk in my law, which I have set before you,

5 To hearken to the words of my servants the prophets, ^c whom I sent unto you, both rising up early, and sending them, but ye have not hearkened ;

6 Then will I make this house like ^dShiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth.

7 So the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.

8 ¶ Now it came to pass, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak unto all the people, that the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, took him, saying, Thou shalt surely die.

9 Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant ? And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

10 ¶ When the princes of Judah heard these things, then they came up from the king's house unto the house of the LORD, and sat down || in the entry of the new gate of the LORD's house.

11 Then spake the priests and the prophets unto the princes, and to all the people, saying, † This man is worthy to die ; for he hath prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with your ears.

12 ¶ Then spake Jeremiah unto all the princes, and to all the people, saying, The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house, and against this city, all the words that ye have heard.

13 Therefore now ^eamend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God ; and the LORD will ^frepent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you.

14 As for me, behold, I am in your hand ; do with me † as seemeth good and meet unto you.

15 But know ye for certain, that if ye put me to death, ye shall surely bring innocent blood upon yourselves, and upon this city, and upon the inhabitants thereof : for of a truth the LORD hath sent me unto you, to speak all these words in your ears.

16 ¶ Then said the princes and all the people unto the priests, and to the prophets, This man is not worthy to die : for he hath spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God.

17 Then rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spake to all the assembly of the people, saying,

18 ^gMicah the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spake to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, ^hZion shall be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.

20 And there was also a man that prophesied in the name of the LORD, Urijah the son of Shemaiah of Kirjath-jearim, who prophesied against this city, and against this land, according to all the words of Jeremiah:

21 And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death: but when Urijah heard it, he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt;

22 And Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt, namely, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him, into Egypt:

CHAP. XXVII.

Under the type of bonds and yokes he prophesieth the subduing of the neighbouring kings unto Nebuchadnezzar.

IN the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah ^a king of Judah, came this word unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus || saith the LORD to me, Make thee bonds and yokes, ^b and put them upon thy neck,

3 And send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the Ammonites, and to the king of Tyrus, and to the king of Zidon, by the hand of the messengers which come to Jerusalem unto Zedekiah king of Judah;

4 And command them || to say unto their masters, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Thus shall ye say unto your masters;

5 ^c I have made the earth, the man and the beast that are upon the ground, by my great power, and by my outstretched arm, and ^d have given it unto whom it seemed meet unto me.

6 And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, ^e my servant; and ^f the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him.

7 ^g And all nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, ^h until the very time of his land come; ⁱ and then many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of him.

8 And it shall come to pass, that the nation and kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, saith the LORD, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand.

9 Therefore hearken not ye to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your † dreamers, nor to your enchanters, nor to your sorcerers, which speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon:

10 For they prophesy a lie unto you, to remove you far from your land; and that I should drive you out, and ye should perish.

11 But the nations that bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, those will I let remain still in their own land, saith the LORD; and they shall till it, and dwell therein.

12 ¶ I spake also to ^k Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live.

13 Why will ye die, thou and thy people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD hath spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon?

14 Therefore hearken not unto the words of the prophets that speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon: for they prophesy ^l a lie unto you.

15 For I have not sent them, saith the LORD, yet they prophesy † a lie in my name; that I might drive you out, and that ye might perish, ye, and the prophets that prophesy unto you.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 Hananiah's false prophecy : 10 he breaketh Jeremiah's yoke. 12 Jeremiah foretelleth of an iron yoke, 15 and Hananiah's death.

AND ^a it came to pass the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, and in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of Azur the prophet, which was of Gibeon, spake unto me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, ^b I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon.

3 ^c Within [†] two full years will I bring again into this place all the vessels of the LORD's house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried them to Babylon :

4 And I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, with all the [†] captives of Judah, that went into Babylon, saith the LORD : for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.

5 ¶ Then the prophet Jeremiah said unto the prophet Hananiah, in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people that stood in the house of the LORD,

6 Even the prophet Jeremiah said, ^d Amen : the LORD do so ; the LORD perform thy words which thou hast prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the LORD's house, and all that is carried away captive, from Babylon into this place.

7 Nevertheless, hear thou now this word that I speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the people ;

8 The prophets that have been before me and before thee of old, prophesied both against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence.

9 ^e The prophet which prophesieth of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, then shall the prophet be known, that the LORD hath truly sent him.

10 ¶ Then Hananiah the prophet took the ^f yoke from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and brake it.

11 And Hananiah spake in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon ^g from the neck of all nations within the space of two full years. And the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

12 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the prophet, (after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah,) saying, 13 Go and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Thou hast broken the yokes of wood ; but thou shalt make for them yokes of iron.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, ^h I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon ; and they shall serve him : and ⁱ I have given him the beasts of the field also.

15 ¶ Then said the prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah, The LORD hath not sent thee ; but thou makest this people to trust in a lie :

16 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will cast thee from off the face of the earth : this year thou shalt die, because thou hast taught ^k [†] rebellion against the LORD.

3 For, lo, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will bring again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, saith the LORD; and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.

4 ¶ And these are the words that the LORD spake concerning Israel, and concerning Judah.

5 For thus saith the LORD, We have heard a voice of trembling, || of fear, and not of peace.

6 Ask ye now, and see whether [†] a man doth travail with child? wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, ^a as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness?

7 ^b Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it.

8 For it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will break his yoke from off thy neck, and will burst thy bonds, and strangers shall no more serve themselves of him:

11 For I am with thee, saith the LORD, to save thee: ^e though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered thee, yet will I not make a full end of thee; but I will correct thee ^f in measure, and will not leave thee altogether unpunished.

8 Behold, I will bring them ^g from the north country, and gather them from the coasts of the earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her that travaileth with child together: a great company shall return thither.

17 And there is hope in thine end, saith the LORD, that thy children shall come again to their own border.

18 ¶ I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus; Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised, as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke: ^o turn thou me, and I shall be turned; for thou art the LORD my God.

19 Surely ^p after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did bear the reproach of my youth.

20 Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a pleasant child? for since I spake against him, I do earnestly remember him still; ^q therefore my bowels [†] are troubled for him: ^r I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the LORD.

21 Set thee up way-marks, make these high heaps: set thine heart toward the highway, even the way which thou wentest: turn again, O virgin of Israel, turn again to these thy cities.

22 ¶ How long wilt thou ^s go about, O thou backsliding daughter? for the LORD hath created a new thing in the earth, A woman shall compass a man.

23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, As yet they shall use this speech in the land of Judah, and in the cities thereof, when I shall bring again their captivity, The LORD bless thee, O habitation of justice, and mountain of holiness.

24 And there shall dwell in Judah itself, and in all the cities thereof together, husbandmen, and they that go forth with flocks.

25 For I have satiated the weary soul, and I have replenished every sorrowful soul.

26 Upon this I awaked, and beheld; and my sleep was sweet unto me.

27 ¶ Behold, the days come, ^t saith the LORD, that ^u I will sow the house of Israel, and the house of Judah, with the seed of man, and with the seed of beast.

28 And it shall come to pass, that like as I have watched over them, to pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict; so will I watch over them, to build, and to plant, saith the LORD.

29 ^x In those days they shall say no more, The fathers have eaten a sour grape, and the children's teeth are set on edge.

30 But every one shall die for his own iniquity: every man that eateth the sour grape, his teeth shall be set on edge.

31 ¶ Behold, the ^y days come, saith the LORD, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah;

32 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers, in the day that I took them by the hand, to bring them out of the land of Egypt: (which my covenant they brake, ^{||} although I was an husband unto them, saith the LORD:)

33 ^z But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the LORD, ^a I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; ^b and will be their God, and they shall be my people.

34 And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD: ^c for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the LORD: for ^d I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.

35 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, ^e which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, which divideth ^f the sea when the waves thereof roar; The LORD of hosts is his name:

36 ^g If those ordinances depart from before me, saith the LORD, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever.

37 Thus saith the LORD, If ^h heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, saith the LORD.

38 ¶ Behold, ⁱ the days come, saith the LORD, that the city shall be built to the LORD, ^k from the tower of Hananeel unto the gate of the corner.

39 ^l And the measuring-line shall yet go forth over against it upon the hill Gareb, and shall compass about to Goath.

THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, (*when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth † of his dominion, and all the people, fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities thereof,) saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, ^b Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and ^c he shall burn it with fire:

3 And thou shalt not escape out of his hand, but shalt surely be ^d taken, and delivered into his hand; and thine eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and † he shall speak with thee mouth to mouth, and thou shalt go to Babylon.

4 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of thee, Thou shalt not die by the sword;

5 But thou shalt die in peace: and with ^e the burnings of thy fathers, the former kings which were before thee, ^f so shall they burn odours for thee; and ^g they will lament thee, saying, Ah lord! for I have pronounced the word, saith the LORD.

6 Then Jeremiah the prophet spake all these words unto Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem, 7 When the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish, and against Azekah: for these defended cities remained of the cities of Judah.

8 ¶ This is the word that came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people which were at Jerusalem, to proclaim ^h liberty unto them;

9 † That every man should let his man-servant, and every man his maid-servant, being an Hebrew or an Hebrewess, go free; that none should serve himself of them, to wit, of a Jew his brother.

10 Now, when all the princes, and all the people, which had entered into the covenant, heard that every one should let his man-servant, and every one his maid-servant, go free, that none should serve themselves of them any more; then they obeyed, and let them go.

11 But afterward they turned, and caused the servants and the hand-maids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for hand-maids.

12 ¶ Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

13 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bond-men, saying,

14 At the end of ^k seven years let ye go every man his brother an Hebrew, which || hath been sold unto thee; and when he hath served thee six years, thou shalt let him go free from thee: but your fathers hearkened not unto me, neither inclined their ear.

15 And ye were † now turned, and had done right in my sight, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbour; and ye had made a covenant before me in the house † which is called by my name:

16 But ye turned, and polluted my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom he had set at liberty at their pleasure, to return, and brought them into subjection, to be unto you for servants and for handmaids.

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Ye have not hearkened unto me, in proclaiming liberty, every one to his brother, and every man to his neighbour: behold, I proclaim a liberty for you, saith the LORD, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you † to be ^l removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

21 And Zedekiah king of Judah, and his princes, will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, ^o which are gone up from you.

22 ^p Behold, I will command, saith the LORD, and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire: and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation without an inhabitant.

CHAP. XXXV.

1 By the obedience of the Rechabites, 12 the Jews' disobedience is condemned. 18 The Rechabites blessed.

THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying,

2 ^a Go unto the house of the Rechabites, and speak unto them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, into one of the chambers, and give them wine to drink.

3 Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habaziniah, and his brethren, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites;

4 And I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan the son of Igdaliah, a man of God, which was by the chamber of the princes, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the keeper of the [†] door:

5 And I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites pots full of wine, and cups; and I said unto them, Drink ye wine.

6 But they said, We will drink no wine: for ^b Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, commanded us, saying, Ye shall drink no wine, neither ye, nor your sons for ever:

7 Neither shall ye build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any: but all your days ye shall dwell in tents: ^c that ye may live many days in the land where ye be strangers.

8 Thus have we obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, in all that he hath charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters;

9 Nor to build houses for us to dwell in: neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed;

10 But we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us.

11 But it came to pass, when Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians: so we dwell at Jerusalem.

12 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

13 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Go and tell the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will ye not receive instruction to hearken to my words? saith the LORD.

14 The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are performed; for unto this day they drink none, but obey their father's commandment: ^d notwithstanding I have spoken unto you, ^e rising early and speaking; but ye hearkened not unto me.

15 I have sent also unto you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, ^f Return ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other [†] gods to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers; but ye have not inclined your ear, nor hearkened unto me.

16 Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father, which he commanded them; but this people hath not hearkened unto me:

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, all the evil that I have pronounced against them: because I have spoken unto them, but they have not heard; and I have called unto them, but they have not answered.

18 ¶ And Jeremiah said unto the house of the Rechabites, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Because ye have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according unto all that he hath commanded you;

19 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, [†] Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not want a man to stand before me for ever.

13 Then Michaiah declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people.

14 Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the roll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the roll in his hand, and came unto them.

15 And they said unto him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read it in their ears.

16 Now it came to pass, when they had heard all the words, they were afraid, both one and other, and said unto Baruch, We will surely tell the king of all these words.

17 And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How didst thou write all these words at his mouth?

18 Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book.

19 Then said the princes unto Baruch, Go, hide thee, thou and Jeremiah, and let no man know where ye be.

20 ¶ And they went in to the king into the court, but they laid up the roll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king.

21 So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the roll; and he took it out of Elishama the scribe's chamber: and Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes which stood beside the king.

the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebu-chadrezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah.

2 ^b But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, did hearken

3 And Zedekiah the king sent Je-

4 Now Jeremiah came in and went not put him into prison.

5 Then ^d Pharaoh's army was come forth out of Egypt: ^e and when the Chaldeans that besieged Jerusalem heard tidings of them, they departed from Jerusalem.

6 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto the prophet Jeremiah, saying,

king of Judah, [†] that sent you unto me to enquire of me, Behold, Pha-

10 For though ye had smitten the 18 Moreover, Jeremiah said unto king Zedekiah, What have I offended against thee, or against thy servants, or against this people, that ye have put me in prison?

THEN Shephatiah the son of Mat-tan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashur, and Jucal the son of Shele-miah, and Pashur the son of Malchiah, ^a heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken unto all the people, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, ^b He that remaineth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth forth to the Chaldeans shall live; for he shall have his life for a prey, and shall live.

3 Thus saith the LORD, This city shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which shall take it.

4 Therefore the princes said unto the king, We beseech thee, let this man be put to death; for thus he weakeneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them: for this man seeketh not the † welfare of this people, but the hurt.

5 Then Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand: for the king is not he that can do any thing against you.

6 ^c Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah the son || of Hammelech, that was in the court of the prison: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire: so Jeremiah sunk in the mire.

7 ¶ ^d Now, when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs which was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dun-geon, (the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin,)

8 Ebed-melech went forth out of the king's house, and spake to the king, saying,

9 My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and † he is like to die for hunger in the place where he is: for there is no more bread in the city.

10 Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men † with thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he die.

11 So Ebed-melech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence old cast clouts and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah.

12 And Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, Put now these old cast clouts and rotten rags under thine arm-holes under the cords. And Jeremiah did so.

13 ^e So they drew up Jeremiah with cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained ^f in the court of the prison.

monites, and in Edom, and that were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan ;

12 Even all the Jews returned out of all places whither they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, unto Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer-fruits very much.

13 ¶ Moreover, Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, 14 And said unto him, Dost thou certainly know that Baalis the king of the Ammonites hath sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah † to slay thee ? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam believed them not.

15 Then Johanan the son of Kareah spake to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, Let me go, I pray thee, and I will slay Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it : wherefore should he slay thee, that all the Jews which are gathered unto thee should be scattered, and the remnant in Judah perish ?

16 But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said unto Johanan the son of Kareah, Thou shalt not do this thing ; for thou speakest falsely of Ishmael.

CHAP. XLI.

1 Ishmael treacherously killeth Gedaliah and others. 11 Johanan recovereth the captives.

NOW it came to pass in the seventh month, ^a that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the seed-royal, and the princes of the king, even ten men with him, came unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah ; and there they did eat bread together in Mizpah.

2 Then arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men that were with him, and ^b smote Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, with the sword, and slew him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land.

3 Ishmael also slew all the Jews that were with him, even with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans that were found there, and the men of war.

4 And it came to pass, the second day after he had slain Gedaliah, and no man knew it,

5 That there came certain from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even fourscore men, having their beards shaven, and their clothes rent, and having cut themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand, to bring them to the house of the Lord.

6 And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, † weeping all along as he went : and it came to pass, as he met them, he said unto them, Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam.

7 And it was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah slew them, and cast them into the midst of the pit, he, and the men that were with him.

8 But ten men were found among them that said unto Ishmael, Slay us not ; for we have treasures in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he forbore, and slew them not among their brethren.

9 Now the pit wherein Ishmael had cast all the dead bodies of the men (whom he had slain || † because of Gedaliah) was it ^c which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel ; and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with them that were slain.

10 Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people that were in Mizpah, ^d even the king's daughters, and all the people that remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam : and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to the Ammonites.

11 ¶ But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, 12 Then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by ^e the great waters that are in Gibeon.

13 Now it came to pass, that when all the people which were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah ; and all the captains of the forces that were with him, then they were glad.

14 So all the people that Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah cast about, and returned, and went unto Johanan the son of Kareah :

15 But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the Ammonites.

1 Johanan carrieth Jeremiah into Egypt. 8 Jeremiah by a type prophesieth the conquest of Egypt by the Babylonians.

AND it came to pass, that when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking unto all the people all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these words,

2^a Then spake Azariah the son of Hoshaiiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men, saying unto Jeremiah, Thou speakest falsely; the LORD our God hath not sent thee to say, Go not into Egypt to sojourn there:

3 But Baruch the son of Neriah setteth thee on against us, for to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they might put us to death, and carry us away captives into Babylon.

4 So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, obeyed not the voice of the LORD, to dwell in the land of Judah:

5 But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, that were returned from all nations whither they had been driven, to dwell in the land of Judah;

6 Even men, and women, and children, ^b and the king's daughters, ^c and every person that Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah.

7 So they came into the land of Egypt: for they obeyed not the voice of the LORD. Thus came they even to ^d Tahpanhes.

8 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,

9 Take great stones in thine hand, and hide them in the clay in the brick-kiln, which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah;

10 And say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, ^e my servant, and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them.

11^f And when he cometh, he shall smite the land of Egypt, and deliver ^g such as are for death, to death; and such as are for captivity, to captivity; and such as are for the sword, to the sword.

12 And I will kindle a fire in the houses of the † gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and carry them away captives; and he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd putteth on his garment; and he shall go forth from thence in peace.

Kiriathaim is confounded and taken; || Misgab is confounded and dismayed.

2 There shall be no more praise of Moab: in Heshbon they have devised evil against it; come, and let us cut it off from being a nation: also thou shalt be || cut down, O Madmen; the sword shall † pursue thee.

3 A voice of crying shall be from Horonaim, spoiling and great destruction.

4 Moab is destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard.

5 For in the going up of Luhith † continual weeping shall go up; for in the going down of Horonaim the enemies have heard a cry of destruction.

6 Flee, save your lives, and be like || the ^c heath in the wilderness.

7 ¶ For because thou hast trusted in thy works, and in thy treasures, thou shalt also be taken: and ^a Chemosh shall go forth into captivity with his ^e priests and his princes together.

8 And the spoiler shall come upon every city, and no city shall escape; the valley also shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed, as the LORD hath spoken.

9 Give wings unto Moab, that it may flee and get away: for the cities thereof shall be desolate, without any to dwell therein.

10 ^f Cursed be he that doeth the work of the LORD || deceitfully, and cursed be he that keepeth back his sword from blood.

11 ¶ Moab hath been at ease from his youth, and he ^g hath settled on his lees, and hath not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither hath he gone into captivity; therefore his taste † remained in him, and his scent is not changed.

12 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will send unto him wanderers, that shall cause him to wander, and shall empty his vessels, and break their bottles.

13 And Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of ^h Beth-el their confidence.

14 ¶ How say ye, ⁱ We are mighty and strong men for the war?

15 Moab is spoiled, and gone up out of her cities, and † his chosen young men are gone down to the slaughter, saith the King, whose name is The LORD of hosts.

16 The calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction hasteth fast.

17 All ye that are about him, be-moan him; and all ye that know his name, say, How is the strong staff broken, and the beautiful rod!

18 ^k Thou daughter that dost in-habit Dibon, come down from thy glory, and sit in thirst; for the spoiler of Moab shall come upon thee, and he shall destroy thy strong holds.

19 O † inhabitant of Aroer, stand by the way, and espy; ask him that fleeth, and her that escapeth, and say, What is done?

20 Moab is confounded; for it is broken down: ^l howl and cry; tell ye it in Arnon, that Moab is spoiled,

21 And judgment is come upon the plain country; upon Holon, and upon Jahazah, and upon Mephaath,

22 And upon Dibon, and upon Nebo, and upon Beth-diblathaim,

23 And upon Kiriathaim, and upon Beth-gamul, and upon Beth-meon, 24 And upon Kerioth, and upon Bozrah, and upon all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near.

25 ^m The horn of Moab is cut off, ⁿ Pa. 75. 16. and his arm is broken, saith the LORD.

26 ¶ ⁿ Make ye him drunken; for he magnified himself against the LORD: Moab also shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision.

27 For ^o was not Israel a derision unto thee? was he found among thieves? for since thou spakest of him, thou || skippedst for joy.

28 O ye that dwell in Moab, leave the cities, and † dwell in the rock, and be like the dove that maketh her nest in the sides of the hole's mouth.

29 We have heard the ^q pride of Moab, (he is exceeding proud,) his loftiness, and his arrogance, and his pride, and the haughtiness of his heart.

30 I know his wrath, saith the LORD: but it shall not be so; ^r || his lies shall not so effect it.

31 Therefore ^s will I howl for Moab, and I will cry out for all Moab; mine heart shall mourn for the men of Kir-hibem.

32 ^t O vine of Sibmah, I will weep for thee with the weeping of Jazer: thy plants are gone over the sea, they reach even to the sea of Jazer: the spoiler is fallen upon thy summer-fruits, and upon thy vintage.

33 And ^u joy and gladness is taken from the plentiful field, and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to fail from the wine-presses: none shall tread with shouting; their shouting shall be no shouting.

35 Moreover, I will cause to cease in Moab, saith the LORD, ^zhim that offereth in the high places, and him that burneth incense to his [†]gods.

36 Therefore ^amine heart shall sound for Moab like pipes, and mine heart shall sound like pipes for the men of Kir-heres: because ^bthe riches that he hath gotten are perished.

37 For ^cevery head shall be bald, and every beard [†]clipped: upon all the hands shall be cuttings, and upon the loins sackcloth.

38 There shall be lamentation generally upon all the house-tops of Moab, and in the streets thereof: for I have broken Moab like ^da vessel wherein is no pleasure, saith the LORD.

39 They shall howl, saying, How is it broken down! how hath Moab turned the [†]back with shame! so shall Moab be a derision and a dismaying to all them about him.

44 He that fleeth from the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that getteth up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for I will bring upon it, even upon Moab, the year of their visitation, saith the LORD.

45 They that fled stood under the shadow of Heshbon because of the force: but ^ha fire shall come forth out of Heshbon, and a flame from the midst of Sihon, and ⁱshall devour the corner of Moab, and the crown of the head of the [†]tumultuous ones.

1 The judgment of the Ammonites, 7 of Edom, 23 of Damascus, 28 of Kedar, 30 of Hazor, 34 and of Elam.

|| CONCERNING ^athe Ammonites, thus saith the LORD, Hath Israel no sons? hath he no heir? why then doth || their king inherit ^bGad, and his people dwell in his cities?

2 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard in ^cRabbah of the Ammonites; and it shall be a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burnt with fire: then shall Israel be heir unto them that were his heirs, saith the LORD.

3 Howl, O Heshbon, for Ai is spoiled: cry, ye daughters of Rabbah, ^dgird you with sackcloth; lament, and run to and fro by the hedges; for || their king shall go into captivity, and his ^epriests and his princes together.

4 Wherefore gloriest thou in the valleys, || thy flowing valley, O backsliding daughter? that trusted in her treasures, ^f*saying*, Who shall come unto me?

5 Behold, I will bring a fear upon thee, saith the Lord God of hosts, from all those that be about thee; and ye shall be driven out every man right forth; and none shall gather up him that wandereth.

6 And ^gafterward I will bring again the captivity of the children of Ammon, saith the LORD.

7 || ^hConcerning Edom, thus saith the LORD of hosts, ⁱ*Is* wisdom no more in Teman? is counsel perished from the prudent? is their wisdom vanished?

8 ^kFlee ye, || turn back, dwell deep, O inhabitants of ^lDedan; for I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him, the time that I will visit him.

9 If ^mgrape-gatherers come to thee, would they not leave some gleanings? if thieves by night, they will destroy [†]till they have enough.

10 But I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his seed is spoiled, and his brethren, and his neighbours, and he is not.

CHAP. L.

1, 9, 21, 35 The judgment of Babylon.

4, 17, 33 The redemption of Israel.

T^aHE word that the LORD spake against Babylon, and against the land of the Chaldeans, [†]by Jeremiah the prophet.

2 Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and [†]set up a standard; publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, ^bBel is confounded, Mero-dach is broken in pieces; her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces.

3 ^cFor out of the north there cometh up a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein: they shall remove, they shall depart, both man and beast.

4 ¶ In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together, ^dgoing and weeping; they shall go, and seek the LORD their God.

5 They shall ask the way to Zion, with their faces thitherward, saying, Come, and let us join ourselves to the LORD in ^ea perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten.

6 My people hath been lost sheep; their shepherds have caused them to go astray, they have turned them away on the mountains: they have gone from mountain to hill, they have forgotten their [†]resting-place.

7 All that found them have devoured them; and ^ftheir adversaries said, ^gWe offend not, because they have sinned against the LORD, ^hthe habitation of justice; even the LORD, the hope of their fathers.

8 ⁱRemove out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the he-goats before the flocks.

9 ¶ ^kFor, lo, I will raise, and cause to come up against Babylon, an assembly of great nations from the north country: and they shall set themselves in array against her; from thence she shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of a mighty || expert man; none shall return in vain.

10 And Chaldea shall be a spoil: ^lall that spoil her shall be satisfied, saith the LORD.

11 Because ye were glad, because ye rejoiced, O ye destroyers of mine heritage; because ye are grown [†]fat ^mas the heifer at grass, and || bellow as bulls;

12 Your mother shall be sore confounded; she that bare you shall be ashamed: behold, the hindermost of the nations shall be a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert.

13 Because of the wrath of the LORD it shall not be inhabited, ⁿbut it shall be wholly desolate: ^oevery one that goeth by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues.

14 ^pPut yourselves in array against Babylon round about: all ye that bend the bow, shoot at her, spare no arrows; for she hath sinned against the LORD.

15 Shout against her round about; she hath given her hand: her foundations are fallen, her walls are thrown down; for ^qit is the vengeance of the LORD: take vengeance upon her; ^ras she hath done, do unto her.

16 Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him that handleth the || sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword ^sthey shall turn every one to his people, and they shall flee every one to his own land.

17 ¶ ^tIsrael is a scattered sheep; the lions have driven him away: first the king of Assyria hath devoured him; and last this Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath broken his bones.

18 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria.

19 And I will bring Israel again to his habitation, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied upon mount Ephraim and Gilead.

20 In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I reserve.

29 Call together the archers against Babylon: all ye that bend the bow, camp against it round about; let none thereof escape: ^zrecompense her according to her work; according to all that she hath done, do unto her: for she hath been proud against the LORD, against the Holy One of Israel.

30 ^aTherefore shall her young men fall in the streets, and all her men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD.

31 Behold, I am against thee, O thou † most proud, saith the † Lord God of hosts: for thy day is come, the time that I will visit thee.

32 And † the most proud shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up: and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all round about him.

33 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, The children of Israel and the children of Judah were oppressed together: and all that took them captives held them fast; they refused to let them go.

34 ^bTheir Redeemer is strong; The LORD of hosts is his name: he shall thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.

35 ¶ A sword is upon the Chaldeans, saith the LORD, and upon the inhabitants of Babylon, and upon her princes, and upon her wise men.

36 A sword is ^cupon the || † liars; and they shall dote: a sword is upon her mighty men; and they shall be dismayed.

37 A sword is upon their horses, and upon their chariots, and upon all ^dthe mingled people that are in the midst of her; and ^ethey shall become as women: a sword is upon her treasures; and they shall be robbed.

38 ^fA drought is upon her waters; and they shall be dried up: for it is the land of graven images, and they are mad upon their idols.

39 ^gTherefore the wild beasts of the desert, with the wild beasts of the islands, shall dwell there, and the owls shall dwell therein: ^hand it shall be no more inhabited for ever; neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation.

40 ⁱAs God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD; so shall no man abide there, neither shall any son of man dwell therein.

41 ^kBehold, a people shall come from the north, and a great nation; and many kings shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth.

42 They shall hold the bow and the lance; they are cruel, and will not shew mercy: ^ltheir voice shall roar like the sea, and they shall ride upon horses, every one put in array, like a man to the battle, against thee, O daughter of Babylon.

43 The king of Babylon hath heard the report of them, and his hands waxed feeble: ^manguish took hold of him, and pangs, as of a woman in travail.

44 Behold, he shall come up ⁿlike a lion from the swelling of Jordan unto the habitation of the strong; but I will make them suddenly run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like me? and who will || appoint me the time? and ^owho is that shepherd that will stand before me?

26 And they shall not take of thee a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but thou shalt be desolate for ever, saith the LORD.

27 Set ye up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, prepare the nations against her, call together against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashchenaz; appoint a captain against her; cause the horses to come up as the rough caterpillars.

28 Prepare against her the nations, with the kings of the Medes, the captains thereof, and all the rulers thereof, and all the land of his dominion.

29 And the land shall tremble and sorrow: for every purpose of the LORD shall be performed against Babylon, to make the land of Babylon a desolation without an inhabitant.

30 The mighty men of Babylon have forborne to fight, they have remained in their holes: their might hath failed; they became as women: they have burnt her dwelling-places; her bars are broken.

31 One post shall run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to shew the king of Babylon that his city is taken at one end;

32 And that the passages are stopped, and the reeds they have burnt with fire, and the men of war are affrighted.

33 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, The daughter of Babylon is like a thrashing-floor, it is time to thrash her: yet a little while, and the time of her harvest shall come.

34 Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon hath devoured me, he hath crushed me, he hath made me an empty vessel, he hath swallowed me up like a dragon, he hath filled his belly with my delicates, he hath cast me out.

35 The violence done to me and to my flesh be upon Babylon, shall the inhabitant of Zion say; and, My blood upon the inhabitants of Chaldea, shall Jerusalem say.

36 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will plead thy cause, and take vengeance for thee; and I will dry up her sea, and make her springs dry.

37 And Babylon shall become heaps, a dwelling-place for dragons, an astonishment, and an hissing, without an inhabitant.

38 They shall roar together like lions: they shall yell as lions' whelps.

39 In their heat I will make their feasts, and I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the LORD.

40 I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he-goats.

41 How is Sheshach taken! and how is the praise of the whole earth surprised! how is Babylon become an astonishment among the nations!

42 The sea is come up upon Babylon: she is covered with the multitude of the waves thereof.

43 Her cities are a desolation, a dry land, and a wilderness, a land wherein no man dwelleth, neither doth any son of man pass thereby.

44 And I will punish Bel in Babylon; and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath swallowed up: and the nations shall not flow together any more unto him; yea, the wall of Babylon shall fall.

45 My people, go ye out of the midst of her, and deliver ye every man his soul from the fierce anger of the LORD.

46 And I lest your heart faint, and ye fear for the rumour that shall be heard in the land; a rumour shall both come one year, and after that in another year shall come a rumour, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler.

47 Therefore, behold, the days come, that I will do judgment upon the graven images of Babylon; and her whole land shall be confounded, and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her.

48 Then the heaven and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for Babylon: for the spoilers shall come unto her from the north, saith the LORD.

49 As Babylon hath caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all the earth.

17 ⁱ Also the ^k pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the brasen sea that was in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans brake, and carried all the brass of them to Babylon.

19 And the basons, and the || fire-pans, and the bowls, and the caldrons, and the candlesticks, and the spoons, and the cups; that which was of gold in gold, and that which was of silver in silver, took the captain of the guard away.

20 The two pillars, one sea, and twelve brasen bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made in the house of the LORD: ^m † the brass of all these vessels was without weight.

21 And concerning the ⁿ pillars, the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits; and a † fillet of twelve cubits did compass it; and the thickness thereof was four fingers: it was hollow.

pillar also and the pomegranates were like unto these.

23 And there were ninety and six pomegranates on a side; and ^o all the pomegranates upon the net-work were an hundred round about.

1 Jerusalem's misery for her sin: 12 she bemoaneth her afflictions, 18 and confesseth God's judgments to be just, &c.

HOW doth the city sit solitary that was full of people! ^a how is she become as a widow! she that was great among the nations, and princess among the provinces, how is she become tributary!

2 She ^b weepeth sore in the ^c night, and her tears are on her cheeks; ^d among all her lovers ^e she hath none to comfort her: all her friends have dealt treacherously with her; they are become her enemies.

3 Judah is gone into captivity because of affliction, and [†] because of great servitude; she dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest: all her persecutors overtook her between the straits.

4 The ways of Zion do mourn, because none come to the solemn feasts: all her gates are desolate; her priests sigh, her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness.

5 Her adversaries [†] are the chief, her enemies prosper; for the LORD hath afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions: her [‡] children are gone into captivity before the enemy.

6 And from the daughter of Zion all her beauty is departed: her princes are become like harts that find no pasture; and they are gone without strength before the pursuer.

7 Jerusalem remembered in the days of her affliction, and of her miseries, all her || pleasant things that she had in the days of old, when her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and none did help her; the adversaries saw her, and did mock at her sabbaths.

8 Jerusalem hath grievously sinned; therefore she [†] is removed: all that honoured her despise her, because [‡] they have seen her nakedness; yea, she sigheth, and turneth backward.

9 Her filthiness is in her skirts; ¹ she remembereth not her last end; therefore she came down wonderfully: [‡] she had no comforter. O LORD, behold my affliction; for the enemy hath magnified himself.

10 The adversary hath spread out his hand upon all her || pleasant things: for she hath seen that the heathen entered into her sanctuary, whom thou didst command that ¹ they should not enter into thy congregation.

11 All her people sigh, ^m they seek bread; they have given their pleasant things for meat || to relieve the soul: see, O LORD, and consider; for I am become vile.

12 ¶ || Is it nothing to you, all ye that [†] pass by? behold, and see ⁿ if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is done unto me, wherewith the LORD hath afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.

13 From above hath he sent fire into my bones, and it prevaileth against them: he hath spread a net for my feet; he hath turned me back; he hath made me desolate and faint all the day.

14 The yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand; they are wreathed, and come up upon my neck: he hath made my strength to fall; the LORD hath delivered me into their hands, from whom I am not able to rise up.

15 The LORD hath trodden under foot all my mighty men in the midst of me; he hath called an assembly against me to crush my young men: ^o the LORD hath trodden || the virgin, the daughter of Judah, as in a winepress.

16 For these things I weep: ^p mine eye, mine eye runneth down with water, because the comforter that should [†] relieve my soul is far from me; my children are desolate, because the enemy prevailed.

17 ^q Zion spreadeth forth her hands, and there is none to comfort her: the LORD hath commanded concerning Jacob, that his adversaries should be round about him: Jerusalem is as a menstruous woman among them.

18 ¶ || The LORD is ^r righteous; for I have ^s rebelled against his [†] commandment: hear, I pray you, all people, and behold my sorrow; my virgins and my young men are gone into captivity.

19 I called for my lovers, but ^t they deceived me: my priests and mine elders gave up the ghost in the city, while they sought their meat to relieve their souls.

20 Behold, O LORD, for I am in distress; my ^u bowels are troubled: mine heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled: ^x abroad the sword bereaveth, at home there is as death.

21 They have heard that I sigh; there is none to comfort me: all mine ene-

CHAP. II.

1 Jeremiah lamenteth the misery of Jerusalem: 20 he complaineth thereof to God.

HOW hath the LORD covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger, ^a and cast down from heaven unto the earth the beauty of Israel, and remembered not ^b his foot-stool in the day of his anger!

2 The LORD hath swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, ^c and hath not pitied: he hath thrown down in his wrath the strong holds of the daughter of Judah; he hath [†] brought them down to the ground: he hath polluted the kingdom and the princes thereof.

3 He hath cut off in his fierce anger all the horn of Israel: ^d he hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, ^e and he burned against Jacob like a flaming fire, which devoureth round about.

4 He hath bent his bow like an enemy: he stood with his right hand as an adversary, and slew [†] all that were pleasant to the eye in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion: he poured out his fury like fire.

5 The LORD was as an enemy: he hath swallowed up Israel, he hath swallowed up all her palaces; he hath destroyed his strong holds, and hath increased in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

6 And he hath violently ^f taken away his || tabernacle, ^g as if it were of a garden; he hath destroyed his places of the assembly: ^h the LORD hath caused the solemn feasts and sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, and hath despised, in the indignation of his anger, the king and the priest.

7 The LORD hath cast off his altar; he hath abhorred his sanctuary: he hath [†] given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces; ⁱ they have made a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn feast.

8 The LORD hath purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion; ^k he hath stretched out a line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from [†] destroying: therefore he made the rampart and the wall to lament; they languished together.

9 Her gates are sunk into the ground; he hath destroyed and broken her bars; ^l her king and her princes are among the Gentiles: the law is no more; her ^m prophets also find no vision from the LORD.

10 The elders of the daughter of Zion ⁿ sit upon the ground, and keep silence: they have ^o cast up dust upon their heads; they have girded themselves with sackcloth: the virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.

11 ^p Mine eyes do fail with tears, ^q my bowels are troubled, my liver is poured upon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people; because ^r the children and the sucklings || swoon in the streets of the city.

12 They say to their mothers, Where is corn and wine? when they swooned as the wounded in the streets of the city, when their soul was poured out into their mother's bosom.

13 What thing shall I take to witness for thee? what thing shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem? what shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion? for thy breach is great like the sea; who can heal thee?

14 Thy ^s prophets have seen vain and foolish things for thee: and they have not discovered thine iniquity, to turn away thy captivity; but have seen for thee false burdens, and causes of banishment.

15 ^t All that pass [†] by ^u clap their hands at thee; they hiss ^x and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call ^v The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth?

16 ^z All thine enemies have opened their mouth against thee; they hiss and gnash the teeth: they say, We have swallowed her up: certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it.

17 The LORD hath done that which he had ^a devised; he hath fulfilled his word that he had commanded in the days of old: ^b he hath thrown down, and hath not pitied; and he hath caused thine enemy to rejoice over thee; he hath set up the horn of thine adversaries.

18 Their heart cried unto the LORD, O wall of the daughter of Zion, ^c let tears run down like a river day and 19 Arise, cry out in the night; in the beginning of the watches ^d pour out thine heart like water before the face of the LORD: lift up thy hands toward him for the life of thy young children, ^e that faint for hunger in the top of every street.

20 ¶ Behold, O LORD, and consider to whom thou hast done this.

21 The young and the old lie on the ground in the streets: my virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword; ^h thou hast slain them in the day of thine anger; thou hast killed, and not pitied.

22 Thou hast called, as in a solemn day, my terrors round about; so that in the day of the LORD's anger none escaped nor remained: those that I have swaddled and brought up hath mine enemy consumed.

CHAP. III.

The prophet bewaileth his calamities.

I AM the man that hath seen affliction by the rod of his wrath.

2 He hath led me, and brought me into darkness, but not into light.

3 Surely against me is he turned; he turneth his hand against me all the day.

4 My flesh and my skin hath he made old; he hath broken my bones.

5 He hath builded against me, and compassed me with gall and travail.

6 ^a He hath set me in dark places, as they that be dead of old.

7 ^b He hath hedged me about, that I cannot get out; he hath made my chain heavy.

8 Also when I cry and shout, he shutteth out my prayer.

9 He hath inclosed my ways with hewn stone; he hath made my paths crooked.

10 ^c He was unto me as a bear lying in wait, and as a lion in secret places.

11 He hath turned aside my ways, and pulled me in pieces: he hath made me desolate.

12 He hath bent his bow, and ^d set me as a mark for the arrow.

13 He hath caused the ^e arrows of his quiver to enter into my reins.

14 I was a ^e derision to all my people, and ^f their song all the day.

15 ^g He hath filled me with ^h bitterness, he hath made me drunken with wormwood.

16 He hath also broken my teeth with gravel-stones, he hath || covered me with ashes.

17 And thou hast removed my soul far off from peace: I forgot ^h prosperity.

18 And I said, My strength and my hope is perished from the LORD:

19 || Remembering mine affliction and my misery, the wormwood and the gall.

20 My soul hath them still in remembrance, and is ⁱ humbled in me.

21 This I ^j recall to my mind, therefore have I hope.

22 ¶ ^k It is of the LORD's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not.

23 They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness.

24 The LORD is ^l my portion, saith my soul; therefore will I hope in him.

25 The LORD is good unto them that wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him.

26 It is good that a man should both hope ^m and quietly wait for the salvation of the LORD.

27 It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.

28 ⁿ He sitteth alone, and keepeth silence, because he hath borne it upon him.

29 He putteth his mouth in the dust, if so be there may be hope.

30 ^o He giveth his cheek to him that smiteth him: he is filled full with reproach.

31 For the LORD will not cast off for ever:

32 But though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion according to the multitude of his mercies.

33 For ^p he doth not afflict ^q willingly, nor grieve the children of men.

34 To crush under his feet all the prisoners of the earth,

35 To turn aside the right of a man before the face of || the most High,

36 To subvert a man in his cause, the LORD || approveth not.

37 ¶ Who is he ^r that saith, and it cometh to pass, when the LORD commandeth it not?

38 Out of the mouth of the most High proceedeth not ^s evil and good?

39 ^t Wherefore doth a living man || complain, ^u a man for the punishment of his sins?

40 Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the LORD.

1 Zion's pitiful estate bewailed: 13 she confesseth her sins. 21 Edom threatened.

HOW is the gold become dim! how is the most fine gold changed! the stones of the sanctuary are poured out ^ain the top of every street.

2 The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, how are they esteemed ^bas earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter!

5 They that did feed delicately are desolate in the streets: they that were brought up in scarlet ^fembrace dunghills.

6 For the || punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the punishment of the sin of Sodom, that was ^goverthrown as in a moment, and no hands stayed on her.

7 Her Nazarites were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk, they were more ruddy in body than rubies, their polishing was of sapphire:

8 Their visage is [†]blacker than a coal; they are not known in the streets: their skin cleaveth to their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick.

Zion's complaint and prayer.

REMEMBER, O LORD, what is come upon us : consider, and behold our reproach.

2 Our inheritance is turned to strangers, our houses to aliens.

3 We are orphans and fatherless, our mothers are as widows.

4 We have drunken our water for money ; our wood [†] is sold unto us.

5 [†] Our necks are under persecution : we labour, and have no rest.

6 ^a We have given the hand to the Egyptians, and to the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread.

7 ^b Our fathers have sinned, and are not ; and we have borne their iniquities.

8 Servants have ruled over us : there is none that doth deliver us out of their hand.

9 We gat our bread with the peril of our lives because of the sword of the wilderness.

10 Our ^c skin was black like an oven because of the || terrible famine.

11 They ravished the women in Zion, and the maids in the cities of Judah.

12 Princes are hanged up by their hand : ^d the faces of elders were not honoured.

13 They took the young men to grind, and the children fell under the wood.

14 The elders have ceased from the gate, the young men from their musick.

15 The joy of our heart is ceased ; our dance is turned into mourning.

16 [†] The crown is fallen from our head : woe unto us, that we have sinned !

17 For this ^e our heart is faint ; ^f for these things our eyes are dim.

18 Because of the mountain of Zion, which is desolate, the foxes walk upon it.

19 Thou, O LORD, ^g remainest for ever ; thy throne from generation to generation.

20 Wherefore dost thou forget us for ever, and forsake us [†] so long time ?

NOW it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the [†] captives. ^a by the river of Chebar, that ^b the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God.

a great cloud, and a fire † in folding itself, and a brightness was about it, and out of the midst thereof as the colour of amber, out of the midst of the fire:

5 ^e Also out of the midst thereof came the likeness of four living creatures. And † this was their appearance; they had the likeness of a man.

6 ^g And every one had four faces, and every one had four wings.

7 And their feet were † straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot: and they sparkled like the colour of burnished brass.

8 And they had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and they four had their faces and their wings.

9 ⁱ Their wings were joined one to another; they turned not when they went; they went every one straight forward.

10 As for ^k the likeness of their faces, ^l they four had the face of a man ^m and the face of a lion on the right side; ⁿ and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; ^o they four also had the face of an eagle.

11 Thus were their faces: and their wings were || stretched upward; two wings of every one were joined one to another, and ^p two covered their bodies.

12 And ^q they went every one straight forward: ^r whither the spirit was to go, they went; and ^s they turned not when they went.

13 As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, ^t and like the appearance of lamps: it went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning.

14 And the living creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning.

15 ¶ Now, as I beheld the living creatures, behold one wheel upon the earth by the living creatures, with his four faces.

16 ^u The appearance of the wheels and their work was like unto the colour of a beryl; and they four had one likeness: and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel in the middle of a wheel.

17 When they went, they went upon their four sides; ^x and they turned not when they went.

18 As for their rings, they were so high that they were dreadful; and their || rings were full of eyes round about them four.

19 And when the living creatures went, the wheels went by them; and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up.

20 ^y Whithersoever the spirit was to go, they went, thither was their spirit to go; and the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit || of the living creature was in || the wheels.

21 ^z When those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit || of the living creature was in the wheels.

22 And the likeness of the firmament upon the heads of the living creature was as the colour of the terrible crystal, stretched forth over their heads above.

23 And under the firmament were their wings straight, the one toward the other: every one had two, which covered on this side, and every one had two, which covered on that side, their bodies.

24 ^a And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, ^b like the noise of great waters, as the voice of the Almighty, the voice of speech, as the noise of an host: when they stood, they let down their wings.

25 And there was a voice from the firmament that was over their heads, when they stood, and had let down their wings.

26 ¶ ^c And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire-stone: and upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man above upon it.

27 ^d And I saw as the colour of amber, as the appearance of fire round about within it; from the appearance of his loins even upward, and from the appearance of his loins even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had brightness round about.

28 ^e As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. ^f This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the Lord. And when I saw it, ^g I fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one that spake.

CHAP. II.

1 Ezekiel's commission : 6 his instructions : 9 the roll of his heavy prophecy.

AND he said unto me, Son of man, stand upon thy feet, and I will speak unto thee.

2 And ^athe spirit entered into me when he spake unto me, and set me upon my feet, that I heard him that spake unto me.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, I send thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious [†]nation that hath rebelled against me : ^bthey and their fathers have transgressed against me, even unto this very day.

4 ^cFor they are [†]impudent children, and stiff-hearted. I do send thee unto them ; and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the [†]Lord God.

5 ^dAnd they, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house,) yet ^eshall know that there hath been a prophet among them.

6 ¶ And thou, son of man, ^fbe not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though || ^gbriers and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions : ^hbe not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, ⁱthough they be a rebellious house.

7 And thou shalt speak my words unto them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear ; for they are [†]most rebellious.

8 But thou, son of man, hear what I say unto thee ; Be not thou rebellious like that rebellious house : open thy mouth, and ^keat that I give thee.

9 ¶ And when I looked, behold, an hand was sent unto me ; and, lo, a roll of a book was therein ;

10 And he spread it before me : and it was written within and without : and there was written therein lamentations, and mourning, and woe.

CHAP. III.

1 Ezekiel eateth the roll : 4 God encourageth him. 15 God sheweth him the rule of prophecy : 22 of his typical bands, and the shutting and opening of his mouth.

MOREOVER, he said unto me, Son of man, eat that thou findest ; ^aeat this roll, and go speak unto the house of Israel.

2 So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat that roll.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, cause thy belly to eat, and fill thy bowels with this roll that I give thee. Then did I ^beat it ; and it was in my mouth as honey for sweetness.

4 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with my words unto them.

5 For thou art not sent to a people [†]of a strange speech, and of an hard language, but to the house of Israel :

6 Not to many people [†]of a strange speech, and of an hard language, whose words thou canst not understand : || surely, had I sent thee to them, they would have hearkened unto thee.

7 But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee ; ^cfor they will not hearken unto me : ^dfor all the house of Israel are [†]impudent and hard-hearted.

8 Behold, I have made thy face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads.

9 ^eAs an adamant, harder than flint, have I made thy forehead : ^ffear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

10 Moreover, he said unto me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak unto thee receive in thine heart, and hear with thine ears.

11 And go, get thee to them of the captivity, unto the children of thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them, ^gThus saith the [†]Lord God, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear.

12 Then ^hthe spirit took me up, and I heard behind me a voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the glory of the LORD from his place.

13 I heard also the noise of the wings of the living creatures that [†]touched one another, and the noise of the wheels over against them, and a noise of a great rushing.

14 So the spirit lifted me up, and took me away, and I went [†]in bitterness, in the [†]heat of my spirit ; but ⁱthe hand of the LORD was strong upon me.

15 ¶ Then I came to them of the captivity at Tel-abib, that dwelt by the river of Chebar, and ^kI sat where they sat, and remained there astonished among them seven days.

16 And it came to pass at the end of seven days, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

CHAP. IV.

By type of a siege is shewed the time from Jeroboam's defection to the captivity.

THOU also, son of man, take thee a tile and lay it before thee, and pourtray upon it the city, even Jerusalem:

2 And lay siege against it, and build a fort against it, and cast a mount against it; set the camp also against it, and set ^{||} battering-rams against it round about.

3 Moreover, take thou unto thee ^{||} an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city; and set thy face against it, and it shall be besieged, and thou shalt lay siege against it. This shall be a sign to the house of Israel.

4 Lie thou also upon thy left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it: according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it thou shalt bear their iniquity.

5 For I have laid upon thee the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days: ² so shalt thou bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

6 And when thou hast accomplished them, lie again on thy right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days: I have appointed thee [†] each day for a year.

7 Therefore thou shalt set thy face toward the siege of Jerusalem, and thine arm shall be uncovered, and thou shalt prophesy against it.

8 ^b And, behold, I will lay bands upon thee, and thou shalt not turn thee [†] from one side to another, till thou hast ended the days of thy siege.

9 ¶ Take thou also unto thee wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentiles, and millet, and ^{||} fitches, and put them in one vessel, and make thee bread thereof, according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon thy side; three hundred and ninety days shalt thou eat thereof.

10 And thy meat which thou shalt eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day: from time to time shalt thou eat it.

11 Thou shalt drink also water by measure, the sixth part of an hin: from time to time shalt thou drink.

12 And thou shalt eat it as barley-cakes, and thou shalt bake it with dung that cometh out of man, in their sight.

13 And the LORD said, Even thus shall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread among the Gentiles, whither I will drive them.

14 Then said I, ^a Ah [†] Lord God! behold, my soul hath not been polluted: for from my youth up, even till now, have I not eaten of ^e that which dieth of itself, or is torn in pieces;

1 Ezekiel's vision of jealousy. 7 The chambers of imagery.

AND it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in mine house, and the elders of Judah sat before me, that ^a the hand of the † Lord GOD fell there upon me.

2 ^b Then I beheld, and lo ^a a likeness as the appearance of fire: from the appearance of his loins, even downward, fire; and from his loins, even upward, as the appearance of brightness, ^c as the colour of amber.

3 And he ^d put forth the form of an hand, and took me by a lock of mine head; and the spirit lifted me up between the earth and the heaven, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner gate that looketh toward the north; where was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provoketh to jealousy.

4 And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I ^e saw in the plain.

5 ¶ Then said he unto me, Son of man, lift up thine eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up mine eyes the way toward the north, and behold northward at the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry.

6 He said furthermore unto me, Son of man, seest thou what they do? even the great abominations that the house of Israel committeth here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary? But turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations.

7 ¶ And he brought me to the door of the court; and, when I looked, behold a hole in the wall.

8 Then said he unto me, Son of man, dig now in the wall: and, when I had digged in the wall, behold a door.

9 And he said unto me, Go in, and behold the wicked abominations that they do here.

6 Ye have multiplied your slain in this city, and ye have filled the streets thereof with the slain.

7 Therefore thus saith the LORD God, Your slain, whom ye have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh, and this city is the caldron: but I will bring you forth out of the midst of it.

8 Ye have feared the sword; and I will bring a sword upon you, saith the LORD God.

9 And I will bring you out of the midst thereof, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgments among you.

10 Ye shall fall by the sword: I will judge you in the border of Israel; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

11 This city shall not be your caldron, neither shall ye be the flesh in the midst thereof; but I will judge you in the border of Israel:

12 And ye shall know that I am the LORD: || for ye have not walked in my statutes, neither executed my judgments, but have done after the manners of the heathen that are round about you.

13 ¶ And it came to pass, when I prophesied, that Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died: then fell I down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, Ah LORD God! wilt thou make a full end of the remnant of Israel?

14 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

15 Son of man, thy brethren, even thy brethren, the men of thy kindred, and all the house of Israel wholly, are they unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Get you far from the LORD; unto us is this land given in possession.

16 Therefore say, Thus saith the LORD God, Although I have cast them far off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countries, yet will I be to them as a little sanctuary in the countries where they shall come.

17 Therefore say, Thus saith the LORD God, I will even gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.

18 And they shall come thither, and they shall take away all the detestable things thereof, and all the abominations thereof, from thence.

19 And I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh;

20 That they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God:

21 But as for them whose heart walketh after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will recompense their way upon their own heads, saith the LORD God.

1 By a wretched infant is shewed the original state of Jerusalem: 6 God's love to her: 35 she is threatened with severe judgments.

AGAIN the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations,

3 And say, Thus saith the [†]Lord God unto Jerusalem, Thy [†]birth ^aand thy nativity is of the land of Canaan; ^bthy father was an Amorite, and thy mother an Hittite.

4 And as for thy nativity, ^cin the day thou wast born thy navel was not cut, neither wast thou washed in water || to supple thee: thou wast not salted at all, nor swaddled at all.

5 None eye pitied thee, to do any of these unto thee, to have compassion upon thee; but thou wast cast out in the open field, to the loathing of thy person, in the day that thou wast born.

6 ¶ And when I passed by thee, and saw thee || polluted in thine own blood, I said unto thee, when thou wast in thy blood, Live; yea, I said unto thee, when thou wast in thy blood, Live.

7 ¶ I have [†]caused thee to multiply as the bud of the field, and thou hast increased and waxen great, and thou art come to [†]excellent ornaments: thy breasts are fashioned, and thine hair is grown, whereas thou wast naked and bare.

8 Now, when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of love; ^eand I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness: yea, I swore unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the [†]Lord God, and thou becamest mine.

9 Then washed I thee with water; yea, I thoroughly washed away thy [†]blood from thee, and I anointed thee with oil.

10 I clothed thee also with brodered work, and shod thee with badgers' skin, and I girded thee about with fine linen, and I covered thee with silk.

11 I decked thee also with ornaments, and I [†]put bracelets upon thy hands, and a chain on thy neck.

12 And I put a jewel on thy [†]forehead, and ear-rings in thine ears, and a beautiful crown upon thine head.

13 Thus wast thou decked with gold and silver; and thy raiment was of fine linen, and silk, and brodered work: thou didst eat fine flour, and honey, and oil; and thou wast exceeding beautiful, and thou didst prosper into a kingdom.

14 And thy renown went forth among the heathen for thy beauty: for it was perfect through my comeliness, which I had put upon thee, saith the [†]Lord God.

15 ¶ But thou didst trust in thine own beauty, ^gand playedst the harlot because of thy renown, and pouredst out thy fornications on every one that passed by; his it was.

16 ^hAnd of thy garments thou didst take, and deckedst thy high places with divers colours, and playedst the harlot thereupon: the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so.

17 Thou hast also taken thy fair jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given thee, and madest to thyself images [†]of men, and didst [†]commit whoredom with them;

18 And tookest thy brodered garments, and coveredst them: and thou hast set mine oil and mine incense before them.

19 My meat also which I gave thee, fine flour, and oil, and honey, where-with I fed thee, thou hast even set it before them for [†]a sweet savour: and thus it was, saith the [†]Lord God.

20 ⁱMoreover, thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, whom thou hast born unto me, and these hast thou sacrificed unto them [†]to be devoured. Is this of thy whoredoms a small matter,

21 That thou hast slain my children, and delivered them to cause them to pass through the fire for them?

22 And in all thine abominations and thy whoredoms thou hast not remembered the days of thy ^kyouth, when thou wast naked and bare, and wast polluted in thy blood.

23 And it came to pass, after all thy wickedness, (woe, woe unto thee! saith the [†]Lord God,)

24 That ^lthou hast also built unto thee an ^{||}eminent place, and ^mhast made thee an high place in every street.

4 He cropped off the top of his young twigs, and carried it into a land of traffick; he set it in a city of merchants.

7 There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers: and, behold, this vine did bend her roots toward him, and shot forth her branches toward him, that he might water it by the furrows of her plantation.

8 It was planted in a good [†]soil by great waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine.

CHAP. XX.

1 God refuseth to be consulted by the elders of Israel: 4 the story of their rebellions: 33 he threateneth to rule them with rigour, &c.

AND it came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that ^l certain of the elders of Israel came to enquire of the LORD, and sat before me.

2 Then came the word of the LORD unto me, saying,

3 Son of man, speak unto the elders of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the [†] Lord GOD, Are ye come to enquire of me? As I live, saith the [†] Lord GOD, ^b I will not be enquired of by you.

4 || Wilt thou || ^c judge them, son of man, wilt thou judge them? cause them to know the abominations of their fathers;

6 In the day that I lifted up mine hand unto them, to bring them forth of the land of Egypt into a land that I had espied for them, flowing with milk and honey, ^f which is the glory of all lands;

7 Then said I unto them, Cast ye away every man the abominations of his eyes, and defile not yourselves with the idols of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

8 But they rebelled against me, and would not hearken unto me: they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt; then I said, I will pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.

9 ^g But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made myself known unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.

10 || Wherefore I ^h caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness;

11 And I gave them my statutes, and [†] shewed them my judgments, ⁱ which if a man do, he shall even live in them.

12 Moreover also, I gave them my ^k sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD that sanctify them.

13 But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness: they walked not in my statutes, and they despised my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; and my sabbaths they greatly ^l polluted: then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them in the ^m wilderness, to consume them.

8 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD; Say, ^c A sword, a sword is sharpened, and also furnished:

10 It is sharpened to make a sore slaughter; it is furnished that it may glitter: should we then make mirth? || it contemneth the rod of my son, as every tree.

11 And he hath given it to be furnished, that it may be handled: this sword is sharpened, and it is furnished, to give it into the hand of the slayer.

12 Cry and howl, son of man; for it shall be upon my people, it shall be upon all the princes of Israel: || terrors, by reason of the sword, shall be upon my people: ^d smite therefore upon thy thigh.

13 || Because it is a trial, and what if the sword condemn even the rod? it shall be no more, saith the [†] Lord God.

18 ¶ The word of the LORD came unto me again, saying,

19 Also, thou son of man, appoint thee two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come: both twain shall come forth out of one land; and choose thou a place, choose it at the head of the way to the city.

20 Appoint a way, that the sword may come to ^g Rabbath of the Ammonites, and to Judah in Jerusalem the defenced.

21 For the king of Babylon stood at the † parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: he made his || arrows bright, he consulted with † images, he looked in the liver.

22 At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint || † captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint battering-rams against the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a fort.

23 And it shall be unto them as a false divination in their sight, || to them that have sworn oaths; but he will call to remembrance the iniquity, that they may be taken.

25 ¶ And thou, profane wicked prince of Israel, ^h whose day is come, when iniquity shall have an end;

27 † I will overturn, overturn, overturn it: ⁱ and it shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it him.

28 ¶ And thou, son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the † Lord God ^k concerning the Ammonites, and concerning their reproach; even say thou, The sword, the sword is drawn: for the slaughter it is furnished, to consume because of the glittering;

29 Whiles they ^l see vanity unto thee, whiles they divine a lie unto thee, to bring thee upon the necks of them that are slain, of the wicked, ^m whose day is come, when their iniquity shall have an end.

30 || ⁿ Shall I cause it to return into his sheath? I will judge thee in the place where thou wast created, ^o in the land of thy nativity.

31 And I will pour out mine indignation upon thee; I will blow against thee in the fire of my wrath, and deliver thee into the hand of || brutish men, and skilful to destroy.

32 Thou shalt be for fuel to the fire; thy blood shall be in the midst of the land; thou shalt be no more remembered: for I the LORD have spoken it.

9 In thee are [†] men that carry tales to shed blood; [†] and in thee they eat upon the mountains; in the midst of thee they commit lewdness;

10 In thee have they ⁸ discovered their father's nakedness; in thee have they humbled her that was ^h set apart for pollution.

11 And || one hath committed abomination with his neighbour's ⁱ wife; and || another ^k hath || lewdly defiled his daughter-in-law; and another in thee hath humbled his ^l sister, his father's daughter.

12 In thee ^m have they taken gifts to shed blood; ⁿ thou hast taken usury and increase, and thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbours by extortion, and hast forgotten me, saith the [†] Lord God.

13 ¶ Behold, therefore I have smitten mine hand at thy dishonest gain which thou hast made, and at thy blood which hath been in the midst of thee.

14 Can thine heart endure, or can thine hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with thee? ^p I the LORD have spoken it, and will do it.

15 And ^q I will scatter thee among the heathen, and disperse thee in the countries, and ^r will consume thy filthiness out of thee.

16 And thou || shalt take thine inheritance in thyself in the sight of the heathen, and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

17 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, ^a the house of Israel is to me become dross: all they are brass, and tin, and iron, and lead, in the midst of the furnace; they are even the [†] dross of silver.

19 Therefore thus saith the [†] Lord God, Because ye are all become dross, behold, therefore I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem.

20 [†] As they gather silver, and brass, and iron, and lead, and tin, into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, to melt it; so will I gather you in mine anger and in my fury, and I will leave you there, and melt you.

21 Yea, I will gather you, and blow upon you in the fire of my wrath, and ye shall be melted in the midst thereof.

22 As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall ye be melted in the midst thereof; and ye shall know that I the LORD have poured out my fury upon you.

23 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

24 Son of man, say unto her, Thou art the land that is not cleansed, nor rained upon in the day of indignation.

25 [†] There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey: they ^u have devoured souls; ^x they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made her many widows in the midst thereof.

26 Her priests have [†] violated my law, and have profaned mine holy things: they have put no ^y difference between the holy and profane, neither have they shewed difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them.

27 Her ^z princes in the midst thereof are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, to get dishonest gain.

28 And ^a her prophets have daubed them with untempered mortar, ^b seeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, saying, Thus saith the [†] Lord God, when the LORD hath not spoken.

29 The people of the land have used || oppression, and exercised robbery, and have vexed the poor and needy; yea, they have oppressed the stranger [†] wrongfully.

30 ^c And I sought for a man among them that should ^d make up the hedge, and ^e stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found none.

3 And ^b they committed whoredoms in Egypt; they committed whoredoms in their youth: there were their breasts pressed, and there they bruised the teats of their virginity.

4 And the names of them were Aholah the elder, and Aholibah her sister; and ^c they were mine, and they bare sons and daughters. Thus were their names; Samaria is || Aholah, and Jerusalem || Aholibah.

5 And Aholah played the harlot when she was mine; and she doted on her lovers, on ^d the Assyrians her neighbours,

6 Which were clothed with blue, captains and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding upon horses.

7 Thus she † committed her whoredoms with them, with all them that were † the chosen men of Assyria, and with all on whom she doted: with all their idols she defiled herself.

8 Neither left she her whoredoms brought from Egypt: for in her youth they lay with her, and they bruised the breasts of her virginity, and poured their whoredom upon her.

9 Wherefore I have delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the ^e Assyrians, upon whom she doted.

10 These ^f discovered her nakedness; they took her sons and her daughters, and slew her with the sword: and she became † famous among women; for they had executed judgment upon her.

11 And ^g when her sister Aholibah saw this, ^h † she was more corrupt in her inordinate love than she, and in her whoredoms † more than her sister in her whoredoms.

12 She doted upon the ⁱ Assyrians her neighbours, captains and rulers clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding upon horses, all of them desirable young men.

13 Then I saw that she was defiled, that they took both one way,

14 And that she increased her whoredoms: for when she saw men pourtrayed upon the wall, the images of the Chaldeans pourtrayed with vermilion,

15 Girded with girdles upon their loins, exceeding in dyed attire upon their heads, all of them princes to look to, after the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea, the land of their nativity:

16 ^k And † as soon as she saw them with her eyes, she doted upon them, and sent messengers unto them into Chaldea.

17 And the † Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whoredom; and she was polluted with them, and ^l her mind was † alienated from them.

18 So she discovered her whoredoms, and discovered her nakedness: then ^m my mind was alienated from her, like as my mind was alienated from her sister.

19 Yet she multiplied her whoredoms, in calling to remembrance the days of her youth, wherein she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt.

20 For she doted upon their paramours, ⁿ whose flesh is as the flesh of asses, and whose issue is like the issue of horses.

21 Thus thou calledst to remembrance the lewdness of thy youth, in bruising thy teats by the Egyptians for the paps of thy youth.

22 ¶ Therefore, O Aholibah, thus saith the † Lord God, ^o Behold, I will raise up thy lovers against thee, from whom thy mind is alienated, and I will bring them against thee on every side;

23 The Babylonians, and all the Chaldeans, ^p Pekod, and Shoa, and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them: all of them desirable young men, captains and rulers, great lords and renowned, all of them riding upon horses.

24 And they shall come against thee with chariots, waggons, and wheels, and with an assembly of people, which shall set against thee buckler, and shield, and helmet, round about: and I will set judgment before them, and they shall judge thee according to their judgments.

25 And I will set my jealousy against thee, and they shall deal furiously with thee: they shall take away thy nose and thine ears; and thy remnant shall fall by the sword: they shall take thy sons and thy daughters; and thy residue shall be devoured by the fire.

26 ^q They shall also strip thee out of thy clothes, and take away thy † fair jewels.

27 Thus ^r will I make thy lewdness to cease from thee, and thy whoredom brought from the land of Egypt; so that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes unto them, nor remember Egypt any more.

29 And they shall deal with thee hatefully, and shall take away all thy labour, and ^u shall leave thee naked and bare; and the nakedness of thy whoredoms shall be discovered, both thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

30 I will do these things unto thee, because thou hast gone a whoring after the heathen, and because thou art polluted with their idols.

31 Thou hast walked in the way of thy sister; therefore will I give her ^x cup into thine hand.

32 Thus saith the † Lord God, Thou shalt drink of thy sister's cup deep and large: thou shalt be laughed to scorn and had in derision; it containeth much.

33 Thou shalt be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of thy sister Samaria.

34 Thou shalt ^y even drink it, and suck it out, and thou shalt break the sherds thereof, and pluck off thine own breasts: for I have spoken it, saith the † Lord God.

36 ¶ The Lord said moreover unto me, Son of man, wilt thou ^b || judge Aholah and Aholibah? yea, declare unto them their abominations;

37 That they have committed adultery, and ^c blood is in their hands, and with their idols have they committed adultery, and have also caused their sons, ^d whom they bare unto me, to pass for them through the fire, to devour them.

38 Moreover, this they have done unto me; they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and ^e have profaned my sabbaths.

39 For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and, lo, ^f thus have they done in the midst of mine house.

40 And furthermore, that ye have sent for men [†] to come from far, unto whom a messenger was sent; and, lo, they came: for whom thou didst wash thyself, ^g paintedst thine eyes, and deckedst thyself with ornaments,

41 And satest upon a [†] sateled, and a table prepared before it, ^h whereupon thou hast set mine incense and mine oil.

42 And a voice of a multitude being at ease was with her: and with the men [†] of the common sort were brought || Sabeans from the wilderness, which put bracelets upon their hands, and beautiful crowns upon their heads.

43 Then said I unto her that was old in adulteries, Will they now commit [†] whoredoms with her, and she with them?

44 Yet they went in unto her, as they go in unto a woman that playeth the harlot: so went they in unto Aholah and unto Aholibah, the lewd women.

45 ¶ And the righteous men, they shall ^k judge them after the manner of adulteresses, and after the manner of women that shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands.

46 For thus saith the † Lord God, I will bring up a company upon them, and will give them [†] to be removed and spoiled.

47 And the company shall stone them with stones, and || dispatch them with their swords; they shall slay their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire.

48 Thus ^m will I cause lewdness to cease out of the land, that all women may be taught not to do after your lewdness.

49 And they shall recompense your lewdness upon you, and ye shall bear the sins of your idols: ⁿ and ye shall know that I am the † Lord God.

7 For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it upon the top of a rock; ^d she poured it not upon the ground, to cover it with dust;

8 That it might cause fury to come up to take vengeance; I have set her blood upon the top of a rock, that it should not be covered.

11 Then set it empty upon the coals thereof, that the brass of it may be hot, and may burn, and that the filthiness of it may be molten in it, that the scum of it may be consumed.

17 † Forbear to cry, make no mourning for the dead, ⁱ bind the tire of thine head upon thee, and put on thy shoes upon thy feet, and cover not thy † lips, and eat not the bread of men.

7 Behold, therefore I will bring strangers upon thee, ^e the terrible of the nations; and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of thy wisdom, and they shall defile thy brightness.

8 They shall bring thee down to the pit, and thou shalt die the deaths of them that are slain in the midst of the seas.

10 Thou shalt die the deaths of the uncircumcised by the hand of strangers: for I have spoken it, saith the [†] Lord God.

15 Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee.

16 By the multitude of thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore I will cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God; and I will destroy thee, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire.

17 Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty; thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness; I will cast thee to the 18 Thou hast defiled thy sanctuaries by the multitude of thine iniquities, by the iniquity of thy traffick; therefore will I bring forth a fire from the midst of thee, it shall devour thee; and I will bring thee to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all them that behold thee.

24 ¶ And there shall be no more ^k a pricking brier unto the house of Israel, nor any grieving thorn of all that are round about them that despised them; and they shall know that I am the [†] Lord God.

25 Thus saith the [†] Lord God, When I shall have gathered the house of Israel from the people among whom they are scattered, and shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the heathen, then shall they dwell in their land that I have given to my servant Jacob.

Before CHRIST 572.
 5 Ethiopia, and † Libya, and Lydia, and ^aall the mingled people, and Chub, and the † men of the land that is in league, shall fall with them by the sword.

6 Thus saith the LORD, They also that uphold Egypt shall fall; and the pride of her power shall come down: ^bfrom the tower of Syene shall they fall in it by the sword, saith the † Lord God.

7 ^cAnd they shall be desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities shall be in the midst of the cities that are wasted.

8 And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have set a fire in Egypt, and when all her helpers shall be † destroyed.

9 In that day ^dshall messengers go forth from me in ships, to make the careless Ethiopians afraid, and great pain shall come upon them, as in the day of Egypt: for, lo, it cometh.

10 Thus saith the † Lord God, I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease by the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon.

11 He and his people with him, ^ethe terrible of the nations, shall be brought to destroy the land; and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain.

12 And ^fI will make the rivers † dry, and sell the land into the hand of the wicked; and I will make the land waste, and † all that is therein, by the hand of strangers: I the LORD have spoken it.

13 Thus saith the † Lord God, I will also ^gdestroy the idols, and I will cause their images to cease out of Noph; ^hand there shall be no more a prince of the land of Egypt: and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt.

14 And I will make Pathros desolate, and will set fire in || Zoan, ⁱand will execute judgments in No.

15 And I will pour my fury upon || Sin, the strength of Egypt; and I will cut off the multitude of No.

16 And I will set fire in Egypt: Sin shall have great pain, and No shall be rent asunder, and Noph shall have distresses daily.

17 The young men of || Aven and of || Phi-beseth shall fall by the sword: and these cities shall go into captivity.

18 ^kAt Tehaphnehes also the day shall be || darkened, when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt; and the pomp of her strength shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity.

19 Thus will I execute judgments in Egypt; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

20 ¶ And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

21 Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and, lo, ^lit shall not be bound up to be healed, to put a roller to bind it, to make it strong to hold the sword.

22 Therefore thus saith the † Lord God, Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, the strong, and that which was broken; and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand.

23 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

24 And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put my sword in his hand: but I will break Pharaoh's arms, and he shall groan before him with the groanings of a deadly-wounded man.

25 But I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall stretch it out upon the land of Egypt.

26 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them among the countries; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

1 A recital unto Pharaoh of the glory of Assyria, 10 and the fall thereof for pride: 18 the like destruction to Egypt.

AND it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, Speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to his multitude, ^aWhom art thou like in thy greatness?

3 ^bBehold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon † with fair branches, and with a shadowing shroud, and of an high stature; and his top was among the thick boughs.

4 ^c The waters || made him great, the deep || set him up on high with her rivers running round about his plants, and sent out her || little rivers unto all the trees of the field.

5 Therefore his height was exalted above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long, because of the multitude of waters, || when he shot forth.

6 All the ^d fowls of heaven made their nests in his boughs, and under his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, and under his shadow dwelt all great nations.

7 Thus was he fair in his greatness, in the length of his branches: for his root was by great waters.

8 The cedars in the ^e garden of God could not hide him: the fir-trees were not like his boughs, and the chesnut-trees were not like his branches: nor any tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty.

9 I have made him fair by the multitude of his branches: so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied him.

10 ¶ Therefore thus saith the [†] Lord God, Because thou hast lifted up thyself in height, and he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height;

11 I have therefore delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen; [†] he shall surely deal with him: I have driven him out for his wickedness.

12 And strangers, ^f the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: upon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the people of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him.

13 Upon his ruin shall all the fowls of the heaven remain, and all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches:

14 To the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves for their height, neither shoot up their top among the thick boughs, neither their trees || stand up in their height, all that drink water: for ^g they are all delivered unto death, to the nether parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with them that go down to the pit.

15 Thus saith the [†] Lord God, In the day when he went down to the grave I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the floods thereof, and the great waters were stayed; and I caused Lebanon [†] to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him.

16 I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to hell with them that descend into the pit: and ^h all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, ⁱ shall be comforted in the nether parts of the earth.

17 They also went down into hell with him unto them that be slain with the sword; and they that were his arm, that dwelt under his shadow in the midst of the heathen.

18 ¶ ^k To whom art thou thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? yet shalt thou be brought down with the trees of Eden unto the nether parts of the earth:

^l thou shalt lie in the midst of the uncircumsised with them that be slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the [†] Lord God.

1 A lamentation for the fearful fall of Egypt. 11 The sword of Babylon shall destroy it.

AND it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, take up a lamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say unto him, ^a Thou art like a young lion of the nations, ^b and thou art as a || whale in the seas; and thou camest forth with thy rivers, and troubledst the waters with thy feet, and fouledst their rivers.

3 Thus saith the [†] Lord God, I will therefore ^c spread out my net over thee with a company of many people; and they shall bring thee up in my net.

4 Then ^d will I leave thee upon the land, I will cast thee forth upon the open field, and will cause all the fowls of the heaven to remain upon thee, and I will fill the beasts of the whole earth with thee.

5 And I will lay thy flesh upon the mountains, and fill the valleys with thy height.

6 I will also water with thy blood || the land wherein thou swimmest, even to the mountains; and the rivers shall be full of thee, e I will cover the heaven, and make the stars thereof dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light.

8 All the † bright lights of heaven will I make † dark over thee, and set darkness upon thy land, saith the † Lord God.

9 I will also † vex the hearts of many people, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations, into the countries which thou hast not known.

10 Yea, I will make many people amazed at thee, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for thee, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and † they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of thy fall.

11 ¶ For thus saith the † Lord God, The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon thee.

12 By the swords of the mighty will I cause thy multitude to fall, † the terrible of the nations, all of them; and they shall spoil the pomp of Egypt, and all the multitude thereof shall be destroyed.

13 I will destroy also all the beasts thereof from beside the great waters; † neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of beasts trouble them.

14 Then will I make their waters deep, and cause their rivers to run like oil, saith the † Lord God.

15 When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate, and the country shall be † destitute of that whereof it was full, when I shall smite all them that dwell therein, then shall they know that I am the Lord.

16 This is the lamentation wherewith they shall lament her: the daughters of the nations shall lament her: they shall lament for her, even for Egypt, and for all her multitude, saith the † Lord God.

17 ¶ It came to pass also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, and cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, unto the nether parts of the earth, with them that go down into the pit.

25 They have set her a bed in the midst of the slain with all her multitude: her graves are round about him; all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword: though their terror was caused in the land of the living, yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit: he is put in the midst of them that be slain.

26 There is Meshech, Tubal, and all her multitude: her graves are round about him; all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword, though they caused their terror in the land of the living.

27 † And they shall not lie with the mighty that are fallen of the uncircumcised, which are gone down to hell † with their weapons of war; and they have laid their swords under their heads; but their iniquities shall be upon their bones, though they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living.

28 Yea, thou shalt be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, and shalt lie with them that are slain with the sword.

22 Now ^othe hand of the LORD was upon me in the evening, afore he that was escaped came, and had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; ^pand my mouth was opened, and I was no more dumb.

23 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

24 Son of man, ^athey that inhabit those wastes of the land of Israel speak, saying, Abraham was one, and he inherited the land: but we are many; the land is given us for inheritance.

25 Wherefore say unto them, Thus saith the [†]LORD GOD, ^rYe eat with the blood, and ^slift up your eyes toward your idols, and shed blood: and shall ye possess the land?

CHAP. XXXIV.

1 The shepherds of Israel reproved:

7 God's judgments against them:

20 The kingdom of Christ.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 ^aSon of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the [†]LORD GOD unto the shepherds, ^bWoe be to the shepherds of Israel that do feed themselves! should not the shepherds feed the flocks?

3 ^cYe eat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, ^dye kill them that are fed: but ye feed not the flock.

4 ^eThe diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought again that which was driven away, neither have ye sought that which was lost; but with ^fforce and with cruelty have ye ruled them.

5 ^gAnd they were scattered, ¶ because there is no shepherd: and they became meat to all the beasts of the field, when they were scattered.

6 My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill: yea, my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did search or seek after them.

7 ¶ Therefore, ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD;

8 As I live, saith the [†]LORD GOD, surely because my flock became a prey, and my flock became meat to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my flock, but the shepherds fed themselves, and fed not my flock;

9 Therefore, O ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD;

10 Thus saith the [†]LORD GOD, Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more: for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them.

sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day.

13 And ^h I will bring them out from the people, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land, and feed them upon the mountains of Israel by the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the country.

14 I will feed them in a good pasture, and upon the high mountains of Israel shall their fold be: there shall they lie in a good fold, and in a fat pasture shall they feed upon the mountains of Israel.

15 I will feed my flock, and I will cause them to lie down, saith the [†] Lord God.

16 [†] I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but I will destroy ^k the fat and the strong; I will feed them with judgment.

17 And as for you, O my flock, thus saith the [†] Lord God, [†] Behold, I judge between [†] cattle and cattle, between the rams and the [†] he-goats.

18 Seemeth it a small thing unto you to have eaten up the good pasture, but ye must tread down with your feet the residue of your pastures? and to have drunk of the deep waters, but ye must foul the residue with your feet?

19 And as for my flock, they eat that which ye have trodden with your feet; and they drink that which ye have fouled with your feet.

20 ¶ Therefore thus saith the [†] Lord God unto them, Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat cattle, and between the lean cattle.

21 Because ye have thrust with side and with shoulder, and pushed all the diseased with your horns, till ye have scattered them abroad;

22 Therefore will I save my flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between cattle and cattle.

23 And I will set up one ^m Shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd.

24 And I the LORD will be their God, and my servant David a prince among them: I the LORD have spoken it.

25 And ^o I will make with them a covenant of peace, and ^p will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land; and they shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods.

26 And I will make them, and the places round about my hill, a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in his season: there shall be ^a showers of blessing.

27 And ^r the tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase, and they shall be safe in their land, and shall know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bands of their yoke, and delivered them out of the hand of those that served themselves of them.

28 And they shall no more be a prey to the heathen, neither shall the beasts of the land devour them: but ^s they shall dwell safely, and none shall make them afraid.

29 And I will raise up for them a ^t plant || of renown, and they shall be no more [†] consumed with hunger in the land, ^u neither bear the shame of the heathen any more.

30 Thus shall they know that I the LORD their God am with them, and that they, even the house of Israel, are my people, saith the [†] Lord God.

31 And ye my ^x flock, the flock of my pasture, are men, and I am your God, saith the [†] Lord God.

6 And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; ^b and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

7 So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone.

8 And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above: but there was no breath in them.

9 Then said he unto me, Prophecy unto the \parallel wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the \dagger Lord God, ^c Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live.

10 So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army.

11 \P Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, ^d Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost; we are cut off for our parts.

12 Therefore prophesy and say unto them, Thus saith the \dagger Lord God, Behold, ^e O my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and bring you into the land of Israel:

20 \P And the sticks whereon thou writest shall be in thine hand before their eyes.

21 And say unto them, Thus saith the \dagger Lord God, Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the heathen, whither they be gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land:

22 And ⁱ I will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel; and ^k one King shall be king to them all: and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all:

24 And ^l David my servant shall be king over them; and ^m they all shall have one shepherd: they shall also walk in my judgments, and observe my statutes, and do them.

25 And they shall dwell in the land that I have given unto Jacob my servant, wherein your fathers have dwelt; and they shall dwell therein, even they, and their children, and their children's children, for ever; and ⁿ my servant David shall be their prince for ever.

7 Be thou prepared, and prepare for thyself, thou, and all thy company that are assembled unto thee, and be thou a guard unto them.

8 ¶ ^e After many days thou shalt be visited : in the latter years thou shalt come into the land that is brought back from the sword, ^f and is gathered out of many people, against the mountains of Israel, which have been always waste : but it is brought forth out of the nations, and they shall dwell safely all of them.

10 Thus saith the † Lord God, It shall also come to pass, that at the same time shall things come into thy mind, and thou shalt || think an evil thought :

14 ¶ Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say unto Gog, Thus saith the † Lord God, ⁱ In that day when my people of Israel dwelleth safely, shalt thou not know it ?

15 ^k And thou shalt come from thy place out of the north parts, thou, and many people with thee, all of them riding upon horses, a great company, and a mighty army :

18 And it shall come to pass at the same time when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the † Lord God, that my fury shall come up in my face.

19 For ^m in my jealousy, ⁿ and in the fire of my wrath, have I spoken, ^o Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel ;

I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal:

2 And I will turn thee back, and || leave but the sixth part of thee, and will cause thee to come up from † the north parts, and will bring thee upon the mountains of Israel:

3 And I will smite thy bow out of thy left hand, and will cause thine arrows to fall out of thy right hand.

4 Thou shalt fall upon the mountains of Israel, thou, and all thy bands, and the people that is with thee: c I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every † sort, and to the beasts of the field † to be devoured.

5 Thou shalt fall upon † the open field: for I have spoken it, saith the † Lord God.

6 And I will send a fire on Magog, and among them that dwell || carelessly in the isles: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

7 So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel; and I will not let them pollute my holy name any more: and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel.

8 ¶ d Behold, it is come, and it is done, saith the † Lord God; this is the day whereof I have spoken.

9 And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and shall set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the || hand-staves and the spears, and they shall || burn them with fire seven years:

10 So that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall burn the weapons with fire: and they shall spoil those that spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the † Lord God.

11 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give unto Gog a place there of graves in Israel, the valley of the passengers on the east of the sea; and it shall stop the || noses of the passengers: and there shall they bury Gog, and all his multitude; and they shall call it, The valley of || Hamon-gog.

12 And seven months shall the house of Israel be burying of them, that they may cleanse the land.

13 Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them: and it shall be to them a renown, the day that I shall be glorified, saith the † Lord God.

14 And they shall sever out † men of continual employment, passing through the land, to bury with the passengers those that remain upon the face of the earth, to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search.

15 And the passengers that pass through the land, when any seeth a man's bone, then shall he † set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamon-gog.

16 And also the name of the city shall be || Hamonah. Thus shall they cleanse the land.

17 ¶ e And thou, son of man, thus saith the † Lord God, Speak † unto every feathered fowl, and to every beast of the field, f Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my || sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may eat flesh, and drink blood.

18 Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of † goats, of bullocks, of all of them fatlings of Bashan.

19 And ye shall eat fat till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you.

20 g Thus ye shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the † Lord God.

21 And I will set my glory among the heathen, and all the heathen shall see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid upon them.

22 So the house of Israel shall know that I am the LORD their God from that day and forward.

23 And the heathen shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity: because they trespassed against me, therefore hid I my face from them, and gave them into the hand of their enemies; so fell they all by the sword.

24 According to their uncleanness, and according to their transgressions, have I done unto them, and hid my face from them.

CHAP. XL.

1 The time, manner, and end of Ezekiel's vision. 39 The eight tables, 44 the chambers for the singers, &c. 48 The porch of the house.

IN the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after that ^a the city was smitten, in the self-same day ^b the hand of the LORD was upon me, and brought me thither.

2 In the visions of God brought he me into the land of Israel, and set me upon a very high mountain, || by which was as the frame of a city on the south.

3 And he brought me thither, and, behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring-reed; and he stood in the gate.

4 And the man said unto me, ^d Son of man, behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, and set thine heart upon all that I shall shew thee; for to the intent that I might shew them unto thee art thou brought hither: declare all that thou seest to the house of Israel.

5 And behold a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand a measuring-reed of six cubits long, by the cubit and an hand-breadth: so he measured the breadth of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed.

6 ¶ Then came he unto the gate † which looketh toward the east, and went up the stairs thereof, and measured the threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad; and the other threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad.

7 And every little chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad; and between the little chambers were five cubits: and the threshold of the gate, by the porch of the gate within, was one reed.

8 He measured also the porch of the gate within, one reed.

9 Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and the posts thereof, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was inward.

10 And the little chambers of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side.

11 And he measured the breadth of the entry of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits.

12 The † space also before the little chambers was one cubit on this side, and the space was one cubit on that side; and the little chambers were six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side.

13 He measured then the gate from the roof of one little chamber to the roof of another: the breadth was five and twenty cubits, door against door.

14 He made also posts of three-score cubits, even unto the post of the court round about the gate.

15 And from the face of the gate of the entrance unto the face of the porch of the inner-gate were fifty cubits.

16 And there were † narrow windows to the little chambers, and to their posts within the gate round about, and likewise to the || arches; and windows were round about || inward: and upon each post were palm-trees.

17 ^e Then brought he me into the outward court, and, lo, there were chambers, and a pavement made for the court round about: † thirty chambers were upon the pavement.

18 And the pavement by the side of the gates, over against the length of the gates, was the lower pavement.

19 Then he measured the breadth, from the fore-front of the lower gate unto the fore-front of the inner court || without, an hundred cubits eastward and northward.

20 ¶ And the gate of the outward court † that looked toward the north, he measured the length thereof, and the breadth thereof.

23 And the gate of the inner court was over against the gate toward the north, and toward the east; and he measured from gate to gate an hundred cubits.

24 ¶ After that he brought me toward the south, and behold a gate toward the south: and he measured the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures.

25 And there were windows in it, and in the arches thereof round about, like those windows; the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

26 And there were seven steps to go up to it, and the arches thereof were before them; and it had palm-trees, one on this side, and another on that side, upon the posts thereof.

27 And there was a gate in the inner court toward the south: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south an hundred cubits.

28 And he brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate according to these measures;

29 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were windows in it, and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

31 And the arches thereof were toward the outer court; and palm-trees were upon the posts thereof: and the going up to it had eight steps.

33 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, were according to these measures: and there were windows therein, and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

34 And the arches thereof were toward the outward court; and palm-trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

35 ¶ And he brought me to the north gate, and measured it according to these measures;

36 The little chambers thereof, the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, and the windows to it round about: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

37 And the posts thereof were toward the outer court; and palm-trees were upon the posts thereof on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

38 And the chambers, and the entries thereof, were by the posts of the gates, where they washed the burnt-offering.

39 ¶ And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to slay thereon the burnt-offering, and ^h the sin-offering, and ⁱ the trespass-offering.

40 And at the side without, || as one goeth up to the entry of the north gate, were two tables; and on the other side, which was at the porch of the gate, were two tables.

41 Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they slew their sacrifices.

42 And the four tables were of hewn stone for the burnt-offering, of a cubit and an half long, and a cubit and an half broad, and one cubit high: whereupon also they laid the instruments wherewith they slew the burnt-offering and the sacrifice.

43 And within were || hooks, an hand-broad, fastened round about: and upon the tables was the flesh of the offering.

44 ¶ And without the inner gate were the chambers of the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south; one at the side of the east gate having the prospect toward the north.

48 ¶ And he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side.

49 The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits; and he brought me by the steps whereby they went up to it: and there were pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

CHAP. XLI.

The measures, parts, chambers, and ornaments of the temple.

AFTERWARD he brought me to the temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the breadth of the tabernacle.

2 And the breadth of the || door was ten cubits; and the sides of the door were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured the length thereof, forty cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits.

3 Then went he inward, and measured the post of the door two cubits, and the door six cubits, and the breadth of the door seven cubits.

4 So ^a he measured the length thereof, twenty cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits, before the temple; and he said unto me, This is the most holy place.

5 After he measured the wall of the house six cubits; and the breadth of every side-chamber four cubits, round about the house on every side.

6 And the side-chambers were three, † one over another, and || thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which was of the house for the side-chambers round about, that they might † have hold, but they had not hold in the wall of the house.

7 And † ^b there was an enlarging, and a winding about still upward to the side-chambers; for the winding about of the house went still upward round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house was still upward, and so increased from the lowest chamber to the highest by the midst.

8 I saw also the height of the house round about: the foundations of the side-chambers were ^c a full reed of six great cubits.

9 The thickness of the wall, which was for the side-chamber without, was five cubits; and that which was left was the place of the side-chambers that were within.

10 And between the chambers was the wideness of twenty cubits round about the house on every side.

11 And the doors of the side-chambers were toward the place that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits round about.

12 Now the building that was before the separate place, at the end toward the west, was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof ninety cubits.

13 So he measured the house, an hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with the walls thereof, an hundred cubits long;

14 Also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, an hundred cubits.

15 And he measured the length of the building over against the separate place which was behind it, and the || galleries thereof on the one side, and on the other side, an hundred cubits, with the inner temple, and the porches of the court;

16 The door-posts, and the narrow windows, and the galleries round about on their three stories, over against the door, † ceiled with wood round about, || and from the ground up to the windows, and the windows were covered;

17 To that above the door, even unto the inner house and without, and by all the wall round about, within and without, by † measure.

18 And it was made with cherubims and palm-trees, so that a palm-tree was between a cherub and a cherub; and every cherub had two faces;

THEN he brought me forth into the outer court, the way toward the north; and he brought me into the chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was before the building toward the north.

2 Before the length of an hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits.

3 Over against the twenty cubits which were for the inner court, and over against the pavement which was for the outer court, was gallery against gallery in three stories.

8 For the length of the chambers that were in the outer court was fifty cubits; and, lo, before the temple were an hundred cubits.

12 And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door in the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one entereth into them.

13 ¶ Then said he unto me, The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the separate place, they be holy chambers, where the priests that approach unto the LORD ^ashall eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and ^bthe meat-offering, and the sin-offering, and the trespass-offering; for the place is holy.

CHAP. XLIII.

1 The returning of the glory of God into the temple. 7 The sin of Israel hindereth God's presence, &c.

AFTERWARD he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looketh toward the east:

2 ^a And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east; and ^b his voice was like a noise of many waters: and the earth shined with his glory.

3 And it was ^c according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw || when I came ^d to destroy the city: and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell upon my face.

4 And the glory of the LORD came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east.

5 So the spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and, behold, ^e the glory of the LORD filled the house.

6 And I heard him speaking unto me out of the house; and the man stood by me.

7 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, the place of my throne, and ^f the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever, and my holy name, shall the house of Israel no more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, nor by ^g the carcasses of their kings in their high places.

8 ^h In their setting of their threshold by my thresholds, and their post by my posts, || and the wall between me and them, they have even defiled my holy name by their abominations that they have committed: wherefore I have consumed them in mine anger.

9 Now let them put away their whoredom, and the carcasses of their kings, far from me, and I will dwell in the midst of them for ever.

10 ¶ Thou son of man, shew the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities; and let them measure the || pattern.

11 And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, shew them the form of the house, and the fashion thereof, and the goings-out thereof, and the comings-in thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the laws thereof: and write it in their sight, that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and do them.

12 This is the law of the house; Upon the top of the mountain the whole limit thereof round about shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

13 ¶ And these are the measures of the altar after the cubits: ⁱ The cubit is a cubit and an handbreadth; even the [†] bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the [†] edge thereof round about shall be a span: and this shall be the higher place of the altar.

14 And from the bottom upon the ground even to the lower settle shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser settle even to the greater settle shall be four cubits, and the breadth one cubit.

15 So [†] the altar shall be four cubits; and from [†] the altar and upward shall be four horns.

16 And the altar shall be twelve cubits long, twelve broad, square in the four squares thereof.

17 And the settle shall be fourteen cubits long, and fourteen broad in the four squares thereof; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit about; and ^k his stairs shall look toward the east.

18 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, thus saith the [†] Lord God, These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt-offerings thereon, and to sprinkle blood thereon.

19 [†] And thou shalt give to the priests the Levites that be of the seed of Zadok, which approach unto me, to minister unto me, saith the [†] Lord God, ^m a young bullock for a sin-offering.

THEN he brought me back the way of the gate of the outward sanctuary, which looketh toward the east, and it was shut.

2 Then said the LORD unto me, This gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it; because the LORD, the God of Israel, hath entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut.

3 It is for the prince; the prince, he shall sit in it to eat bread before the LORD; ^a he shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate, and shall go out by the way of the same.

4 [¶] Then brought he me the way of the north gate before the house: and I looked, and, ^b behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD; and I fell upon my face.

5 And the LORD said unto me, ^c Son of man, [†] mark well, and behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears all that I say unto thee concerning all the ordinances of the house of the LORD, and all the laws thereof; and mark well the entering in of the house, with every going forth of the sanctuary.

6 ^d And thou shalt say to the rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus saith the [†] Lord God, O ye [†] Lord God, house of Israel, ^e let it suffice you of all your abominations,

7 [†] In that ye have brought into my sanctuary [†] strangers, ^g uncircumcised in heart, and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to pollute it, even my house, when ye offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant, because of all your abominations.

8 And ye have not kept the charge of mine holy things; but ye have set keepers of my ^{||} charge in my sanctuary for yourselves.

9 [¶] Thus saith the [†] Lord God, No stranger, uncircumcised in heart, nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any stranger that is among the children of Israel.

10 ^h And the Levites that are gone away far from me, when Israel went astray, which went astray away from me after their idols; they shall even bear their iniquity.

11 Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having charge at the gates of the house, and ministering to the house: they shall slay the burnt-offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister unto them.

12 Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and [†] caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity; therefore have I lifted up mine hand against them, saith the [†] Lord God, and they shall bear their iniquity.

13 ⁱ And they shall not come near unto me, to do the office of a priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, in the most holy place; but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed:

14 But I will make them keepers of the charge of the house, for all the service thereof, and for all that shall be done therein.

15 [¶] ^k But the priests the Levites, the sons of Zadok, that kept the charge of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near to me to 9 ¶ But when the people of the land shall come before the LORD in the solemn feasts, he that entereth in by the way of the north gate to worship shall go out by the way of the south gate; and he that entereth by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate whereby he came in, but shall go forth over against it.

19 And they that serve the city shall serve it out of all the tribes of Israel.

20 All the oblation shall be five and twenty thousand by five and twenty thousand: ye shall offer the holy oblation four-square, with the possession of the city.

22 Moreover, from the possession of the Levites, and from the possession of the city, being in the midst of that which is the prince's, between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, shall be for the prince.

23 I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast made known unto me now what we desired of thee : for thou hast now made known unto us the king's matter.

24 ¶ Therefore Daniel went in unto Arioch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the wise men of Babylon : he went and said thus unto him, Destroy not the wise men of Babylon : bring me in before the king, and I will shew unto the king the interpretation.

25 Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus unto him, [†] I have found a man of the [†] captives of Judah that will make known unto the king the interpretation.

28 ^o But there is a [†] God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and [†] maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar ^p what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these ;

30 ^r But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, || but for their sakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king, and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart ;)

31 ¶ Thou, O king, [†] sawest, and behold a great image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee ; and the form thereof was terrible.

32 ^t This image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his || thighs of brass, 33 His legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay.

34 Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out || ^u without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and brake them to pieces.

35 Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became ^x like the chaff of the summer thrashing-floors ; and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them : and the stone that smote the image ^y became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.

36 ¶ This is the dream ; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king.

37 ^z Thou, O king, art a king of kings : for the [†] God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory.

38 ^a And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field, and the fowls of the heaven, hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art this head of gold.

39 And after thee shall arise another kingdom inferior to thee, and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth.

40 And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron : forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things ; and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise.

41 And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes, part of potter's clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided ; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay.

42 And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay ; so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly || broken.

43 And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men ; but they shall not cleave [†] one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR the king made an image of gold, whose height was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.

2 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the princes, the governors, and the captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

7 Therefore at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of musick, all the people, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

8 ¶ Wherefore at that time certain Chaldeans came near, and accused the Jews.

9 They spake, and said to the king Nebuchadnezzar, ^c O king, live for ever.

18 But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

19 ¶ Then was Nebuchadnezzar full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego: therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace one seven times more than it was wont to be heated.

20 And he commanded the most mighty men that were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.

21 Then these men were bound in their coats, their hosen, and their hats, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

22 Therefore, because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire slew those men that took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego.

23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

24 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up in haste, and spake, and said unto his counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king.

25 He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt; and the form of the fourth is like the Son of God.

26 ¶ Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spake, and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, ye servants of the most high God, come forth, and come hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, came forth of the midst of the fire.

27 And the princes, governors, and captains, and the king's counsellors, being gathered together, saw these men, upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was an hair of their head singed, neither were their coats changed, nor the smell of fire had passed on them,

28 Then Nebuchadnezzar spake, and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, who hath sent his angel, and delivered his servants that trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God.

29 Therefore I make a decree, That every people, nation, and language, which speak any thing amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill; because there is no other God that can deliver after this sort.

30 ¶ Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, in the province of Babylon.

CHAP. IV.

1 Nebuchadnezzar acknowledgeth God's eternal dominion: 4 he relateth a dream: 19 Daniel interpreteth it.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR the king, unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you.

2 I thought it good to shew the signs and wonders that the high God hath wrought toward me.

3 How great are his signs! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation.

4 ¶ I Nebuchadnezzar was at rest in mine house, and flourishing in my palace:

5 I saw a dream which made me afraid, and the thoughts upon my bed, and the visions of my head, troubled me.

6 Therefore made I a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known unto me the interpretation of the dream.

7 Then came in the magicians, the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers: and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known unto me the interpretation thereof.

8 But at the last Daniel came in before me, (whose name was Belshazzar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods,) and before him I told the dream, saying, spirit of the holy † gods is in thee, and no secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation thereof.

10 Thus were the visions of mine head in my bed: † I saw, and behold ^k a tree in the midst of the earth, and the height thereof was great.

11 The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth.

12 The leaves thereof were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all: † the beasts of the field had shadow under it, and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all flesh was fed of it.

13 I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, ^m a watcher and ⁿ an holy one came down from heaven:

14 He cried † aloud, and said thus, Hew down the tree, and cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit: let the beasts get away from under it, and the fowls from his branches:

15 Nevertheless, leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth:

16 Let his heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him; and let seven ^o times pass over him.

17 This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones; to the intent that the living may know ^p that † the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the basest of men.

18 This dream I king Nebuchadnezzar have seen. Now thou, O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation thereof, forasmuch as all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation: but thou art able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in thee.

19 ¶ Then Daniel (whose name was Belteshazzar) was astonished for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him. The king spake, and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation thereof, trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, ^q the dream be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies.

20 The tree that thou sawest, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached unto the heaven, and the sight thereof to all the earth;

21 Whose leaves were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their habitation:

22 It is thou, O king, that art grown and become strong: ^r for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, and thy dominion to the end of the earth.

23 ^s And whereas the king saw a watcher and an holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, Hew the tree down, and destroy it; yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, ^t and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him;

24 This is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of † the most High, which is come upon my lord the king:

25 That they shall ^u drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make thee ^x to eat grass as oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee, till thou know that † the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and ^y giveth it to whomsoever he will.

26 And whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the tree-roots; thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, after that thou shalt have known that the ^z heavens do rule.

27 Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by shewing mercy to the poor; ^a if it may be || a lengthening of thy tranquillity.

28 ¶ All this came upon the king Nebuchadnezzar.

29 At the end of twelve months he walked || in the palace of the kingdom of Babylon.

30 The king spake, and said, Is not this great Babylon, that I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty?

31 ^b While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken; The kingdom is departed from thee:

32 And ^c they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know that [†] the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

33 The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.

34 And at the end of the days I Nebuchadnezzar lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned unto me, and I blessed [†] the most High, and I praised and honoured him ^d that liveth for ever, whose dominion is ^e an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom is from generation to generation:

35 And ^f all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, ^g What doest thou?

36 At the same time my reason returned unto me; and, for the glory of my kingdom, mine honour and brightness returned unto me; and my counsellors and my lords sought unto me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent majesty was added unto me.

37 Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise, and extol, and honour the King of heaven, all whose works are truth, and his ways judgment: ^h and those that walk in pride he is able to abase.

CHAP. V.

1 Belshazzar's simpious feast: 5 an hand-writing troubleth him: 17 Daniel reproveth the king of pride, profaneness, and idolatry: 25 he readeth and interpreteth the writing.

BELSHAZZAR the king made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand.

2 Belshazzar, whiles he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels ^a which his ^{||} father Nebuchadnezzar had [†] taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king and his princes, his wives and his concubines, might drink therein.

3 Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king and his princes, his wives and his concubines, drank in them.

4 They drank wine, ^b and praised the [†] gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

5 [¶] ^c In the same hour came forth fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the candlestick upon the plaster of the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote.

6 Then the king's [†] countenance [†] was changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the ^{||} [†] joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees smote one against another.

7 ^d The king cried [†] aloud to bring in the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. 8 Then came in all the king's wise men: but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation thereof.

9 Then was king Belshazzar greatly troubled, and his [†] countenance [†] was changed in him, and his lords were astonished.

10 [¶] ^f Now the queen, by reason of the words of the king and his lords, came into the banquet-house; and the queen spake, and said, [†] O king, live for ever: let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed.

11 ^g There is a man in thy kingdom in whom is the spirit of the holy [†] gods: and, in the days of thy ^{||} father, light and understanding, and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him; whom the king Nebuchadnezzar thy ^{||} father, the king, I say, thy father, made ^h master of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers;

Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the law of his God.

6 Then these presidents and princes || assembled together to the king, and said thus unto him, ^c King Darius, live for ever.

7 All the presidents of the kingdom, the governors, and the princes, the counsellors, and the captains, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a firm || decree, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any god or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions.

8 Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the ^d law of the Medes and Persians, which [†] altereth not.

9 Wherefore king Darius signed the writing and the decree.

10 ¶ Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; and his windows being open in his chamber ^e toward Jerusalem, he kneeled upon his knees ^f three times a-day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime.

11 Then these men assembled, and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God.

12 Then they came near, and spake before the king concerning the king's decree; Hast thou not signed a decree, that every man that shall ask a petition of any god or man within thirty days, save of thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not.

13 Then answered they, and said before the king, That Daniel, ^g which is of the children of the captivity of Judah, ^h regardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition three times a-day.

14 Then the king, when he heard these words, ⁱ was sore displeased with himself, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him; and he laboured till the going down of the sun to deliver him.

15 Then these men assembled unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that the law of the Medes and Persians is, that no decree nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed.

16 Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake, and said unto Daniel, Thy God, whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee.

17 ^k And a stone was brought; and laid upon the mouth of the den; ^l and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords, that the purpose might not be changed concerning Daniel.

18 ¶ Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting: neither were || instruments of musick || brought before him; and his sleep went from him.

19 Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions.

20 And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice unto Daniel: and the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the living God, ^m is thy God, whom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions?

21 Then said Daniel unto the king, ⁿ O king, live for ever.

22 ^o My God hath sent his angel, and hath ^p shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me: forasmuch as before him innocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I done no hurt.

23 Then was the king exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, ^q because he believed in his God.

24 ¶ And the king commanded, and they brought those men which had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, and their children, and their wives; and the lions had ^r the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces: or ever they came at the bottom of the den.

CHAP. VII.

1 Daniel's vision of the four beasts, 9 and of God's kingdom. 15 The interpretation thereof.

I ^N the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel † had a dream, and visions of his head upon his bed ; then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the || matters.

2 Daniel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the four winds of the heaven strove upon the great sea.

3 And four great beasts ^a came up from the sea, diverse one from another.

4 The first was ^b like a lion, and had eagle's wings : I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, || and it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it.

5 ^c And behold another beast, a second, like to a bear, and || it raised up itself on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it : and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh.

6 After this I beheld, and lo another, like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl ; the beast had also four heads ; and dominion was given to it.

7 After this I saw in the night-visions, and behold ^d a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly ; and it had great iron teeth : it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it : and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it ; ^e and it had ten horns.

8 I considered the horns, and, behold, ^f there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots : and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes ^g of man, ^h and a mouth speaking great things.

9 ¶ I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, ^k whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool : his throne was like the fiery flame, ^l and his wheels as burning fire.

10 ^m A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him : ⁿ thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him : the judgment was set, and the ^o books were opened.

11 I beheld then, because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake : ^p I beheld, even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame.

12 As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away : yet † their lives were prolonged for a season and time.

13 I saw in the night-visions, and, behold, ^q one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him.

14 ^r And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, ^s that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him : his dominion is ^t an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

15 ¶ I Daniel ^u was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my † body, and the visions of my head troubled me.

16 I came near unto one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things.

17 These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shall arise out of the earth.

18 But ^x the saints of † the † most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.

19 Then I would know the truth of the fourth beast, which was diverse † from all the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass ; which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet ;

20 And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell ; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows.

21 I beheld, ^y and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them ;

1 Daniel's vision of the ram and he-goat. 13 The days of suspension of the daily sacrifice.

IN the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me ^a at the first.

Chap. 7. 1.

2 And I saw in a vision; (and it came to pass, when I saw, that I was at Shushan in the palace, which is in the province of Elam;) and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulai.

1 Daniel, confessing his sins, 16 prayer for the restoration of Jerusalem.

20 The seventy weeks foretold.

IN the first year ^a of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, ^{||} which was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans ;

2 In the first year of his reign, I Daniel understood by books the number of the years, whereof the word of the LORD came to ^b Jeremiah the prophet, that he would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem.

3 [†] And I set my face unto the [†] LORD God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes :

4 And I prayed unto the LORD my [†] God, and made my confession, and said, O [†] LORD, the great and dreadful [†] God, keeping the covenant and mercy to them that love him, and to them that keep his commandments ;

5 ^e We have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts, and from thy judgments ;

6 Neither have we hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 O [†] LORD, righteousness ^{||} belongeth unto thee, but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day ; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee.

8 O [†] LORD, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee.

9 [†] To the [†] LORD our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him :

10 Neither have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets.

11 Yea, all Israel have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice ; therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the ^g law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him.

12 And he hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil : ^h for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem.

13 As ⁱ it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us : yet [†] made we not our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth.

Acts 9. 7.

in colour to polished brass, ¹ and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude.

7 And I Daniel ^m alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.

8 Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, ⁿ and there remained no strength in me: for my ^{||} ^o comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength.

9 Yet heard I the voice of his words: ^p and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a deep sleep on my face, and my face toward the ground.

10 ¶ ^q And, behold, an hand touched me, which [†] set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands:

11 And he said unto me, O Daniel, ^r [†] a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and [†] stand upright: for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling.

12 Then said he unto me, ^s Fear not, Daniel; for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, ^t thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words.

13 ^u But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, ^x Michael, ^{||} one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia.

14 Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people ^y in the latter days: ^z for yet the vision is for many days.

15 And when he had spoken such words unto me, ^a I set my face toward the ground, and I became dumb.

16 And, behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my [†] lord, by the vision ^b my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength.

17 For how can ^{||} the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me.

18 Then there came again and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me, 19 ^c And said, O man greatly beloved, fear not: peace be unto thee; be strong, yea, be strong. And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

20 Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return to fight ^d with the prince of Persia: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of Grecia shall come.

21 But I will shew thee that which is noted in the scripture of truth: and there is none that [†] holdeth with me in these things, ^e but Michael your prince.

CHAP. XI.

1 The overthrow of Persia by the king of Grecia. 5 Leagues, &c. between the kings of the north and south.

ALSO ^a I, in the first year of ^b Darius the Mede, even I, stood to confirm and to strengthen him.

2 And now will I shew thee the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and by his strength through his riches he shall stir up all against the realm of Grecia.

3 And ^c a mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his will.

4 And when he shall stand up, ^d his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the four winds of heaven; and not to his posterity, ^e nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others besides those.

5 ¶ And the king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion.

6 And in the end of years they [†] shall join themselves together; for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make [†] an agreement: but she shall not retain the power of the arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm: but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, ^{||} and he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in these times.

7 But out of a branch of her roots shall one stand up ^{||} in his estate, which shall come with an army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail;

CHAP. I.

1 Hosea, to shew God's judgment for spiritual whoredom, taketh Gomer, 4 and hath by her Jezreel. 10 The restoration of Israel and Judah.

Before CHRIST cir. 786.
THE word of the LORD that came unto Hosea the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

2 The beginning of the word of the LORD by Hosea. And the LORD said to Hosea, ^a Go, take unto thee a wife of whoredoms, and children of whoredoms: for ^b the land hath committed great whoredom, departing from the LORD.

3 So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; which conceived, and bare him a son.

4 And the LORD said unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, ^c and I will [†] avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and will cause to cease the kingdom of the house of Israel.

5 ^d And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel.

6 [¶] And she conceived again, and bare a daughter. And God said unto him, Call her name ^{||} Lo-ruhamah: for [†] I will no more have mercy upon the house of Israel; ^{||} but I will utterly take them away.

7 But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and ^e will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen.

8 [¶] Now, when she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived, and bare a son.

9 Then said God, Call his name ^{||} Lo-ammi: for ye are not my people, and I will not be your God.

Before CHRIST cir. 785.
10 [¶] Yet ^f the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered: ^g and it shall come to pass, that ^{||} in the place where it was said unto them, ^h Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of the living [†] God.

11 ⁱ Then shall the children of Judah and the children of Israel be gathered together, and appoint themselves one head, and they shall come up out of the land: for great shall be the day of Jezreel.

shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away.

4 Yet let no man strive, nor reprove another: for thy people are as they that strive with the priest.

5 Therefore shalt thou fall in the day, and the prophet also shall fall with thee in the night, and I will † destroy thy mother.

6 ¶ My people are † destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

7 As they were increased, so they sinned against me: ^d therefore will I change their glory into shame.

8 They eat up the sin of my people, and they † set their heart on their iniquity.

9 And there shall be, ^e like people, like priest: and I will † punish them for their ways, and † reward them their doings.

10 For ^f they shall eat, and not have enough: they shall commit whoredom, and shall not increase; because they have left off to take heed to the LORD.

11 Whoredom, and wine, and new wine, take away the heart.

12 ¶ My people ask counsel at their stocks, and their staff declareth unto them: for ^g the spirit of whoredoms hath caused them to err, and they have gone a whoring from under their God.

13 ^h They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks, and poplars, and elms, because the shadow thereof is good: ⁱ therefore your daughters shall commit whoredom, and your spouses shall commit adultery.

14 ¶ I will not punish your daughters when they commit whoredom, nor your spouses when they commit adultery; for themselves are separated with whores, and they sacrifice with harlots: therefore the people that doth not understand shall ¶ fall.

15 ¶ Though thou, Israel, play the harlot, yet let not Judah offend; ^k and come not ye unto Gilgal, neither go ye up to ^l Beth-aven, ^m nor ⁿ swear, The LORD liveth.

16 For Israel slideth back as a backsliding heifer: now the LORD will feed them as a lamb in a large place.

17 Ephraim is joined to idols: let him alone.

18 Their drink [†] is sour; they have committed whoredom continually: ^o her [†] rulers with shame do love, Give ye.

19 The wind hath bound her up in her wings, and ^p they shall be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

CHAP. V.

God's judgments against the priests, the people, and the princes of Israel, for their manifold sins, until they repent.

HEAR ye this, O priests; and hearken, ye house of Israel; and give ye ear, O house of the king; for judgment is toward you, because ye have been a snare on Mizpah, and a net spread upon Tabor.

2 And the revolvers are profound to make slaughter, ¶ though I have [¶] been [†] a rebuker of them all.

3 ^a I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hid from me: for now, O Ephraim, thou committest whoredom, and Israel is defiled.

4 [†] ¶ They will not frame their doings to turn unto their God: for ^b the spirit of whoredoms is in the midst of them, and they have not known the LORD.

5 And ^c the pride of Israel doth testify to his face: therefore shall Israel and Ephraim fall in their iniquity; Judah also shall fall with them.

6 ^d They shall go with their flocks and with their herds to seek the LORD; but they shall not find him: he hath withdrawn himself from them.

7 They have dealt treacherously against the LORD; for they have begotten strange children: now shall ^e a month devour them with their portions.

8 ^f Blow ye the cornet in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah: cry aloud at Beth-aven, after thee, O Benjamin.

9 Ephraim shall be desolate in the day of rebuke: among the tribes of Israel have I made known that which shall surely be.

10 The princes of Judah were like them that ^g remove the bound: therefore I will pour out my wrath upon them like water.

1 An exhortation to repentance: 4 A complaint for persisting in wickedness.

COME, and let us return unto the LORD: for ^a he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

2^b After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.

3 Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and ^c he shall come unto us ^d as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.

4 ¶ ^e O Ephraim, what shall I do unto thee? O Judah, what shall I do unto thee? for your || goodness is ^f as a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away.

5 Therefore have I hewed them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth: || and thy judgments are as the light that goeth forth.

6 For I as desired ^g mercy, and ^h not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God more than burnt-offerings.

7 But they, || like men, ⁱ have transgressed the covenant: there have they dealt treacherously against me.

8 ^k Gilead is a city of them that work iniquity, and is || polluted with blood.

9 And as troops of robbers wait for a man, so ^l the company of priests murder in the way † by consent: for they commit || lewdness.

10 I have seen an horrible thing in the house of Israel: there is the whoredom of Ephraim, Israel is defiled.

11 Also, O Judah, ^m he hath set an harvest for thee, when I returned the captivity of my people.

CHAP. VII.

1 Israel reproved for manifold sins.
11 God's wrath against them for their hypocrisy.

WHEN I would have healed Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim was discovered, and the † wickedness of Samaria: for they commit falsehood; and the thief cometh in, and the troop of robbers † spoileth without:

2 And they † consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness: now their own doings have beset them about; they are before my face.

3 They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes
^a with their lies.

4 They are all adulterers, as an oven heated by the baker, || who ceaseth || from raising after he hath kneaded the dough, until it be leavened.

5 In the day of our king the princes have made him sick || with bottles of wine: he stretched out his hand with scorners.

6 For they have || made ready their heart like an oven, whiles they lie in wait: their baker sleepeth all the night; in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire.

7 They are all hot as an oven, and have devoured their judges: ^b all their kings are fallen; ^c there is none among them that calleth unto me.

8 Ephraim, he ^d hath mixed himself among the people: Ephraim is a cake not turned.

9 Strangers have devoured his strength, and he knoweth it not; yea, gray hairs are † here and there upon him, yet he knoweth not.

10 And the ^e pride of Israel testi-fieth to his face; and they do not return to the LORD their God, nor seek him for all this.

11 ¶ ^f Ephraim also is like a silly dove without heart: ^g they call to Egypt, they go to Assyria.

12 When they shall go, I will spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven;
I will chastise them, as their congregation hath heard.

13 Woe unto them! for they have fled from me: † destruction unto them! because they have transgressed against me: though I have redeemed them, yet they have spoken lies against me.

14 ^h And they have not cried unto me with their heart, when they howled upon their beds: they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me.

15 Though I || have bound and strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mischief against me,

Ephraim shall bring forth his children to the murderer.

14 Give them, O LORD: what wilt thou give? give them ^a a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.

15 All their wickedness ^u is in Gilgal; for there I hated them: for the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of mine house, I will love them no more: ^x all their princes are revolvers.

16 Ephraim is smitten, their root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit; yea, though they bring forth, yet will I slay even [†] the beloved fruit of their womb.

17 My God will cast them away, because they did not hearken unto him: and they shall be wanderers among the nations.

CHAP. X.

Israel is reprov'd and threatn'd for their impiety and idolatry.

ISRAEL ^a is ^{||} an empty vine, he bringeth forth fruit unto himself: according to the multitude of his fruit ^b he hath increased the altars: according to the goodness of his land they have made goodly [†] images.

2 ^{||} Their heart is divided; now shall they be found faulty: he shall [†] break down their altars, he shall spoil their images.

3 ^c For now they shall say, We have no king, because we feared not the LORD; what then should a king do to us?

4 They have spoken words, swearing falsely in making a covenant: thus judgment springeth up ^d as hemlock in the furrows of the field.

5 The inhabitants of Samaria shall fear because of the calves of Beth-aven: for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and ^{||} the priests thereof that rejoiced on it, ^e for the glory thereof, because it is departed from it.

6 It shall be also carried unto Assyria for a present to ^f king Jareb: Ephraim shall receive shame, and Israel shall be ashamed ^g of his own counsel.

7 ^h As for Samaria, her king is cut off as the foam upon [†] the water.

8 The high places also of Aven, the sin of Israel, shall be destroyed: the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; ⁱ and they shall say to the mountains, Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us.

9 ^m O Israel, thou hast sinned from the days of Gibeah; there they stood:

the battle in Gibeah against the children of iniquity did not overtake them.

10 It is in my desire that I should chastise them; and ⁿ the people shall be gathered against them, ^{||} when they shall bind themselves in their two furrows.

11 ^o And Ephraim is as an heifer that is taught, and loveth to tread out the corn; but I passed over upon [†] her fair neck: I will make Ephraim to ride; Judah shall plough, and Jacob shall break his clods.

12 ^p Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; ^q break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the LORD, till he come and rain righteousness upon you.

13 ^r Ye have plowed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of lies: because thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men.

14 ^s Therefore shall a tumult arise among thy people, and all thy fortresses shall be spoiled, as Shalman spoiled ^t Beth-arbel in the day of battle: ^u the mother was dashed in pieces upon her children.

15 So shall Beth-el do unto you because of [†] your great wickedness: in a morning shall the king of Israel utterly be cut off.

CHAP. XI.

1 The ingratitude of Israel unto God for his benefits: ⁵ his judgment.

WHEN Israel was a child, then I loved him, and ^a called ^b my son out of Egypt.

2 As they called them, so they went from them: they sacrificed unto Baalim, and burnt incense to graven images.

3 I taught Ephraim also to go, taking them by their arms; but they knew not that I healed them.

4 I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love; and I was to them as they that [†] take off the yoke on their jaws, and I laid meat unto them.

5 [¶] ^c He shall not return into the land of Egypt, but the Assyrian shall be his king, because they refused to return.

6 And the sword shall abide on his cities, and shall consume his branches, and devour them, ^d because of their own counsels.

7 And my people are bent to backsliding from me: ^e though they called them to the most High, [†] none at all would exalt him.

9 I will not execute the fierceness of mine anger, I will not return to destroy Ephraim: ⁱfor I am [†]God, and not man; the Holy One in the midst of thee; and I will not enter into the city.

10 They shall walk after the LORD; ^khe shall roar like a lion: when he shall roar, then the children shall tremble from the west.

11 They shall tremble as a bird out of Egypt, ^land as a dove out of the land of Assyria: and I will place them in their houses, saith the LORD.

12 Ephraim compasseth me about with lies, and the house of Israel with deceit: but Judah yet ruleth with [†]God, and is faithful with ^{||}the saints.

CHAP. XII.

1 Ephraim and Judah reproved. 3 In consideration of God's former favours to Jacob they are exhorted to repent.

EPHRAIM feedeth on wind, and followeth after the east wind: he daily increaseth lies and desolation; ^aand they do make a covenant with the Assyrians, and ^boil is carried into Egypt.

2 ^cThe LORD hath also a controversy with Judah, and will [†]punish Jacob according to his ways; according to his doings will he recompense him.

3 [¶]He took his brother ^dby the heel in the womb, and by his strength he [†]had power with God:

4 Yea, he had power over the angel, and prevailed; he wept, and made supplication unto him: he found him in ^fBeth-el, and there he spake with us;

5 Even the LORD God of hosts; The LORD is his ^gmemorial.

6 ^hTherefore turn thou to thy God: keep mercy and judgment, and wait on thy God continually.

7 [¶]He is ^{||}a merchant, the balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to ^{||}oppress.

8 And Ephraim said, ⁱYet I am become rich, I have found me out substance: ^{||}in all my labours they shall find none iniquity in me [†]that were sin.

9 And ^kI; that am the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt, ^lI will yet make thee to dwell in tabernacles, as in the days of the solemn feasts.

10 I have also spoken by the prophets; and I have multiplied visions, and used similitudes, [†]by the ministry of the prophets.

11 ^m*Is there iniquity in* Gilead? surely they are vanity: they sacrifice bullocks in ⁿGilgal; yea, ^otheir altars are as heaps in the furrows of the fields.

12 And Jacob ^pfled into the country of Syria; and Israel ^qserved for a wife, and for a wife he kept sheep.

13 ^rAnd by a prophet the LORD brought Israel out of Egypt, and by a prophet was he preserved.

14 Ephraim provoked him to anger [†]most bitterly: therefore shall he leave [†]his blood upon him, ^sand his reproach shall his Lord return unto him.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Ephraim's glory vanisheth by reason of idolatry. 4 God's former care of his people. 9 A promise of God's mercy.

WHEN Ephraim spake trembling, he exalted himself in Israel; but when he offended in Baal, he died.

2 And now [†]they sin more and more, and ^ahave made them molten images of their silver, and idols according to their own understanding, all of it the work of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let ^{||}the men that sacrifice ^bkiss the calves.

3 Therefore they shall be ^cas the morning cloud, and as the early dew that passeth away, ^das the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the floor, and as the smoke out of the chimney.

4 [¶]Yet ^eI am the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt, and thou shalt know no god but me: for ^fthere is no saviour beside me.

5 I did know thee in the wilderness, ^gin the land of [†]great drought.

6 ^hAccording to their pasture, so were they filled: they were filled, and their heart was exalted; therefore ⁱhave they forgotten me.

7 Therefore ^kI will be unto them as a lion: as ^la leopard by the way will I observe them.

8 I will meet them ^mas a bear that is bereaved of her whelps, and will rend the caul of their heart, and there will I devour them like a lion: [†]the wild beast shall tear them.

1 Joel, declaring sundry judgments of God, exhorteth to observe them, 8 and to mourn: 14 he prescribeth solemn fasting and prayer, &c.

12 The vine is dried up, and the fig-tree languisheth ; the pomegranate-tree, the palm-tree also, and the apple-tree, even all the trees of the field, are withered : because [†] joy is withered away from the sons of men.

13 Gird yourselves, and lament, ye priests ; howl, ye ministers of the altar ; come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God : for [§] the meat-offering and the drink-offering is withholden from the house of your God.

BLOW ye the || trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain ; let all the inhabitants of the land tremble : for ^a the day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at hand ; ² ^b A day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains : ^c a great people and a strong ; ^d there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years [†] of many generations.

7 They shall run like mighty men ; they shall climb the wall like men of war ; and they shall march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks :

11 ¹ And the LORD shall utter his voice before his army ; for his camp is very great ; for he is strong that executeth his word : for the ^m day of the LORD is great and very terrible ; and who can abide it ?

12 ¶ Therefore also now, saith the LORD, ⁿ Turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning ;

17 Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep ^z between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O LORD, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should || rule over them: a wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God?

18 ¶ Then will the LORD be jealous for his land, and pity his people.

19 Yea, the LORD will answer and say unto his people, Behold, I will send you corn, and wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith; and I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen:

20 But ^b I will remove far off from you ^c the northern army, and will drive him into a land barren and desolate, with his face ^d toward the east sea, and his hinder part ^e toward the utmost sea; and his stink shall come up, and his ill savour shall come up, because ^f he hath done great things.

21 ¶ Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice: for the LORD will do great things.

22 Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field: for ^f the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth her fruit, the fig-tree and the vine do yield their strength.

23 Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God; for he hath given you || the former rain [†] moderately, and he ^g will cause to come down for you ^h the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month.

24 And the floors shall be full of wheat, and the fats shall overflow with wine and oil.

25 And I will restore to you the years ⁱ that the locust hath eaten, the canker-worm, and the caterpillar, and the palmer-worm, my great army which I sent among you.

26 And ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you: and my people shall never be ashamed.

27 ^k And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the LORD your God, and none else: and my people shall never be ashamed.

28 ¶ ^l And it shall come to pass afterward, that I ^m will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions:

29 And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my Spirit.

30 And ⁿ I will shew wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke.

31 ° The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come.

32 And it shall come to pass, that ^p whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered: for ^q in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in the remnant whom the LORD shall call.

CHAP. III.

1 God's judgments against the enemies of his people: 18 his blessing upon the church.

FOR, behold, in those days, and in that time, when I shall bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem,

2 I will also gather all nations, ^a and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and will plead with them there for my people, and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land.

3 And they have cast lots for my people; and have given a boy for an harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they might drink.

4 Yea, and what have ye to do with me, O Tyre, and Zidon, and all the coasts of Palestine? will ye render me a recompence? and if ye recompense me, swiftly and speedily will I return your recompence upon your own head;

5 Because ye have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly [†] pleasant things.

6 The children also of Judah, and the children of Jerusalem, have ye sold unto [†] the Grecians, that ye might remove them far from their border.

7 Behold, I will raise them out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your recompence upon your own head:

8 And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they shall sell them to the Sabeans, to a people far off: for the LORD hath spoken it.

AMOS.

CHAP. I.

1 When Amos prophesied. 3 God's judgments upon Syria, 6 the Philistines, 9 Tyrus, 11 Edom, 13 and Ammon.

THE words of Amos, ^a who was among the herdmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel ^b in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel, two years before the ^c earthquake.

2 And he said, The LORD will ^d roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the habitations of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of Carmel shall wither.

3 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of ^e Damascus, || and for four, I will not || turn away the punishment thereof; ^f because they have thrashed Gilead with thrashing instruments of iron:

4 ^g But I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, which shall devour the palaces of Ben-hadad.

5 I will break also the bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from || the plain of Aven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from || the house of Eden: and ^h the people of Syria shall go into captivity ⁱ unto Kir, saith the LORD.

6 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of ^k Gaza, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they || carried away captive the whole captivity, to deliver them up to Edom:

7 ^l But I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, which shall devour the palaces thereof:

8 And I will cut off the inhabitant ^m from Ashdod, and him that holdeth the sceptre from Ashkelon: and I will turn mine hand against Ekron: and the remnant of the Philistines shall perish, saith the Lord God.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of ⁿ Tyrus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they delivered up the whole captivity to Edom, and remembered not [†] the brotherly covenant:

10 But I will send a fire on the wall of Tyrus, which shall devour the palaces thereof.

1 God's judgments upon Moab, 4 upon Judah, 6 and upon Israel. 9 God complaineth of Israel's ingratitude.

THUS saith the LORD, For three transgressions of ^a Moab, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he ^b burnt the bones of the king of Edom into lime:

2 But I will send a fire upon Moab, and it shall devour the palaces of Kiriath: and Moab shall die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet:

3 And I will cut off ^c the judge from the midst thereof, and will slay all the princes thereof with him, saith the LORD.

4 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of Judah, and for four,
I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have despised the law of the LORD, and have not kept his commandments, ^d and their lies caused them to err, after the which their fathers have walked:

5 But I will send a fire upon Judah, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem.

6 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of Israel, and for four,
I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because ^e they sold the righteous for silver, and the poor for a pair of shoes;

7 That pant after the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, and turn aside the way of the meek; and

name:

9 ¶ Yet destroyed I the ^g Amorite before them, ^h whose height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I ⁱ destroyed his fruit from above, and his roots from beneath.

10 Also ^k I brought you up from the land of Egypt, and led you forty years through the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite.

11 And I raised up of your sons for prophets, and of your young men for ^l Nazarites. Is it not even thus, O ye children of Israel? saith the LORD.

12 But ye gave the Nazarites wine to drink; and commanded the prophets, ^m saying, Prophecy not.

13 ⁿ Behold, || I am pressed under you, as a cart is pressed that is full of 14 ^o Therefore the flight shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not strengthen his force, neither shall the mighty deliver ^p himself:

15 Neither shall he stand that hand-leth the bow; and he that is swift of foot shall not deliver himself: neither shall he that rideth the horse deliver himself.

16 And he that is ^q courageous among the mighty shall flee away naked in that day, saith the LORD.

hath spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole fami-

CHAP. IV.

1 God reproveth Israel for oppression,
4 for idolatry, 6 and for their incorrigibility.

HEAR this word, ye ^akine of Bashan, that are in the mountain of Samaria, which oppress the poor, which crush the needy, which say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink.
2 ^bThe [†]Lord God hath sworn by his holiness, that, lo, the days shall you away ^cwith hooks, and your posterity with fish-hooks.

3 And ^dye shall go out at the breaches, every cow at that which is before her; and || ye shall cast them

4 ¶ Come to Beth-el, and transgress; at ^eGilgal multiply transgression; and bring your sacrifices every morning,
f and your tithes after [†]three years:

5 ^gAnd [†]offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven, and proclaim and publish the free-offerings; for [†]this liketh you, O ye children of Israel, saith the [†]Lord God.

6 ¶ And I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities; and want of bread in all your places;
yet have ye not returned unto me,
saith the LORD.

7 And also I have withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest: and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered.

8 So two or three cities wandered unto one city, to drink water; but they were not satisfied: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

9 ^hI have smitten you with blasting and mildew: || when your gardens, and your vineyards, and your fig-trees, and your olive-trees, increased, ⁱthe palmer-worm devoured them: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

10 I have sent among you the pestilence, || after the manner of Egypt:
your young men have I slain with the sword, [†]and have taken away your horses; and I have made the stink of your camps to come up unto your nostrils: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

11 I have overthrown some of you, as God overthrew ^kSodom and Gomorrah, [†]and ye were as a firebrand plucked out of the burning: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

12 Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Israel: and because I will do this unto thee, ^mprepare to meet thy God, O Israel.

15 ^l Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: ^m it may be that the Lord God of hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of Joseph.

THUS hath the † Lord God shewed unto me; and, behold, he formed || grasshoppers in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, lo, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings.

3 ^b The LORD repented for this: It shall not be, saith the LORD.

JONAH.

CHAP. I.

1 Jonah sent by God to Nineveh, fleeth to Tarshish: & he is overtaken by a tempest, and discovered; 11 cast into the sea; 17 and swallowed by a fish.

NOW the word of the LORD came unto ^a || Jonah the son of Amittai, saying,

2 Arise, go to Nineveh, that ^b great city, and cry against it; for ^c their wickedness is come up before me.

3 But Jonah ^d rose up to flee unto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD, and went down to ^e Joppa; and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish ^f from the presence of the LORD.

4 ¶ But the LORD ^g sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was ^h like to be broken.

5 Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto his god, and ⁱ cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them: but Jonah was gone down ^j into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep.

6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, call upon thy God, ^k if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.

7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah.

8 Then said they unto him, Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us: What is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou?

9 And he said unto them, I am an Hebrew; and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, which hath made the sea and the dry land.

10 Then were the men ^l exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this? (For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.)

11 ¶ Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea ^m may be calm unto us? (for the sea ⁿ || wrought, and was tempestuous.)

12 And he said unto them, Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you.

13 Nevertheless the men ^o rowed hard to bring it to the land; but they could not: for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them.

14 Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O LORD, hast done as it pleased thee.

15 So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea: and the sea ^p ceased from her raging.

16 Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and ^q offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, and made vows.

THEN Jonah prayed unto the LORD his God out of the fish's belly,

2 And said, I ^acried || by reason of mine affliction unto the LORD, and he heard me; out of the belly of || hell cried I, and thou heardest my voice.

3 For thou hadst cast me into the deep, in the [†]midst of the seas; and the floods compassed me about: ^ball thy billows and thy waves passed over me.

4 ^cThen I said, I am cast out of thy sight; yet I will look again toward thy holy temple.

5 The ^dwaters compassed me about, even to the soul: the depth closed me round about, the weeds were wrapped about my head.

6 I went down to the [†]bottoms of the mountains; the earth with her bars was about me for ever: yet hast thou brought up my life ^efrom || corruption, O LORD my God.

7 When my soul fainted within me I remembered the LORD; and my prayer came in unto thee, into thine holy temple.

8 They that observe ^flying vanities forsake their own mercy.

9 But I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of ^gthanksgiving; I will pay that that I have vowed. ^hSalvation is of the LORD.

10 ¶ And the LORD spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

CHAP. III.

1 Jonah, being sent again, preacheth the overthrow of Nineveh. 5 Upon their repentance, 10 God repenteth him of the evil.

AND the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the second time, saying,

2 Arise, go unto Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee.

3 So Jonah arose, and went unto Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. (Now Nineveh was an [†]exceeding great city of three days' journey.)

4 And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and ^ahe cried, and said, Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown.

5 ¶ So the people of Nineveh ^bbelieved God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.

6 For word came unto the king of Nineveh; and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, ^cand sat in ashes.

7 And he caused it to be proclaimed and [†]published through Nineveh, (by the decree of the king and his [†]nobles,) saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing; let them not feed, nor drink water:

8 But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God; yea, let them turn every one from his evil way, and from ^dthe violence that is in their hands.

9 ^eWho can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

10 ¶ ^fAnd God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

CHAP. IV.

1 Jonah, repining at God's mercy, 4 is reproved by the type of a gourd.

BUT it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry.

2 And he prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying when I was yet in my country? therefore I ^afled before unto Tarshish: for I knew that thou art a ^bgracious [†]God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil.

3 ^cTherefore now, O LORD, take, I beseech thee, my life from me; for ^d*it* is better for me to die than to live.

4 ¶ Then said the LORD, || Doest thou well to be angry?

5 So Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city.

6 And the LORD God prepared a || [†]gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his grief. So Jonah [†]was exceeding glad of the gourd.

7 But God prepared a worm, when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd that it withered.

8 And it came to pass, when the sun did arise, that God prepared a || vehement east wind; and the sun

MICAH.

CHAP. I.

1 When Micah prophesied: 2 he sheweth God's wrath against Jacob for idolatry: 10 he exhorteth to mourning.

THE word of the LORD that came to ^aMicah the Morasthite, in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, ^bwhich he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

2 ¶ [†]Hear, all ye people; ^chearken, O earth, and [†]all that therein is: and let the [†]Lord God be witness against you, the [†]Lord from his holy temple.

3 For, behold, ^dthe LORD cometh forth out of his ^eplace, and will come down, and tread upon the ^fhigh places of the earth.

4 And ^gthe mountains shall be molten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are poured down [†]a steep place.

5 For the transgression of Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? is it not Samaria? and what are the high places of Judah? are they not Jerusalem?

6 ¶ Therefore I will make Samaria ^has an heap of the field, and as plantings of a vineyard; and I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will discover the foundations thereof.

7 And all the graven images thereof shall be beaten to pieces, and all the hires thereof shall be burnt with the fire, and all the idols thereof will I lay desolate: for she gathered it of the hire of an harlot, and they shall return to the hire of an harlot.

8 Therefore ⁱI will wail and howl; ^kI will go stripped and naked: ⁱI will make a wailing like the dragons, and mourning as the [†]owls.

9 For || her wound is incurable; for it is come unto Judah: he is come unto the gate of my people, even to Jerusalem.

10 ¶ ^mDeclare ye it not at Gath, weep ye not at all: in the house of || Aphrah ⁿroll thyself in the dust.

11 Pass ye away, || thou [†]inhabitant of Saphir, having thy ^oshame naked: the inhabitant of || Zaanan came not forth in the mourning of || Beth-ezel; he shall receive of you his standing.

12 For the inhabitant of Maroth || waited carefully for good; but ^pevil came down from the LORD unto the gate of Jerusalem.

13 O thou inhabitant of Lachish, bind the chariot to the swift beast: she is the beginning of the sin to the daughter of Zion; for the transgressions of Israel were found in thee.

14 Therefore shalt thou give presents || to Moresheth-gath: the houses of || Achzib shall be a lie to the kings of Israel.

15 Yet will I bring an heir unto thee, O inhabitant of Mareshah: || he shall come unto Adullam the glory of Israel.

16 Make thee ^qbald, and poll thee for thy delicate children; enlarge thy baldness as the eagle; for they are gone into captivity from thee.

wise an evil, from which ye shall not remove your necks ; neither shall ye go haughtily : for this time is evil.

4 ¶ In that day shall one take up a parable against you, and lament [†] with a doleful lamentation, and say, We be utterly spoiled ; ^a he hath changed the portion of my people : how hath he removed ^{it} from me ! || turning away he hath divided our fields.

5 Therefore thou shalt have none that shall ^e cast a cord by lot in the congregation of the LORD.

6 || [†] Prophesy ye not, say they to them that prophesy : they shall not prophesy to them, that they shall not take shame.

7 ¶ O thou that art named The house of Jacob, is the Spirit of the LORD || straitened ? are these his doings ? do not my words do good to him that walketh [†] uprightly ?

8 Even [†] of late my people is risen up as an enemy : ye pull off the robe [†] with the garment from them that pass by securely as men averse from war.

9 The || women of my people have ye cast out from their pleasant houses ; from their children have ye taken away my glory for ever.

10 Arise ye, and depart ; for this is not your rest : because it is polluted, it shall destroy you, even with a sore destruction.

11 If a man, || walking in the spirit and falsehood, do lie, saying, I will prophesy unto thee of wine and of strong drink ; he shall even be the prophet of this people.

12 ¶ I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of thee ; I will surely gather the remnant of Israel ; I will put them together as the sheep of Bozrah, as the flock in the midst of their fold : they shall make great noise by reason of the multitude of men.

13 The breaker is come up before them : they have broken up, and have passed through the gate, and are gone out by it ; and their king shall pass before them, ^g and the LORD on the head of them.

CHAP. III.

1 The cruelty of the princes, ⁵ and the falsehood of the prophets. 8 The ill-grounded security of them both.

AND I said, Hear, I pray you, O heads of Jacob, and ye princes of the house of Israel ; ^a Is it not for you to know judgment ?

2 Who hate the good, and love the evil ; who pluck off their skin from off them, and their flesh from off their bones :

3 Who also ^b eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them ; and they break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and ^c as flesh within the caldron.

4 Then ^d shall they cry unto the LORD, but he will not hear them : he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings.

5 ¶ Thus saith the LORD ^e concerning the prophets that make my people err, that ^f bite with their teeth, and cry, Peace ; and ^g he that putteth not into their mouths, they even prepare war against him :

6 ^h Therefore night shall be unto you, [†] that ye shall not have a vision ; and it shall be dark unto you, [†] that ye shall not divine ; and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them.

7 Then shall the seers be ashamed, and the diviners confounded ; yea, they shall all cover their [†] lips : for there is no answer of God.

8 ¶ But truly I am full of power by the Spirit of the LORD, and of judgment, and of might, ⁱ to declare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin.

9 Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Jacob, and princes of the house of Israel, that abhor judgment, and pervert all equity.

10 ^k They build up Zion with [†] blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity.

11 ^m The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money : ⁿ yet will they lean upon the LORD, [†] and say, Is not the LORD among us ? none evil can come upon us.

12 Therefore shall Zion for your sake be ^o plowed as a field ; ^p and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jacob ; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths : for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

3 ¶ And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off ; and they shall beat their swords into ^b plough-shares, and their spears into ^b pruning-hooks : nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

4 ^c But they shall sit every man under his vine, and under his fig-tree ; and none shall make them afraid : for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it.

5 For ^d all people will walk every one in the name of his god, and ^e we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.

6 ¶ In that day, saith the LORD, ^f will I assemble her that halteth, and I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted ;

7 And I will make her that ^g halted a remnant, and her that was cast far off a strong nation : and the LORD ^h shall reign over them in mount Zion from henceforth, even for ever.

8 And thou, O tower of the flock, the strong hold of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion ; the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem.

9 Now, why dost thou cry out aloud ? ⁱ is there no king in thee ? is thy counsellor perished ? for pangs have taken thee as a woman in travail.

10 Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail : for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go ^{even} to Babylon ; there shalt thou be delivered ; there the LORD shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies.

11 ¶ Now also many nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye look upon Zion.

12 But they know not the thoughts of the LORD, neither understand they his counsel : for he shall gather them as the sheaves into the floor.

13 ^k Arise and thrash, O daughter of Zion : for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass ; and thou shalt beat in pieces many people : and I will consecrate their

NOW gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops : he hath laid siege against us ; they shall smite the Judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek.

2 But thou, ^a Beth-lehem Ephraim, though thou be little ^b among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be Ruler in Israel ; ^c whose goings forth have been from of old, from [†] everlasting.

3 Therefore will he give them up, until the time that she which travaileth hath brought forth ; then the remnant of his brethren shall return unto the children of Israel.

4 ¶ And he shall stand and ^{||} feed ^{||} in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God ; and they shall abide : for now shall he be great unto the ends of the earth.

5 And this man ^d shall be the peace, when the Assyrian shall come into our land ; and when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him seven shepherds, and eight [†] principal men.

6 And they shall [†] waste the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod ^{||} in the entrances thereof : thus shall he deliver us from the Assyrian, when he cometh into our land, and when he treadeth within our borders.

7 And the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many people ^e as a dew from the LORD, as the showers upon the grass, that tarrieth not for man, nor waiteth for the sons of men.

8 ¶ And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles in the midst of many people as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of ^{||} sheep ; who, if he go through, both treadeth down and teareth in pieces, and none can deliver.

9 Thine hand shall be lifted up upon thine adversaries, and all thine enemies shall be cut off.

1 God's controversy with his people for ingratitude, 6 for ignorance, 10 for injustice, 16 and for idolatry.

HEAR ye now what the LORD saith; Arise, contend thou ||before the ^a mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice.

2 ^b Hear ye, O mountains, ^c the LORD's controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for ^d the LORD hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Israel.

3 O my people, ^e what have I done unto thee? and wherein have I wearied thee? testify against me.

4 ^f For I brought thee up out of the land of ^g Egypt, and redeemed thee out of the house of servants; and I sent before thee Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

5 O my people, remember now what ^h Balak king of Moab consulted, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him from ⁱ Shittim unto Gilgal; that ye may know the righteousness of the LORD.

6 ¶ Wherewith shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before the high God? shall I come before him with burnt-offerings, with calves [†] of a year old?

7 ^k Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? shall I give my first-born for my transgression, the fruit of my [†] body for the sin of my soul?

8 He hath ^l shewed thee, O man, what is good: and what doth the LORD require of thee, but ^m to do justly, and to love mercy, and to [†] walk humbly with thy God?

15 Thou shalt ^r sow, but thou shalt not reap; thou shalt tread the olives, but thou shalt not anoint thee with oil; and sweet wine, but shalt not drink wine.

16 ¶ For || the statutes of ^s Omri are kept, and all the works of the house of ^t Ahab, and ye walk in their counsels; that I should make thee a ||desolation, and the inhabitants thereof an hissing: therefore ye shall bear the reproach of my people.

THE word of the LORD which came unto Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hizkiah, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah.

2 ¶ [†] I will utterly consume all things from off [†] the land, saith the LORD.

3 ^a I will consume man and beast; I will consume the fowls of the heaven, and the fishes of the sea, and ^b the || stumbling blocks with the wicked; and I will cut off man from off the land, saith the LORD.

4 I will also stretch out mine hand upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and ^c I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of ^d the Chemarims with the priests;

5 And them ^e that worship the host of heaven upon the house-tops; and them that worship and ^f that swear || by the LORD, and that swear ^g by Malcham;

6 And ^h them that are turned back from the LORD; and those that have not sought the LORD, nor enquired for him.

7 ⁱ Hold thy peace at the presence of the LORD God; for the day of the LORD is at hand: for ^k the LORD hath prepared a sacrifice, he hath [†] bid his guests.

8 And it shall come to pass in the day of the LORD's sacrifice, that I will [†] punish ^l the princes, and the king's children, and all such as are clothed with strange apparel.

9 In the same day also will I punish all those that leap on the threshold, which fill their masters' houses with violence and deceit.

10 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that there shall be the noise of a cry from the fish-gate, and an howling from the second, and a great crashing from the hills.

11 Howl, ye inhabitants of Maktesh, for all the merchant people are cut down; all they that bear silver are cut off.

12 And it shall come to pass at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with candles, and punish the men that are [†] settled on their lees; [†] that say in their heart, The LORD will not do good, neither will he do evil.

13 Therefore their goods shall become a booty, and their houses a desolation: they shall also build houses, but ^o not inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, but not drink the wine thereof.

14 The great day of the LORD is near, it is near, and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the LORD: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly.

15 ^p That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness,

16 A day of the trumpet and alarm against the fenced cities, and against the high towers.

17 And I will bring distress upon men, that they shall walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the LORD: and their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as the dung.

18 ^q Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the LORD's wrath; but the whole land shall be ^r devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land.

CHAP. II.

1 An exhortation to repentance. 4 The judgment of the Philistines, 8 of Moab and Ammon, 12 of Ethiopiu, 13 of Assyria.

GATHER yourselves together, yea, gather together, O nation ^{||} not desired;

2 Before the decree bring forth, before the day pass as the chaff, before the fierce anger of the LORD come upon you, before the day of the LORD's anger come upon you.

3 Seek ye the LORD, all ye meek of the earth, which have wrought his judgment; seek righteousness, seek meekness: ^a it may be ye shall be hid in the day of the LORD's anger.

4 ¶ For ^b Gaza shall be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation: they shall drive out Ashdod at the noon-day, and Ekron shall be rooted up.

5 Woe unto the inhabitants of the sea-coasts, the nation of the Chere-thites! the word of the LORD is against you; O ^c Canaan, the land of the Philistines, I will even destroy thee, that there shall be no inhabitant.

6 And the sea-coast shall be dwellings and cottages for shepherds, and folds for flocks.

7 And the coast shall be for the remnant of the house of Judah; they shall feed thereupon: in the houses of Ashkelon shall they lie down in the evening: ^{||} for the LORD their God shall visit them, and turn away their captivity.

8 ¶ I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the revilings of the children of Ammon, whereby they have reproached my people, and ^e magnified themselves against their border.

9 Therefore as I live, saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely ^f Moab shall be as Sodom, and ^g the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, ^h even the breeding of nettles, and salt-pits, and a perpetual desolation: the residue of my people shall spoil them, and the remnant of my people shall possess them.

10 This shall they have ⁱ for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the LORD of hosts.

11 The LORD will be terrible unto them: for he will [†] famish all the [†] gods of the earth; and men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the heathen.

12 ¶ ^k Ye Ethiopians also, ye shall be slain by my sword.

13 And he will stretch out his hand against the north, and ^l destroy Assyria; and will make Nineveh a desolation, and dry like a wilderness.

14 And flocks shall lie down in the midst of her, all the beasts of the nations: both the ^{||} cormorant and the bittern shall lodge in the ^{||} upper lintels of it; their voice shall sing in the windows; desolation shall be in
